

THE SIKH WARRIORS& Their Military System

Dr. Awatar Singh Sekhon

Editor: International Journal of Sikh Affairs, Canada

Preface says Sikhs have no future in Brahminist-ruled India without sovereignty for the "Sikh nation", calls Chief Minister Badal of Punjab as the "Mir Jaffar of Sikhs", warns Simranjit Singh Mann to realise his duty, reminds how Kapur Singh spoke in Parliament "rejecting" the Indian constitution for breaking the promise given to Sikhs on their homeland.

The book carries a list of Sikh warriors who included decorated soldiers like Sant Jarnail Singh Bhindranwale plus Beant and Satwant Singh, the brave Sikh soldiers who assassinated the Brahmin Prime Minister Indira Gandhi for the mass murder of hundreds of Sikhs in "Blue Star Operation". Interview with Maj. Gen Shabhal Singh.

The author, a great friend and family member of the Dalit Voice, concludes saying "as long as Brahminism rules India, no nationality can live in peace". Expanded version of the Sikh Warriors has gone to press under the new title, The Sikh Sovereignty to Slavery.

Pioneer of Islamic Revolution

SAYYID QUTUB & THE ORIGINS OF RADICAL ISLAMISM

(A New Biography)

John Calvert

Hanged for "treason", the great Egyptian scholar became the founder of Islamic revolution. His book, Social Justice in Islam inspired millions of Muslim youth the world over. He denounced the Western materialism, racism and sexism, promoted by the Jews and the "Jews of India". He identified with the Egyptian main Islamist movement, Muslim Brotherhood. Nasser, a friend of Brahmin PM Nehru, arrested and even tortured which made him more revolutionary. He wrote his famous book, Milestones, in the jail. The book became the manifesto of the Islamic revolution today sweeping the world. In 1966, he was hanged for "treason" and became a martyr. Qutub has rightly criticised Muslim rulers for becoming stooges of the West and the Jews. He identifies the enemies of Islam as "crusaders and Jews", the very expression used by the al-Qaeda and all global jihadists. A carefully researched biography.

Chaos & contradictions on origin of Vedas :THUS SPAKE AMBEDKAR

Thus Spake Ambedkar

The Brahad Aranyaka Upanishad has two explanations to offer. In one place, it says:

"As from a fire made of moist wood, various modifications of smoke proceed, so is the breathing of this great Being the Rig Veda, the Yajur Veda, the Sama Veda, the Atharvangirases, the Itihasas, Puranas, science, the Upanishads, verses (slokas), aphorisms, comment of different kinds — all these are his breathings".

In another place it says:

"Prajapati (identified with death or the devourer) is said to have produced Vach (speech) and through her, together with soul, to have created all things, including the Vedas".

"By that speech and that soul he created all things whatsoever, rick, yajush, and saman texts, metres, sacrifices, creatures and animals."

"The three Vedas are (identifiable with) these three things (speech, mind and breath). Speech is the Rig Veda, mind the Yajur Veda and breath the Sama Veda".

IV

Coming to the Smritis, there are two theories as to the origin of the Vedas to be found in the Manu Smriti. In one place, it is said that the Vedas were created by Brahma:

"He (Brahma) in the beginning fashioned from the words of the Veda the several names, functions, and separate conditions of all (creatures). That Lord also created the subtle host of active and living deities, and of Sadhyas, an eternal sacrifice. And in order to the performance of sacrifice, he drew forth from Agni, from Vayu and from Surya, the triple eternal Veda, distinguished as Rick, Yajush and Saman."

In another place, he seems to accept the story of Prajapati being the originator of the Vedas as would be evident from the following:

"Prajapati also milked out of the three Vedas, the letters, "a", "u", and "m" together with the words "bhu", "bhuvah" and "savar". The same supreme Prajapati

Chaos & contradictions on origin of Vedas also milked from each of the three Vedas one of the three portions of the text called Sāvitrī (or Gayatri), beginning with the word "tat..." The three great imperishable parties (bhuh, bhuvah, svar) preceded by Om, and the Gayatri of three lines, are to be regarded as the mouth of Brahma".

It is also interesting to note what the Puranas have to say about the origin of the Vedas. The Vishnu Purana says:

"From his eastern mouth of Brahma formed the gayatra, the rick verses, the trivrit, the somarathyantara, and of sacrifices, the agnoshtoma. From his southern mouth he created the yajush verses, the trishtubh metre, the panchadasa-stoma, the vrihat-saman and the ukthya. From his western mouth he formed the saman verses, the jagatimetre, the saptadasa-stoma, the vairupa, and the atiratra. From his northern mouth he framed the ekavinsa, the atharvan, the aptoryaman, with the anushtubh and biraj metres".

The Bhagvat Purana says:

"Once the Vedas sprang from the four-faced creator, as he was meditating how shall I create the aggregate worlds as before?... He formed from his eastern and other mouths the Vedas called rick, yajush, saman, and Atharvan, together with praise, sacrifice, hymns and expiation". [There appears to be some quotations missing as there is no link between these two paragraphs].

"Entering between her eyes. From her there was then produced a quadruple being in the form of a male, lustrous as Brahma, undefined eternal, undecaying, devoid of bodily senses or qualities, distinguished by the attribute of brilliancy, pure as the rays of the moon, radiant, and embodied in letters. The god fashioned the Rig Veda, with the Yajush from his eyes, the Sama Veda from the tip of his tongue, and the Atharvan from his head. These Vedas, as soon as they are born, find a body (kshetra). (To be continued)

Guns can never silence Kashmiri craving for Azadi : Hate-Muslim policy destroys very fabric of India

Guns alone cannot suppress any people fighting for self-determination and liberation. This is the lesson of history and applies to all human rights struggles and particularly Kashmir, where we have been seeing the ugliest and the most barbaric face of Brahminism killing innocent Kashmiri youths. Whether it is the Congress or the Brahmana Jati Party (BJP), any govt. sitting in Delhi has only one answer to the Kashmiri aspirations for Azadi. Bullets. Change of govt. brings no change in policy because the man in the driver's seat is the same hate-mongering Vaidik Brahmin.

