FOREWORD

India's two major contradictory forces — the “Hindu (Brahminical) mind” and the “Muslim mind” — have been clashing and colliding, pushing the country itself into a boiling cauldron. The leadership on both sides is stubborn and yet failing. This is because both the Hindu and Muslim leadership accepts the official as well as the political definition of “Hindu” as the majority Indian comprising “all Indians except Muslims, Christians, Parsis and Jews”.

This is where the problem begins. Because based upon this false definition the country was partitioned in 1947 giving India to “Hindus” and Pakistan to Muslims. But the “communal problem” did not end with partition. India continued to have more Muslims than Pakistan. The contradiction still remained and the bloody clashes continued.

Besides, mainly the Dalits, the worst victims of the “Hindu mind”, and to some extent the Backward Castes (BCs) are refusing to accept this false definition. The vast Muslim masses on the Muslim side are also stubbornly refusing to accept this false definition. So much so both the sections are suffering at the hands of “Hindu” and Muslim leadership.

However, the sufferings of Dalits and BCs are taken note of by a new crop of leadership in the form of caste-based regional parties which are taking the Dalit/BC cultural problem along with economic.

But the Muslim political leadership failed to focus on Muslim cultural problem blaming only the education and economic backwardness as the root cause.

Muslim problem is essentially social and cultural. The Muslim is hated by the upper castes only because he is a Muslim. The Muslim suffering is not due to their economic or educational backwardness. If the Muslims are economically and educationally backward, it is because of the Brahminical onslaught on the unique Muslim social and cultural strength.

On the other hand the Muslim religious leadership has given prominence to only culture, resulting in the coming up of more and more Islamic organisations.

To crush this focus on culture, the Hindu (Brahminical) rulers are forcing Muslims to modernise madrasas, liberate women, enact common civil code, destroy mosques and dargahs, organise Muslim genocide, create trade unionism among moulanas, breaking the strict moral code by encouraging people like Sania Miraza and so on. But the same Brahminical rulers don't talk of modernising their Sanskrit Veda Patshalas and Christian seminaries but only Islamic madrasas.

The two articles in this booklet do not go into philosophical aspects as these have been elaborately discussed in our earlier writings. These articles here speak of hard realities and facts as evidences to establish what has been already told philosophically.

The message is clear to both Hindu and Muslim leadership. Either mend your ways and save India from disaster or wait for the Osama bin Ladens and Prabhakarans on the Indian soil. Failure of existing leadership gives birth to new leaders, new programmes and new methods.

A rudderless ship does not sink. It drifts and sails haphazardly ultimately breaking into pieces, causing greater miseries to those on board.

This is the message.

1 - Brahminical terrorism on Muslims & Dalits is pushing India to more & more violence

The special court trying the case against the accused in the Bombay serial blasts of 1993 has given its judgments on accused-to-accused basis on different days. This itself is an out-of-the usual practice in this out-of-the way case, unique in Indian history. Because it does not contain the essential ingredient for crime, that is "personal interest". The accused are not criminals. They are all "patriots" from the angle of the "Muslim nationality" in this country of many "nations" who resorted to this desperate act to protect their nationality. Fine. Long back a Member Parliament, Raj Babbar, had hailed their action, saying:

"Had they not committed the blasts, every Muslim family would have given one such person in the whole of India. They have provided consolation to Muslims of India."

That means the Bombay blast was also in the interest of all Indians and also India.

Muslims not Indians

They had to resort to this desperate action owing to the failure of the government which failed to punish the anti-nationals who destroyed the Babri Masjid on Dec.6, 1992.

It was a natural Muslim reaction to a gory Hindu terrorist action.

All the criminals of this Indian history's most heinous carnage (Babri Masjid) were allowed to go scot free and 15 years have lapsed. After this, thousands of Muslims were again killed in another set of organised mass murders in Bombay immediately after the Babri Masjid demolition in connivance with the Bombay police. The police itself killed many. The leader of these mass murders was the Shiv Sena Fuhrer, Bal Thackeray, who boasted saying "Muslims have now learnt the lesson as to how they should live in India". What has the government done to this great master of criminals who declared that Muslims are non-Indians?

TADA for Muslims

We know that India's rulers have devised two sets of laws for the Brahminical people and the rest under their Manu's Code which is in the heart and mind of every upper caste.

For the same offence, upper castes are treated lightly and punished mildly. Some of their acts are no crimes at all. For the same crime committed by a Dalit the trial and punishment are different.

They follow the Manu's Code in mind and spirit and other laws only in words. Did we not say: How can there be justice in India where the police, prosecutor, jailor and hangman are all of the same caste? (V.T. Rajshekar, Why Godse Killed Gandhi?, DSA-1997).

To this long list we now add the journalist also. Earlier the great Dravidian leader, Periyar E.V. Ramaswamy, had said:

The infamous Manu's code was designed by the Brahmins for two sinister purposes: One was to make themselves superior people entitled to live without physical labour and to make the sons of the soil inferior people condemned to serve as workers and look after the comforts of the superior castes.

The other was that if and when the Code was adopted by the government, the laws could be so enacted and justice administered in the courts as to preserve this inequality and inequity. (Thiruvalluvar, Manus Code & the Language Problem, 1988, Chintakara Chavadi, Bangalore-560 002, photocopies of Manu's Code can be had from DV office, Rs. 15).

Periyar has specifically referred to the "administration of justice" because enactment of laws is different from administration of justice. It starts with police prosecution, honest application of proper legal provisions, arrest and presentation of the accused before courts, gathering of proper evidence, proper prosecution by competent public prosecutors and honest, uncommitted and impartial judges. Some of the laws enacted by India are not as per the Manu's Code but "administration of justice" certainly is. TADA for Muslims and other simpler laws for Hindus.

