Introduction

The fair-skinned foreigners, the Aryan babarians, who strayed into India came into clash with India's dark-skinned indigenous population - the Untouchables. Today, the same Untouchables are officially called Scheduled Castes (20%), Scheduled Tribes (10%) and Backward Castes (35%) - (SC/ST/BCs) - in all forming over 65% of India's 1,000 million population. The alien intruders clashed with the indigenous people, the inheritors of the great glorious Indus Valley Civilisation, and gradually clamped their brahminical social order (BSO) to enslave the natives. But the natives were soon saved by their saviour, Gautama Buddha, whose egalitarian religion of Buddhism they all embraced en masse to save themselves from Aryan aggression. To defeat the Buddha and Buddhism, the Aryans/Hindu castes - the world's original racists - used violence and several cunning strategies and tactics. (Dalit Voice editorial Feb. 1 1992: "Brahminism defeats us through strategies and tactics").

The Aryan Brahmins giving up their most favourite food, beef, which was then exclusively reserved for them, and becoming vegetarians was one such supreme strategy to defeat Buddhism. Adi Shankara, a Namboodari Brahmin from Kerala, re-established the supremacy of brahminism mainly using violence to kill and destroy the liberating religion of Buddhism which by then had spread over the whole of India and Asia. Since then the BSO has been using different strategies and tactics to keep itself as the ruling class though the brahminical forces as such never directly ruled the country as a whole. India was ruled by Buddhists for 1, 000 years, Muslims for 800 years and Christians (British) for another 250 years. Though the BSO did defeat Buddhism, BSO could not rule India. Not only the BSO could not rule but throughout the rule of Buddhists, Muslims and Christians, the brahminical forces suffered and suffered and yet survived like a cockroach.

The chance to rule India at last came in 1947 when the Aryans/Hindus/upper castes managed to oust a section of Muslims into a separate country (Pakistan) to establish their brahminical hegemony. But even then the BSO could not succeed because Babasaheb Ambedkar, who came as the saviour of Buddhism and the enslaved children of the soil - SC/ST/BCs - brought in democracy incorporating it in the Constitution of India, thereby ensuring that the BSO comprising less than 15% of the Indian population remained as a mere minority. At this crucial juncture, the only thing that provided a lifesaving drug to brahminism/sanatanism/aryanism/ Vaidik Dharma was socialism/communism/marxism which the BSO devoured and digested. Jawaharlal Nehru was the king of this fake socialists/communists/marxists.

The weak but cunning brahminical forces quickly devised new strategies and tactics - and got themselves divided into two neat camps. They struck upon a marvelous plan to hoodwink the masses. They created two neat camps and very effectively fooled the masses (Dalit Voice Feb. 16 1992: "Why DV did not criticise Nazi Ekta Yatra?"). The two camps are: (1) Those opposing socialism/marxism and (2) those supporting it. What follows is a dialogue between these two camps discribed as "sacred brahmins "and " socialist brahmins".

When we refer to the name "brahmins" in the two camps, we don't mean the Brahmins belonging to the first of the four-fold varna system. By sacred brahmins or socialist brahmins we don't mean the born-Brahmins though some of them may form part of it. For example Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, the "Father of the Nation", is not a Brahmin but a born Vaishya (Bania) forming the third layer of the BSO. Still we put him under the socialist brahmins. The person who killed M.K.

Gandhi, a Chitpavan Brahmin, comes under the sacred brahmins. The late Sarvodaya leader, Jayaprakash Narayan (JP), a Kayasth and a shudra, comes under the socialist brahmins. So too the West Bengal marxist shudra chief Minister, Jyoti Basu.

So, it is clear that the two terms - "socialist brahmins" and "sacred brahmins" - do not refer exclusively to born Brahmins. The two terms essentially refer to the policies and practices pursued by the BSO which has artificially though not consciously divided itself into two camps to deceive and dupe the non-Hindu, non-Aryan original inhabitants of India forming over 85% of its population.

Of the two, we like the sacred brahmins who as our open enemy are a harmless lot. The sacred brahmins or the orthodox vaidiks do not interfere with our lives. The sacred brahmins confine themselves to their pujas, temple rituals, study of their sacred scriptures and keep a strict distance from the non-Hindus. Since they are part of the BSO, they don't mix with those outside the BSO. Whole of their day is governed by the brahminical rule of purity and pollution and hence they keep themselves away from us. They neither love the non-Hindus nor hate them. They live in their own little world. And that is why we like them.

We would have been happy if the entire BSO comprising less than 15% of the population had emulated the sacred brahmins. But the more cunning and crafty members of the BSO like M.K. Gandhi conspired that Untouchables should be admitted into their Hindu temples which have nothing to do with Untouchables as our people are not Hindus and never Hindus, and created all the confusion and tension.

On one side Gandhi and the slimy socialist brahmins, annoyed the honest sacred brahmins and on the other they interfered with the exclusive life of the Untouchables by trying to "hinduise" our people. The unquestioned leader of Untouchables, Babasaheb Ambedkar, called this a gandhian bid to enslave us. So, Gandhi was hated by non-Hindus on one side and sacred brahmins like B.G. Tilak, Savarkar, Moonje etc. who finally eliminated the Mahatma. (Why Godse Killed Gandhi? 1986, DSA).

We are giving just one example of the confusion and chaos created in the country by the socialist brahmins.

The theory of sacred brahmins vs. the socialist brahmins was first propounded in our book, Why Godse Killed Gandhi? Since the theory became so popular and convincing, we thought a full-fledged book is needed to go into the details of the havoc caused by the socialist brahmins in their mock fight against sacred brahmins. Hence this book.

A word of caution. Readers should note that the whole thing is written in a lighter vein so that even the right-thinking, humour-loving Aryans and even non-Aryans who are referred to in harsh terms should enjoy it. And laugh at themselves. And correct themselves if they want to. A country cannot be governed by mere strategies and tactics. Gimmicks. When everybody comes to know these strategies and tactics, they will no more work. This is the warning.

The book runs in the form of a dialogue between the sacred and the socialist brahmins.

Dialogue of the Bhoodevatas

SACRED BRAHMINS

SOCIALIST BRAHMINS

What has been going on in India not only since "independence" (1947) but even before is nothing but a mock fight between two sections of upper castes whom we have divided into socialist brahmins and sacred brahmins. Though both belong to the same brahminical social order (BSO), the rest of the country has been made to believe and console itself as if this is a fight between the "progressives" and the "reactionaries", between the "rightists" and the "leftists", between one political ideology and the other. The socialist brahmins prior to "independence" and even later for some time were led by Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru and subsequently by Nehru's daughter, Indira Gandhi. The sacred brahmins were led by the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) and its political wing, Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP). Both the sacred and the socialist sections are made of the same stuff. The difference is in the form, the content remaining the same.

Bhoodevatas : The socialist brahmins have been advising the sacred brahmins that a section of them has to put on some false faces to deceive the SC/ST/BCs and Muslims/Christians/Sikhs. One such advice is that the BSO should pretend, only just pretend, that it is parting with a small portion of its vast property, privileges and positions in the interest of saving the BSO. The socialist brahmins have been impressing the sacred brahmins that the country from the beginning of history belonged only to the bhoodevatas (gods on earth) and none else. BSO has been enjoying all the properties, posts, pleasures, positions and privileges but unfortunately with the coming of the British the doors of educational institutions (hitherto barred to 95% of the country's population) were opened to the lowly shudras and Untouchables (Scheduled Castes, Tribals, Backward Castes) and that inspired these deadly foes of brahminism to aspire for the forbidden fruit.

Education opened the eyes of the enemies of Aryans and this led to rising aspirations. Their covetous eyes fell on the exclusive brahminical monopolies. And they too started aspiring for positions, privileges and properties.

Perils of democracy: The cries of socialism, secularism, democracy made them crazy. The hungry mob of the shudras and Untouchables can no more be checked. Added to this misery came this bloody Constitution along with "independence", assuring one man one vote. Every ill-born idiot is given one vote, irrespective of his status or birth. Even an unlettered fool, a street prostitute got the vote. Democracy to the dogs. That means anybody mustering the highest vote will get elected. Since "Hindu India" is divided on the basis of castes and sub-castes, one who belongs to the numerically large jati automatically gets elected. Who will vote for the holy and the hoary who has no caste-backing? By this, the worst hit will be the bhoodevatas. Brahmins, the chosen people born to rule these idiots, are not even 3%. Who will vote for them? Parliamentary democracy has come as the greatest curse to the children of Manu. In one sweep the bhoodevatas have been politically wiped out, at least in those areas where "caste feelings" are acute and consciousness is on the high side.

Meritless idiots: The cunning sections among the bhoodevatas quickly scented this danger. Adding insult to injury this cursed marxism/communism/socialism assured equality to the undeserving, meritless morons born in the gutter, thus further eroding the monopoly of the heaven-born. What to do? How to silence the cries of these brainless idiots on war-path?

The Wretched of the Earth

The Western people taught all types of dangerous things to the slaves including "human rights", unheard of in Hindu India. And these "Wretched of the Earth", who had never tasted what is freedom and known what are called rights, have now started talking of human rights, civil rights. What a horrible thing!

The cake is so small that even with all their sacred scriptures preaching satya, dharma, sama bhava, the bhoodevatas themselves were not able to agree on the equal distribution of this cake even between the twice-born themselves.

"Poor Brahmins:" With all their knowledge, craftiness, the tremendous power and wealth they enjoyed, quite a number of "poor brahmins" were still left to fend for themselves. Brahmin cooks, hotel servants, petty clerks, temple archakas were there in plenty.

Gandhi saved Hinduism

A section of the bhoodevatas invited Mohandas Karmchand Gandhi from South Africa and conferred the title of Mahatma on this crafty Gujarati Bania who conducted "a freedom movement" so that the bhoodevatas could become the rulers of this land. Gandhi did exceedingly well. Though not a holy Brahman but a Vaishya born of papayoni he served the BSO loyally. But for him Hinduism itself would have been dead and BSO cut to pieces. But even before they could install themselves as rulers of the land, the land under their feet started slipping.

Even before they could solve their own "poverty", there came democracy and with it the nonsense of socialism. What to do? Will it sound the death knell of brahminism?

The bhoodevatas were worried but they were confident of circumventing all the hurdles.

But the honest brahmins or the sacred brahmins can't be convinced. They said that democracy itself is nonsense and socialism is a still bigger nonsense. Both democracy and socialism are alien concepts and meant to destroy the great edifice of Sanatana Dharma.

They are not only a dangerous device but a pernicious mischief to destroy the bhoodevatas and all that they stood for since the days of the Vedas.

Gandhi made Mahatma: What will happen to the "sacred scriptures", the God's own sacred language of Sanskrit in which the scriptures are written? The sacred temples and holy places in which they are preserved and worshipped? The holy men who are reciting them from ages? What will happen to the concept of private property that nourished and sustained this trinity of holy scriptures, holy places and the holy men? What will happen to the vast temple properties that are exclusively at the disposal of the bhoodevatas? What will happen to all that they have so assiduously and painstakingly built from centuries? What a fall my countrymen? What has happened to this country? This Gandhi, whom they brought from South Africa, built up his own personality. After getting the title of Mahatma, he proved to be a real danger. Even after killing him, the trouble for the bhoodevatas is not over.

Mischief of Dr. Ambedkar: The sacred brahmins were really worried. They saw the end of the "brahman era" even before it began.

The bhoodevatas had thought that the "British imperialism" would be replaced by "brahminical imperialism". But Dr.B.R.Ambedkar brought a Constitution which served as a direct onslaught on their very value system. Sacred brahmins saw darkness everywhere. They shuddered at their impending doom. How soon the world is coming to an end! What a tragedy!

Beef-eating Brahmans

All the finer aspects of life were crumbling before their very eyes. The holy Hindu India, well known for its satya, dharma, nyaya turned into a land of pishachis. Sacred scriptures no more commanded that awe-inspiring respect. Holy men no more attracted that single-minded devotion and reverence. Holy places were no more attractive. Brahmins started forgetting Sanskrit. Westernised Brahmins started eating beef.

Brahmin priests manning these holy places started selling the very temple idols - their own gods and goddesses, once the cynosure of all eyes - to the antique dealer for export. Corruption started killing the holy Brahmin.

Temple entry: Bhoodevatas had brought Gandhi but he soon started playing the mischief. Untouchables got emboldened to enter the Brahmin holy precincts and pollute the atmosphere. It was sickening. Sanskrit, the language of Gods, came to be recited on the roadside.

In some places, even the monopoly of hereditary priesthood exclusively reserved for Brahmins was broken and stupid shudras started manning the temples as archakas. Can there be a greater fall my countrymen?

Modern, westernised education led to "rational thinking" and this "rationalism" led to science. And science killed the myth and myth-makers who had assiduously manufactured the Ramayana and Mahabharat, epics to inject fear into the hearts of the lowly. The once strong, impregnable fortress started crumbling and there was confusion all-round. What a fall?

Tight-pant girls: The honest or the sacred brahmins "thought" it is better to commit suicide than seeing before their own cursed eyes their very sons throwing off the "sacred thread", taking to beef, fish, chicken, meat and pork and coming home drunk. Nay. They have started marrying shudra girls and sometimes foreigners, and settling in the unholy Christian (West) lands refusing to come back to this sacred land. Brahmin women once confined to home and sweet home, in the kitchen, started wearing jeans. They ride motor cycles and sit with all sorts of dirty shudras and even Muslims. They started working as clerks, stenographers and secretaries to Muslims and shudra bosses. Ram, Ram, Ram. Shantam-papam, shantam-papam.

Brahmin houses were literally on fire. People started questioning the holy Brahmin. They started making fun of the revered, time-honoured customs, manners and traditions. The Brahmin became the object of ridicule.

Thread - cutting: The godless Dravida Kazhagam people in Tamil Nadu, a lump of idiotic shudras headed by E.V.Ramaswami Naicker (called Periyar by his people) started cutting the Brahmin "sacred thread" and even his tuft. And this was praised in the press and public. The Brahmins had no courage to protest against such a sacrilege. The deafening cries for abolition of caste system started becoming louder and louder. It has become a fashion to berate the Brahmin, and everything he represented. And some Brahmins themselves started resorting to this Brahmin-baiting to get cheap popularity.

Untouchable bosses: Constitutional (job) reservations opened the floodgates of opportunities to the undeserving Untouchables devoid of merit and efficiency and quite a number of these with impure blood came as IAS, IPS officers to boss over the bhoodevatas.

The curse of Kaliyuga

The bhoodevatas have been always supreme, commanding everybody's obedience and reverence. But the freedom that came to India in 1947 first killed the freedom of the bhoodevatas. What an affront to the bhoodevatas? How dare anybody question the omniscient, the omnipotent bhoodevata?

Brahmins as shoe-makers : What is the use of living in this mad, mad world? Temples started losing the once faithful, obedient clientele. The once well-annointed idols started gathering dirt and cobwebs in museums, and others found refuge in antique shops. Brahmins had to find pastures anew to earn their bread. Quite a number of them started shoe-making and selling shoes in the Bata Shoe Co., a forbidden profession. Quite a number of them took to degrading, if not forbidden, professions like liquor-selling, running non-vegetarian hotels.

The great lovers of ahimsa (non-violence) became surgeons dissecting human body, fisheries experts, took to liquor business. What a fall to the pious Brahman! Can such a thing happen to the bhoodevatas? Has anybody imagined that the holy Brahman will sink to this level? The "glorious heritage of Bharat", the fine arts and culture were thrown to the gutters. Shudras and Untouchables, the wretched and the idiots, infiltrated into the once closely guarded preserve of the Brahmins. Literature, dance, drama, music, painting and all the fine arts came to be crowded with the dirty dozens, the wretched of the earth. It is better to die than see this wholesale destruction of the Holy Bharat, the holiest of the holy lands on earth.

Gods in our pocket: The sacred brahmins beating their breasts cried: "From centuries we were ruling this country calling ourselves bhoodevatas, keeping the gods in our pockets, threatening everybody else. But today what has happened to us, the chosen people? This is Kaliyuga. And this Kaliyuga has come as a curse to us. We became its first victim."

Enter socialist brahmins: The socialist brahmins consoled them again: "Look, we fully agree with you. We understand your plight. After all, you are our own people. We know that our tribe as a whole is facing extinction. We endorse each and every word of what you say."

The sacred brahmins were sullen and unconvinced. Angry.

The socialist brahmins continued: Do you want our position to be further eroded and our tribe get lynched wholesale and annihilated in toto? You sacred brahmins, we love you. There is no difference between we two. You are flesh of our flesh, bone of our bone. Both of us are made of the same stuff. But we have deliberately put on this socialist garb as a strategy. In fact, we are protecting and promoting brahminism better than you.

Natak Company

Sacred brahmins: But we are scarred. We are worried. We are always a secluded people. We kept ourselves away from others to maintain our purity, our sacred elevated status. But you degraded us. Our japa-tapa, our achara-vichara, our smriti and shruti cannot be taken to the streets. We are really worried.

