FOREWORD

India's unending Muslim mayhem (on a daily basis) has not only kept the Muslims permanently terrorised but the country itself traumatised. The minority ruling upper castes (15%) are fond of singing their hate-Muslim song but what is the secret of their hate? The secret is these Brahminical people very much need the "Muslim problem" to keep themselves as rulers. Without the Muslim as their favourite whipping boy, they will be dead. So it is in their interest the "Muslim problem" has to continue. The beauty is the Muslim leadership does not know this secret.

We have exhausted all our words, speaking and writing, on this subject but the country's elite Muslims are not interested in knowing anything.

Muslim masses, however, are wonderful. We are confident they will succeed — once they get themselves freed from the clutches of their elite leadership. That day is nearing.

What is wrong with Indian Muslims?

What is happening to India's Muslims who form the country's single largest community with a 20% population — endowed with a powerful religion?

At the recent Hyderabad Dalit Voice silver jubilee celebration (Aug.12, 2007), some Dalit family members complained that despite DV giving so much support, Muslims are not coming to support it. This is true.

Our representative in Hyderabad, Dr. Yadaiah, said every time the Muslims invited him to their meetings he would never fail but when he invited them there was hardly any response. Barring two leaders of the Tameer-e-Millat (Rahim Qureshi) and Jamate-Islami, other Muslims did not turn up at our Hyderabad function. Even those who came also went away after speaking.

Our Delhi silver jubilee celebration on April 8, 2007 was attended by Syed Shahabuddin and the editor of the Radiance of the Jamate Islami. Other Muslims did not come.

Dalit-Muslim unity

Brother Rahim Qureshi of the Tameer-e-Millat, a friend of the Editor for the past 25 years, in his speech at our Hyderabad meeting called upon the Dalits to join hands with Muslims. In our speech we told him that we were the founders of the Dalit-Muslim unity movement and published a book itself on the subject which was released by the late Moulana Ali Miyan. (Dalit-Muslim Unity, Why & How?, Dr. Ram Nath, DSA-1995).

○ We went round the country several times, meeting Muslim religious leaders — all of whom welcomed the Dalit-Muslim unity but did hardly anything to further the cause.

The Muslim leadership is more interested in Hindu-Muslim unity which is never possible. Will the lamb ever believe the wolf?

Dalits are too willing to join Muslims. They have nothing against them. In fact all their literature and all their speeches are directed only against their Brahminical enemies. They have nothing against Muslims. Yet the Muslim leadership hesitates to join us.

Gujarat Dalit-Muslim unity

In Hyderabad city itself Muslims form about 30% of its population. It was once the capital of the Nizam state. Today the very rulers of Hyderabad are pushed to the old city which is reduced to a vast slum. Over 20 years back, we had taken Bojja Tarakam and other top Dalit leaders of AP to many Muslim gatherings where they promised that the Dalits of Hyderabad would stand by Muslim brothers in any difficulty. But the Muslims did not reciprocate. So much so Hyderabad today has become the epicentre of "terrorism", meaning "Muslim violence". Every Muslim leader of Hyderabad knows us. Hyderabad Urdu papers used to carry our interviews every time we visited the city. But all these are old stories. Today, the Muslim isolation from Dalits is total. This the case all over India.

In the Old Ahmedabad, Dalits and Muslims have been living together since generations. During the 1981 India's first "caste war", we rushed to Ahmedabad and brought about tremendous Dalit-Muslim unity to fight the upper caste Patels who killed the Dalits. But within a couple of years the Hindu terrorist party BJP won over the Dalits and instigated them against Muslims. And the result was the 2002 Gujarat Genocide of over 2,000 Muslims. Why the Muslim leadership failed to keep up the Dalit-Muslim unity brought about in 1981 in which Gujarat Dalit Panther leaders Ramesh Chandra Parmar and Valjibhai Patel were the main actors?

PM fools Muslims

Look, how beautifully Prime Minister Manmohan Singh fooled the Muslims through the Sachar Report which in several words said the rulers have succeeded in converting India into a Hindu Rashtra. In our Editorial of Jan.1, 2007 ("Muslim problem not economic: Sachar report must pave way for Dalit-Muslim unity"), we said it was the cunning Manmohan Singh who master-minded the Sachar Committee to mislead the Muslims.

Muslims are hated, persecuted, jailed, dubbed terrorists and killed in thousands, is it because they are poor? No. Muslims are killed only because they are Muslims. The Muslim problem is not economic or educational. Muslim problem is social and cultural. We have made this point clear hundreds of times.

Muslim problem not economic

But the PM with the help of his jatwala Khatri chairman of the committee, Justice Rajjinder Sachar, succeeded in fooling the elite Muslims and the Sachar report became a talking point at hundreds of Muslim seminars. We attended at least half a dozen such seminars. Sachar committee was aimed at diverting the anger of the revolutionary Muslims and keeping the elite Muslims entertained. The PM and the Brahminical ruling class thus fooled the Muslims. They fooled the Muslims because the Muslims are willing to be fooled.

We repeat: The Muslim problem is not economic but social and cultural. The Sachar Committee had nothing to say on the social and cultural slow death of a community that ruled India for 800 years.

How long this elite Muslims, who are not even 5% of the Muslim population, go on fooling its community?

Look at the latest development. It is now over an year since the Sachar report was presented. Except discussions, seminars and shedding of crocodile tears over Muslims, nothing has been done. The PM and his Parliamentary Affairs Minister, Priyaranjan Das Munshi, blocked the presentation of an action taken report by the Minister in charge, Antulay, himself a Muslim. Antulay does not have even a proper office despite being a cabinet minister. The treatment given to Antulay shows how the ruling upper castes treat the Muslims. But the Muslims are not getting angry.

Another committee on Sachar Report

Now the Prime Minister has come up with another brain-wave to further fool the Muslims: set up another committee to examine the Sachar Committee report. It will be called "Equal Opportunities Commission" to hoodwink the Muslims. But many upper castes will get kushy job for 2-3 years headed by Dr. N.R. Madhav Menon, a Malayali upper caste Nair.

Why another committee on the Sachar committee? The Brahminical game plan is when you want to kill something se up a committee.

Look how the Sri Krishna Commission report on the Shiv Sena-led mass murder of Muslims in Bombay was simply thrown to waste paper basket.

Muslims are being continuously deceived even as thousands and thousands of innocent Muslims are rotting in the jail for years.

The just released Abdul Nasser Madani of Kerala is the standing example of the anti-Muslim attitude of the Indian ruling class which includes our Hindu judiciary also.

Confusion in UP

We have written thousands of pages on the Muslims. But that is in English. We have no access to the Muslim masses. India's single largest community is condemned as anti-national. But there is no murmur from the condemned community. Look at UP, India's politically most important state which has a heavy Muslim presence.

Dalits (23%), the "most wretched community", has a party (BSP). Brahmins who were first in Congress shifted to BJP but are now in BSP. When Dalits can form a party why not Muslims?

UP Muslims make up about 18.5% of the population. But Yadavs who are just 7% used the MY (Muslim-Yadav) unity stunt under Mulayam and ruled the state thrice. Kurmis have Apna Dal.

Every jati is having its own party in UP. But Muslims run around six parties — without having their own.

Kerala with a population of 25% Muslims has a party of their own (Muslim League). Without their support no Hindu party can form a govt. But look at West Bengal which has a bigger (25.5%) Muslim population. But Bengali Muslims, who once ruled Bengal, are today a totally pauperised lot.

Muslim masses are being taken for a ride by their own elites.