Laws for Brahmins

Here are few provisions of the Manu's Code showing the glaring discriminations:-

- * A Brahmin shall not be punished by the king whatever the nature of wrong. (ch. 8.s.381).
- * For any wrong done by Brahmin, including murder, punishment shall be to shave his head. (ch 8.s.379).
- * A Brahmin who commits biggest crimes shall be banished from the land giving his property. (ch 8.s.380)

Laws for shudras

- * A shudra's tongue shall be cut off if he abuses a Brahmin. (ch. 8.s.270).
- * If a shudra commands a Brahmin to do a thing, boiling oil shall be poured into his mouth and ears. (ch.8.s.272).
- * A shudra who sits in the same seat occupied by a Brahmin shall have his loins branded or be expelled from the country. (ch.8 s.281).
- * A sudra who attacks a Brahmin either with a stick or by hand shall have the parts of his body injured in the order smashed in his own. If he strikes with the hand, the hand and if kicks with the leg, his leg shall be cut off. (ch. 9 s.280).
- * To kill women and non-Brahmins is not a sin. (ch.19.s.606).

Laws relating to evidence & trial

- * A Brahmin is a great god whether he be saint or an idiot. (ch. 9 s.317).
- * A shudra shall never be a judge of the Brahmins. (ch. 8, s.20).
- * The truth of a statement made by a sudra may be tested by asking him to lift a hot iron rod or by drowning. (ch. 8, s.114).
- * If the sudra does not get his hand burnt or if he floats on the water, his statement may be taken as truth. (ch.8, s.115).

The three cases — Babri Masjid destruction, mass murder of Bombay Muslims and the arrest and trial of the Bombay blasts' accused under TADA are enough to prove how the Manu's Code is operating in Hindu India.

Supreme Court mischief

In the former two crimes, there was no "administration of justice" at all. Nothing was done after the arrest and bail of some of the accused. Most of them, not touched at all. But in the third case, extraordinary enthusiasm and commitment was shown. Thousands of pages of written materials and articles were produced before the judge and court also took years and years.

Why this discrimination? Because of the Manu's Code. As per this Code the abolition of untouchability as directed by the constitution became a scrap of paper.

Special provisions for Muslims

There is none in India to question all these. Even the Supreme Court connives in following the Manu's Code. That is how the obnoxious laws of Manu are in practice in India.

Muslims are a "declared minority" in India and a "Minorities Commission" is also established to redress their grievances. Why all this special treatment for minorities? Because the UN wants it. The world wants it because being minorities they are not properly represented in the elective bodies. This drawback has to be met by other means like administrative actions i.e. proportionate representation in all institutions, proportionate distribution of national wealth, etc. and by giving special hearing to the statements of Muslim MPs and MLAs with concern and seriousness.

While selecting Muslim candidates for elections care must be taken to see they are genuine representatives of their people and not stooges.

Shakh Sa'adi advice

All this has to be done not only from a sense of justice but also to see that India remains integrated and united. Just as the Muslims for 800 years and the British for 200 years ruled the country by creating genuine representations of the different people, the upper castes, today's rulers, must ensure equity and justice.

Muslims during their rule were then guided by the political advice of their great political adviser, Shaikh Sa'adi, who narrated this incident from the life of Alexander the Great. Alexander when asked why he was held in high esteem by the conquered subjects, he said:

I never spoke ill of the great men of my subject nations. I always held them in high respect.
(Gulistan-e-Sa'adi, Conduct of the kings).

British rule was just & unbiased

This advice was strictly followed by all Muslim rulers right from the first, Qutubuddin Aibak of the slave dynasty, till the last of the Mughals. Even the independent Muslim princes during the British rule followed this rule. The other rajas and maharajas, most of them being Kshatriyas trained under the Mughal system, also followed the same.

There was no communal discrimination in the 600-odd princely states in which the Congress, the then biggest Brahminical party, did not enter till 1942 to create anti-Muslim feelings.

In the vast territory directly ruled by the British, the same was the law for all and administration of justice was similar to all. Since the higher judges were also British the application of judicious mind was the same:

* General Dyer of the Jallianwala Bagh massacre was not left untouched. He was court-martialled.

* Bal Gangadhar Tilak was prosecuted many times for his anti-Muslim activities hidden under confusing Hindu "patriotic" jargons.

* Abdul Rasheed was hanged for the murder of the Shudhi movement leader Swami Shradhanand, even though he was held as a great Muslim hero and hailed by the Muslims. There were fears of great reprisals if he was hanged.

Hindu topsy-tury rule

* And M.K. Gandhi was sentenced to imprisonment a number of times despite fears of agitation.

All these prove that the British "administration of justice" was not biased.

The British knew that any laxity in rule of law and "administration of justice" would be disastrous.

That was how there was peace in large areas and for longer times. That was the British sense of justice. That is how a pygmy like M.K. Gandhi could oust them through "peaceful means" (so called ahimsa). Their principles were based upon justice, equality, and equity.

But what the Hindus (upper castes) are doing today is the exact opposite — one set of rules for the ruling upper castes . The rulers — whether MPs, MLAs, bureaucrats, businessmen, academics, judges are mostly upper castes. They all get special treatment. No enforcement of penal laws upon them. As against this, Muslim MPs, Muslim bureaucrats and judges are differently treated. Consider the well planned killing of a Muslim ex-MP Jaffery in broad daylight in Ahmedabad during the state-organised Gujarat Genocide of Muslims (2002).