Socialist brahmins: We understand and appreciate your anger and anguish. Because we are also part of you. Our fathers, uncles, cousins continue to be sacred brahmins. We didn't say that you also join us giving up your sacred duties. We never said that. But what we say is that if all of us sing your tune, we will be in trouble.

Your words and actions will only anger the wretched shudra slaves and the rest will be much more angry. They will simply eat us. So we have to set up a natak company to deceive these idiots. We have to do some acting. That means we two have to quarrel only during the day but in the night we must eat together and sleep together. We will be fully with you but to fool these brainless idiots we have to do some acting. We must manufacture our own Opposition party. That is all. So listen to us.

We will show you a way-out. Don't mistake us. Please listen to us. You believe us. You trust us. Only we can rescue brahmanwad. Not you.

Look there. A hungry mob is waiting outside, yelling, clenching its fist. It knows that we have been having a gala feast inside our house. It also knows that we have been having this whole house (country) for ourselves. You must know we are only a handful. Numerically, we bhoodevatas are less than 4%. We may be even 3%. The BSO put together may be about 10 or 15%.

Killer Parasurama : You must know these facts. We are just a handful. Less than 4% of the total population of India. And yet we have been occupying the whole house—all the bedrooms, basement, terrace, garden, lawns, outhouse and everything. The other members of our social order (BSO) are also not fully with us. The shudras are also our deadly enemies. The Kshatriyas have not forgotten the wholesale slaughter of their community by our man Parasurama. We ridiculed the Baniyas (Vaishyas) saying they are born out of papayoni. That means the BSO itself is not united. When we are a house divided how can we face the non-Hindu majority? So we beg you. Don't call our democracy stupid. Don't criticise our democracy, socialism, secularism. These sweet-sounding words and concepts were introduced at our initiative to deceive the shudras and atishudras. These are only high-sounding words to dupe them. We can dupe them because we are the people to implement them. We must give lavish promises. What do we lose?

The Constitution provided for abolition of untouchability. But did we implement it? No. See how honest we are. We went on promising in the Constitution free, universal, compulsory primary education. But did we implement it? No. See how honest we are.

All these assurances are necessary to lull the idiots to sleep. So far these idiots were either blind, sick, asleep or in a coma. They were starving, naked, famished, dying of malnutrition, quarreling between themselves. What have they gained by this little literacy drive and advent of democracy (one man one vote)? Nothing. As long as we are in decision-making places we have nothing to worry.

Hungry mob: We must go on promising. These idiots will go on believing us. Once they believe us, we proceed and cheat them. But if you don't give even false promises, these sweet things and throw at least some crumbs and bones, these hungry shudras and ati-shudras will join hands with Muslims and pounce on us.

Idli-sambar boys

They have come to know that we bhoodevatas are having a feast inside. If you don't throw at least some bones and skin to the mob outside, this hungry and angry mob may crash in and kill us.

Bloodshed: That is why your policies are dangerous. You say we should give them nothing. You say that we alone should eat, drink, sleep and enjoy. That (sacred brahmin) theory will lead to bloodshed and there will be wholesale violence. That is why we always talk of "Mahatma" Gandhi and non-violence. This is just to fool them. What we mean is non-violence for them and violence for us. But we should not say this. We must always talk of non-violence while practicing ruthless violence on these wretched slaves.

Chaddi boys: Yet another advice. You, sacred brahmins have a habit of sending your chaddi boys to fight these idiots and slaves. Why send our own chaddi boys? Can our grass-eating idli-sambhar boys fight the sturdy beef-eating slaves? So, listen to us. Whenever the slaves trouble us, we will send the police and military to tackle the rebellious slaves. Do you know who are these police constables and military jawans? They are none but those recruited from the slaves and the wretched. The two sections of slaves will fight and one slave will die. Whoever dies it is only a slave. Is it not profitable to us? So don't send our chaddi boys to fight the slaves. This habit must stop. We are not a martial race. Idli-sambar people can't fight. That is why we have manufactured the ahimsa (non- violence) theory.

The slaves and the wretched idiots are in millions. But we are a handful. Fortunately, they have no arms and we through our gandhian mantra of ahimsa have succeeded in keeping them disarmed.

True character of Brahman

You must know literacy is slowly going up and this has made them open their eyes. And if you go on oppressing them more and more they will get angry more and more and they will certainly blow out our skull.

Sacred Brahmins: You are making false charges against us. We don't oppress them. It is you who are oppressing them. Our Sanatana Dharma does not recognise them as part of our order. They are not part of the brahminical social order. They are out of the varna system. So, they become avarnas. We are savarnas. We sacred brahmins mind only our business. It is you socialist brahmins who brought about all the confusions through your socialism, secularism and all sorts of isms.

Socialist brahmins: Yes, you are right. We have to resort to these strategies and tactics for our survival. To get

"independence" did we not resort to some tricks for our survival? We succeeded in inspiring the shudras and other wretched fellows that English rulers were imperialists and our blood-suckers. In the name of "national independence struggle", we united all the shudras and the Ati-shudras under our leadership with Gandhi as our servant. And after driving out the British rulers with the help of these fellows, did we not impose our brahminical imperialism? And did we not impress these fellows that once "independence" comes to India, we will have democracy, socialism and secularism and that milk and honey will flow all over the country? But did we fulfil that promise? Remember: We say one thing but do exactly the opposite of it. This is the true character.

Christianity crushed

Please note that not all the shudras and the wretched fellows are in deep slumber as it used to be during those days of "our glorious heritage". It is enough if even 10% of them wake up. Their very shout from that distance will make us deaf. They are so hungry and also so furious that they may eat us raw. If they break our doors and enter our house, in the stampede itself we will be crushed to death. Such is their fury. Already quite a number of the awakened Dalits are stoning our house from that distance. Quite a number of window glasses are broken. The roof top has started leaking. Insecurity is staring at us.

Gravest crisis: So, you sacred brahmins listen to our sane advice. If you want to save yourself and our Sanatana Dharma, get rid of your rigid stand. Don't be foolish. We will tell you the way-out of this gravest crisis in our history. We must manufacture our own Opposition.

Remember, this is not the first time we are threatened. Buddha tried to destroy us. Islam engulfed us. Christianity crushed us. The British gave us the worst blow. Narayana Guru of Kerala and Jyotirao Phule of Maharashtra tried to upstage us but we upstaged them. Gandhi tried to give us a few sleepless nights. Did we not shoot him dead? Dr. B.R. Ambedkar gave us good lot of worries. Lohia gave us hell. Periyar EV Ramaswamy made us miserable and exposed us through and through. There have been several attacks on us and our cherished values. Did we not overcome all the obstacles?

How did we surmount all this crisis after crisis? Because we manufactured our own Opposition.

Stoop to conquer: We must stoop to conquer. Don't be rigid. Don't be stupid. Whenever a new movement developed and tried to swallow us, did we not take the wind out of its sail? When the Buddha propounded his Dhamma did we not absorb Buddhism into brahminism and renamed our religion as Hinduism by making Buddha an avatar?

Brahmins give up beef-eating: Sanatana Dharma means stoop to conquer. Did we not make a supreme sacrifice by giving up our most delicious food, the beef, and our "sura", the most intoxicating drink? Did we not become teetotalers and strict vegetarians? Is there any sacrifice in history greater than this? This is called strategies and tactics.

We sanatanists have no ideology. We have no philosophy. We adjust to any given circumstance. Did we not supply our wives, sisters and daughters to the Muslim rulers and the British (Christian) rulers? By this, did we not become close to the rulers? So, don't talk of principles. Brahminism does not stand for any principles. Our principle is unscrupulous principle.

How Buddhism was destroyed: Quietly and surreptitiously, we infiltrated into the ranks of Buddhism. We succeeded in dividing it into Hinayana and Mahayana. We then stage-managed a quarrel between the two factions. This quarrel between the two sects developed into a full-scale war and through this we succeeded in bringing about a suicidal war within Buddhism and finally managed to drive Buddhism out of India. When we could succeed in surmounting the worst ever crisis in our history brought about by the Buddha, our greatest enemy, what of minor obstacles like democracy and socialism?

Marx & Vedanta: You sacred brahmins are foolish. You don't realise the value of socialism, communism and marxism. After all what is marxism? What is new in it? Did not our man S.A. Dange say that all the wisdom of Karl Marx was derived from the Vedanta? Did not our marxist man, "Modern Shankara" of Kerala, EMS Namboodiripad, say that Kerala is the "Land of Vedas" and called Kerala the Parasurama Shristi?

Red carpet to Hitler

What is now considered as the fruits of scientific discovery are all due to our Vedas, Upanishads and Shastras.

Hitler fooled: Did we not fool Hitler and his nazi philosophers by supplying them the swastika and our racist theory? (Dalit Voice edit July 1, 1992 "Brahminism, founding father of racism, nazism, is the Enemy No.1 of the whole world"). Did we not hail his mass murder of Jews and called him an Avatar? Did not our outright support to Hitler unnerve the British rulers then? Did not the British touch our feet when we invited Hitler to India and promised him a red-carpet welcome if he were to win the Second World War?

Jews of India: Did we not fool Max Muller and made him translate our entire sacred scriptures to English and made it internationally known?

After making the best use of Nazi Hitler and his Nazi Germans, and supporting his massacre of Jews, did we not switch sides and supported the Jews deceiving them saying that we are the original Jews and that in India we are actually called the "Jews of India"? Did not the Jews believe us and give us fabulous gifts? Once we deceived the Germans and today we are deceiving the Jews. So who is more brainy, crafty and more cunning? The Jews as widely believed or we, the "Jews of India"? You can take it from us that we will deceive and dupe the Jews. Make full use of their military power and wealth to crush our tormentors (SC/ST/BCs and Muslims/Sikhs etc) and once our job is done we will kick the Jews out.

There is nothing in the world which our great rishis did not know. Even before the whole world saw the aeroplanes, our great god, Sri Rama, had flown in Pushpaka Viman. Did we not fool the people by manufacturing such cock and bull stories?

French Revolution

Manu Dharma & Arthasastra: Since our Manu Dharma Shastra and our Chanakya's Arthasastra tell us to rule the people without doing any work but live on other's sweat and blood, we have to resort to all these tricks.

That is why we advice you (sacred brahmins) to adjust and re- group. Because of our folly of claiming the whole house for ourselves and exclusively enjoying the entire lot of posts, positions, privileges and properties, we have landed ourselves in all this trouble.

The problem with you sacred brahmins is that you say no when you want to say no. That is wrong. Don't say yes when you want to say yes. Don't say no when you want to say no. Anything the idiots ask, don't say no. Say yes but never give. Never fulfil your promise. We must be cunning. Only if you listen to our sane advice, we will continue to be the rulers. Otherwise, we will be stoned and killed. Not a tear will be shed.

Now, you listen to us carefully.

Let us slightly open the doors of the house. All the ten bed rooms in this palatial house and the vast garden outside and all other facilities, we keep it for ourselves.

Naxalites: But let us give one outhouse, just one outhouse, for them. Nothing more. Once they come to this outhouse, let us also throw the bones and skin and left-overs to them. They will be immensely satisfied, contented. They will praise us as Dharmarayas.

We shall call ourselves marxists, socialists, communists, naxalites and say that we love the proletariat. We will say we fight for the working class. We will say we work for revolution.

We will teach them French revolution, Soviet revolution, Chinese revolution and we remain as the leaders of all revolutionary parties. They will simply follow us. They will carry our red flags. Shout our slogans. Brave the police bullets and die for our cause.

And we reap the benefit.

Taste of milk: You must know that the masses are still under the spell of our brahminical social order that governs the whole country. They are still blindly drugged and doped by our brahminical value system. Even among those who have opened their eyes, their wants are very limited. Centuries of starvation has taken away their hunger. So, they do not need much food. Since they have never before consumed milk, they do not know how the milk tastes and its usefulness. So, they do not need much food.

Nor have they learnt how to enjoy, how to eat, drink and make merry. It is only we who know the secrets of enjoying without doing any work.

And a majority of them do not even know what food we are eating, what all varieties of food and drink we have stocked inside. They are so ignorant, docile and diseased that they have no energy left.

Bhangi as boss: Let us go on eating the same food and enjoy our life as before. But say that you are a socialist.

Say your heart bleeds for the poor. Say that you will die for them. And then go on eating.

SC/ST Reservation

Sacred brahmins: But you have introduced reservations to these wretched creatures. And that means these wretched fellows will come as IAS, IPS officers, as our bosses. How can we tolerate a Chamar, a Pariah coming as our boss?

Socialist brahmins: Don't we know that? To keep out these wretched creatures, we have invented the mantra of "merit" and "efficiency" even while assuring reservations to Scheduled Castes and Tribes. We go on saying we are dying for SC/STs. We tell them that they are the "children of god", Harijans. Since we are the implementing authorities at all levels, the constitutional provision of reservations for SC/STs will never be implemented.

Mandal Commission: You sacred brahmins must go on criticising the SC/ST/BC reservations. Our brothers in the brahminical press will give wide publicity to your criticisms. You go to the court challenging these reservations.

When you criticise us for supporting SC/ST/BC reservations and the Mandal Commission, you become bad in their eyes and we become heroes. And we become heroes without implementing the reservations. We should have more and more of such mock fights between us.

Merit mantra: We should go on inventing new and newer ways of enjoying our lives making these idiots work for us. In the name of "merit" and "efficiency" we will not allow them to get into even our garden, inside the compound. Let them use one outhouse. They will be immensely happy. In fact, this socialist gesture, socialist pattern of society, marxism, naxalism, secularism and democracy will make them serve us better and they will be more obedient. They will proclaim to the whole world the benefits of socialism and how generous and "democratic" the upper castes have turned out to be. Please note that socialism will only help us (Dalit Voice edit June 1, 1985: "Marxism to the rescue of brahminism"). See our jatwala, EMS Namboodripad, in Kerala. SC/ST/BC idiots of Kerala have become his blind followers. Even Muslims. They are prepared to die for him. How beautifully he cheated the idiots using marxism. Then how do you say socialism is bad?

Sanskrit to shudras: Why do you object to shudras and the wretched fellows learning Sanskrit and studying Vedas? What do we lose if we throw open our holy scriptures? We will teach them Sanskrit even as our children master the English language. If you go on making Sanskrit our monopoly, like a forbidden fruit, the shudras and the Wretched of the Earth will think it is sweet. What is there in Sanskrit? It is a dead language. Why should our boys learn Sanskrit? Our strategy should be to praise Sanskrit and condemn English so that more and more idiots take to the dead language.

Sacred brahmins: You say our children should be taught English instead of Sanskrit and we should teach Sanskrit to shudras? Shantam-papam, shantam-papam. How can we teach the language of the gods to such uncouth, wretched idiots? Our glorious heritage will go to dogs if we listen to your foolish advice.

Socialist brahmins: We are not fools. You are fools. What have you gained by sticking to Sanskrit? You are rotting as archakas (temple priests). Everybody makes fun of the archakas. You have become the laughing stock. Knowledge of Sanskrit will get you no jobs. Who will give jobs to a fellow who knows only nonsense? Our brahmanical social order must know how to adjust itself to changing conditions. When Sanskrit was paying we kept it as our monopoly keeping the shudras out.

Killing of Shambuka: Did we not make our servant, Rama, a Kshatriya, whom we promoted to godhood, kill a shudra for learning Sanskrit? Today, the times have changed. Today, we have to condemn English and praise Sanskrit to dupe the shudras.

Sanskritisation & westernisation: We stand to gain by brahminising the shudras and this dirty dozen. The shudras and our servile classes will be influenced by our value system. Slaves will then become better slaves. Such neo-brahmins following our own time- tested value system will serve us better. This is what our own social scientist meant when he coined the theory of "sanskritisation and westernisation". Neo-brahmins will be a great asset for us, serving as the outer wall of our fortress. See how loyal a slave the shudra Bal Thackeray has become. We need more such slaves and Sanskrit will prepare such slaves. When it can bring such heavy dividends why not open up Sanskrit?

Sacred brahmins: Do you mean to say we should throw open our temples to these idiots? Shantam-papam, shantam-papam. We can't support you. These stinking fellows, scavengers, sweepers polluting the temple? Stop this nonsense .

Bhangis & Barbers

Socialist brahmins: Why do you object to the admission of bhangis and barbers into our temples? What is there in your temple? Temples are meant to serve the bhoodevatas. Gods are created by us. All Hindu gods are our servants. Because, we created them.

Devadhinam jagat sarvam

Mantradhinam ta devata,

Tan Mantram brahmandhinam

Brahmana mam devata.

Which means: The universe is under the power of the Gods; the Gods are under the power of the mantras; the mantras are under the power of the Brahmins; therefore the Brahmins are our gods. (The Abbe J.A. Dubois, Hindu Manners, Customs and Ceremonies, Oxford, Third Edition - 1906, Page 139).

Remember, every god is meant for our exclusive well being. So if we allow the wretched and the idiots to come in, they will be so grateful for allowing them to taste the forbidden fruit. And having tasted the fruit they will be ever grateful. The rebellious spirit of the shudras will melt and they will become part of the BSO as our servants. This is called "hinduising" them.