Editor not allowed to enter Kashmir: Kashmiri Muslims fighting for Azadi were all Brahmins (Pundits) till recently but they revolted against this violent cult and sought liberation under Islam. The Brahminists who usurped the Delhi throne through a deep-rooted conspiracy of the Jews and "Jews of India" with the help of the cunning Gujarati Bania, M.K. Gandhi, have launched a reign of terror on every section of the Indian society whose suppressed voice is heard only through DV, the Voice of the Persecuted Nationalities Denied Human Rig

The Editor of DV was invited by the Azadi leaders to visit Kashmir but was not allowed by the Brahminist leaders.

Those interested in knowing the roots of the Kashmir problem and facts of the Brahminical reign of terror may order a photocopy of the book, The Challenge in Kashmir (1997) by Dr. Sumantra Bose, himself an upper caste Bengali Baidya but a distinguished Western-educated historian (pp.210, Rs. 150).

Pakistan accepts plebiscite: The then Dogra ruler of Kashmir, Hari Singh, might have "acceded" to India but it was strictly conditional on a "reference to the people" of Kashmir — meaning plebiscite. The Kashmiri Brahmin, the first PM of India, J.L. Nehru, on Nov.2, 1947 declared his govt. "pledge" to "hold a referendum under international auspices (read UN) to determine the wishes of the people. He repeated this "pledge" many times.

Pakistan also accepted the plebiscite solution. Accordingly the UN passed a resolution accepting plebiscite.

But the Brahminist rulers never believed in keeping up any commitment. Their argument is:

(1) Pakistani forces failed to vacate portions under their control

(a pre-condition under the UN resolution for plebiscite), (2) Kashmir's lawful ruler acceded to India.

If both the above arguments are acceptable, says Dr. Bose, why did Nehru commit India for plebiscite despite the legality of Kashmiri rulers accession to India?

(3) Brahminist rulers often shout that Kashmir is our integral part of India. Fine. This opinion, they say, is based on the repeated elections held in Kashmir where its "democratically elected representatives have repeatedly and freely ratified the moral and legal validity of accession to India in free election".

Bogus claim: The UN, however, still stands by plebiscite. Even the US Govt. till very recently, maintained that "Kashmir is a disputed territory".

Rigged elections: Indian rulers say pro-India elements have always won in different state elections and the people of Kashmir have voted for staying with India. Accepted. "Then why the Brahminists are opposing plebiscite?", ask the Kashmiri people. Simple. The elections are totally rigged to promote anti-people Brahminical cockroaches. That the Kashmir people through their MLAs have voted to remain in India is a total bogus claim. This is proved in the recent uprising which could not be controlled even by the brute force launched by the Tamil Chettiar killing scores of young Kashmiris.

We had been to Kashmir and met its revolutionary leaders like Jalil Andrabi, a prominent human rights lawyer from Kashmir, who was brutally killed in Srinagar in 1996.

The "unanimous opinion" of the Kashmiris is they are not fighting and dying to join Pakistan. They want only Azadi, self-determination. That is all.

Toilet papers admission: Brahminist rulers may send brute force to crush the Kashmir struggle for Azadi but it can never win the hearts of Kashmiris. Brahminical toilet papers themselves have admitted this. Corrupt and discredited politicians like Farooq Abdullah and his son Omar with no roots in the soil of Kashmir are intensely hated people. The latest revolt is also against these "foreign imposters".

The Kashmiri Brahmin micro-minority well-entrenched in Delhi is manipulating the current "war" against Azadi with the aid of the Brahminists in RAW and IB but they will never succeed.

Constitution itself destroyed: The Brahminical rulers have throughout used brute force with the support of their Jewish cousins not only to suppress Kashmiris but also ride rough-shod on the aspirations of all the nationalities fighting for human rights. These persecuted nationalities include Dalits 20%, Tribals 10%, Muslims 15%, Christian and Sikhs (5%), Backward Castes 35%. All these nationalities are not even able to breath freely. They have been repressed, rebuffed and denied recognition. Brahminists did this by destroying the very constitution of India, bending the judiciary, media, and suppressing all human rights struggles. "National" toilet papers fully aided and abetted the destruction of the constitution. This is the True face of Hindu non-violence

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: Brahminist rulers say their Hinduism is the world's only religion that stands for non-violence (ahimsa) but facts of history say India has become one of the most violent countries in the world.

In Blue Star they killed 13,000 Sikhs — men, women and children on their holiest day inside their Golden Temple, Amritsar. Then they demolished the Babri Masjid and killed thousands of Muslims. In Nelli (Assam), "Hindu violence" was unleashed on innocent Muslims. In the Gujarat Genocide (2002), we saw the goriest face of "Hindu nonviolence". In the anti-Mandal war and violence they non-violently killed thousands. The killing of Christians in Kandhamal (Orissa) became world news. Dalit and Tribals are daily kicked, killed, burnt, raped and the little property are destroyed — daily. DV has carried all the account of the "Hindu non-violence".

The world knows the true face of the Hindu. Read an upper caste Hindu's book, History of Hindu Imperialism. (Swami Dharma Theertha, Blumoon, New Delhi, Rs. 150, copies available with DV office).

only cause of India's free fall. With over 85% of the Indian population of 1,300 million suppressed, their human rights mutilated how can the Brahminists ever allow the country to rise, socially, culturally and economically?

PM's wrong diagnosis: Our "Khatri Sick" PM thinks Kashmir is an economic problem. Nonsense. Kashmiri youths are fighting and dying not for "jobs". The PM is consciously adding insult to injury by ridiculing the Kashmiri youth who are dying for Azadi.

We are happy that the tumultuous events of July and August 2010 have drowned the two Abdullah cockroaches and brought to the fore the villain-turned overnight hero, Syed Ali Shah Geelani (81) who declared that Kashmir is a disputed territory. Brahminists admitted his "genuine leadership".

Withdraw the Army, lift curfew, hold plebiscite in Kashmir as desired by the people and the UN and accept the verdict. That is the only solution.