As against this consider the following facts:

Lalu jailed

- * The way L.K. Advani was arrested but later released and now moving about freely even to this day and till his death.
- * So also Murli Manohar Joshi,
- * George Fernandes, involved in the Baroda Dynamite Case, was instantly absolved after the Janata Party came to power in 1977.
- * The failure to detect the killing of the Sikh leader, Sant Bhindranwale.
- * Continuous harassment, arrests, jailing of the Backward Caste leader, Lalu Prasad Yadav, even when he was the Bihar Chief Minister.

Why this double standards ?

There are many more cases of notorious Brahmin leaders let off like the Bangalore Papatti Jayalalita, P.V. Narasimha Rao, Kanchi Shankarachary etc.

There are two sets of rules in this country: One for the rulers (Hindus) and another for the slaves (non-Hindu SC/ST/BCs, Muslim/Christian/Sikhs) who together form over 85% of India's population. Such a double standard shall continue as long as the Hindu rule lasts.

This is because the 85% non-Hindu Bahujans are the country's original inhabitants but the 15% rulers are alien to this land being Aryan invaders. DV family members are well aware of these facts.

The Hindu rulers are guided by their "sacred books" which are against the egalitarian principles in the modern laws which if applied will kill their Hinduism.

Who wants his sacred doctrines to be obliterated? We cannot blame them for upholding their Manudharma but we only speak of the consequences.

All this is repeated because the verdicts on the Bombay blast victims are on expected lines. Some will be given death sentence, some life imprisonment and others mere punishments.

Reaction to action

Because the political thinking behind these blasts and the good human rights motives are of no consequence before law.

The government in its own interests ought to have either withdrawn the cases or put them on the same line as done with the Babri Masjid demolition. Release them on bail and put the case in cold storage.

This is what we would have done in the larger interests of India and Indians had the Bahujans been the rulers. But the Hindu rulers cannot do it. Hindu hate-mongers can never forgive and forget. His sadistic satisfaction is more important than India and Indians.

Brahminical terrorism on Muslims & Dalits

Hindu blood is red but our blood is black

Remember, the Bombay serial blast of 1993 was a Muslim reaction to the 1992 Babri Masjid demolition by Hindu terrorists. If the action of the Hindu terrorists was ghastly, the Muslim reaction was equally ghastly. But the rulers of the country being Brahminical the Hindu terrorist action was pardoned but only the Muslim reaction was taken up with a vengeance. The double standard in the application of law is very clear.

The Hindus would have certainly done this if some Hindus had been hijacked as was done when the plane carrying Hindus on flight from Kathamandu was hijacked and the hijackers demanded the release of their prisoners (Moulana Masud and others) in exchange for the release of the hostages. Had the hijacked plane been from Bangalore, Madras or Bombay carrying Muslim, Dalit and shudra passengers there would have been no exchange. Hindu blood is red but our blood is black.

Afzal Guru as hero for Muslims

Currently, a big cry is going on the death sentence of Mohamad Afzal Guru. Ghulam Nabi Azad, the Chief Minister of Kashmir, imbued with the spirit of give and take, suggested commutation of death sentence, not in the interest of Afzal's life or human concerns but merely on the ground that the Kashmiris would get a ready martyr around whom all the Kashmiris would rally and the fight could become more intense and prolonged. This is only a political move. Some saner elements in the ruling clique do understand this. But the "Hindu mind" does not allow this to happen. (V.T. Rajshekar, Know the Hindu Mind, DSA-1990).

Brahminical terrorism on Muslims & Dalits

The Brahmana Jati Party (BJP) is totally against this proposal. They want to provide a hero to the Kashmiris. In the interest of sharpening the contradictions that will make the Kashmiris more angry we also agree with the BJP.

If Afzal Guru is hanged even the non-Kashmiri Muslims would get a hero. Because Muslims of India lack such heroes now.

Fourth battle of Panipat

Their earlier heroes, Mahmud of Ghazni, Mohamad Ghauri and Abdul Rasheed, killer of Swamy Shradhanand, are all forgotten.

They need a modern hero — a martyr for Muslim cause. We want Afzal Guru to whip up the Muslims and make them angry. We also want the Brahminical hate-mongers to hang him in public so that TV could cover it and generate more anger. Already such a fury is building up in all Muslim hearts. We will not be surprised if more persons of the Bombay blast are also hanged — true to the spirit of "Hindu mind" to help them become heroes.

Soon after the Babri Masjid demolition scores of shell shocked Muslims in Bangalore had come to our office to seek solace. But the same Muslims in mourning were joyous when Bombay exploded in retaliation (1993). They said:

“Our men have taken the revenge. They have paid the gurudakshina to Bal Thackeray.”

They said it was not a crime. It was a wonderful act to restore the national pride.

The Bombay serial blasts acted like the Fourth Battle of Panipat. The three earlier battles were decisive changing the very course of history and empowering the Muslims.

The same is the case with the Bombay blasts of 1993. Muslims will never, ever regret death sentences and long-term prison sentences. Islam teaches them to be brave even in the face of death. Look, how Saddam Hussein went to the gallows. Islam encourages supreme sacrifice and even death to protect their religion. That is the meaning of jihad.

Those in jails also will not regret. So also their relatives. Their sacrifice is great. Their bodies may suffer but not their hearts. They know that they have done a great duty to Islam and Muslims. Islam gives them spiritual strength. Neither they nor the Muslims will feel sorry. Rather they will be pleased that their sufferings will create more heroes and heroines to explode into powerful human bombs.