Our man, whom we describe as "India's most eminent social scientist", has coined this phrase.

Golden eggs: Mohandas Karmachand Gandhi by his temple-entry stunts actually saved brahminism which was about to die had the "freedom struggle" taken a revolutionary turn. Instead of using this Bania to serve the bhoodevatas better, you sacred brahmins, killed him. Will anybody kill a goose that lays the golden eggs? It was a foolish act on your part.

If our holy men cater to shudras, our business will only increase. Such a generous gesture will make many shudras and Dalits to imitate us. Many Dalits and shudras will take to god-men business.

Satya Sai Baba: Look at those shudra godmen like the Swami Chinmayananda (a Nair), Satya Sai Baba, a Backward Caste idiot, Rajaneesh, Mukhtananda. They all helped us a lot. They served as the outer walls to our fortress protecting us against all dangers. Our Sankaracharyas are the pillars of brahminism. We will not allow anybody other than a "sacred thread" to these highest pedestal.

You sacred brahmins, listen to us. By allowing these sturdy Dalits and shudras to come into our garden, and the outer compound, we are only helping ourselves. Our garden has remained untended. Since we are not expected to work, as per our Manu Dharma Sastra, these shudras and ati-shudras will do the job of cleaning our garden, outhouse etc.

Buddhist Viharas made temples

Sacred Brahmins: You may say anything, but as regards allowing the Untouchables inside our temples, we can never compromise. Untouchables will pollute our temples. Untouchables are not part of the Hindu Chaturvarna. They are called Untouchables because they are outside the four-fold caste system. Our Vedas deal entirely with our invocation to our gods to fight these Dasyus, Dasas, Danavas, Yakshas, Rakshasas, Vanaras, Pishachis, Daityas. All those referred to by these names in the Vedas are the original inhabitants of India, Dravidas, who are our blood enemies. They are a sturdy people. They have their own places of worship. Their own deities. They will never come to our temples. If they come in they will discover that all our temples were Buddhist Viharas which we once converted into Hindu temples. They will discover this truth. And once they know the truth that will bring us disaster. They will recover all the temples as their Buddhist Viharas. That is why we don't allow them inside. Your suggestion will bring disaster. Sanatana Dharma will be dead.

Socialist brahmins: We know this danger. And it is to avert this danger we are allowing them inside the temple after "hinduising" them. The sanatanist (Hindu) population was less than 10% when we Aryans came into India. How did it increase to 85%? We "hinduised" the rowdy Jats, the militant milkmen (Yadavas) by promoting a vagabond (Krishna) as Hindu god. Recently in Kerala, we "hinduised" the Untouchable Ezhavas who form 30% of Kerala population. In Bengal, we renamed the Untouchables as Namashudras and made them part of our order. Our policy of assimilating the non-Hindu people has brought us many good slaves and servants. And Hinduism, which in fact is a religion of less than 10%, today has become a "majority religion" and we converted the country itself into "Hindu India". On Dec. 6 1992, we inaugurated the "Hindu Rashtra" after demolishing the Babri Masjid.

Danger of Muslims

Having "hinduised" 85% of India's 1,000 million population, we are now thinking of annexing and then assimilating the Sikhs, Christians and particularly the Muslims. The last one has been a real headache to us. Sikhs have been almost finished. In every Sikh family, we have planted one or two Hindu agents. Because the Sikhs intermarry with Hindus, Sikhs are virtually swallowed. And those revolting, the followers of that fiend, Sant Bhindranwale, will be eliminated by our shudra servants in the army and police, dubbing them as terrorists.

Christians absorbed: Christians are no problem. Christ and Mary have been made Hindu god and goddess. Our Aryan converts inside the Christian community like the Goans, Syrians, Mangalorean Christians are there as our agents inside the church. We will go on maligning the church, condemn Christians for converting SC/STs but at the same time make full use of the Christian convents, Christian money and their facilities. More we condemn the Christians better service they will render to the bhoodevatas.

Ram & Krishna as prophets of Islam: Lately, we are trying to catch some "intellectuals" among Muslims and trying to corrupt them by offering some positions. We have caught hold of a Delhi University fellow tempting him with vice-chancellor's post. We have promised him this post in return for his support proposing Ram and Krishna as prophets of Islam. We are catching some more such stooges. We hope to corrupt more such "intellectuals" (Dalit Voice edit Feb.16 1992: "Hindu nazis corrupting Muslim intellectuals to destroy Islamic identity").

Gains from temple entry

See, who is going today to Sabarimalai (Kerala), Tirupati and all such holy places. It is these shudras and Dalits. They are making a beeline and putting all their money into our temple coffers on which we alone have the control. By throwing open our temples to Untouchables, shudras, our income has gone up.

Are you now convinced that temple-entry to the wretched and the idiots has brought us more profits than keeping it shut?

Please note, all key posts shall continue to remain with us only. All our privileges, positions and properties shall continue to be with us only. We will give these idiots only third and fourthgrade positions. And those trying to challenge us after coming inside shall be mercilessly crushed in the name of "merit and efficiency".

Washing Brahmin feet: Remember, while selecting the shudras even to this third and fourthgrade positions we select only the meekest, most ignorant, most docile, most obedient and one who is a real monkey-brand. Coupled with these weaknesses, if he is also corrupt and unscrupulous such a shudra or Dalit must be given preference. Such a shudra should be instantly selected. Remember that shudra, Dr. Rajendra Prasad, whom we made as the first President of India after our rule came in India. This Kayasth as President washed the feet of 100 Brahmins in public and drank that dirty water and we gave the widest publicity so that every shudra followed President Rajendra Prasad. The Kerala Chief Minister, another idiotic shudra, prostrated before our Shankaracharaya and even while he prostrated he was made to do so three feet away from the feet of our man. And we published this picture in the Malayala Manorama which though owned by the Christians is serving us very well.

Praising Dr. Ambedkar: We will apply the same yardstick for the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe reservations. We will put forward all sort of obstacles for reservations. But at the same time, we will go on talking, praising and promising to fulfil the reservations.

We will also praise Dr. Ambedkar to the skies. What do we lose? More we praise Dr. Ambedkar better we can fool the Dalits. What do we lose by observing his centenary? By unveiling his statues? By naming streets after him?

Never allow a second Dr. Ambedkar: But we must keep a watch on the brilliant and the militant among them. We will not select the wise, the efficient, the well-read and the best. Never take them. If along with these qualifications such of the shudras and Dalits who come for the interview are also incorruptible, persons of spotless character and a clean record, never select them because once such people are selected, they will cut our very throat. Honest, committed, well-read shudras and Dalits are always dangerous. We should never allow a second Dr. Ambedkar to come up at all.

Nothing to lose by praising Dr. Ambedkar

Sacred brahmins: How to keep out such honest shudras and Harijans? See the havoc created by one Dr. Ambedkar. If he had been nipped in the bud, there would have been no "Dalit movement" and all this reservation controversy. We sacred brahmins will never, ever compromise with reservations. Hindu India is exclusively for the pleasure of the bhoodevatas. After we lived under the tyrannical rule of Buddhists, Muslims, Christians (British) at last we could get freedom, at last we established a "Vaidik Raj", and when we were having the dreams of sweet days this dangerous man, Dr. Ambedkar, comes and spoils our sleep. You socialist brahmins have given him unnecessary importance, praising him to the skies. How an Untouchable like him be above the bhoodevatas?

Socialist brahmins: You must go on speaking like that. You go on abusing Dr. Ambedkar. You go on damaging his statues. You go on putting garlands of chappal on his statues. That will sharpen the contradictions. When you do that we will go on praising Dr. Ambedkar and criticising you. We will start naming streets after him, unveiling his statues. Do you know what happens then? The idiots, the wretched Dalits will all come to our side. They will trust and vote for us. And we rule praising Dr. Ambedkar. What do we lose if we praise him? Did we allow publication of his books? Did we allow translation of his books to Indian languages? During the centenary year, we simply whiled away the time. We spent the money on fake things in memory of Dr. Ambedkar. We have seen to it that no book of Dr. Ambedkar is printed or translated to Indian languages. We have successfully prevented his thoughts reaching the Dalits.

Press as our chief weapon: We have seen to it that during his centenary year, no worthwhile work is done. All decisions on the Dr. Ambedkar Centenary Year were taken by our threaded people alone. We had kept out of the committee trouble-makers like the Editor of Dalit Voice.

DV Editor tormented: Whenever a selected SC/ST wags his tail and tries to question us or our value system, remember, we instantly finish him. Call the dog mad and shoot. Cook up charges against him. Weave stories round him. Scandalise him. Not only that. Let loose the bloodhounds on him. See, what lesson we taught to this bloody Editor of Dalit Voice. We got him dismissed from the Indian Express by cooking up a false case. Even after he started the Dalit Voice, we did not spare him. We got him arrested many times. Nobody challenging the bhoodevatas can remain safe.

Chandigarh Jail Yatra

There are any number of dogs ready to bite. We must always encourage the corrupt and ignorant Dalits to fight the upright Dalits. See how we used Jagjivan Ram to fight Dr. Ambedkar. That must be our policy. No mercy shall be shown to those who question the brahminical values. Those who challenge us shall suffer. The Editor of Dalit Voice was humiliated like anything. He was arrested under the dreaded Terrorist Act, handcuffed, humiliated and dragged all the way and kept in Chandigarh Jail. We kept him at the Pharganj police station lock-up, New Delhi, for three hours even on the Independence Day. (Aug.15 1986). When he was arrested, it was a front-page news. We put out false reports to deliberately malign him. Bhoodevatas in Bangalore and particularly our threaded journalists were so happy. They drank milk and heaved a sigh of relief saying that a bone in their throat was at last removed. They were so happy that once he was in the hands of the Punjab police, he would not come back alive. And even if he lived, he would be physically incapacitated. This dare-devil DV Editor's fate should be a warning to the rest.

You can take it from us : we will never spare him. We will finish him soon.

Sacred brahmins: But what is the use? He is back in the job, bashing the bhoodevatas. Within 15 day he was released from the Chandigarh jail with an apology from the Govt of India itself. After his release he is more ferocious.

How do you say you have finished him?

Socialist Brahmins: Wait and see. We will finish him. Danda our last weapon, will finish him. That is his end.

Azad to fight Jinnah: If we allow one shudra or Dalit to question us there will be many more, their tribe will grow. So, we nip every rebellion in the bud. Discover a Moulana Abul Kalam Azad to fight and finish a Jinnah. We keep a vigilant eye on all these protestors, on all dissenters. The Editor of DV can never escape. To this day, no body has escaped our wrath. The Editor of DV can never be an exception.

The obedient are rewarded. But those defying us are crushed. We watch out for such people and squeeze their neck mercilessly. We divide the ranks of the obedient and of the defiant and press our national press to sing the praise of the loyal and denounce the renegades.

Dr. Lohia called buffoon: We have an easy trick to finish the defiant SC/ST/BCs and shudras and Muslims. Anybody questioning us are dubbed anti-national, terrorist etc. The moment we call a person anti-national, our entire propaganda machinery is geared and such a person is made to look as if he is anti-human, a demon. A person opposing the brahminical social order is pictured as anti-social, anti-human and a hardened criminal. Did we not finish Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia by calling him a buffoon? Did we not marry our girl to Dr. Ambedkar and finish him? Did we not finish EV Ramaswamy Naicker of Tamil Nadu by calling him anti-god? Did we not send our Army and kill Bhindranwale? The Editor of Dalit Voice is a peanut before all these people. Wait and watch.

Anti-god charge: The one best and the surest way to provoke the wholesale wrath of the entire shudras and Dalits and to whip up a mass frenzy is to describe those opposed to our brahminical social order as anti-god. Since god is our creation and is under our control, through this god we can mesmerise the whole illiterate, gullible, starving masses. The moment we the creators of god describe those opposing brahminism as anti-god, the irate, unthinking, brainless mob will itself pounce upon him and finish him. We need not bother about finishing the rebel, the renegade. All rebels against the bhoodevatas will be taken care of by the rebels own jatwalas. The mob will suck his blood and he will fall dead. Let us then laugh and enjoy the scene. After his death, we may praise him. That is different. During the life time of a revolutionary we must condemn him, but praise him only after his death.

How V.P. Singh was finished: Remember, how we finished V.P. Singh. Our job is to watch out for all those opposing brahminism and those who defy us. Our philosophy is "one who is not with us is against us". The job of destroying such an anti-brahminical bastard shall be executed not by us but by the very victims of brahminism. We will manage such a situation through our own brahminical national press. They will do it better than us. We still command universal reverence from the entire Kshatriya, Vaishya, shudra classes. Also some Dalits.

Dalits, our Enemy No.1: But remember Dalits are our Enemy No.1. From the day we Aryans came to India, we could capture and enslave lots of indigenous natives. But the most difficult lot are the Dalits. They have remained as our deadliest foes. So these shudras will take care of us and protect us from our enemies. These worthless papayoni Vaishyas, Kshatriyas and shudras are all like our dogs. We have to just point out the victim and the dog will go and bite the victim and kill him too.

How bhoodevatas killed Gandhi?: See what one M.K. Gandhi did for us. Had he not come from South Africa at the right moment, the bhoodevatas as a whole would have been in soup. Gandhi saved us from sure death. That is why we gave him the title of Mahatma.

Sacred brahmins: We don't agree with you. The national leadership of the Congress, the country's original brahminical party, cannot go out of our hands. Who is this bloody Bania to boss over us? He created all sorts of confusions by flirting with Muslims in the name of Khilafat. He polluted our temples by bringing in bhangis, mochis (Untouchables). That is why we shot him dead. We hate this wretched Gandhi. Even today we celebrate his death and distribute sweets on the day our man (Nathuram Godse) killed him.

Gandhi love for capitalists

Socialist brahmins: You did the right thing in killing Gandhi. We also hate him. We are in silent sympathy with you. Do you know we never allowed a single bhoodevata to be killed by the mobs in retaliation against the assassination of Gandhi? In fact, we had prior information about your plot to kill Gandhi. The Father of India's socialist brahmins, Jawaharlal Nehru, had received intelligence information even when your plot was hatched to kill Gandhi in the house of Veer Savarkar in Bombay. But he took no step to check Nathuram Godse. That way we are one with you on Gandhi. We used him to the fullest extent and once we imposed our rule, we too wanted to get rid of this Bania.

Sleeping with girls: But do you know the services Gandhi rendered to the bhoodevatas? Though he was a Bania, and though he knew that the Vedas had ridiculed his whole community as born out of papayoni, he was eating our shit day and night. He must have eaten a mountain of our shit. In fact, he died chanting the name of the two idiotic gods - Ram and Krishna - whom our great bhoodevata ancestors manufactured to fool the shudras. Gandhi was a laughing-stock. We must encourage such fools. We had known all his weaknesses. He was sleeping naked with young unmarried girls. Particularly, his love for the British rulers, his fascination for capitalists.

Sex perversions: We knew all this. But we told our jatwala press people to keep silent on his sex perversions and other things. Because we wanted him to serve us full. We want more such Gandhis to serve our social order. But for Gandhi the anti-Brahmin movement would have swept the whole country and Hinduism itself would have been dead. It was Gandhi who saved our Hinduism and our Sanatana Dharma. It was he who helped us drive out the British imperialists without hurting them and without bloodshed in the country and helped us impose our brahminical imperialism. This is only for our information and not for broadcast.

Our main strength lies in the press, in the media.

Exclusive hold on press: We must keep all the propaganda media with us. It must be our sole monopoly. We can even discard our "sacred thread" but not journalism. The TV, press and all the media shall be with us - under us and always with us.

Syrian Christian journalists

This media should be ours exclusively and our closely guarded fortress. Never admit into journalism anybody questioning the bhoodevatas. Muslims, Christians and Sikhs and Untouchables should be forever barred. While recruiting, the media people have to be first screened, checked and rechecked.

Encourage the Khushawant Singhs: You can encourage the fast drinking, sex writers like the Khushwant Singhs. They are harmless. Good jokers. They will never discuss subjects that will make the people think. Such writers who entertain the readers can be encouraged with awards and rewards. Syrian Christians are good because as bhoodevata converts, they will be too eager to safeguard our cause, Muslim journalists like M.J. Akbar are tolerable because their bread and butter depend upon praising socialist brahmins like Nehru, Indira Gandhi and Rajiv Gandhi. If such brahmins with Muslim names help us describe that bhoodevatas are secular and friends of Muslims and Sikhs, then we must encourage more such stooges.

Note, journalism is the one field where we have to be very careful. Never allow any journalist to question our brahminical values. Even if you have to recruit a shudra just to fulfill an obligation to "socialism and secularism", remember to screen him strictly. Watch him for five years. After this, put him on probation. Even when you finally confirm him in his job, never give him more than the lowest post in the media.