Brahminists don't love India: There will never be peace in India as long as Kashmir continues to boil. With Indian army committed to Kashmir, it will be a drag on the Indian economy. Nothing grows in Kashmir except apples. It is more a liability. China has already taken over the development of Azad Kashmir. Impoverished India with its rag-tag army will have no courage to face the nuclear-armed Pakistan supported by both China and also USA. The only reason the rulers are holding on to Kashmir at the cost of the country is to rouse the 'majority Hindus' against "minority" Muslims. But in the process the Brahminists are only destroying India. But "whose father's what goes?" Brahminists have already said they don't belong to India and hence don't love India. As the Bahujans have been mentally crushed and made voiceless, the rulers may temporarily ride the waves with the Kalmadis looting the crores. But how long this can continue? ■

China rejects defeated Brahminist offer to surrender: Bahujans must embrace new super power

OUR CORRESPONDENT

As China is fast emerging as a super power, overtaking USA, India's Brahminical rulers continue to generate more hate against China, sheltering the notorious Dalai Lama and adding fuel to fire.

Nehru, India's first Brahmin PM, was a bogus socialist who engineered the war against China (1962) in which India was utterly defeated and ate dust. Thousands of innocent Indian soldiers died.

Good servant but bad master: The common masses of India (85%) have no say in the governance of the country but they have nothing against China. It is the Brahminist rulers (15%) who have fought with every neighbour around India, headed by the super power China which has become the darling of all the have-nots of the world. But in contrast the rulers have made India the most hated country.

During our recent visit to London and Paris (July 2010) and discussions with intellectuals familiar with this subject, particularly Brahminism, the curse of India, a new fear is being expressed.

Many experts on the subject of Brahminism say the Brahmin is a good servant but bad master. If you are strong, the Brahmin will lick your boot. But if you are weak he will crush you and suck your blood. Yes. Indian history proves this.

Annie Besant as Cong. president: Applying this logic to China, which is fast emerging as the sole super power of the 21st century, what will be the stand of Indian Brahminist rulers vis-a-vis China?

The fear expressed during our discussions was the Brahminists — scenting danger to their very existence — might quickly reverse their policy and start courting if not bum-licking the Chinese leaders.

Fears of the Western experts are based on the Brahminical behaviour during the British rule which they bitterly hated because it brought about justice, rule of law and introduced English education system — which threatened their very hegemony. In Madras, the Brahmins started the Hindu English daily to fight the British-owned Madras Mail.

Brahmins supported Hitler: Brahmins invited a notorious rejected British woman, Annie Besant, and made her the president of the National Congress, the party of the Brahmins, to fight the British rulers. They even courted Hitler, invited him to India, promising a red-carpet welcome, travelled to distant Germany, supplied their swastika emblem and made them fight the British.

Darling of the British: Though the Jews and the "Jews of India" are cousins, the two fell into opposite camps: The Jews hating Hitler and Brahmins loving the nazi Germany (Read our book, Brahminism, DSA-2002, photocopy available, Rs. 100).

Hitler's forces even bombed London and the British, the sole super power of the day, was about to be defeated in the World War-II. But the Jews had a better strategy. They blackmailed the US to support British and join the World War in which Germany was finally defeated. Scenting the danger the Brahminists quickly changed sides and started praising the British and hailing Churchill, the war-time British PM. They have no permanent enemy but only permanent interests.

Will Brahminists surrender to China: They never keep all their eggs in one basket. They will be always with the victors. They quickly endeared themselves to the British, as by then they have already mastered the English language.

The Gujarati Bania as their fondest slave, they quickly managed to become the darling of the British. And then managed through the Jewish Viceroy, Mountbatten, the partition of India. The "Jews of India" finally won.

During our discussions abroad with experts on the Jews and "Jews of India" fears were expressed if the history would repeat in the case of China. Will the Brahminists surrender to their today's enemy (China) so that their tomorrow will be sure and secure ?

But will the Chinese, firmly rooted in their centuries-old philosophy, who had the courage to rebuff their own ideological-mate, Soviet Russia, be fooled by the Brahminist rulers? Will the Brahminists shamelessly apologise for their 1962 war and their continued the enmity for decades?

China has already become the best friend of all the Brahminist enemies surrounding India: Pakistan, Kashmir, Nepal, Bangladesh, Burma, Lanka, Maldives. China has completely encircled India.

China hated Jews: No doubt all these enemies of Brahminist rulers will prevail upon China not to give scope to the "Jews of India". China never allowed the Jews, who brought communism to Russia, to infiltrate its country. Chairman Mao and Premier Chou En-lai were fully aware of the menace of the Jews and also the 'Jews of India'.

But in war and love — and politics too — there is nothing like a permanent enemy or friend. The Brahminist "Jews of India", know how and when to stoop to conquer. Did they not give their wives, sisters and daughters to Muslim rulers? All this is part of history. Chanakya's Arthashastra asks the Brahmin to stoop to conquer.

So we will not be surprised if the Brahminists try to build bridges and skyways to cross into China and bum-lick China.

But during our discussion, we firmly assured our friends that China will never, ever yield. And our predictions are firmly rooted in Chinese history.

DV worry over Rahul as future PM

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: What is described as "India's future PM" by the upper caste rulers, Rahul Gandhi, is financially backed by the world's richest man and a top Jew, Bill Gates, owning the Microsoft. Gates offered all-out support in UP, meaning annexing UP from Mayawati. Gates earlier visited UP to offer support to "rescue" Dalit children from disease. These two developments are alarming. (DV Edit Nov.1, 2009: "Why King cobras, which tormented Sonia Gandhi & denied her PMship twice, now trying to hoist Rahul?")

To this day Rahul has not addressed a press conference so that we understand his mind. But the way the Brahminical oppressors are deep in love with him proves their aim because they know his mind.

That the Jews and the "Jews of India" are hoisting him on India is now clear but extremely worrying.

In Bangalore, he said on Aug. 14, 2010 (TOI report):

"India is the second fastest growing economy in the world. There are very few countries that give freedom like India".