Jihadis on increase

The number of Muslim fighters called jihadis (jihad means struggle) has increased year-by-year since 1993. You will soon see the fun. What will the cowardly Hindus do? They will certainly kill more Muslims. The cycle of death and destruction will, therefore, run faster and faster converting India into the world's most violent country.

Unlike the past, Muslims have become more assertive and more angry after the 1993 Bombay blasts. We had predicted all this long back (DV May 16, 1993 p.7: "Babri Masjid will clean cow belt").

Shahabuddin called second Jinnah

We know some Muslim leaders do maintain silence and some dance with the enemies, shouting again and again that "Islam means peace". They have never understood the "Muslim problem". That is why the Muslim masses have totally ignored them. Because these "Muslim leaders" do not represent the Muslim masses.

There is no scope to push up "Muslim leaders" by Muslims anywhere except in a few constituencies in Kerala and Hyderabad. Muslim leaders are frightened to take up any Muslim issue as they will be branded communal by the Brahminical media.

Kashmir struggle expands

Look at the big changes. Muslim masses are gradually joining Dalit and OBC parties led by Mayawati, Mulayam Singh, Lalu Pasad, Sharad Pawar et . Muslim leadership is dying.

Remember, how Syed Shahabuddin was once called the "Second Jinnah" by the Brahminical media as though Jinnah, the greatest Muslim leader, was bad. Remember how some Hindu MPs had shouted "Jai Shri Ram" in Parliament soon after the Babri Masjid demolition. Muslims of the whole country were shocked at this but the Muslim MPs of Kashmir shouted back saying Allaho Akbar.

This was the turning point. Muslims were being slowly driven to the wall. They had no further space to go. Since then the Kashmiri Muslims lost all hopes and were forced to turn violent. They got the support of the Muslims from Pakistan-held Kashmir (Azad Kashmir), Pakistan itself and also from Afghanistan. Each group formed its own independent fighting front and launched resistance. The J&K police and security forces, all Muslims, were forced to fight their own brothers. Then the Central security forces were sent from Delhi. They also met with fierce resistance. After killing many and getting killed in large numbers, they realised that those whom they were killing were Dalits and shudra sepoy and jawans, whose brothers inside India were themselves victims of continuous Hindu atrocities.

Gujaratis targeted

It was perhaps decided that Muslims should not kill Muslims and Dalits and the strategy was changed to aim exclusively at Hindu targets. With this design they chose the blastings in Bombay (1993), Chattisnghpura in J&K, Akshardham temple in Gujarat and again the recent Bombay train blast in Bombay (2006). The Hindu media and Hindu leaders screamed. The Muslims took this Hindu cry as their victory. The Brahminical media said the choice of first class compartments was to target the Gujaratis as a revenge against Gujarat Genocide of Muslims.

The Gujarati Hindu leader Narendra Modi rushed to Bombay to wipe the tears of Gujaratis and announced another Muslim massacre. But the Hindu media protested saying "Don't add fuel to the fire. The terrorists want you to do the same". And Bal Thackeray put a plaster on his mouth to prevent himself from saying something even by mistake.

Muslims are being recklessly branded terrorists and on the slightest suspicion they are called Pakistani agents.

SIMI called terrorist outfit

A feeble Muslim youth organisation, Students Islamic Organisation of India (SIMI) was branded a terrorist organisation to cover up the intelligence failure. Hundreds and thousands of Muslims are arrested and locked up in jail for years but without any evidence. (DV Sept.16, 2006 p.16: "Reckless arrest of Muslims").

Beginning of freedom struggle

The "Hindu mind" has forgotten so soon that any struggle for "national" freedom cannot be controlled. Once it starts, it moves in all directions including violence until it achieves its object. National liberation struggle generates the highest intoxication. Once it started among the Indians in 1857 it did not stop. The British rulers knew it and honourably gave independence to the Indians. But the lessons are forgotten so soon because of Hindu arrogance, ignorance and stupidity. Because the Hindu does not lose anything in these attempts to kill. Rather, he gains — higher jobs and promotions to his people in high posts, gallantry awards, commissions and kickbacks in arms purchase and even in the purchase of coffins for the dead soldiers.

On one side the Hindu rulers are enslaving the Dalits, BCs and Tribals and on another side they are killing the Muslims. This is what they mean by their Ahimsa.

U.S. concern for ITS troops

The US got its 3,000 soldiers killed and 20,000 crippled in the current war in Iraq. The American people wept at this loss of their men, though they did not shed a drop of tear on a 100 times greater loss of the Iraqis. At least they cried on the woes of their own people. They demanded an immediate end to the war. This happened within three years.

But in Kashmir, our own Indians have been dying for decades. We do not know for how long and how much they should die. But the “Hindu mind” is cool, unperturbed. The Hindu sleeps comfortably.

Can we say this “Hindu” belongs to this country called India of which he is a citizen? Does he love India?

No sense of loss or remorse on Kashmir because the dead and crippled are not his men. They are all Muslims, Dalits and Backward Castes. The Brahmin pandits scented the danger and left Kashmir before the war started. They left the battlefield of Kashmir well in advance to save their life and limb.

But the Hindus did not realise that the militants would penetrate deep into the Hindu heartland and blast them.

Failure of Sikh struggle

The Kashmir militants took lessons from the failure of the Sikhs who had confined their struggle to Punjab. The Kashmiris did otherwise. So long as the militancy continued in Kashmir, there was not a whisper because the killers and the killed did not include Hindus. The Kashmiris were compelled to expand their operation into India and target the upper castes to educate other non-Hindus on the need to strike terror in the "Hindu heart" — their property, their endless pursuit of pleasure at others expense.