Shudra to graveyard

Dismissed from Indian Express: Never allow a non-dwija journalist to become prominent. Curb him at every stage, demoralise him. Never allow his byline, his name to appear in the press. However, just to placate him once in a way some byline may be given, his articles may be published but always put his reports and articles on inside pages after cutting and twisting it out of shape. Never put his reports on the front page. Once he becomes prominent, he will be a danger to us. So, always curb the initiative and drive of the efficient, the hard-working and dedicated shudra journalists. If he is also honest, efficient and with a sense of mission, try to demoralise him, hoist charges, cook up charges against him. Tell him that he doesn't work. Manufacture complaints against him to his superiors. Always remember to build up a case against him. Employ other nincompoop non-Brahmin journalists to run him down. Make fun of him in public places. Go on hurling one after other charges. He will soon get frustrated, heart-broken and quit the profession on his own. This is what we did with the Editor of DV when he was in the Indian Express before he started the Dalit Voice. We got him dismissed from the Indian Express without paying a paise. For eight years he was rotting without any pay.

This is not the case with journalists alone. Every shudra trying to challenge us shall be sent to the graveyard. We must be merciless with such people even as we go on talking about tolerance. Non-violence, equality, brotherhood shall be always on the top of our lips. We must begin with the word socialism and end with socialism. This is the only way to win our battle and the victory will be ours.

Shock absorbers: You, sacred brahmins, please listen. Let us stoop to conquer. We will assure you that the future shall belong to us.

Monopoly of English

Our enjoyment, our monopoly on posts, positions, properties will in no way be reduced.

You, sacred brahmins, have a great role to play. You sing your tune. We will sing our tune. You attack us, we will attack you. By this we build our own Opposition. As we own the press, nobody will be allowed to know this secret.

You are like that shock-absorber in the car. You go on attacking us, abusing us, criticising us bitterly. You call us communists. You call us naxalites. You call us gandhians. You call us atheists. Our press will give wide publicity to your accusations. The more you abuse us the better we shine by contrast. The entire anger of the people will be directed against you instead of at us.

As we are doing your work only, it is very necessary that you receive the abuse on our behalf. That is why we call you the shock-absorber.

We two shall quarrel during the day. But dine and sleep together in the night. We shall talk of democracy, socialism and secularism. Anything new comes we should be the first to absorb it, master it and turn it to our advantage. Did we not master English, monopolise it and used it to enslave the rest? Did we not take over marxism and used marxism to enslave the rest of the people? See our EMS Namboodiripad. Even the Dalit Voice hailed him as the "Modern Shankara" excelling the Adi Shankara. There is nothing to be afraid of in democracy, secularism. It all depends how we use socialism. Actually socialism and marxism have come to rescue brahminism.

Dange's marxist mantra: We have nothing to lose. Bhoodevatas like our Danges, Namboodiripads chanted marxist mantras to fool the people - the shudras, Untouchables, Muslims and all others. It is only by chanting the mantra of democracy, socialism and secularism, we will be able to fool the idiots and capture all the levers of powers. Then only the leadership will be with us. Let us swear by socialism and take control of all trade unions. Let us talk of nationalisation and appoint all the "sacred threads" to top positions in all public sector industries.

Nehru affairs with Edwina

Secular Muslims: Secularism is the best weapon to curb the Muslims. We have to encourage "secular Muslims". We have to select good stooges among Muslims and describe them as "secular Muslims". These "secular Muslims" are our greatest asset.

Socialism means nationalisation of industries. Nationalisation means no need to work. So, occupying key positions our "sacred threads" will get fat salaries without doing any work. Even as we are "working" and drawing fat salaries doing no work in nationalised industries, we can set up our own private companies in the name of our wives, sons and thus multiply our source of income.

See how we are managing all nationalised banks, LIC, public sector undertakings. Socialism is a boon to the bhoodevatas. See how we made a Harshad Mehta defrauding Rs. 6,000 crores.

Nehru's Scotch Whisky: It was Jawaharlal Nehru's brainwave to promote the bhoodevatas through nationalisation. Nehru served the bhoodevatas better than all you sacred brahmins put together. Did not Nehru daily drink Scotch, flirt with Edwina and many other women, appoint all threaded people to key positions, travel all over the world many times and convince the whole world that he was the world's best statesman even while building up the bhoodevata empire? Did your Guru Golwalkar do this much of service? Did your Balasaheb Deoras do it? Nehru led a life of supreme pleasure, wining and dining and womanising too, which is what every bhoodevata is expected to do. Nehru did all this and ruled India for over a decade and yet remained the darling of the idiots and the wretched. He bequeathed the empire to his daughter who bettered him and she in turn handed over the hereditary post to Rajiv Gandhi who too served us well. But for the Chinese invasion, Nehru would have ruled for some more time. The Nehru Era brought the greatest good to the bhoodevatas. It was he who taught us how to remain idle and yet make maja and lead a life of eternal pleasure and endless leisure in the name of socialism.

We enjoyed socialism for 45 years and after fully using it we deserted it when socialism died. Now, our sacred neogi brahmin has taken over as the Prime Minister, and he switched on to capitalism. Only brand names change but our rule will continue.

Don't speak truth: If we tell the truth that brahminism is opposed to democracy, socialism and secularism, who will accept us? We will be called enemies by the shudras and Dalits. Because it has become the fashion of the day to shout in the name of democracy, socialism and secularism.

What do we lose if we also shout the same slogans and continue at the same time our traditional business of exploitation? If these three new slogans can help us retain our sacred supremacy on the society, why not take to it as the fish takes to water? See, who is heading the Communist Party Marxist? Our sacred man. So also CPI, all parties. Marxism has come to save brahminism.

Veda Patashalas closed

Sacred brahmins: For centuries we the holy people of this country had a dress of our own. We are prohibited from wearing stitched dress. We are expected to shave the head and keep a tuft. Our children are to be married within the age of ten. Young widowed woman must shave her head and put on white clothes. All our time is expected to be spent in reciting mantras, studying the sacred books. But now our Veda Pathashalas have closed down. See how your socialism, English dress and habits have killed our samskriti and sanskara. To hell with your socialism.

Socialist brahmins: We never asked you to give up all these things. You continue your rituals with greater vigour.

Formerly you were looked after by those shudra kings and rulers, big landlords. But today we have made better arrangements for your welfare. We have made the govt. itself to look after you. We will praise you as "great Sanskrit scholars", give you awards and rewards. The state itself will look after your welfare. We will see that you and your family are left supremely happy just as the lords of the land - raj purohits.

Beer and beefstakes: But what we say is your Sanskrit, your language, your temple work will no longer yield any income. So, many of our sacred boys have given up their traditional, ancestral vedic vidyas and taken to pastures anew. You can't object to all these things. Your own sons and daughters will give up their traditional attire and take to jeans, tight pants, beefstakes and beer. What is wrong? Were not the vedic brahmins eating beef and drinking liquor?

Women libbers: Let us be secular and modern only in our outward appearance, in our dress, eating habits and manners without sacrificing our brahminical thoughts. In our heart of hearts all of us are vaidiks. We know that. Look at our EMS Namboodiripad. Has he given up his vaidhik buddhi? If western dress and manners, English language, jazz, rock n'roll, whisky and beefstakes can bring us joy, why not take to it? Afterall, we are born to enjoy. The shudras and Dalits - even Muslims - will praise us for "changing with the changing times". They will blow our trumpet and announce that even the heaven-born vaidiks have taken to socialism, secularism and democracy. They will go on tom-toming to the whole world that "even the sacred vaidiks are working for social change". More and more shudras will believe us and follow us. Thereby the leadership will remain with us. Is this not a gain for us? If all of us remain as sacred brahmins like you, we will lose the whole world. That is why a majority of us became socialists, marxists, communists, naxalites, gandhians, Congress Party leaders, sarvodaya sadhus, human rights heroes, environmental pundits, women libbers, development doctors, Anumukti advocates. Our job is to confuse the people, keep them under perpetual tension, see that the shudras, Untouchables and Muslims quarrel between themselves. When they get busy fighting each other, they will have no time to think of the exploitation by us.

Babri Masjid: That does not mean you too must come along with us. Not at all. You have a definite role. You are our shock-absorbers. If you were not to be there, these wretched and the idiots would have made a pulp out of us. So, all the abuses meant for us will now fall on you. What do you lose if some shudras abuse you? When your position, properties etc. are safe? Together, we will be the supreme leaders of the shudras and Dalits.

We will ask the hungry and the angry Dalits to throw the stone at sacred brahmins. We will criticise you for coming in the way of socialism. We will call you Nazis. We will say that in the name of Ramjanambhoomi you demolished the Babri Masjid and destroyed the "Muslim identity". Muslims will be pleased and they will vote for us, the Congress Party, the party of socialist brahmins. We will say that the sacred brahmins are opposing the Mandal Commission and the SC/ST/BCs will vote for us, the Congress Party, the party of socialist brahmins. With their votes we will come to power and then promote our jati interests. That means only the vaidiks are heading both the ruling party and the Opposition parties.

This is our strategy and tactics. Our Vedas and shastras, smritis are only books of strategies and tactics.

We have to go on devising appropriate strategies and tactics to rule the wretched and the idiots.

Divide idiots through elections

Remember, the most important thing is we must get ourselves distributed equally in all political parties, all trade unions, all schools of thought, all organisations. We must manufacture our own Opposition party.

We should never put all the eggs in one basket. If we do that, we will lose our fight. Let us plant our men in every political party. After doing that, then we must start our mock battle between us. When we as leaders at the helm of all political parties - divided into Congress, Janata Dal, Bharatiya Janata Party, Janata Party, CPI, CPM, Forward Bloc, Backward Bloc, Swatantra Party, that party, this party - start quarreling we give it the cloak of an ideological struggle. We must always use high-sounding words and phrases, preferably marxian jargons, while fighting between ourselves. When we bhoodevatas distributed in all the political parties quarrel, the rest of the NBs - meaning no-brains (non-brahmins) - will really think that a great ideological battle is raging in the country. They will sincerely believe that there will be "polarisation of political forces" and the country is fast heading towards a "revolution".

Elections help divide & rule: Election is our harvest time. Elections are the best way to divide these idiots. Parliament, Assembly elections should be held separately. One election must be followed by another election, municipal elections, zilla parishad elections, cooperative society elections. Elections help us to make a Reddy fight a Reddy, a Thakur fight a Thakur, a Gowda fight another Gowda. Dog eating dog.

As we are the leaders of all parties, whoever wins the bhoodevatas will be the ultimate leaders.

When election comes, we should never give the impression that we are all united. Never commit this mistake. You sacred brahmins don't know what will happen to us if all the sacred threads are united on one side. That is why some of us must be in the RSS, some in the BJP, some in the Congress, some in the Janata Dal, some in the CPI, some in the CPM and so on and so forth. The Congress of course is our original brahminical party and the rest of the political parties as its children should keep the Congress in power. If the gods on earth stand united, and grouped in one single political party it will be easy for the no-brains (NBs) to crush us. So, let us get ourselves distributed and this will help us to hold the leadership of every party.

No-brains: Our population is not even 5% of India's 1,000 million population. We are a microscopic minority. Even if we are united, we can be overwhelmed by the sheer number of the no-brains (NBs). There is a greater danger in unity. The moment we join hands and put up a united fight, we will be dubbed "communal". They will suspect our bonafides and consider us a danger to the entire mankind.

Babri Masjid blast

Please note we were never trusted by anybody throughout history. That is why we never ruled this country. This is the first time in Indian history we are ruling the whole country. With the help of that Bania, M.K. Gandhi, we drove out the British and imposed our brahminical imperialism and gave it the sweet sounding name of "nationalist rule". But you sacred brahmins are posing a danger to our rule. No doubt killing Gandhi was a good riddance. But you should not rock the boat too much. We are in secret agreement with you. Our heart is with you. But our only fear is that if you commit excesses then the NBs will finish all of us.

See how we succeeded in finishing Muslims and Islam. We went on telling you not to touch Babri Masjid but secretly allowed you to do Kar Seva at Ayodhya on Dec.6 1992. And when you demolished the Masjid, as you threatened, we simply winked at you. Our socialist brahmin Prime Minister helped you to destroy the Masjid and only after you completed the job we banned the RSS and dismissed the BJP govts. After the Babri Masjid came down and thousands of Muslims were killed we then shed crocodile tears. The game was beautifully planned. We socialist brahmins in the Congress, CPI, CPM and other parties wanted the same but you did the job for us. See what great profit it brought for us in dividing ourselves into "communal camp" and "secular camp"? Now that we have finished the Muslims, enslaving the Dalits will be easier.

So, in our own interest we should lie low, stay divided and get equally distributed in all shades of opinion. Whichever shade of opinion or political party wins it is we who will remain as the leaders of all these parties. So, why worry? Whether it is the Congress or Janata Dal, whether it is the CPI or the CPM, RSS or the naxalites, we will be on the top. We will retain the leadership. Always remember this.

Narmada Bachao: We will give you two latest examples of our socialist brahmin genius. Narmada Dam is badly needed by our people. All our lands in Gujarat, MP etc. will get the Narmada water. So, we need the Narmada Valley Project. We have fooled the World Bank and got the loan. Money is not ours but we will be the beneficiaries.

Magsasay award

We also know that the dam project will affect thousands of tribals and other wretched fellows. We know that these fellows will kick up a big row when they lose their lands. So, do you know what we did to fool these idiots? We manufactured our own Opposition. We created a leader for the "Narmada dam oustees" - Medha Patkar. She is a brilliant socialist brahmin. She united the entire affected tribals and won their hearts. They trusted her leadership. To that extent her acting was brilliant. In the name of anti-Narmada Dam protest, she could go to America several times in the pretext of negotiating with the World Bank which financed the project. In the name of holding Boat Club rally in Delhi against the Narmada dam, she led several delegations to Delhi and became a big leader along with another of our threaded man, Baba Amte.

Narmada tribals fooled: See, how beautifully Medha Patkar fooled the tribals, the World Bank and everybody. See our plan. All those who are pressing for the early completion of the Narmada Dam are our people and all those opposing it are also our people. Both quarrel during the day time, abuse each other and at night both eat together and sleep together. How beautifully we have fooled these idiotic tribals!!!

Do you know the latest? The Narmada Dam is coming up fast and getting ready. Medha Patkar got international Magsasay Award, publicity and plenty of money. The tribals are bundled out and our lands will soon get the Narmada waters. Can anybody surpass us in our strategy and tactics in the whole world?

Amte helps bhoodevatas: Baba Amte is a socialist brahmin. In the name of "Punjab peace" and curing the lepers they say he has become one of the biggest landlords in the Vidarbha area. Earlier, we manufactured a Vinobha Bhave and he fooled all the idiots in the name of bhoodan. Then we managed the shudra idiot, JP, and gave the widest publicity to his Navanirman Andolan, gave him the title of Lok Nayak, and fooled millions of people. Then we manufactured a Bal Thackeray to threaten the Dalits.

That is why we tell you not to rock the boat too much as you did during the latter half of 1990 (anti-Mandal agitation). If you do it, SC/ST/BCs and Muslims will join hands and kick us out.

Painless surgery by PVN: You sacred brahmins, listen to us carefully. From the beginning of history, it is we the vaidiks who have been on the top. Even after independence (1947), all the prime ministers barring three, that too for a very brief period, were our people. Of the three NB (non-brain) PMs, we killed the Kayasth Lal Bahadur Shastri with Russian help. V.P. Singh was finished on the Mandal-Mandir issue. The other NB Thakur Chandrashekar was our stooge. The present neogi brahmin is our man and perhaps the best vaidik ever to occupy this chair. He will complete the brahminisation of the country through a painless, bloodless surgery.

In every Central Cabinet, our people always had an overwhelming majority. Most of the chief ministers were also our people. The only trouble spot is the Dravidian South India. We have to tackle them very carefully. Jayalalita will show us the way. In the name of "national unity", we can curb the South. The Karunanidhi govt. was dismissed (Feb.1991) in the name of "national unity". In the name of Hindi, we can overawe them. We have hundred and one ways to fool the no-brains (NBs). The Constitution is in our hands. And our people are there in the Supreme Court to interpret our action and defend it. And on the top of it all we have the Seshan to manage the elections.

Brain control thru media: We never give up our hold on the media, fine arts, dance, drama, music, literature, education - anything that can control the brains of the no-brains (NBs). What you call as the "cultural front". The brain control should be with us. These NBs (no brains) have no brain. They have entrusted their brains to us. So we control their brains by frightening them with our gods and manipulating their brains through the media.

Monopoly of entertainment industry

The entertainment industry shall be only with us. Culture means Sanskrit, vedic values, brain control. Since we happen to be the thief and also the policeman, prosecutor, judge, jailor and the hangman - all rolled in one - our word will be the law. Who can question us? Any protest against us can be put down in the name of violence, law and order, anti-national activities, terrorism, subversive activities. Did we not finish Sant Bhindranwale (1984) in "Blue Star Operation"?