But the fact is India is pushed to the level of the sub-Saharan Africa and as he spoke the military is killing Kashmiris crying for freedom.

Brahmins bound to obey caste system

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: What does the notorious Kautilya (Chanakya), the author of the Brahmin Bible, Arthashastra, stand for? Here is an explanation by a noted historian and himself a Brahmin:

The policy of the Kautilyan state is influenced by religious considerations, involving preferential treatment of the priests, gods, temples and sacred trees (p.149). The Kautilyan state upholds the Brahminical mode of life in so far as it is in consonance with its main objective, i.e. the maintenance of the varnasrama dharma (caste system) (p.155). (Political ideas and Institutions in Ancient India, Ram Sharan Sharma, Publishers: Motilal Banarasidas, Delhi, 1959).

Those interested in photocopy of Kautilya's Arthashastra (1988, pp.500) may write to DV office (Rs. 350). Arthashastra is the "Jews of India" version of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion (photocopy available with DV. Rs. 75).

Even to this day in this "Democratic" India, the ruling Brahminists are governed by the Arthashastra — but not the constitution of India.

Brahminist mischief in caste census

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: The micro-minority (15%) upper castes (Hindus) are defeated in their battle against the massive majority Bahujans (85%). This is clear from the govt. accepting our demand for caste enumeration in the current census operation. DV has firmly supported this demand because caste is our ethnic identity which the Brahminist rulers want to destroy dubbing us Hindu.

No. We are not Hindu. Not only not Hindu but hate Hindu.

Caste is our identity: The powerful ruling Brahminist interests in the Union Cabinet led by the backbone-less Khatri Sick PM and couple of others like the notorious Tamil Chettiar are opposed to caste enumeration. Other enemies are upper caste Syrian Christian A.K. Antony and the Brahmin Sibal, HRD Minister. But the MPS are all in favour of caste because they are elected on the strength of their caste.

"Caste" is our backbone. The Brahminists want to erase our identity and impose the false Hindu identity on the non-Hindu, if not anti-Hindu, SC/ST/BCs. Caste is there even among Muslim/Christian/Sikhs. India is a subcontinent of hundreds and thousands of "nations". It is not one "nation" as the Hindu terrorist party says. Finally, DV has scored a big victory.

The Brahminists, however, have played a mischief to destroy the long-delayed caste census. The caste data is not to be enumerated as usual by the Census Commission but a Brahminical mischievous body called the Biometric Data Captures. The MPs must assert and kill this mischief.

We want caste war: We want DV members to order our book, Caste — A Nation Within the Nation, (Books for Change, Bangalore, Rs. 140, available with DV office), a thesis which won the famous London Institute of South Asia (LISA) Award (2005). We are not only for caste but even subcaste which is our actual caste.

The Brahmin argument against caste enumeration is it will lead to further division and "caste war". Yes. This is exactly what we want: caste war.

AP Madiga demand: Every caste, even subcaste, must strengthen its identity. It is on this basis that DV supported the AP Madiga demand for subquota. In this case also DV scored a victory.

DV has never suffered any defeat because our arguments, analysis and predictions are based on sociological factors.

Brahmins (2%) want to rule us, dumping all us in the garbage heap called Hinduism.

Cycle chain: A cycle chain is made out of several links. Which link is important? Neglect one link, making a creaking noise, your cycle speed will suffer. That means every link in the chain is important for smooth pedaling. Jati is like a link in the cycle chain.

DV Edit Feb.1, 1984: Why caste omitted in Census?"

OBCs will get nothing from caste census

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: After decades of dodging the overwhelming demand for caste enumeration in the census, the Brahminist rulers of India finally announced their "yes" decision on Aug.11, 2010 only after their own Brahmana Jati Party (BJP) itself surrendered to the overwhelming demand within its party. Upper castes (15%) of which Brahmins are only 2%, are a micro minority. They can hardly get elected as MPs, MLAs. Yet they rule India by ignoring the Indian constitution and making it subordinate to their sweet will. And these micro minority anti-humans call India a democracy.

Big victory to DV: What is more shocking to the rulers is the census will carry not merely the OBC head count but all the castes and even the subcastes. Shocking. This is a big victory for DV's decades-long campaign for caste-based reservations. OBCs (35) may rejoice over this victory. Hold on. The Brahminists will still succeed by sabotaging democracy itself. How? Because they are the rulers.

Did they not kill the very constitutional reservations of SC/STs (20%).

Hinduised OBCs: OBCs will never, ever get constitutional reservations. They will be assured of some caste-based quota which itself will never be implemented. Did the rulers implement SC/ST quota? No.

What do they care for the more hinduised OBCs? Yet neither the SC/STs nor the OBCs get angry. Even Muslims, whose religion is the very antithesis of Brahminism are totally silent despite the fact Islam and Brahminism, are like mongoose and serpent. Sikhs have been silenced long back.

Why nobody is getting angry in "Hindu India" because everybody has been hinduised (meaning enslaved). Kill Brahminism by launching a caste struggle, India will be liberated from this centuries-long plague.

Anatomy of corruption

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: Brahminism is the other word for corruption. It begins from the top and the disease gradually spreads to the bottom. When the rulers talk of "corruption", what they mean is only the "money corruption" — though it is the least harmful of the four varieties of corruption so often repeated in DV.

(1) Intellectual corruption, (2) caste corruption, (3) moral corruption and (4) money corruption.

ALL-INDIA RECORD

Money corruption is the last and the least dangerous form of corruption. We have elaborated this subject in our book, India's Intellectual Desert, (DSA-1999, Rs. 50).

Look, the latest target of money corruption, which has crossed all previous records, is the Karnataka Brahmin, Suresh Rao Kalmadi, member of Lok Sabha from Pune.

KALMADI STRENGTH COMES FROM MANU

All the political parties including the ruling Congress, entire media, all the so-called "civil society" (we don't know where it is and who its members are) have unanimously said the culprit Kalmadi's head must be cut in the all-India corruption record established in the forthcoming Delhi Commonwealth Game (CWG) which is not going to start on the scheduled date because of the Kalmadi atrocities.