An important development of the new struggle of the Muslims is not to create "Muslim leaders". Because they know that leaders are purchasable. Fight on, genuine leadership on its own will emerge from among the fighters. Speeches and ideas will not be covered by the Hindu media. They know only the language of boots. Direct action has the force of millions of words.

Brahmin President "no" to meet Dalit MPs

Dalits and Backward Castes have also started taking lessons from this struggle. Their leaders are no better than the Muslim leaders. They are also victims like the Muslims and ignored by the media. The SC/ST/BCs are told that they are also Hindu but they got no privileges of the Hindus. The higher judiciary is out for the blood of SC/ST/BCs. Remember how a delegation of 120 Dalit MPs could not meet the then Brahmin President of India.

Brahminical terrorism on Muslims & Dalits

They have been also fooled by the naxalite Brahmin leadership. The entire top leadership of the naxalites is with the upper castes. Backward Naxalite and Dalits are used as cannon fodder.

Naxalite leader Gaddar, a Dalit, is used only to entertain the SC/ST/BC masses but when he challenged the upper caste leadership he was shot.

Maharashtra Dalits in December 2006 for the first time revolted, even rejecting their corrupt leadership. The Khairlanji killings of Dalits lit the fire of revolt. The desecration of Babasaheb's statue at Kanpur added the fuel to fire. They burnt the famous Deccan Queen train used by the upper castes shuttling between Pune and Bombay. The Hindu comfort and sleep were disturbed.

Unrest and violence are fast spreading over the whole country as deprivation and exploitation of the "low castes" and violence against Muslims are increasing.

Will the upper castes hear and mend even at this late stage? We have no hope. Manu is dearer to them than the health and happiness of India. Without Manu there cannot be Hinduism.

That means the Hindus are certain to lose their rule over India. They would rather convert India into a big battlefield but would never, ever take lessons from history. Greater violence is the fate of India. We have predicted this many times. But sorry to predict it once again.

DV Edit Jan.1, 2007: "Muslim problem" not economic: Sachar report must pave way for Dalit-Muslim unity".

2 - Muslim leadership abetting anti-Muslim riots by not identifying Brahminical enemy

We have an important question to India's Muslim leadership though this is not the first time we are putting this question. We have done it many times. But their refusal to answer makes us doubt their bonafides.

The Brahmana Jati Party (BJP) political resolution at its Dec.23, 2006 Lucknow national council meeting was an all-out, no-holds-barred attack on Muslims.

Kalyan Singh, the stupid Backward Caste ex-chief minister of UP being projected as the next CM of the state, moving the resolution clearly identified the Muslims as the enemies of Hindus. He asked "Hindus to create a Hindu volcano that would burn and kill Muslim appeasement for ever". He identified all "terrorists" as Muslims. The resolution criticised all measures to help Muslims develop educationally, socially and economically — meaning the recommendations of the Sachar Committee. "Muslim appeasement is ruining the nation", he said.

Enemy No.1 of Hindus

We can quote many more passages from the BJP official resolution which singled out Muslims for all the country's problems.

What is crystal clear from this resolution is that the country's premier Hindu terrorist party has identified the Muslims as the enemy No.1 of the "Hindus".

There is not a bit of confusion in the thinking of these

Muslim leadership abetting anti-Muslim riots

Brahminical forces. They know their enemy and they are fighting, jailing, burning and killing their enemy by employing their police, military and even their own innumerable Hindu terrorist forces.

The upper caste-owned "national" toilet papers are painting all Muslims as terrorists and brainwashing its readers to hate Muslims and instigating the police to be merciless and their Hindu judiciary to jail them or sentence them to death. It is a clear division into Hindu and Muslim. There is no other shade in between these colours.

The Hindu police, prosecutor, judge and the jailor are all sincerely following the dictates of the BJP resolution.

No confusion in Hindu mind

The verdict of the special court set up to try the Bombay serial blasts (1993) now coming one by one in instalment is faithfully following the BJP resolution.

There is no confusion whatsoever in the "Hindu mind" that the Muslim is the enemy of the "Hindu". The "Hindu" has only one enemy and that is the Muslim. He was the enemy before the partition of India and he continues to be the enemy even to this day because India has the world's largest number of Muslims after Indonesia.

Confusion in Muslim mind

It is the Muslim leadership (not the masses of Muslims) who are in utter confusion. And it is this confusion that has created all the problem in the country and helped the Brahminical rulers to concentrate all their fire power against one single community of Muslims.

By this the Hindu terrorist leaders have successfully divided the population of India into "Hindu" and "Muslim". And when they target the Muslim there is no confusion because Muslims are those who profess a religion called Islam. All those who follow Islam are Muslims. And these Muslims are the "enemies" of Hindus. This is the verdict of "Hindu India".

India is not Hindu

It is the Muslim leadership which is confused. This confusion is helping the Hindu terrorists to divide the country into Hindu and Muslim because of its own foolishness despite 26 years of educating the Muslims through our writings and speeches. When the Muslim leadership divides the Indian population into Hindu and Muslim it is simply playing into the hands of the enemy.

Dalits as victims of Hindus

It calls India as Hindustan but not as India, which is the official name of the country as stated in the country's constitution, and thereby admits that India is a country of Hindus and thus simply plays into the enemy hands.

Hundreds of times we have said India is not Hindu and Hindustan. Neither the constitution of India has said this nor its maker, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar.

Much more than that the Untouchables (15%), Adivasis (10%) and Backward Castes (35%), a total of 65% — the three original inhabitants of India from whom Islam drew its bulk of converts — are not Hindu and were never Hindu.

Not only that. All these three sections have been fighting only against the Brahminical Hindus ever since they invaded this country about 4,000 years ago because they have been the victims of their brutal socio-cultural-economic oppression.