Ideological battle: Our people in the Opposition parties must bitterly attack the ruling party. The NBs will like it. Did not the Congress Party and our woman, Indira Gandhi, get defeated and the Janata Party win because of our propaganda against the Congress? We immediately hailed the Janata Party victory as "the second liberation of India". The NBs then rejoiced and we saw street dancing. We managed this because we distributed ourselves so equally whether it was the Congress or the Janata. That is how when the Janata Party formed its govt. our man, Morarji Desai, became the Prime Minister. Most of the top posts again went to our people. Our blue-eyed boy, A.B. Vajpayee, became the foreign minister and invited the zionists and had a secret meeting in Bombay. The Congress Party might have been defeated. But the bhoodevatas did not get defeated. It is the NBs who got fooled.

Gandhi-killers' party

So we have to stage-manage an "ideological battle". But this battle has nothing to do with brahminism which shall reign supreme. Our people in the Congress, Janata Dal, CPI, CPM, IPF must always quarrel between themselves but when it comes to the question of protecting brahminism we should be all one and indivisible. Ideology shall not come in the way of perpetuating brahminism. Did not the Danges, Namboodiripads, Jyoti Basus use marxism to protect brahminism? Did not Nehru, Indira Gandhi use the Congress Party to promote brahminism? Kanu Sanyal, Vinod Mishra, Venu promoted brahminism through naxalism? Vinobha Bhave used Sarvodaya, Sunderlal Bahuguna, Shivaram Karanth, Medha Patkar used ecology and environment to promote brahminism. We have our Tarkundes, Bhagawatis and Krishna Iyers, all human rights heroes, to protect our interests. We employ different vaidiks to promote our jati which is common to all. But yours is a crude method. Guru Golwalkar provoked hatred. Balasaheb Deoras will lose his deposit if he contests any election. Because Muslims and Dalits will call you a Gandhi - killer's party and that is your end.

But you, sacred brahmins, also have a vital role to play and you played it well. But for you we would have been all stoned to death by this time. That is why we have to be ever grateful to that Bania M.K. Gandhi. It was he who saved brahminism. So, whether it is socialism, communism, Naxalism fascism, nazism, Janata, CPI or CPM - our goal is promotion of brahminism.

Goodbye to Golwalkar: When we give this assurance, why you sacred brahmins are foolishly behaving like this? Give up your rigid stand. We don't say you give up brahminism. What we say is: When you are in Rome behave like Romans. If marxism can promote brahminism, why should you criticise it? If Ambedkarism can help us eat little more, why condemn it?

Bible of Brahminism

Sacred brahmins: You are wrong. We too have been changing. It was our philosopher, Guru Golwalkar, who called the communists along with Muslims and Christians as the "three internal enemies of Hindus" in his Bible of brahminism, Bunch of Thoughts. But this book we are not selling now. We discourage discussion on it. Because, of the "three internal enemies", Indian communists are no longer our enemies. In fact, they are the best friends of the sanatanis. Communist leadership, having been taken over by our people, is serving the sacred threads better than all of us. We no longer consider Christians as an internal enemy. So, Golwalkar is no longer relevant. Balasaheb Deoras has made lot of changes. Golwalkar was a true and typical sacred brahmin. But Deoras has come closer to socialist brahmins.

India not our country

Socialist brahmins: We have taken note of the great improvement done by Deoras. Bhoodevatas can survive only if we go on changing according to the changing times. Did we not give up beef-eating and take to vegetarianism once? Did we not give up our sacred language and sold it to Untouchables after adopting English? India is not our country. It is only our fatherland - not our motherland. So if the time comes we may even have to get out of India after selling India to America and World Bank. In fact, we are engaged in such an exercise right now. We have named this exercise as "privatisation".

A vaidik who attacks brahminism shall be our greatest asset. Just one such person among us is equal to several thousand sacred brahmins. Look at the great services rendered to the sacred threads by Nehrus, S.M. Joshis, N.G. Gorays, N. Rams, Krishna Iyers, Namboodiripads, Agniveshas, Madhu Limayes, Dandavates.

When a vaidik attacks his jati and brahminism, we must immediately call him a revolutionary. The NBs will like this. The No-Brains will then think that there are also some "progressive brahmins." Our propaganda machinery should be used to advertise such critics of brahmins among the sacred threads.

Crush the NBs: So, remember this: only a socialist brahmin shall be praised and paraded and all NBs should be told to emulate his great example. But when a NB attacks our people, he shall not be spared. Only we have the right to condemn the brahman and brahminism. No NB shall be given this privilege. This right of condemning the sacreds and their sacred thread shall not be given to the NBs. It is only our birthright. A NB condemning us if not put down at the very first attempt will immediately start gathering followers among his tribe and will instantly become popular. So, let us take the very first opportunity to crush him.

Character assassination: Any NB criticising the sacred threads should be finished through our four-fold strategy of sama, dana, bedha, danda. Character assassination of such a NB will instantly make him appear as a demon among his own NBs. No mercy should be shown to put down and finish such a person.

The best example for this is the way we finished Dr. Ambedkar and Dr. R.M. Lohia.

M.N. Roy on Muslims: Remember. The only people who have challenged the brahmanical social order are the Muslims. Islam alone is our nightmare. Our own man, M.N. Roy, has said this. (Historical Role of Islam, Ajanta Publishers). Roy said Islam alone has the capacity and strength to destroy brahminism. He is right.

How to deceive Muslims

We socialist brahmmins also know this truth about Muslims. We appreciate you for demolishing the Babri Masjid. We liked your Rath Yatra and your Ekta Yatra. We appreciate your attack on Muslim Personal Law. We support yo Anti-Muslim Riots: You go on doing it. But as you go on attacking and killing Muslims, we will go on criticising you. When we criticise your yatras and your attacks, your war and violence, mass murders of Muslims, we will appear as progressive, pro-Muslim, "secular leaders" and we get more and more Muslim votes. Muslims will trust us and come to our side. When you stage the mass murder of Muslims, we socialist brahmmins will rush to the spot, get our protests published on front pages, condemn the violence and demand judicial inquiry. The Muslims will be immensely pleased. We will condemn you as Hindu Nazis and blood-suckers and demand action against you.

Muslims will be more pleased. We will manage to see that the judicial commission after good deal of delay mildly blames the sacred brahmins. This will please the Muslims much more. Since we control everything, we will not take action on any judicial commission verdicts. After delaying for years, things will be forgotten. By then, you stage another and bigger anti-Muslim riot and that will make everybody forget your earlier sins. This way, we will together keep on fooling the Muslims. We have already fooled them so much that their own Muslim League is confined to the state of Kerala. But the Muslims elsewhere are with the Congress Party which is our original brahminical party. More you kill Muslims, more Muslims will vote for the Congress Party.

So, once the Muslims come to our side and vote for us, we will do what exactly you want us to do. The only difference between we two is, you say you hate Muslims but we say we love Muslims. That is all.

The difference between we two is in the words we use. The content remains the same.

Communist cow not yielding milk: You want to kill the Muslims openly and directly. We too hate the Muslims and want to finish Muslims. But we kill them through socialist, secularist, slow poison.

Your methods cannot finish Muslims. But we can. Your frontal attack, your actions like hoisting national flag at Srinagar (Kashmir) will create more and more hatred among Muslims against the BSO. But our sweet words and soft actions will make them love the BSO. That does not mean you should not resort to anti-Muslim riots and kill them. That is a must. Every week you stage one anti-Muslim riot. That will keep the Muslims on our side. More you kill Muslims, closer will they come to socialist brahmins.

Fertile field of ecology

We have profited more than enough from our fake socialism, communism, etc. For the past 45 years we made maja chanting the marxist mantra. But now it has stopped paying. The communist cow has stopped yielding milk. So we have to take to new stunts. And that is: "Development, Ecology, Women's Lib" (Dalit Voice, edit April 16, 1991: "Beware of the three latest Aryan stunts to enslave us: Development, Ecology, Feminism").

Muslim tanneries: In the name of ecology, environment we can have a nice time. In the name of ecology our children can have a periodical run for fun. Anything that provides us entertainment should be welcomed. We can have weekly music concerts on ecology. In the name of environmental pollution we can close down Muslims tanneries, slaughter houses. In the name of Chipko, Appiko, Kuppiko, we can stop these wretched fellows, who are working as our servants and slaves, from migrating to cities. Ecology and Anumukti has given us a very fertile field to get lots of jobs for our boys and girls. We can produce lots of books on "Greens", expensive ones and sell it and make money. We can have plenty of songs and dance. Ecology is a good field which we can exploit to the fullest extent to promote our sacred threads. Our sacreds like the Sunderlal Bahugunas, Shivaram Karanths are doing good business. They got name and fame and plenty of money. Until the NBs find out our latest frauds in ecology business, we can go on. Once we are discovered and caught, we can shift to new avenues to promote brahminism.

Media, our greatest asset: We will do exactly what you want us to do but we will not say that we will do it. We will speak of socialism, secularism, democracy and liberty, equality, fraternity and all that bullshit and fool the asses. We will announce grandiose actions like "Quit Poverty", IRDP, ABCD, RLEGP, XYZ schemes. Litaracy mission. Jawahar Rozghar. But we will not implement them.

But to prove that we have implemented, our boys and girls in our (Aryan) national press will publish "convincing", "eye-witness", "on-the-spot reports", "pilot studies", "investigative" reports. And when the wretched asses read these flowery reports in the press they will simply believe it.

To us, our greatest asset is our press. And that is why our boys and girls have cornered all the media posts. Our sacred thread boys say that journalism is more important than Janeyu (janiwara). They say they will rather give up janeyu but not journalism.

"National" toilet papers: Despite our newspapers, TV and radio giving a rosy picture of our "development projects," there is a chance of some intelligent idiot doubting our claims. These days more and more people are realising that our (Aryan) national press is not giving out the truth. The Editor of Dalit Voice is contemptuously calling our national press as "national toilet papers" and "napkin papers". The people are seeing through our game.

Awards & Rewards

To silence such mad fellows like the Editor of Dalit Voice we have to institute some awards and rewards. Those who are "outstanding" in the field of "rural development", medical relief, child care, education drive, rag-pickers rehabilitation, "Harijan welfare" etc. must be given awards and rewards. We must select some good frauds among such "development" and "relief" works. Once such frauds get national awards, all critics will be silenced and they will simply believe that these "development works" are genuine. See, how we fooled the whole of India by giving the Bharat Ratna Award to that White Christian woman, Mother Teresa, our slave?

Useless Raos: And only we will select the awardees and they should be our people. We will praise them as "eminent people" at public functions. And our threaded people in the press will give front-page reports and pictures about such award-winning personalities like ABCD Raos, UR Raos, Useless Raos, XYZ Raos, BCG Raos, DDT Raos. The idiotic public will be overawed and silenced.

To further heighten the importance of these Jnana Pitta Awards, we must get congratulatory messages from PMs, AMs, CMs and publish it. Printed words are held in such high esteem that anything coming in the paper is simply believed.

How to fool farmers: To fool the farmers, we must arrange a "Jai Kisan week". We will invite such gentlemen farmers to five- star hotels and give them a lavish dinner and publish their pictures in our press. And they will be supremely happy and go back to their villages and produce more food for us to eat.

We will periodically announce widely publicised slogans like "go-back-to-villages" and call upon city people to go in for "rural development".

We will also take our own city-bred fashionable girls to some villages for a short "manual work". Such an occasional outing will be like a picnic party to our girls. We take some pictures of our girls seated along with these uncouth village goofies and publish it in our press. Such a show will be an entertainment for our children and fool the village idiots and they will produce more and would remain contented in the villages. Or else, they will flock to our cities and become a headache to us.

"Rural development" is our stunt to fool the shudra farmers and agricultural labourers and confine them to their village.

Human rightswalas: We will constitute a number of human rights organisations - all headed by our selected sacred thread people. Whenever a "major tragedy" takes place and the wretched fellows get killed our human rightswalas will jump into action, issue statements, hold public meetings and discussions - after a sumptuous party. Such human rights conferences will be inaugurated by our Krishna Iyers and the Agniweshas who will shed lots of tears and make speeches in a torrent of words, jaw-breaking, mouth-filling words, with profuse quotations from Vedas, Marx, Mao and Mahatma. The speech shall be so long and so heavy nobody would understand it. They will make one hundred and one demands. They will profusely quote the Constitution of India and also from Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar about the human rights and civil rights of the people. Such conferences will pass resolutions which will get prompt publicity in our "national" press. And once so much is done the victims of human rights abuse will be mightily pleased and go away. Look at the Bhopal gas victims. We have fooled them.

Wanted more Hamid Dalwais

If it is an anti-Muslim riot with many Muslims killed, our human rightswalas will select a "secular Muslim" of our confidence like our Engineer to go to such a spot. Such "secular Muslims" must be praised, paraded and conferred all sorts of titles and called "Arabic scholars", "authorities on Islam" and "Directors of Islamic Research Foundations". Better if they also have a beard. Such Muslim stooges are there in plenty in India. Such stooges must be financed, praised and pampered by us. They will be good slaves. The service done by one Salman Rushdie is unforgettable.

Little publicity in our press describing them as "eminent authorities" will swell their heads and they will be our loyal dogs to bite their own Muslim people. We send the Muslim stooge to the anti-Muslim riot spots and manage to report that the "Muslim scholar" blames the Muslims only. The report should be long-winding and nobody should be able to make out what the findings are. Such a "spot-study-report" should be given publicity in our papers with the picture of the "Muslim scholar", who should be always addressed as "an eminent authority on Muslim problem". One such Muslim stooge must be identified in every big city of India and made to preside or inaugurate "Muslim conferences". The whole intention is to impress the masses that these stooges are the real representatives of the Muslims. The wonderful example of Hamid Dalwai of the Satyashodhak Samaj, Pune, should be remembered. We should have one such Hamid Dalwai in every state of India.

Sacred brahmins: We cannot agree with your suggestion. Muslim is a Muslim. How can we trust a Muslim even if he is stooge?

The case Moulana Kalam Azad: Have you forgotten what one stooge did to us? You fellows praised Moulana Kalam Azad, made him president of the Congress Party for years. Finally what did he do ? After his death, he exploded a bomb (book), India Wins Freedom. What a nasty book he wrote. What a dangerous book. So, how to trust even a stooge?

Muslims are given a country of their own. Why should the Pakistanis still stick to our Hindustan?

Socialist Brahmins: Good, good. We want you to go on speaking like this only. More you attack the Muslims, verbally and physically, better it helps us.

Issues & non-issues: We have to encourage all types of activities that will help divert the attention of the wretched from their exploitation and pain. The best areas are the one already identified three principal areas: development, ecology and women.

We have to periodically publish front-page pictures of such idiots like those who grow the longest fingernails, longest hair, longest mustache, longest beard. The idiots will become better idiots when they see their pictures in our national press and then serve us better.

Not only that. When we publish their pictures we must also say that these "largest things" are for sale. In the auction, we must encourage another idiot to buy these longest nail, hair, and all sorts of rubbish and give it front-page publicity. More and more idiots will get busy with such things. We must see that these idiots are kept busy with non-issues so that they will not think of their exploitation. See how effectively our invention, lottery tickets, has kept the idiots busy.

We must arrange "heritage workshop" and engage the Governor of a State (who is normally unemployed as he has no work) to inaugurate the gala at a Raj Bhavan function itself.

We can play such tricks because we have our national press which is completely our own. If we have the press, we can control everything including the govt.

Cricket, TV & cinema

Sacred brahmins: You socialist brahmins seem to be going mad. You have started this craze for cricket, cinema, TV and things like that to which our sacred thread children have also fallen a victim. You have promoted cricket, cinema, TV to keep the shudras and ati-shudras busy and divert their attention. But that is alright. But our children have also become its addict. They are also going mad. Even our own god-fearing women. More and more of our boys and girls are taking to cricket, cinema, TV and all sorts of games, sports and entertainment activities which have come in the way of their spiritual pursuits. Brahman dharma will come to an end if all our children forget our holy vedic customs, manners, rituals, traditions. You are ruining our society.

Socialist brahmins: Don't be stupid. Who said our children by taking to cricket, TV, cinema etc. forget their sacred role and sanatana dharma? They have only changed their dress, language and the vocations. But every sanatana son is a vaidik first and vaidik last. You can be sure that our vaidik boys and girls will never compromise on that. Look at Arun Shourie. He might have been brought up in the World Bank culture but has he given up his jati dharma? As the Editor of the Indian Express, he served our jati cause better than all of you put together. Look at M.V. Kamath. Our boys and girls are vaidiks first and vaidiks last. To them their jati is more important than the country.

Cricket, TV, cinema, culture-culture are very essential. We have captured the entire entertainment industry with a double purpose. Not only to fool the idiots but also to earn by fooling them. Entertainment industry is killing two birds with one stone.

The hated English language

Sacred brahmins: If you teach all these bad habits even to our boys, then who will be left to do yagas, yajnas, our sacred duties, temple worship?

Socialist Brahmins: To hell with your temples. As things change, we must also change. You have been shouting and shouting about Sanskrit saying that our sacred language, the language of the gods, is dying. Do you know what we did? We held six national conferences on Sanskrit and the entire deliberations were conducted in English language. Today, we shout for Sanskrit in English. The total number of Sanskrit-knowing people in India is not even 5,000. And in spite of this are you not having a Sanskrit radio news bulletin?