But Kalmadi said no. He said he was totally innocent. From where does he get the courage to defy the unanimous verdict on his corruption? His Jati.

Because he knows whatever may be his corruption, or his crimes, his jati will not let him down. Never in the history of India, a Bhoodevata was punished because the Manu Dharma Sastra says the Brahmin shall commit no crime. Kalmadi's courage stems from Manu. This is the secret.

But see the other side of the picture. This culprit Kalmadi was fully defended by the Govt. itself in the Lok Sabha on Aug. 10, 2010 even as all the members including the fellow Congress MPs were baying for his blood.

What is the meaning of this stout defence of the proven crimes of Kalmadi? Why the mighty Govt. of India itself is afraid to touch this king of the corrupt? His jati. This is the secret. Who has the courage to touch a Brahmin?

Did not a Chitpavan Brahmin kill the "Father of the Nation" (not our nation) and his jati distributed sweets all over India?

CORRUPT ARE POPULAR & RESPECTED

Jati is also the strength of Dr. Ketan Desai, chairman of the Medical Council of India who was finally arrested just for namesake and once bigger Brahminical corruptions burst on the scene, Ketan Desai crimes will be forgotten and then quietly released.

Corruption is the other word for Brahminism. Corruption of all the four varieties were taught to the rest of India by its principal perpetrators. Corruption today is not confined to politicians though they are the principal targets because there are hardly any Brahmin politicians.

The virus has spread to all sections, including Dalits and Muslims who have embraced it only to save themselves from the clutches of their Brahminical enemies. Because if you are corrupt, you will be liked by all the sections including the ruling Brahminists.

India perhaps gets the first rank in the world for corruption. If the non-Brahmin sections have become corrupt it is because they learnt it from their eldest brother.

BRIBE GIVER IS ALSO CORRUPT

The media, which itself is corrupt, loves to report on corruption — which always takes the front page. Readers also love to read reports on corruption and discuss about corruption. Any speaker criticising a corrupt minister or official becomes a front page news.

But the innocent people, who are victims of corruption, do not know the other face of corruption: as long as there is a giver, there will be a taker. The bribe giver is equally corrupt.

India's Brahmin-dominated society is stinking with corruption. Private sector is equally corrupt.

Corruption is the other word for Brahminism. Once this tiny 2% Brahminical rulers cease to be corrupt India will be free from corruption.

To achieve such a clean, healthy society Brahminism has to be destroyed. But there is a big IF. Brahminism cannot go as long as there is the Brahmin.

DV must survive for 10 more years

India will turn into intellectual desert

BAGDA HARIBHAI DANABHAI, DR. AMBEDKAR NAGAR, JUNSAVAR VIA JIRA, AMRELI DT- 360 521

Your decision to "Close down Dalit Voice" is a tragedy for our Bahujans. After the "Father of India", Babasaheb, only very few honest intellectuals came up. You are one of them. After closing down DV who will show the path to our masses?

DV is the only one genuine international fortnightly magazine for Dalits. Every 15 days it comes without break or delay. Very few are worried like you after our Father, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar.

You are the true son of the "Father of India", Babasaheb. You roar like a lion. Babasaheb will never forgive you if you leave us in the middle. Your language is powerful, heart-touching, which I love so much. We need such honest, angry, intellectual, dedicated personality like you. You are the only oasis in India's intellectual desert. You woke up our educated slaves like me. After our Father, you are the only and real warrior of our Bahujan masses.

You can raise the annual subscription but please don't close down— our heart will break.

Our people will never get such a powerful, knowledgeable and courageous intellectual if you close down DV.

A Supreme Court woman advocate from Delhi

"Closing down DV" will be a great tragedy as the world is beginning to understand the Jewish role in all the wars for colonisation of India, China, Africa, S. America and their part in the two World Wars, deaths, destruction, blood and tears and in slavery and British imperialism.

We need to educate not only the people of India but also that of China and Africa. You are doing it now. This will take at least another 10 years.

We have to do lot more to fight zionism and racism and all the material are now available on the Net. I feel I should spend at least 10 days/month with DV for this purpose. (kottakode@yahoo.com).

the subject have accepted our theory. Kerala has a big (20%) Muslim population, fairly well-off. But they have not come to our support (except a couple of individuals) despite all our support to Muslims. We will be too glad to see you here — EDITOR.

has already suggested to raise the annual subscription from Rs. 300 to Rs. 400 and life subscription from Rs. 3,500 to Rs.5,000.

We may bring out the best of Dalit journal but if the people are not interested in it what is the use? "Closing down DV" has brought us greater agony than all our family members put together. Those like Brother Haribhai who want to avert this disaster must go round and collect enough money to support us. Mere words of praise will take us no where — EDITOR.

DV service is saving us from Brahmin slavery

A. BALU, 58 - 7TH CROSS, VIJAY NAGAR, HUBLI - 580 032

I read the shocking Editorial (DV June 1, 2010) of "Closing down DV". DV has rendered a yeoman service to liberate Bahujans from the tharldom of Brahminical slavery. It is the voice of voiceless Bahujans. DV should not be closed.

I am sending Rs. 20,000. I wanted to personally meet you to give cheque but you were away in London. I assure to pay the balance RS. 80,000 in three installments. Survival of DV is more important in the interest of India.

Raise DV subscription to Rs. 500

DR. V. VENKATESWARLU, 25-1-312, POSTAL COLONY, A.K. NAGAR, NELLORE - 524 004

Regarding "Closing down DV" I had a long telephone talk with you last month. I am deeply worried. I had discussed with Dr. A. Mohan Rao, Dr. Bhaskar, Dr. M.P. Krishna, Eeda Lakshmana Rao (retd. teacher) and Dasari Penchalaiah (retd. CTO) of Nellore about your financial problem. The last three members became subscribers. Both Dr. Mohan Rao and Dr. Bhaskar have given a small donation. This much of small work I have done to see DV is not closed. I will try to do more.

Why not increase the yearly subscription of Dalit Voice from the present Rs. 300 to Rs. 500?