Not only that. A large section SC/ST/BCs, unable to bear this Brahminical persecution, embraced Islam and got liberated.

In other words, not only over 65% of the country's population is not Hindu but victims of Hindus. And hence anti-Hindu. In fact, over 85% of India's Muslims went over to Islam only from these three communities to escape the Hindu tyranny. Muslims of India did not come from Arabia, Iran or Turkey. They are all original inhabitants of India. These are facts of history.

Who then are Hindus ?

We have also cleared the doubts as to who are the Hindu. For the information of Muslims and all other victims of Hinduism there is nothing like Hinduism at all. Hinduism is nothing but a recent name given to Brahminism to hide the real culprit and then deceive its victims. Not only the Muslims are victims of Hinduism but much more that the SC/ST/BCs are daily fighting against Hinduism only.

Who then are the Hindu? They are a micro-minority of less than 15% comprising the Brahmins who are just 3%. The others are Kshatriyas (Thakurs) and Baniyas who together may not be even total 2% of India's population. The bulk of the "Hindu" population comprises the shudra castes like the Jats, Marathas (Maharashtra), Kayasths, Lingayats and Vokkaliga (Karnataka), Reddy and Khamma (AP), Vellala, Chettiar, Gounder (TN), Nair (Kerala), Patel (Gujarat).

Go to any village in India and ask a villager's identity. He would take the name of his jati but would never say he was "Hindu". Even a Brahmin would say his caste name but would not call himself a Hindu. But the same Brahmin when he speaks from a platform he would call himself Hindu. This is the name of the game called "Hindu".

Shiva Dharma revolt

These shudras, who are part of Hinduism, also very much hate the Brahmins. The Shiva Dharma revolt against Brahmins of Maharashtra is a movement of the shudra Marathas. (Purushottam Khedekar, Marathas Declare War on Brahminism, DSA-2005, Rs. 5).

These landed shudra s form about 10% of the country's population and are the fighting arm of the Brahmins.

More and more shudra castes in their hatred against the SC/ST/BCs are going over to the BJP. They are joining the BJP not because they hate the Muslims.

Muslim leadership abetting anti-Muslim riots

The Brahmins exploit the shudra hatred of SC/ST/BCs against Muslims by calling them Hindu.

Caste-like features among Muslims

So when the Muslim also divide the society into Hindu and Muslim it helps the Brahmins. Because such a division of society makes their job easy to annex the SC/ST/BCs into Hindu fold and let lose the shudra hounds against the Muslims.

In other words, it is the Muslim leadership that is promoting the Hindu-Muslim divide and thus playing into the enemy hands.

The Muslim leadership — both religious and political — is not ignorant of these facts. It knows the facts of history. Dr. Ambedkar and Bhim Sena leader Shyam Sunder had stated these facts any number of times.

Why then India's Muslim leaders are hiding these historical facts and thereby aiding and abetting the Brahminical terrorist party (RSS-BJP etc.) to divide the country into Hindu and Muslim?

Muslim leadership harming Muslims

We can't say the Muslim leadership is suffering from ignorance of history and the country's social set-up. That the Muslim society itself has caste-like features was pointed out by many Muslim leaders themselves. The Sachar Committee of the Govt. of India has confirmed these facts strengthening the demand of "Backward Muslims" for reservations.

The RSS-BJP division of India into Hindu and Muslim and the Muslim leadership's endorsement of this division is the principal cause of India's misery and continued blood-letting on the part of Muslim masses.

We can understand the Hindu terrorists bid to confuse the people and get the best return out of such a confusion. But the Muslim leadership's bid to deliberately hide the social divisions (castes) but talk only of the religious division is not only harming the country and its vast SC/ST/BCs but more than that the Muslim masses itself.

SC/ST/BCs not Hindu but made Hindu

In other words the Muslim leadership's refusal to give up its Hindu-Muslim jargon is seriously harming their own Muslim masses.

If the SC/ST/BCs are not Hindu, what are they? Because of the centuries of Brahminical brain-washing through history books, their puranic cock and bull stories and their monopoly media propaganda, the non-Hindu SC/ST/BCs are made to think themselves as Hindu. They are not Hindu but made Hindu and called Hindu.

On one side the Muslim leadership does not identify who the "Hindus" are and on the other side the non-Hindu, if not anti-Hindu SC/ST/BCs think they are Hindu. If these are well-known facts, will not the Muslim leadership be then accused of aiding and abetting the violence and consequent deaths that follow "Hindu-Muslim conflicts" between SC/ST/BCs and Muslims?

The Muslim leadership could have easily avoided the violent clashes between the innocent SC/ST/BCs and Muslims if only it had educated the Muslim masses of the fact that the former are not only not Hindu and were never Hindu but enemies of Hindu.

Gujarat Genocide

As a highly enlightened community and also our elder brothers following a revolutionary religion, Dalits expected the Muslims to contribute to our liberation. But, alas, they did not.

We recently visited Ahmedabad where we had our 3-day Dalit Voice workshop in the very heart of the old city. The gory 2002 Gujarat Genocide was a bloody clash between the Dalits and Muslims who lived peacefully as brothers for decades.

We met scores of Muslims and Dalits and both are now regretting that the two blood brothers killed each other in a well planned Hindu nazi conspiracy. The Brahminical brain washing was so systematic and powerful that the Dalits were made to think they were Hindu and the Muslim as their enemy. As against this, the Muslim religious propaganda was equally systematic and powerful that the innocent Muslim masses were made to believe that Dalits were Hindu.