We have to change according to the changing times.

How we took to English but impressed the shudras and anti-shudras not to learn English. We told them that English is the language of the foreigners, our rulers, imperialists, and those opting for English will become anti-national. The idiots believed our propoganda and kept away from English.

At the same time, we created a strong love for "mother tongue" in the hearts of all idiots. So, all the vernacular languages are loved and preserved by the shudras and ati-shudras while we took to English. Our boys and girls became IAS officers, scientists, lawyers, management experts, computer kids, Harshad Mehtas through English language and the boys of the shudras remained as clerks by sticking to their mother tongue. How do you like our trick? Had we followed you, our boys would have dropped dead by holding on to the dead language - Sanskrit.

Cricket - the idlers paradise

Today, we ask the shudra idiots and the wretched Harijans to study the useless Sanskrit language whereas our children have mastered German, French, Japanese and have become captains of industry.

Sacred brahmins: Yes, yes. We admire your capacity to fool the idiots and keep them at bay. But our worry is that our children are becoming too much entertainment-oriented because of cricket, cinema, TV etc and forgetting their studies.

Socialist brahmins: As bhoodevatas and unquestioned lords of the land, we are not expected to work. We have to spend our time drinking, eating, mating and then sleeping. This is what our gods did and our ancestors followed. Our life should be a life of unending pleasure and eternal entertainment. We have any number of servants to do our work.

Cricket is the world's best suited game for the bhoodevatas. Our idli-sambar grass-eating boys cannot compete in the Olympics and win any prize. See what we did in the 1992 Barcelona Olympics. That is why we have taken to cricket. Cricket suits us eminently - because it is neither a male nor a female. It is a eunuch. It is neither a game nor a sport. It is neither played in the Olympics nor in the Asiad. No busy modern country plays it. We the bhoodevatas are essentially lazy people. Look at the number of holiday we have in a year. Out of the 365 days in a year, we have 300 days of holidays. We go to office only on 65 days and having gone to office, we need not work. The bhoodevatas are born to enjoy - enjoy at others' cost.

Why we don't work? Because the shudras and ati-shudras do the work for us. They produce the food and we eat and rule. We have given them a philosophy (dharma) which they have accepted and they are obediently doing their work. We inflict no violence on them. Instead of violence, we have contrived an ideology of brahminism which is more violent than physical violence. This makes the slaves enjoy their slavery. (Dalit Voice editorial Sept.1 1992: "India is the only country where slaves enjoy thier slavery". When the slaves enjoy their slavery, where is the need for violence?

Bhoodevatas not Indians

-So, when we have so much of leisure and such enormous income we must also have plenty of entertainment. That is why the country's entertainment industry is completely in our hands: cinema, TV, Star TV, dance, drama, music, fine arts, and sports and games. We need to discover more stooges like Safdar Hashmi, M.F. Hussain and Shabana Azmi to entertain us.

Even in our office, we see TV - not Indian Dooradarshan but Foreign TV - and films, listen to cricket commentary. We will soon open a liquor bar in each office so that we can enjoy good whisky even as others work.

Sacred brahmins: If you teach such bad habits even to our own boys what will happen to this holy Bharata Varsha, our holy land?

To hell with your cricket. You have made our boys and girls crazy about cricket. They have stopped doing any reading. They waste all their time on cricket. Formerly, reading was our strongest point. But now our reading habit is dead because of your wretched cricket, your blessed TV.

Socialist brahmins: We think nobody can improve you bloody buddhus. In the good old days, reading and writing used to pay us heavy dividends and make us dominate the rest of the idiots. Today, we can't lord over others. Today's changed shudra idiots and the wretched excel you in reading and writing abilities. Because they have also learnt reading and writing.

So we have switched on to cricket. It brings us double benefits: (1) It brings eternal entertainment. We bhoodevas are not expected to work but enjoy at others cost. You know even the shastras say that we should earn without working. Cricket provides this very thing. (2) We have mesmerised the whole lot of shudra slaves and the wretched of the earth with this cricket. Cricket makes them forget all their "worries". Otherwise, these fellows would have constantly tormented us and made our life miserable. We have given them cricket so that they would remain permanently drugged, doped and forget the world. See how we have killed two birds with one stone - cricket?

Sacred brahmins: What is the use with so much expenditure, pomp and spendour? You have not won any cricket match so far. Everywhere Indian cricketers are getting defeated.

Socialist brahmins: You are really bloody fools. We don't play cricket to win a match or to get international acclaim. We don't get humiliated or dejected when our boys lose. We don't go to Olympics to win gold or even a piece of iron. What we want is eternal enjoyment. Of the 365 days in the year, we go to office only on 65 days. The rest of the 300 days are holidays. Since we only make the almanac and calendar we can adjust holidays in such a way with Saturdays and Sundays so that we can club these holidays with our two-day weekend holidays and thereby we can have continuous holidays for a full week.

Even on the other days, we only "go to office" but need not work as we are the lords of the land. So, when we have so much of leisure and endless income we need plenty of entertainment. And cricket provides exactly this. No other game is endless like the cricket. That is why it is admitted neither as a sport nor a game! Winning or losing is immaterial.

Our girls like Imran Khan

If anybody criticises us for losing we can immediately alert our threaded boys in journals like the Sunday, Monday, Tuesday or India Today, Tomorrow and Day-After-Tomorrow to write stories attributing motives for our defeat and conclude that actual victory should have been ours. We lost badly in the 1992 Olympics. So what? Did we not enjoy? What we want is enjoyment. For us, our religious festivals are also meant to enjoy. Prayer and penance are just an eye-wash.

Sacred brahmins: That is alright. How can we get defeated even at the hands of that bloody Pakistani Muslims? What a shame?

Socialist brahmins: You know our girls love Muslims particularly the sturdy Pakistani Muslim boys like its captain, Imran Khan. Pakistani boys are tall, handsome.

Sex as national sport: Our girls want more and more such boys. They like to rush into cricket grounds, mob them, kiss them. Have you forgotten that sex is our greatest national sport?

Sacred brahmins: Shantam papam, shantam papam. Sex with Muslim boys? Where are we heading? Where is this Kaliyuga taking us?

Socialist brahmins: Shut up. What nonsense you are speaking. Did we not supply our women, our wives, daughters, sisters to Moghuls, Pathans, Turks? We supplied our women to many Muslim rulers. So, having sex with Pakistani Muslims is not new.

Who is Sheikh Abdullah? Was he not Jawaharlal Nehru's brother? Everyone knows that he is the son of Motilal Nehru - born to his Kashmiri keep. Stop your day-dreams.

Sacred brahmins: As we are Indians, can we betray India? Our own motherland?

Socialist brahmins: No. India is not our motherland. It is our Fatherland as Hitler called his Germany. Who is bothered about India? India is not ours. We are Aryans. We have come from Persia. So, what love do we have for this country of the Dravidians? Forget about India, enjoy your life.

Conspiracy to divide India

Many of our sacred thread bhoodevatas have sold their lands, left their villages and migrated to cities. Thousands of them have gone to US and settled down there. Does it not prove that our people have no love for their place of birth? This is because the villages where they were once born and lived were not theirs. Bhoodevatas are not the sons of this soil. India is our Fatherland. Our Motherland is somewhere else.

That is why we the Aryans conspired to divide this country when we got independence and drove out the Muslims to Pakistan so that we could live peacefully and clamp our brahminical imperialism. But soon the bloody Sikhs, the Kashmiris and Assamese, Tamils, Jharkhandis, Muslims started the mischief. No doubt, with the help of our press we could successfully dub them anti-national, terrorists. After convincing about this to the whole country, we are shooting down these traitors one by one by employing their own people. To kill Sikhs, we engage Tamils. To kill Tamils, we employ Jats. To kill Nagas we use the Marathas. This is our strategy.

Bhoodevatas want Khalistan: If the rebellious Sikhs do not submit to our dictates and fail to get hinduised, we will drive them also out into Khalistan just as we drove out the Jinnahs into Pakistan. But we will not say all this. Since what we say is "national" and what our opponents say is "anti-national", we will only prove right. Since it is our men who write the history books, we will paint the Sikhs as anti-national and Khalistanis. Did we not succeed in convincing the whole world that it was that Jinnah and his Muslim League that conspired to create Pakistan though it is our man, C. Rajagopalachari, who impressed Gandhi, Nehru, and Patel that without getting rid of the Muslims it would not be possible to impose our brahminical imperialism on India?

Sacred brahmins: If you go on vivisectioning the country and driving out more and more people, what will happen to India?

Socialist brahmins: We had answered this question earlier. This country does not belong to us. Just as the Moghals came to this country as rulers, as the British came and left, one day we too will be forced to leave.

Aryan homeland: We are rulers. Aryan rulers. One day we too have to quit. As we have no homeland unlike the Moghals, British, Portuguese, French, who all ruled India, we have to retain at least the Aryavarta, the "cow belt", as our homeland.

To us, India means only the land around Delhi - that is UP, MP, Haryana. We have doubts about even Bihar coming with us. To us this Aryavarta is India.

Sacred brahmins: Then what about the Parasurama Shristi? According to our shastra, Parashurama was the greatest Brahman who saved our race by killing all the Kshatriyas. He finally went to Kerala and that west coast State is now called Parashurama Shristi. If the Aryavarta alone is Hindustan, then what to do with the Parashurama Shristi?

Socialist brahmins: It is all cock and bull story. We have manufactured hundreds of such cock and bull stories such as Ramayana and Mahabharata to fool the shudras and the wretched. We are not interested in any land below the Vindhya. All those calling themselves vaidiks below the Vidhyas are not even pure vaidiks. They are all hybrid fellows. Look at that "Modern Shankara". How dark he is. Can anybody say he is an Aryan?

Retain Aryavarta: So, forget about this India. It is not our land. Some day the Dravidians, the original inhabitants of this country, will definitely come to know the truth and once they know the truth, they will drive us out. As we have no homeland and none on earth will admit us, we have to retain at least the Aryavarta. But before doing that we have to break India into pieces. Since we want to keep this decision a secret, we have to always sing the song of "national unity and integrity".

Human rights

Human rights and civil liberties should be our favourite field. All these organisations must be headed by our handpicked sacred threads. Look, what wonderful work has been done by our Chinnabhirans in Andhra Pradesh.

Human rights linked with our naxalite natak companies are the best outfits to deceive these idiots.

Those of us in the govt. should use the shudra police to shoot and kill those revolting idiots, dubbing them naxalities. Call the dog mad and shoot. Our people in the press will paint a gory picture of the "anti-national naxalites creating law and order problem".

Role of journalists: Once the police shoot and kill a naxalite, our human rights heroes led by the Chinnabhirans will rush and shed crocodile tears, hold press conferences, preferably in Delhi. And this will make the Chinnabhirans a hero and more and more Dalits and tribals will worship him. Look at the Gaddar, that stupid Dalit, how we fooled him to sing and dance for our naxalite natak companies.

When we direct our police to kill a Muslim or Sikh, we must call it "encounter killing" and when our threaded human rights heroes condemn the same shudra police it should be called "state terrorism". This will confuse everybody. A part of our people should be engaged in killing the Sikhs and Muslims and another set in condemning these killings as human rights violations. Some of our boys and girls have even infiltrated the Amnesty International to fool the idiots.

Janeyu & journalism: Remember, we must send our most cunning and cantankerous boys and girls to journalism. They should act more as bodyguards of brahminism and sole protectors of the sacred thread than as journalists. When they attend press conferences called by the shudras and idiots and such other foes of brahminism, they will put such nasty questions that the idiot calling the press conference should start perspiring. If the fellow does not stop talking about SC/ST/BC and Muslim rights, our reporters will enact an ugly scene at the press conference which should almost turn into a verbal warfare between the two. The reporters will attribute motives, abuse him and denounce him so much that the idiot should never again call a press conference in his life. Our reporters will create such a war scene that the idiot should go mad and once for all silenced.

Sacred brahmin: That means you want our boys to speak falsehood? You want us to be dishonest. You don't want us to maintain our purity? You want us to compromise on our principles?

Socialist brahmins: We never asked you to compromise. You sacred brahmins go on speaking what you want to. You condemn us. We will condemn you. All this is for public show - to fool the shudras, avarnas. Remember : brahminism never stood for truth. Our vedic value system is different from that of western values.

Sacred brahmins: Because of your madness the purest sacred Aryan blood is getting contaminated. Varna sankara is prohibited by Manu.

Socialist brahmins: Manu suited that age. Today's Manu is Gandhi. Varna sankara does not hold good today. It is nonsense. Our girls must marry and then spoil the boys of the idiot shudras and wretched Untouchables. Our girls are capable of doing the magic. They will go into our enemy households and transform our non-Hindu enemies into Hindus. The children born to them will be our slaves. To save us, did not our gods use bluff bombs and sex bombs, Ramba and Menakas? Every girl is an asset. She will seduce these satans and see that the fellow becomes our slave. M.C.Chagla was a good example.

Inquiry Commission: Whenever these wretched fellows die in hundreds like the Bhopal Gas tragedy or a person like Rajiv Gandhi is assassinated we must be the first to demand judicial inquiry and make a big noise about it. We only must lead agitations to set up such an inquiry commission. Our people in the govt. must concede this demand and set up the commission headed by our sacred thread man. Such commission jobs will keep them occupied for 2-3 years with good pay, perks and publicity. We must see that the inquiry goes on endlessly and finally the people and the victims of the tragedy forget about it. By then some more such tragedies should be engineered so that many more threads get jobs.

Farce of rural development

Sacred brahmins: Our vedas and shastras have prohibited us from touching the soil and working on land. Look at the Bhumihar Brahmin farmers of Bihar. They have been downgraded. They are not considered Brahmins at all. Our scriptures say that not only we should have nothing to do with land but all those wretched fellows working on land must be kept as slaves. That is why we should neglect rural development. If rural development is taken up seriously that will make the shudra and backward caste farmers prosperous.

Socialist brahmins: Don't say this in public. If we neglect the rural side and starve the farmers what will you eat? You only say that our scriptures prohibit us from working on land. When we don't grow our own food, and if we starve the shudra farmers, then from where can we get our food? Don't you know that our sacred threads are gluttonous eaters? Brahmanam bhojana priya.

Beware of farmers: We are fond of eating. In fact, we are born to eat. We live to eat, not eat to live. That means we need plenty of food. That means we must get adequate supply of rice, wheat, vegetable, milk, fruits, fish, meat, eggs, honey, nuts. The idiotic shudra farmers will grow it and give it to us. As the sacred threads are city-dwellers, if we are harsh with the farmers they can simply starve us to death. Remember, fellows like Prof. M.D. Nanjundaswamy, Mehendra Singh Tikayat can simply kill us.

You see what happened in Madras few years back. Those idiotic Vanniyars blocked the supply of milk to Madras city and our poor papans started screaming. Our people can live without anything but not milk. Milk is our most important food.

Remember, if the farmers unite they can simply starve us to death. Already, dreaded terrorists like the Editor of Dalit Voice have been going round the country and telling farmers leaders like Tikayat, M.D. Nanjundaswamy etc. that a farmer must grow food only to the extent of his household needs and in the rest of the land, he must grow cash crops. If his advice is seriously taken and implemented then what will happen to our big belly? Eating is our pleasantest pastime. We sacred threads are born to eat. Brahmanam bhोजना priya. So if we heed your advice, we will be finished.

Sacred brahmins: Your policy of rural development is not only wrong but dangerous. When our cities are starved of funds, why divert the scarce resource to rural development?

Meeting and eating

Socialist brahmins : When we speak of "rural development" what we actually mean is just lip sympathy. It is just a slogan like all our other slogans. The funny thing is the idiots believe the slogans and vote for us. In the name of "rural development", we can start hundreds of agricultural universities and appoint sacred thread vice-chancellors and professors. Hundreds of our boys and girls will get jobs in the name of rural development. Sacred thread agricultural scientists like the Dr. M.S. Swaminathans can hold international seminars along with eating and meeting, wining and dining in five-star hotels. Wide publicity is given to these seminars in our national press. And to these international seminars we invite some select idiotic shudra farmers and further corrupt them. Out of this, we can select one "gentleman farmer" and give him a "national award". Life-long he will be grateful to us.

By giving such publicity we will see that these shudra farmers produce more and supply more for us to eat, sitting in cities.

You know the children of these shudras and backward castes have started leaving their farms and fields and migrating to cities. That means these shudra kids will start competing with our boys and girls. So, to check the migration of these shudras and BC/SCs to cities, periodical "rural development" stunts are necessary to fool these idiots.

"Rural development", "Jai Kisan - Jai Jawan", "Farmers are our backbone", these are all mere slogans to fool these idiots. How successfully we have mesmerised the whole country by mere slogans. We have starved them to death. No food, no clothing, no shelter, no education, yet the masses are so happy, so contented believing merely in our slogans, can you think of better cheats than us in the whole world? The Editor of Dalit Voice calls it slaves enjoying their slavery.