More suggestions to save DV

V.V. SIDDHARTA, USA (VIA EMAIL)

In the past few issues of DV I have been reading on the sorry plight of DV and am saddened to hear that we may not be able to continue DV. While this might seem like a death blow to Dalit movement, please consider the following points:

(1) Sustainability of print media in the internet world: DV is the one and only kind of paper catering to Dalits. While this might be a case to fight for its continued publication, print media may not be the solution. How about going web. I think you already have a website:

(www.dalitvoice.org).

Upkeep of this website and its contents might not be such a pricey option and might look good in balancing your accounts.

(2) Creating a "media centre" with contributions of Rs. 1 lakh per DV member may not be a sustainable option. When paying an annual subscription itself is a burden for most of our Dalit members how can he contribute Rs. 1 lakh.

(3) How about making some room for ad in DV that should be definitely generate revenue? And before you knock this idea off as too commercial and not worthy of DV space, consider a sample ad as I've listed below.

(4) Me and my dad both are DV subscribers. I am in the US and he is in Coimbatore. I send them (my mom and dad) a card on their b'day and then again on their wedding anniversary. It comes to about 25 to 30 dollars a year. I would gladly give that money to DV if you can give me 2/2 space where I can say something.

It will also bring that personal touch to your readers and it will truly bring together the DV family which so Remember, all great people of the world were either hated or neglected by their contemporaries. But they got recognized posthumously (including Babasaheb Ambedkar). You are facing the same situation.

Dr. A. Mohan Rao, (Urologist), Sagar Hospital, Indira Bhavan Rd., Nellore - 524 001: I have sent a small amount of Rs. 900 as donation to Dalit Voice to save DV from closure.

Dr. Bhaskar, Chest & Allergy Clinic, Indira Bhavan Rd., Nellore - 524 001: "DV closing down" news is shocking. I am sending Rs. 900 as a donation. ■ far has only been in words. And then of course a good ad revenue source could be book stores where Dalit literature is sold.

(5) What is DV? What it has achieved and whether it can be a better tool if paired with a greater movement? I fail to see/understand the overall impact that DV achieves. Sure I get news about happenings in Dalit world. How Brahmins rule the roost and how they are the puppets of the Zionist West. And how Abhinav Bharat is the Hindu terrorist org and everything. All read and done I might write a letter to be published in DV in the "letters to editors" section and will get a response from you. ■

Having been in the media for over 60 years, we know all the suggestions you made. Dalits are not interested in listening to you or to me. English knowing population in India is 3%. Of this you can imagine the state of Dalits. But you are talking about internet.

Only yesterday (7/8/2010) we attended a big meeting of Dalit bureaucrats of Bangalore. Of this only two are DV members. The rest are not interested in DV. They are afraid of the Big Cat. One bureaucrat DV member spoke about DV "closing down". None bothered about it. It is a "Sunset over the Dalit world". How many times we have to repeat this?

Advertisements, yes. Do you mean to say we are against taking ads? Only the upper castes are advertisers but they hate us. You need to know "Hindu mind" better.

If you are "saddened" about DV closure, as you say, donate liberally — EDITOR. ■

Money is there in plenty but our mind is controlled by Brahmin

V.T. RAJSHEKAR

The following is (see the box) is the list of donors and the money they sent so far.

This money will not be sufficient for our expenses even for three-four months. What after that?

We have so far published only those letters which had something concrete to say. Those merely praising the editor and DV are withheld.

If "Closing down DV" has given a real shock, as our family members admit, why they are not coming to the rescue of DV?

LEARN FROM BRAHMIN

Look at the entire Brahminical lot which stood by the notorious Karnataka Brahmin, Kalmadi Suresh Rao, the MP from Pune, despite all his proven highway robbery in the Commonwealth Games. This is called the real love for jati — "caste identity".

Brahmins work and think as one man. The community will never let down even when he is proved a rascal. Kalmadi case proves this.

Why this love, solidarity, jati prema is lacking among our people?

No member of the DV family had any complaint against us till this day. Not a single paisa has been swallowed. Our family members admit this. They also have all praise for our writings, choice of articles, and more than that embracing the entire Bahujan Samaj (SC/ST/BCs plus Muslim/Christian/Sikhs).

We are also praised for our prompt response when our DSA books are ordered and copies are replaced when a complaint of its non-receipt is received.

DALIT ISSUE INTERNATIONALISED

In the last 30 years every one in our office worked like a missionary. Many DV members have visited our office and spent hours with us.

Our members also praised us for internationalising the Dalit problem.

is that we have groomed and built up many honest Dalit writers and given special encouragement to Dalit women.

They have also said that DV was the only one which serialised the entire voluminous works of Babasaheb under, "Thus Spake Ambedkar".

VIPASSANA HUMBUG

DV was India's only journal which mercilessly exposed the Vipassana humbug perpetrated by the Marwari Goenka, guided by the Hindu terrorist RSS.

We have also strictly followed the Bahujan concept and did our best to propagate revolutionary Buddhism — not the contaminated Dalai Lama or Mahabodhi poison.

We have also published over 100 books which have world-wide demand.

Dalit Sahitya Akademy books are our only earning source but all the money that comes out of our book sale go to feed Dalit Voice.

WHY OUR HEARTS NOT MELTING

Every 15 days a new DV comes out right on time and it is promptly dispatched. Except those subjected to postal mischief, none had any complaint.

With all these achievements to our credit, why the hearts of our DV family members are not melting?

MONEY-DRIVEN SOCIETY

In the earlier years we used to have regularly state-wise DV workshops which used to be well-attended. Such meetings gave the opportunity for the members to personally meet the Editor and exchange thoughts. But as the years rolled by the response dwindled. This was a clear proof that "educated" Dalits are no more driven by the thoughts of our Father, Babasaheb but were being gradually swallowed by the money-driven society launched by the Brahminical enemy. Brahminism is eating our society.

We had plenty of opportunities to enter party politics. We were made MLC in Karnataka by the then Congress chief minister Devaraj Urs. This was way back in 1975. By this time we could have become a senior Congress leader at the Central level. Kanshi Ram offered us Rajya Sabha seat. George Fernandes tried to tempt us with plum positions.