Crime against humanity

The RSS-BJP terrorists, when they say that Dalits and Tribals are Hindu, are doing a service to their religion. They are not brainwashing the Dalits in the interest or welfare of Dalits. They hate Dalits. Their very religion says so. But they are brain-washing them on Hinduism to instigate them against Muslims and kill them.

Muslim leadership abetting anti-Muslim riots

Their line of action is so clear and straight. It is the Muslim leadership which has committed the greatest crime not only against their own Muslim society but against the innocent SC/ST/BCs and more so against the country. Why the country? Because, had the Muslim leadership been wise, practical and clear in its thinking it could have avoided all the anti-Muslim riots that had rocked this country and killed millions of innocent Muslims, Dalits and BCs. Are we then wrong in accusing the Muslim leadership of a crime not only against its own people but a crime against humanity itself?

We need the answer.

Refusing to identify the enemy

Will we be wrong if we suspect that the Muslim leadership is consciously or unconsciously supporting the Hindu terrorists in forcibly keeping this country as Hindustan, against the wishes of both Dalits and Muslims and against the facts of history and thereby causing all the war and violence against their own innocent Muslims?

We need the answer.

We had discussions on this many times with the Muslim religious and political leadership. The Muslim religious leadership commands greater respectability among the Muslims. We had met the late Moulana Hasan Al Nadvi (Ali-Miyan), India's most famous Muslim saint, many times. He knew the facts and admitted the Brahminical conspiracy behind hinduising (enslaving) the non-Hindu SC/ST/BCs against Muslim. We had also met the leadership of the Jamate-Islami, Jamiatul Ulema, Tablighe Jamat, Muslim League and many, many organisations.

Leaders of all these organisations admit they are fully aware of the Brahminical conspiracy behind anti-Muslim riots. But they are not prepared to name and identify the enemy? Why?

Their refusal to identify the enemy-oppressor of India —not only the enemy of Dalits but also their blood brothers, Muslims —has actually helped the RSS-BJP-Shiv Sena hydra-headed serpent to grow.

Appalling ignorance of Muslims

The enemy of both Muslims and SC/ST/BCs is the same Brahminical forces. The Muslim leadership knows it but refusing to name it, identify it.

So will we go wrong if we directly hold the tiny Muslim religious leadership responsible for the growth of Hindu terrorism and the consequent war and violence on Muslim masses?

It is true the masses of Muslims are not aware of the country's social divisions, the caste system and the hierarchical gradation it created.

Dalits hate Hindus

For them everybody who is not a Muslim, Christian or Sikh is a Hindu. Such is the appalling ignorance of the Muslims though they live in all urban slums side by side with the equally oppressed SC/ST/BCs whom they mistakenly think to be Hindu.

In the latest Khairlanji anti-Dalit massacre in Maharashtra's Bhandara dt., the culprits are not Muslims. So too in all other earlier anti-Dalit massacres including the country's biggest Kilvenmani (Tamil Nadu). Every where it is the upper castes (Hindu) or OBCs who attacked and killed the Dalits.

Nowhere in India we have any instance of Dalit-Muslim enmity, let alone clashes and killings. We have made this point clear in our book, Dalit-Muslim Unity (DSA-1995).

Secret pact in cow belt

Then how did Gujarat erupt? This is because of the Hindu terrorist bid to hinduise the non-Hindu Dalits and tribals and then let loose the hounds against Muslims. And thousands and thousands of Muslims were simply slaughtered in the country's single largest bloodbath because of the Muslim leadership's unpardonable, historical blunder of not educating the Muslim masses on India's social divisions.

Quran directs Muslims to identify enemy

The Muslim leadership's deliberate and studied silence has caused painful convulsions and many more are in the making.

Despite our repeated warnings when the Muslim leadership refuses to heed us, will we go wrong if we suspect a secret pact between the two in the cow belt?

The Quran has specific directives (S:4:94) to identify the enemy-oppressor and fight, finish and eradicate it lock, stock and barrel.

The enemy of both Muslims and SC/ST/BCs — rather the country as a whole itself — is the Brahminical terrorists.

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar has identified them. So also Jinnah and Poet Iqbal. (DV Edit March 1, 1993: “Muslims must right away identify their friends & enemies”).

Dalit Voice* service to Muslims

But the Muslim religious, political and other leaders, who succumbed and surrendered by their solemn silence on this most vital aspect of life and death of this country, have conspired to widen the “Hindu-Muslim divide” and contributed to the consequent horrendous blood bath. Are we then wrong in clubbing this Muslim leadership along with the Brahminical terrorists and accusing them of being a party to the pain and suffering of the millions and millions of Dalits and Muslims?

We need the answer.

Threat to Muslim leadership

The name of our paper may be Dalit Voice but it is the organ of the entire Bahujan Samaj which also includes Muslims (20%), Christians, Sikhs etc. We have made this clear in our Editorial of Jan. 1, 2005: “Confessions of a Dalit Editor” which was later brought as a reprint (Dalit Voice — A New Experiment in Journalism, DSA-2005, Rs. 25).

Though the Muslims form only about 20% of our DV family membership, we have given them the prime position in our writings and speeches provoking the charge that it is not Dalit Voice but "Muslim Voice". Yes, many honest, thinking Muslims have said DV is a better Muslim paper. But the Muslim leadership has failed to use the Dalit Voice and utilise its potentialities.

Rather, DV is considered a threat to the Muslim leadership.

But we are sure this micro-minority Muslim leadership belonging to the elite Muslim class will soon get wiped out facing the Curse of Allah as predicted in our book of the same title (DSA-1997, Rs. 45 — only photocopy).