Our sacred thread boys in the banks can have some socialist exercises of opening "rural branches" and pretend giving loans to farmers. We have told our boys to give some loans and see that the farmers become defaulters and then attach their property and caution them and see that the farmers become paupers and some commit suicide.

Indirectly, we are doing only what you want us to do. But we use sugar-coated words. You go on speaking your language, we go on speaking our language.

Literacy drive

Sacred brahmins: Our goddess Saraswati has said that she can bless only the sacred threads. Saraswati cannot smile on anybody other than the sacreds. But your policy is ruining us. You want to make all the wretched fellows literate. This will spell danger to us. Saraswati will frown upon us.

Socialist brahmins: Don't be foolish. You forget that the Constitution of India has provided for "free, compulsory and universal primary education". Consitutional obligation has to be fulfilled.

For this we have set up scores of govt. agencies to "implement" the constitutional provision and this has given jobs to hundreds of our boys and girls. They go to villages in the name of "adult literacy scheme", Saksharata Yagna and hundreds of other schemes. All the teachers and the staff are mostly from our sacred society. See the number of jobs this literacy drive has created to our threaded teachers. These teachers hardly attend classes and when they attend classes they will enforce varnashram dharma within the school and brainwash the children about Manu dharma and Artha shastra. Look at the profit. In the name of universal education, millions of our sacreds got jobs. At govt. expense we can preach and practice brahminism and these teachers will have such vast influence in villages where they will be virtual dictators.

And more than that, these threaded teachers have been charged with the task of keeping the masses illiterate. They are doing a fine job. Real literacy is not even 15% even after 46 years of independence.

Monopoly of English

See what we have done. The Consitution came into being in 1950- 51. It is now over 41 years and we have seen to it that the literacy remains at 30%.

And do you know how we have arrived at this (30%) figure? We have included the signaturewalas also. Even those who can just put the signature are called literate. So including the signaturewalas, it has come to 30%. If you deduct the signaturewalas, the literacy is not even 10%. And those knowing English are not even 2% and mostly they are our people. We have seen that English remains our monopoly. All this we can achieve by making a song and dance of "literacy drive".

Are you satisfied now?

The meaning of Ahimsa

If the wretched and the idiots make a noise that constitutional provisions on primary education are not implemented, then we too will join that agitation and take over the leadership of the agitation. Then we appoint an inquiry commission with our sacred man as chairman who will take several years to submit the report. So more the idiots cry, more profit we can make.

Sacred brahmins: Ever since you took over as the rulers of India, you started reckless spending on arms, defence build-up and even tested and made an atom bomb. But all this goes against our policy of ahimsa (non-violence). Bhoodevatas are humble, weak, peace-loving, grass-eating people. We have always been talking of peace. But you have ruined our reputation.

Socialist brahmins: You are wrong. Our religion nowhere speaks of non-violence or peace. All our gods are fully armed with deadliest of weapons. Go to any temple and see our gods' idols. Are they not carrying bows, arrows, gada, chakra? Krishna, our main Black (Yadava) god whom we manufactured to fool the cowbelt Yadavas, constituting the single largest population in the Aryavarta (cow-belt), advised and directed Arjuna to kill his near and dear ones in the battlefield. Read the Gita Rahasya by Lokamanya Tilak, the king of sacred brahmins.

Tilak said non-violence was never a part of our holy religion. Non-violence was borrowed by our vaidik ancestors from Jainism and Buddhism to destroy these dirty religions which threatened to destroy our sanatana dharma.

We really pity your ignorance.

However, you are right in saying that the vaidiks are meek, weak, cowards. All cunning, crafty, crooked people are like this.

Our ancestors realised the danger of our physical weakness and our cowardly nature. They were afraid that our tormentors would trouble us. They were sure that the sturdy shudras and the wretched would physically annihilate us.

So to avert this danger, they deliberately introduced the non-violence theory. That does not mean the vaidiks have to be non-violent. We must preach, proclaim, propagate and publicise ahimsa (non-violence) to others - those sturdy idiots and the wretched. They should be brainwashed that Hindus stand for non-violence and hence we should carry no arms. The moment you convince them of this theory, you can easily disarm them. Otherwise, these shudras and ati-shudras - all of them martial races - will take to arms and the first to be crushed will be we the vaidiks.

Rama Kills Shudra Shambuka

So, we have propagated the ahimsa theory for them. Himsa for us and ahimsa for them.

Sacred brahmins: That means you want to first deceive and then defeat the shudras and ati-shudra masses. We, sacred brahmins, cannot accept your advice. Our vedas and shastras never asked us to practice such a deception.

Socialist brahmins: You are wrong. Did not our god Rama kill the Shudra Shambhuka for no fault of him? Shambuka's only fault was that he was trying to learn the vedas which, being reserved for the vaidiks, was a serious offence. So, Rama killed him on the spot. So also Rama killed the non-Aryan Wali by hiding behind a tree.

You, sacred brahmins, say that you are authorities on the vedas, shastras and puranas. But you seem to be ignorant of the essentials of our glorious religion. That is why nobody cares for you. You are ridiculed. You are the butt of all criticism.

Thread-cutting in Tamil Nadu: In Tamil Nadu your sacred thread, your tuft was cut. All Brahmin hotel name boards were tarred. This is because you practice ahimsa.

You preach ahimsa to others but practice himsa for yourself.

Defence spending: See, how we have stepped up our defence spending. India is the largest military spender in Asia. We have the largest army in Asia next only to China. Because of this hundreds of our boys and girls were able to get jobs. By diverting the scarce funds to defence - spending, we have killed two birds with one stone. We have secured jobs for thousands of our boys and girls. The vaids could start scores of sub-contracting jobs to supply defence wares. And at the same time, we could keep the masses of idiots and the wretched as poor and illiterate.

We need Pakistan as our enemy: When these idiots shout and question the "high defence spending", we point out at Pakistan. Since Pakistan is also arming, India should possess better arms. When Pakistan has the atom bomb we must have hydrogen bomb.

Nuclear Development

When Pakistan is pointed out as the cause of our arms buildup, these idiots and the wretched fellows will simply keep silent. Because we have succeeded in creating the myth of Pakistan and Muslims as our enemy.

We have secretly spoken to the rulers of Pakistan to oblige us. This is a secret understanding. Defence spending is very important to impoverish the masses and keep up our eternal pleasure and endless leisure.

We have our eminent scientists like the Raja

Ramannas, UR Raos and Useless Raos always leading us in atomic energy, space research, satellite technology which we borrow from US and Russia and tell the idiots as our own. Since we have our own press we can fool not only the idiots but even Parliament and the Ministers. Since we have managed to see that the portfolio of Scientific Research and Atomic Energy are held only by the Prime Minister, who will be always our man, nobody will question our spending any amount of money. The money spent on science and technology, every pie goes to the welfare of the sacreds. As SC/ST reservations are prohibited in scientific research, nobody will know the frauds we play here.

Nuclear development serves us in yet another way besides diverting the scarce resources for our welfare. We locate nuclear plants in remote tribal areas so that these tribals suffer due to radiation and face slow death. This is happening in Rajasthan and many other parts of India.

We know the tribals will protest and blast the nuclear plants. That is why we have manufactured our own opposition and set up Anushakti Andolans headed by our own sacred people. These Anushakti (anti-nuclear) "campaign institutions get fabulous foreign funds and our sacreds involved in it make frequent foreign trips "demanding scrapping of this nuclear establishments". They also get lots of awards and rewards, name and fame.

See how beautifully we have planned the whole thing. Those heading our nuclear bomb-making units are threads and those opposing it are also threads. Tribals face slow death and those who get angry and protest are shot dead by their own police. But our anti-bomb heroes and heroines will be nowhere in the scene. We have skillfully managed the whole thing.

Sacred brahmins: We had warned you even at the time of getting independence not to opt for democracy and select Dr. B.R. Ambedkar to draft the Constitution. But your socialist brahmin, Jawaharlal Nehru, and that Saraswat Brahmin, Benegal Narasimha Rao, did not listen to us and brought this horrible Untouchable and he played all the havoc. This Constitution has crippled us. Every idiot, every fool has a vote and with this vote he is threatening us. Our wise sacred purohiths, our great acharyas, paramacharyas, learned Sanskrit pandits, gurus and guggurus are all pushed out. Today they are all unemployed. Rabble - rousers have taken over.

Dangers of Dr. Ambedkar

Vaidiks hate democracy: We sacreds can never enter Parliament or the state legislatures. Who will vote for the poor brahman? We have no strength of numbers. All this is your handiwork. Because of your craze for socialism, democracy and secularism, we are ruined. We are dead. Your damn democracy has killed the vaidiks.

Socialist brahmins: Do you mean to say we are not aware of the dangers of democracy? We are fully aware that our brahminism does not believe in democracy. Our very mind, our very thinking, our very blood is anti-democratic. Brahminism cannot co-exist with democracy. We know all this. We need not learn this from you. Your blood and our blood is the same.

Christian ethos: But we can't be straight - forward and truthful like you. Remember, the British rulers were Christians and Christian ethos is democratic, egalitarian and hence antagonistic to our value system.

The British had already taught their dangerous values to the idiots and the wretched and their leaders. Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar was brought up in such dangerous Western Christian values.

Our socialist brahmin, Jawaharlal Nehru, was aware of all these dangers to bhoodevatas. He also knew that Dr. Ambedkar would join hands with our blood enemies, namely Muslims, whose unquestioned leader then was Mohammed Ali Jinnah, who like Dr. Ambedkar was an eminent lawyer (both barristers). Both had sterling character and supreme devotion to their cause.

Dalit-Muslim unity: Other socialist brahmin leaders of those days feared that Dr. Ambedkar and Jinnah would unite. And if such a unity of the two leaders were to take place all that we did to "drive out" the British to help impose our brahminical rule would go waste. So, our socialist brahmins of those days led by Jawaharlal Nehru enacted the drama of democracy, socialism and secularism. The drama served three things : (1) It kept the two deadly personalities - Dr. Ambedkar and M.A. Jinnah - divided. To accomplish this job the bhoodevatas discovered the Bania, Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, and used his services. (2) The slogan of democracy, socialism and secularism having been projected as the three pillars on which the "independent India" would stand, the bhoodevatas led by Nehru were then able to fool the SC/ST/BCs and Christians/Sikhs to agree to India becoming "independent" first and then enabling it to stand on this tripod. Once India became "free" all the demands of Dr. Ambedkar and others could be easily met later. (3) More than that this tripod helped the bhoodevatas to ward off the danger of separate electorate and separate settlement demand for Untouchables made by Dr. Ambedkar.

Periyar's tirade

We are fully aware of the dangers of democracy. We are totally against it but we have to pretend embracing it to save the bhoodevatas.

It was a strategy adopted by us to further our interests.

Sacred brahmins: What did you achieve by your supreme strategies and tactics? We the sacred sanatanis are today getting wiped out. In the whole of South, we are finished. No sanatanist can become the chief minister. The anti-thread movement of Periyar EV Ramaswamy, Backward Class movement of Devraj Urs have made our life miserable. In Ahdhra Pradesh, Maharashtra, Gujarat, we have not seen our chief ministers for long. Even the Prime Minister's post is likely to slip out of our hands.

Socialist brahmins: You are right. We know all these thing. But we can't afford to criticise democracy, for democracy is the in thing today. So what we do is while we act as the greatest votaries of democracy, we silently sabotage and subvert democracy from inside. Did we not allow you to demolish Babri Masjid on Dec. 6 1992?

And this is what we did.

We know that democracy means one man one vote which means majority community gets the majority votes. As the sanatanis are small in number, we can never win.

Steel frame: So, what we did was to convert the "steel frame" (IAS & IPS), the civil services, as the real power in this democracy and packed our choicest boys into this service.

Though the legislature formulated the policies, the power of implementing these policies rested with our boys in the IAS, IPS. Anything that goes against our interests and in favour of the wretched and the idiots will be simply not implemented.

Ministers made powerless: We have subverted democracy in such a way that neither Parliament, the state legislatures nor the Ministers have any power. We have given these idiotic NB ministers each a bungalow, a car, a flag and enough staff, good salaries. Enough publicity in our press. Nothing more. They have to speak what our threaded IAS boys write and give. If a Minister gives any order against us, it will be simply delayed, disobeyed and destroyed. As our IAS/IPS men can never be touched, they will simply not bother about the minister. Ministers come and go but our men (IAS) are permanent. Today, the IAS and IPS are the real govt. not Parliament, not the legislature. We have made them powerless.

Judiciary protecting thread: If by chance the idiots and the wretched prevail upon a minister to implement anything which goes against us, we have our men in the judiciary which is vowed to protect the thread.

See how our men in the judiciary, high courts and the Supreme Court, have struck down every (Govt.) order on the different Backward Classes commissions, SC/ST/reservations, rights of Muslims, Sikhs etc. The Mandal Commission report is almost set aside. The Supreme Court boldly upheld our right to have a sanatani alone to occupy the archaka (temple priest) post.

Political power is no power today. Power lies with the bureaucracy which is our monopoly. If ever the bureaucracy fails, then the judiciary will step in to protect the thread.

And of course our most trustworthy watchdog is our national press which is our greatest hope.

Are you now convinced that democracy is no danger to us? You said democracy is a problem. We converted that problem into an opportunity.

Jews of India

Sacred brahmins: No doubt we admire you. In public we may criticise you but privately we admire you. We know P.V. Narasimha Rao is our man. If we oppose him, we know that Shudra Pawar or Thakur Arjun Singh may become PM. So, we will never allow any bloody fellow to touch our man.

Mossad to tackle terrorists: You socialist brahmins are doing a good job but you unconsciously committed the grave mistake by inviting the Jews to India and handing over the law and order to their Mossad to tackle the terrorists.

Socialist brahmins: What is wrong in that? They are the Jews and we are the "Jews of India". Both think alike. We both have an identical philosophy. Even the Editor of Dalit Voice said this but you have no brains to understand this.

Sacred Brahmins: You are wrong. You have forgotten history. Jews were the victims of Nazi Hitler in Germany. It was we vaidiks who supplied our brahminic philosophy of racism to German philosophers of nazism.

The German nazis borrowed our swastika, learnt our Sanskrit and copied our "chosen people" theory. After mastering our philosophy, the nazis put the Jews in the gas chamber and killed millions of Jews.

The Jews have not forgotten that our brahminism is the founding father of racism. Leon Poliakov, a great Jewish historian from France, has written a book, Aryan Myth. (New American Library 1974) establishing this connection between vedic brahminism and nazism. Jews have not forgotten that brahminism is the cause of their misery and annihilation.

Revenge for past crimes. And now we the very sanatanis have invited those victims of brahminism to India to save brahminism. Is this not a great strategic blunder? Will they not remember the past and take this opportunity to take revenge on us?

Annihilation of Muslims

Socialist brahmins: No, you are wrong. Forget the past. Today, we two - the Jews and the "Jews of India" - are united on a common objective : that is annihilation of Muslims.

Since this common enemy has over-shadowed everything, there is no chance of remembering the past.

The Editor of Dalit Voice has paid great tributes to our genius in an editorial, "Brahminism, founding father of racism. nazism is the Enemy No. 1 for the whole World". (Dalit Voice July 1, 1992).

Ghastly ghost: We have converted the Muslims and Islam into such a ghastly ghost that today the whole world is made to think there is no greater or more serious task than fighting and finishing this ghost. Through the power of the press and the banks that Jews own, they are able to control not only the whole of America but the world opinion itself. As the Jews have forcibly occupied the Palestinian homeland, they have to make the Muslims appear as the villain of the whole world to justify their aggression on Palestine. Salman Rushdie of the Satanic Verses fame is an Indian Muslim groomed and financed by the Jews to torment the Muslims. And he has done a good job.

Scourge of Islam: In India too we are facing the Muslims. As their religion of Islam preaches brotherhood, prohibits racism, inequality and injustice, idol worship, it automatically becomes the Enemy No.1 of our vaidik dharma of graded inequality. Brahminism is nothing but sanctified racism. It is we the Aryans who supplied racism to the whole world. But Islam is sure to destroy racism. If racism goes Aryans will lose everything. So, we the bhooDEVATAS are the greatest blood enemies of Muslims. To the Jews also, Muslims have recently become enemies. Both have a common enemy. To fight this common enemy, we have joined hands with the Jews on this latest common factor of annihilating the Muslims. The enemy of the Jews and the enemy of Aryans is the same. So we have forgotten the old wounds and joined hands to fight this new scourge of Islam.

Jews fooled: That is why, we should not remind them of our past. And we must also see that the Jews don't get time to remember the past. That is why we must go on

The Editor of Dalit Voice has paid great tributes to our genius in an editorial, "Brahminism, founding father of racism. nazism is the Enemy No. 1 for the whole World". (Dalit Voice July 1, 1992).