"JEWS OF INDIA" THEORY

Had we fallen to these offers we would have got name, fame and tons of money. But we rejected all these but stuck to the path of our Father and intellectual honesty.

There are several Dalit journals, brought out by "Dalit leaders" to glorify themselves. Publishing their own pictures, praising this or that party leaders, making money and deceiving the people. Racketeers. DV never indulged in such rackets. It never strayed from the path set by our Father. All our family members know it.

Yet the hearts of our educated Dalits are not meting.

Our new explosive theory of "Jews and the Jews of India" has attracted the attention of all those engaged in fighting the Jews in the West and the Muslim world. Our discovery came as a shock to victims of Jews in London and Paris which we visited recently. American victims of Jews are thrilled. Arabs and other Muslims are warming up.

Muslims inside India are so much excited. A book itself is getting ready and a publisher in London is fixed.

FAVOURABLE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION

We have built an international network. Geo-political situation is fast changing. This is the best time to shift to Delhi and start a media centre by converting DV into a weekly.

We have prepared a modest project report. It does not cost much. A dozen Dalit officers can afford to finance the project.

Money is there in plenty. But our mind is under the control of the enemy. This is the problem. Our people want to remain as slaves. Who can save them? ■

Convert DV into global voice

MLECCHA, USA (VIA EMAIL)

DV should continue, but broaden the scope. Right now, DV is about 80% about India. A good deal is about China, USA, Iran, Israel, Palestine, Saudi Arabia as well. Yet, the main audience is mainly India, so the rest of the world forgets. The world basically falls into 5 blocs.

- (1). India, (2). Orient (China, Indochina, Korea & Japan), (3). Islamica (Near East, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia), (4). Africa, (5). Latin America (6). Wasichu Bloc (Europe, Russia & English Countries)

Instead of having something old, transform into something new. I have thought of neat titles like Earth Voice, World Voice, etc, but they are all taken. I like Mlecha Voice, because everyone in the world who is not Hindu is Mlecha. I shall have to distinguish myself as Mikhail al-Mlecha, so it's clear I'm not the only Mlecha in the world. I embrace my identity with great pride, because I would hate to be an inbred twice-born. Cover all areas of the world. That will broaden your audience. Get article contributors by people in these areas. Transform DV into something global.

Many Dalit members of our family inside India are not happy with our embracing Muslims, Christians, OBCs, Sikhs — all our own brothers. They say since it is the voice of Dalits it must confine to Dalits only. But you suggest embracing the whole world. Right now, we are fighting to survive. The question of embracing the whole world will arise only when we shift to India's capital, Delhi, and convert DV into a weekly. But all those who are generous in giving suggestions are not generous in saving DV's life — EDITOR.

Brahmin diagnoses Dalit "disease"

K. PRAKASH, TEACHER, JAWAHAR NAVODAYA VIDYALAYA, CHIKKAJOGIHALLI, KARNATAKA

I am keenly watching the Debate on "Closing down DV", especially your comments on the readers Letters. It appears that in your 30 years of missionary service the Dalits failed to realize your goals and ambitions. Leave alone the commencement of a media centre, the Dalits are least bothered even about the survival of DV (with minor exceptions).

With your experience, think of the Brahmin in the ancient days who by his knowledge of scriptures would spiritually awaken the people and make a living by their dakshinas. Probably the Brahmins who went to Dalits met with a bitter experience, similar to the one you describe now and finally had to grade the society on the order of their spirituality.

You may very well realize why the Dalits were given the lowest grade. Do you still think Brahminism was a mistake?

The fact that Brahminism is going strong even now shows that it was highly scientific.

I don't think that the Brahmins made any mistake by giving the lowest grade to Dalits who are not interested in any social, cultural or spiritual awakening. ■

How to save Dalit Voice

BHAGIRATH, R.A.S., SIDDHARTH VIHAR, OPP. CHAMAN MARBLES, AMBARI, UDAIPUR - 313 004

Collective efforts and pooling of resources are the only ways to save DV. Saving English DV by taking financial support will not serve the purpose of fighting Brahminism.

India is a vast country with over 20 languages. So DV has to be published at least in 10 languages. English speaking people are a small minority but Hindi speakers are the largest.

Myself and my friends are your great fans and very old associates of DV. We repeatedly requested you to permit us to publish DV in Hindi. We met you at Nagpur. At that time you were asking us to wait till you shifted to Delhi. That did not materialise.

Mere publication of magazines and books cannot counter Brahminism which needs activities and programmes also. Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar did both and achieved the goal.

But after his death Ambedkarites and Budhists turned individualists and refused to work as a team. Each one had his own ambitions and ego. They refused to work together. That is how they failed to establish their own media, and without media people cannot be "educated". And without education a movement can't gain momentum.

Collective efforts and pooling the resources alone can take us forward. It will be better if you could decentralise DV and allow proper persons to publish DV in all Indian languages. Try to convert DV into a movement rather than keep it as an individual enterprise. ■

Show us one case of "collective efforts & pooling of resources" by Dalits

We met Brother Bhagirath at Nagpur a year ago and assured him to consider his proposal after shifting to Delhi. Forget about shifting, DV itself is now dying — unsung, unwept.

He says Dalit movement failed because our people "turned individualistic and refused to work as a team". After saying it he contradicts himself asking us to "convert DV into a movement rather than keep it as an individual enterprise".

At one time we had eight language editions: Hindi, Punjabi, Kannada, Telugu, Oriya, Malayalam, Tamil, Urdu. How did we have 8 language editions unless it was a "collective effort and a movement?"

KANSHI RAM "MEDIA CENTRE"

Had we accepted Kanshi Ram's offer to head his BSP media centre in Delhi, we would have got name, fame, position and everything but opposed by anti-BSP Dalit Bahujans. We made DV loved by all sections, identified the enemy oppressor as demanded by our Father and established the country's largest circulated Dalit journal with national and international recognition.