Even now it is not late for this Muslim leadership to admit its mistake and correct itself before its leadership is wiped out. It must start educating the Muslim masses at its religious meetings, Friday prayers on India's caste divisions and identify the enemy-oppressor of the Muslims. It must point out that Dalits — SC/ST/BCs — are not the enemy of Muslims. The enemies are the tiny Brahminical people. The Hindus are divided into castes but the SC/ST/BCs are not castes hence not Hindu.

Dalit-Muslim unity failed

Please note Dalits are the blood enemies of the Hindus. In fact they hate the Hindus much more than the Muslims hate the Hindu. The real enemy is Brahminism. This has to be identified and the principal caste behind Brahminism.

Once the Muslim masses come to know this secret, miracles will follow.

Then only the speeches of Muslim leaders will immediately attract attention and reported in the Muslim media and also in the Brahminical media. It will then educate not only the Muslim masses but also the Dalit and BC masses and enlighten the two blood brothers and promote better brotherhood.

The Muslim leadership failed to promote the Dalit-Muslim unity which we have been advocating since 30 years. The leadership merely praised our efforts but took no concrete step towards it. We have no hope of Muslim leadership promoting such a brotherhood. It is more interested in friendship with the Brahminical people who hate them. Their love for the enemy is time-tested and known to all DV family members.

UP as centre of all problems

Their fear is if they get closer to Dalits they will be subjected to more serious attacks by the enemy. But the fact is the exact opposite. The secret of Muslim leaders' admiration for the Brahminical people is this leadership's elite background.

Uttar Pradesh has captured the Muslim mind through various Islamic organisations like AIMPLB, Majlise-Mashawarat, Tablighi Jamat, Jamate-Islami, Jamiatul Ulema, Deoband, Bariely and Nadwa schools. All this is done through Urdu language in which they are expert orators. Their representatives are to be found among Urdu-speaking Muslims who form a majority among Muslims. The only silver lining is the lack of influence of these Urdu orators in states like Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Bengal, Assam and Kashmir where they cannot penetrate as the Muslims here do not know Urdu. The Muslim mind in these states is clear and clean. They are not confused like the Urdu-speaking Muslims.

Hence it is the UP Muslim religious leadership that is the prime accused. The Babri Masjid-Ramjanam Bhoomi game was played right here by the Hindu nazis.

Tips to Pakistani leadership

Since the Muslims belong to a universal religion, we want our criticism of India's Muslim leadership should be taken note of in neighbouring Pakistan and Bangladesh. The Muslim religious and political leadership of these countries can help remove the fears of their Indian counterparts if they take the initiative in naming and identifying the enemy oppressor inside India.

The enemy of Muslims inside India as well as Pakistan is the same.

Such a support from Pakistani leadership headed by President Musharaff will go a long way because Islamic brotherhood (ummah) is a universal concept. Besides the Pakistani leadership has a duty to help its Muslim brothers in India which has the world's largest Muslim population (next only to Indonesia). Once a lead comes from Pakistan, once part of undivided India, the cowardly Muslim leadership in India may get some courage to follow and shed its fears.

Partition of India

This Brahminical mischief artificially dividing people into Hindus and Muslims is over a century old. It is this mischief that caused the partition of India into India for Hindu and Pakistan for Muslim. Not only that. The Brahminical people exploited the partition to whip up such a hatred of Muslims resulting in slaughter of thousands on both sides. But did any Brahmin, the brain behind the partition conspiracy, die?

Choice of words

Since the partition of 1947, master-minded by the cunning Gujarati Bania, M.K. Gandhi, the Brahminical controllers of India managed to wage three wars against Pakistan using the pretext of Muslim-majority Kashmir which itself saw thousands and thousands of Kashmir Muslims killed. On one side the Brahminical rulers are killing and persecuting the Muslims and on another side killing and persecuting the countless number of non-Hindu original inhabitants of India. The whole of India has turned into a battle ground between the Brahminical micro-minority (15%) Hindus led by a mere 3% Brahmins and its massive majority of Bahujans. The Brahminical Hindus are the real architects of this bloody war and violence in India. Not the non-Hindu SC/ST/BCs. Calling them Hindu will cause further confusion and more bloodshed.

If the Muslim leadership uses any word other than Brahminism to identify the enemies of Muslims and the Dalits it will only confuse both the sections.

We have to be very careful in the choice of words and phrases because in India the entire language, its words, phrases, ideas and images are manipulated by its Brahminical rulers to hide their identity. The name "Hindu" is not only not correct but dangerous.

Brahminism is the enemy-oppressor of both Muslims and Dalits. Let us identify the enemy and wage a joint battle against this enemy to establish a lasting peace in India and also with our neighbour Pakistan.

THE BOOK & THE AUTHOR

The booklet represents the ideas of V.T. Rajshekar considered by revolutionary Muslims as an authority on their problem though he is not a Muslim. His English fortnightly, Dalit Voice, is hailed as a better Muslim paper than many other Muslim journals. It has a large readership among revolutionary Muslims in and outside India. Dalit Voice was released in 1981 by India's most famous Muslim saint, Moulana Abul Hasan Ali Nadvi (Ali Miyan). Dalit Sahitya Akademy has published a number of books on Muslims. As the founder of the Dalit-Muslim unity movement, he is invited to many Muslim conferences.

His point is since the Muslims of India did not come from Middle East like Dalits, they are also its original inhabitants who revolted against the Brahminical tyranny. Hence the need for unity.

V.T. Rajshekar is known to all Muslim leaders — both religious and political. His writings in English are reproduced, translated and published in many Muslim journals in India, Pakistan, Bangladesh and Middle East countries. He visited many Muslim countries on their invitation.