Ghastly ghost: We have converted the Muslims and Islam into such a ghastly ghost that today the whole world is made to think there is no greater or more serious task than fighting and finishing this ghost. Jews fooled: That is why, we should not remind them of our past. And we must also see that the Jews don't get time to remember the past. That is why we must go on exaggerating the dangers of Islam and Muslims in India. So, how do you like our ability to fool even the Jews, the most brilliant people in the world? So, who is more brilliant we "Jews of India" or the Jews?

Aryans myth grips the world

Sacred brahmins: We are not convinced with your arguments. The wounds are so fresh, how can you expect the Jews to forget things so early? Leon Poliakov's book, Aryan Myth, has pinpointed us as the sole villain of the world. He has given all the historical data and proved that brahminism is the mother of racism, fascism, nazism. He has given irrefutable evidence. The book is the result of a research foundation set up by the Jews in UK to pin down brahminism as the cause for all the miseries of Jews and the world. Every Jew has read this book. Jews are a brilliant people. No lotus-eaters. You may manufacture this new ghost of Muslims to keep the Jews preoccupied but we don't think the Jews will forget our crimes.

Socialist brahmins: We are aware of this danger. The Editor of Dalit Voice has been also reminding these things to Jews. That is why we must exaggerate Islam as an international threat to deceive the Jews.

Chanakya & Manu: Already we are being called the "Jews of India". We will establish who are the real Jews. If we hoodwink the Jews, make them forget our crimes and finally make the Jews also to serve us, then we will be the real Jews. You can take it from us that we will succeed and surpass even the Jews. We are confident. We have Chanakya's Arthasastra and Manu's Dharma Sastra. These two books of strategies and tactics can defeat and finish anybody on earth. Jews are nothing for us. We will finish them also. If we have to tell you a secret, we have already fooled them.

Corruption

Sacred brahmins: You say that the bhoodevatas cannot have scruples and that we have to live on other's sweat and blood. If so, why do you make such a big fuss about corruption? You and your press went on making a front-page news of the Bofors for several years, made the life of Rajiv Gandhi so miserable that his govt. itself was defeated. Now you have started speaking of Harshad Mehta corruption. On one side you say that brahminism is the other word for corruption but on another side, you only create corruption. As simple sacred brahmins, we can't understand your socialist double-talk.

Socialist brahmins: That is why we say that you sacreds are duds. You are good only for eating and sleeping. But not for scheming and ruling.

We vaidiks love property and die for property. Our whole life is spent in the pursuit of property. When we spend so much of our time and energy in acquiring property, we have to be naturally corrupt. And that is why we have to always speak and shout against corruption.

Rascals : If we don't criticise corruption and make a daily noise about "corruption polluting our national life", it will not be possible to hide our corruption.

So, through the press we own we indulge in selective criticism. We keep a strict watch on those enemies of our sanatana dharma. If anybody proves dangerous to our dharma, only such a rascal should be ruthlessly torn to pieces and charged with corruption by building up all false cases. Every day such rascals should be on the front-page in our daily papers and made to look stinkingly corrupt.

Since the idiots and the wretched fellows implicitly believe the printed word, they alone will tear these rascals to pieces.

Rajiv Gandhi & Bofors: Look at Rajiv Gandhi. He was not our man. He was a Parsi. Yet we tolerated him, called him "Mr. Clean". Put a "sacred thread" round his chest at his mother's funeral. The fellow was behaving all right but being a non-Hindu and hence anti-bhoodevata, partly because of his Italian (Catholic) wife (Sonia), he turned against us.

The moment he turned against us, we cooked up the Bofors corruption. And our men in the press were commissioned to finish Rajiv Gandhi. Our boys - Arun Shourie, N. Ram, Chitra Subramaniam and a host of them - did a fine job to make Bofors a household stinking word. And when we decide to finish a person the best weapon is corruption. We finished Devaraj Urs, A.R. Antulay, Karunanidhi - all our enemies. We finished this Bangarappa.

Sacred brahmins: But why you did not use the same weapon against Ramakrishna Hegde of Karnataka who was convicted by several judicial commissions? Our own Bihari journalist, Ajay N. Jha, made a front-page story of Hegde's corruption in the Hindustan Times, even quoting the figure of Rs.1,300 crores as his total corruption.

Socialist brahmins: This stupid question proves that you are confirmed buddhus. You are fit only for doing pujas and uttering stupid mantras. You have no brains.

Vaidiks love Hegde

You forgot R.K. Hegde, the Havyak thread, is our man? He is not only our man, he is the king of corruption. When he amassed Rs. 1,300 crores our vaidiks all over India fell in love with him. They said if this one vaidik could break the all-India record and grab Rs. 1,300 crore as a mere Chief Minister of a State, he would definitely allow every vaidik to make that much of money if he became the Prime Minister. So, we had even tried to make him the PM. We need more such Hegdes. Has any single newspaper or journal called him corrupt? Never. Because he is our man.

Dalit Voice tributes to Hegde: Even the Editor of Dalit Voice could notice the greatness of Hegde but you sacred brahmins failed. That is why we say you are idiots. Why don't you read the Dalit Voice regularly? It forecasts so many things and always it proves right. It gives us lots of tips. His paper is read carefully by socialist vaidiks, all over India. But you don't read anything. Even your stupid weekly, Organiser, which the DV Editor describes as a Hindu nazi organ, has no circulation even after 35 years of its publication. Its owners are multi- billionnaires of the Mangalore Ganesh Beedi. But with all this wealth you could not make the Organiser a success. It is not read even by 0.5% of the vaidiks in India. We socialist brahmins don't read it, we read the Dalit Voice.

Coming back to corruption, this weapon is to be used selectively. The moment a fellow goes against us, we dub him corrupt. We don't call P.V. Narasimha Rao corrupt because he is our man. We don't call Jyoti Basu corrupt because he promotes our cause. We never called M.G. Ramachandran corrupt. To hide our corruption, this weapon of corruption is the brahmastra which can be recklessly used only against NBs. We don't know when you sacred brahmins will understand these simple things. You live in your own stupid world. And that is why in Tamil Nadu they cut your tuft, your sacred thread. You deserve it.

Sacred brahmins: Because of your mania to create an atmosphere of corruption, foreigners have started disbelieving us. Because of you India has come to be known as the world's most corrupt country.

Socialist brahmins: What do we care if bad name comes to India. India is not our country. We don't belong to this country. We don't love the people of this country. We are only making a show of Bharat Mata. What if the foreigners call India the world's most corrupt country? As long as we control all the levers of power, wealth, entertainment, we don't care who says what.

Tagore welcomed British king

As long as the British ruled us, we supported them, assisted them. Our man, Rabindranath Tagore, composed a song, Jana Gana Mana Adhinayaka Jayahe, to welcome King George to India on the eve of his visit. Later on, we converted this into our national anthem. Bhoodevatas have no permanent parties. We only have permanent interests.

That is why we are recklessly encouraging corruption. Only the corrupt should be selected to any leadership - whether in politics, education, industry, fine arts, govt. service, journalism.

Our tactic is first encourage a person to become corrupt and once he becomes corrupt, we can direct our vigilance dept. anti- corruption bureau, CBI and hundreds of other agencies to catch hold of the thief. We can also press our "investigative journalists". Once the thief is caught, fearing further publicity and conviction, the fellow will be permanently loyal to us. See how loyal is Jyoti Basu, the West Bengal Marxist Chief Minister?

Harshad Mehta darling of ruling class: The Vaidik dharma is never against corruption. Rather it is the other word for corruption. All our gods were symbols of corruption. All our temple priests are corrupt. They have lifted the gods' idols itself and sold it for a good price. All the idols lying in antique shops all over are the gods sold by our priests. So don't talk about corruption. The word corruption is not found in our dictionary.

Our job is to see that corruption is encouraged as much as possible. Every section of the society must be corrupted. Nothing should move without paying a bribe. More corrupt the society becomes, more indebted it becomes to us.

We must encourage every young man to emulate Harshad Mehta. The Editor of Dalit Voice rightly called him the "darling of the ruling class". (Dalit Voice July 1, 1992 p.3)

Satyameva Jayate

Sacred brahmins: Honestly, we are not able to understand your reasoning. Yours is a fantastic argument. When we swear by Satyameva Jayate, how can we speak falsehood?

Socialist brahmins: You fellows have become such nuts that you cannot understand even simple things.

The moment a person steals something from others, he feels guilty. His conscience starts pricking him. To get relief, he will run to our temple and he is prepared to pay any price to get himself relieved. At that time you sacred brahmins, astrologers, soothsayers, palmists, pundits, godmen like you can flock him, surround him and squeeze him. He will pay you any amount of money.

Temples as business centres: That is why we say we must encourage corruption. More corrupt the society becomes, greater will be your income. How many roadside temples have sprung up in recent years? They are all doing roaring business. One new temple means job for dozen vaidiks.

The Ayyappa Temple at Sabarimalai, Tirupati, Kashi, Puri Jagannath, Madurai Meenakshi are our exclusive business centres for our exclusive enjoyment. If corruption ceases these temples will get no business. Who are going to these temples? Not we. It is the idiots and the wretched. They go and dump all their wealth into the temple coffers. And we become rich. Temples are a big business centre for us.

Another advantage of corruption is that one who is capable of extracting only Rs.200 - bribe a day will be jealous of the person who is capable of collecting Rs. 500 a day. This jealousy leads to a fight between the two corrupt fellows. We must encourage such fights more and more. When two idiots quarrel, we vaidiks should take sides and also fight on their behalf so that the fight results in the annihilation of both the NB idiots. That will reinforce our leadership and we get ourselves better entrenched. That means as corruption increases, our income also increases and our leadership will get better entrenched. Not only that, we can strike better terror in their hearts.

Scotch for the press

Since the political leadership is not in our hands, the chief ministership is invariably cornered by a non-vaidik. We can control him only through corruption. Allow him to amass as much wealth as possible. And after one year we must start writing front-page reports of his corruption. This will make his life miserable. He will spend his entire time defending himself and running to Delhi to seek our blessings. As the CM is pictured in the press as corrupt, he will be forced to feed our threaded press people more and more. He will supply more and more Scotch whisky to our boys in the press who love drinking.

We should see that a section inside his party is against the Chief Minister and all the time the two sections should be kept quarreling. Encourage as much "dissidence" as possible. Through our press, we can encourage endless quarreling, planting new and newer corruption charges, real and imaginary.

Are you now convinced about the heaven that corruption brought us?

When we front-page such corruption stories, the people will start talking about it and the whole society gets confused with such endless debates and discussions on corruption charges. When the political leadership (which is non-vaidik) is kept busy on such silly quarrels, our bureaucracy which holds the power as real decision-makers, can effectively play its role. That is why we should never allow any peace to a Chief Minister or even a Minister. All the time, through the press we own, we should see that they are kept quarreling with each other. When they are busy quarreling, they will have no time to attend to the needs of their own people. We can then divert the money meant for the people's welfare to temple renovation, Sanskrit development, fine arts, environmental pollution, culture, sahitya seminars and such meetings and eatings.

And the people also will get plenty of daily entertainment through the press in the shape of corruption charges. So, more and more corruption charges means more and more entertainment. People in buses, hotels, market place will talk about the CM's corruption, Bofors, Harshad Mehta etc.

Arun Shourie investigative journalism: By selectively using corruption charges, we finished A.R. Antulay, then Chief Minister of Maharashtra. He was a powerful Chief Minister and added to that a strong Muslim leader. There was a chance of his becoming an all-India leader. So, we wanted to nip his career in the bud. We employed our choicest man, Arun Shourie, who inaugurated his "investigative journalism" with Antulay. And once Antulay was finished, his investigative journalism also ended.

Vadiks can never be corrupt

So, our corruption charges are made selectively. We don't say Nehru is corrupt, Hegde is corrupt, or Jayalalita corrupt. A vaidik can never be corrupt. How can bhoodevatas be corrupt? Even the people will not believe it.

Because in history books, story books, our threaded writers have successfully created the image of a "poor brahman". We have painted the "poverty" of the vaidiks in such glowing colours that a vaidik means poverty and poverty means vaidik. So, we made the people, through our brainwashing, to believe that the bhoodevatas can never be corrupt. Will anybody believe that Nehru was corrupt? Will anybody accept that Indira Gandhi was corrupt? Morarji Desai?

Love of property: So corruption is our brahmastra. We use it only to kill our enemy. And we also use it to make as much property as possible for ourselves. A bhoodevata lives only for property. We love property more than our lives.

As we control the press, we can make and mar the career of a person with this magic wand of corruption. See what miracles we achieved with our charge that the Editor of Dalit Voice is getting Arab money? Everybody believes this. Even his own Dalits.

India sold to America

Sacred brahmins: Do you mean to say that we should encourage corruption? What a bad name India has acquired because of corruption.

Socialist brahmins : You fools are wrong in saying that corruption has killed India. Corruption might have killed India but it has made us rich. What do we care if India gets a bad name?

We amassed enough properties by singing the socialist song. When socialism collapsed and the country became bankrupt, the govt. could not run, did anything happen to our people? India may go bankrupt and die, but we are alive and enjoying because the entire property is with us.

Our individual properties are in tact. The country is becoming poor and poorer but the bhoodevatas are growing richer and richer.

Racism in US: What do we care if the govt. goes bankrupt? To make more properties, we sold the country to America. Hundreds of our boys and girls have migrated to US and taken up jobs there.

Sacred brahmins: But in the US, even our boys are facing discrimination. Americans don't like us. We may be the rulers in India and lords of the land but in the US we are hated.

Socialist brahmins: We know about the US racism. We are the founding fathers of racism. We taught racism to the whole world including the Americans. If the Americans practice racism against us, we don't care. We are experts in the art of compromise. We stoop to conquer.

What do we care? What we want is our endless leisure and eternal pleasure. Nothing should come in the way of these two. So far socialism had helped us to get them and once it started troubling us, we kicked out socialism and welcomed capitalism. We have no ism. Our only ism is vaidikism, brahminism, aryanism. We have no permanent ideology but only permanent interests.

Nazi dictatorship

Do you now agree that we the "Jews of India" have surpassed the Jews?

Sacred brahmins: If capitalism also fails?

Socialist brahmins: The moment the cow stops yielding milk, kick out the cow. But go on praising the cow (go-mata).

We will experiment with capitalism, market economy for sometime.

Sacred brahmins: You were boasting about your "merit and efficiency". How did you fail?

Socialist brahmins: We never failed. The country failed. We don't care who fails. We did not fail. Our money is in tact. We have handed over the country to Americans to manage it. That means even the headache of managing this country is no longer with us. Americans will now manage India. We with our money are now free to speculate through stock markets like Harshad Mehta and enjoy our life much more.

Jews can't be trusted: If the market economy also stops clicking, we will clamp our nazi military dictatorship. Already a number of retired shudra Army Generals are serving us well. One Lt.-Gen. Candeth, a Kerala shudra Nair, has agreed to be our loyal slave. Then we have another Kerala Malayali Jew. Since the Jews don't belong to the BSO, we can't trust this Jacob. But as we appear as admirers of zionism, this Malayali Jew, Lt.-Gen. Jacob, has been tricked to believe that he is our man. We have already cheated this Malayali Jew but he doesn't know that. Not only we will cheat him but we will cheat the zionists as well. We will cheat the World Bank and the US, and prove to the world that nobody is above us in brain power, in our strategy and tactics. We will enslave the shudras and the wretched. We will enslave everybody. We will hinduise the Christians, Sikhs, and even Muslims.

With the demolition of Babri Masjid (Dec. 6 1992) Muslims are finished. They will be called Mohammedi Hindus.

And if anybody comes in our way, we will increase our military dictatorship. Already we have the ~~...~~ made. What if the country is impoverished? We have made the bomb. If anybody questions us we will threaten them with the bomb.

* * *

The most tireless crusader against brahminism comes out with this

Book of the Century

Which will make the reader laugh and laugh.

And later weep and weep. Because it unravels certain top secret crimes unconsciously committed and unknowingly played. The crimes are based on a heartless interpretation of the "laws of contradictions" converting India into a bloody battlefield in which everybody is a loser including the pathological players of the game.

This is the first time any writer in India could go to such depths and depict a heart-rending scene in the form of an imaginary but interesting dialogue.

This "Theory of socialist brahmins versus the sacred brahmins" holds the key to all other problems of the country and once the people come to know it they can automatically solve other problems. Like Newton "discovering" the power of gravitation of the earth which was in existence even before Newton was born, this Theory has been operating even before the author "discovered" it. Yet he gets the credit for identifying it, codifying it and putting it in a sugar-coated capsule for everybody to swallow with ease and pleasure.

V.T. Rajshekar, India's reputed author of dozens of books, eminent journalist, Editor of the powerful journal, Dalit Voice, is already hailed as a great theoretician but with this book he graduates into a philosopher - in - the - making.

It is a must reading for every section of the society because while reading it we feel that we are so familiar with every rule of the game including its players. Such is the beauty of the presentation.

A result of his eight-year old research and constant tab on the events, the book - a sociological wonder - will never become out of date until the players of the game themselves realise their mistake in the interest of India's health and happiness.

Start reading, laughing and then weeping.