But our people caught in the Brahminical net called the money-driven society are not interested in our own Father — not to speak of DV.

This is the crux of the problem.

Show us one instance in the whole of India where "collective efforts and pooling of resources", the suggestions made by Bhagirath, are experimented.

Dalit movement is itself dead and Babasaheb is forgotten.

We are not interested in suggestions and advises. Those interested in saving DV must come to the rescue of DV first — EDITOR.

Lipstick-wali wife & lifeless gods

PITABAS SETHI, AT MADAN MOHAN PADA, BHAWANIPATNA, KALAHANDI DT. - 766 001

I am a life-member of DV since 2006. I am deeply worried after reading the Debate on "Closing down DV". Our people are responsible for what has happened to DV. These "educated" people are now engaged with lipstick-wali wife, watching TV, worshipping lifeless gods, giving funds to Brahminical organisations etc. They are telling that due to the blessings of gods they got the govt. service. If god was there, as they say, why their parents and grandparents did not get govt. service? Due to Babasaheb's blessing only they got govt. jobs and today "enjoying their life". They are gradually realising the revolution launched by BAMCEF, the largest Ambedkarite movement headed by Vaman Meshram. I am sending Rs. 8,000 committing to send the same amount till 2020. ■

Dalit trade union initiative

JEEVAN GAIKWAD

Maharashtra Rajya Magasvargiya Vidyut Karmachari Sangathan (MRMVKS — Backward Class, SC/ST/OBC/DT/NT/SBC Electricity Employees Union of Maharashtra state) has taken unanimous decision at its CWC meeting held at Pune on July 11 to enroll a minimum of five members for DV from each branch of union among our 150 branches all over Maharashtra. N.B. Jaronde, general secretary, MRMVKS, made this announcement.

(jeevan.gaikwad7@gmail.com) ■

Some years back we addressed a general body meeting of the MRMVKS at Nagpur organised by Brother Rangari. He was a wonderful person. Do you know him? We commended your caste-based trade union. Your initiative to support DV is wonderful. The collection of the money has to be done by you but if you leave it to individuals they will be lethargic. You have set a good example by joining DV family world-wide — EDITOR. ■

DV has been part of my life for 30 years

K. KARUPPIAH, 63-THIRU NAGAR, KARUMANDAPAM, TIRUCHI - 620 001

I was shocked and restless for many days because DV is part and parcel of my life for the past 30 years. People like me will be in the dark for the remaining part of our life. You wrote in the last issue that nobody is bothered about the closure of DV. I can understand your feelings about the ingratitude of the readers. As an old and also sick man coupled with financial strain, I will not be helpful in any way to DV. That is why I did not write to you immediately.

Publishing a journal without ads is very difficult, that too for a long period of 30 years. At the present trend of the world we cannot put forth our thoughts and communicate to the people in any other manner other than the media. As a highly experienced journalist you know it better.

Nobody has so far criticised you because they all know your yeoman services. That itself is a great credit. ■

Gujarat Muslim help

S.H. SIDDIQUI, HALDHARU

I have sent Rs. 5,000 not to become a life-member of DV but to support your work. I know DV is not getting any govt. advt. The paper is running in loss. ■

Raising DV subscription

Suggestions have been made to increase the DV subscription from the current Rs. 300.

Dr. Venkateswarlu from Nellore (AP) suggested Rs. 500 and Brother Hankare (Bombay and Mrs. Priti Gautam, Delhi, suggested Rs. 400.

That our situation has become so critical was made clear in our June 1 editorial: "Should we continue DV or not? Are we to die as slaves? Will family members decide?" which sparked the "Closing down debate".

Sympathy & tears: Some dedicated members are pleading with us not to stop DV. One member said closing DV was like switching off the last light, plunging the society into darkness. The debate has been going on — but we have to take a decision.

We are touched by the agony expressed by our members. But bringing out DV needs hard cash. Mere sympathy and tears will not solve our problem. If our members want to be honest to DV, they must agree for a substantial raise in DV subscription and take other steps immediately.

We need urgent response so that we take a decision this or that way — EDITOR.

Raise subscription to Rs. 400

VINAYAK HANKARE, BOMBAY (VIA EMAIL)

This refers to your Editorial of June 1, 2010, "Should we continue DV or not?" The news of closing down DV is shocking. Our enemies will now celebrate. To raise the funds the yearly subscription must be rased to Rs. 400. DV members must pay and also collect donations. But merely discussions and suggestions will not solve the financial problems. We must act speedily.

As rightly pointed by our Editor Dr. Babasaheb died a sad man but DV suffers a miserable death. When Babasaheb died he had a bank balance of just rs. 300. Today our people have ample money but they have forgotten their pay-back to society. They only talk but will not act. It gives me lot of pain to state that we don't have our own media, banking sector, educational institutions. I am sending my money soon. ■

Upgrading membership

PAPPULA VENKATESHAM, 11-4, B.C. COLONY, CHERLAPALLY, NALGONDA DT. - 508 001

I want to upgrade my DV subscription to life-membership. Sending Rs. 3,500. ■

Thus Spake Periyar

Now let us further see what are the laws contained in the Manu's code and how far they are just and fair. The courts decide matters strictly conforming to the laws laid down in the Manu's code, forgetting the fact that the Manu's code is mainly intended to make a particular community (Brahmins) prosperous.

Origin: Brahma is the creator of the Manu Dharma. Later it was strictly disclosed by him to rishis. (Chap.1.S.59).

Atheists: Vedas and Dharma sastras should not be questioned or debated. He who does so will be considered an atheist (Chap.2.S.11).

Such an atheist who blames the vedas will be considered as accuser of god. (ibid).

Brahmins should not disclose this Manu Dharma Sastra to any other people. (Chap.1.S.103).

A King's duty is to excommunicate the gamblers, actors, musicians, bad elements, those who defy the vedas and rituals, those who change their trades, and those who are found to consume intoxicating drinks. (Chap.9.S.226).

Division by birth: To safeguard the world, Brahma, created the Brahmins, Kshatriyas, Vaishyas and Sudras from his face, shoulders, thighs, and feet respectively and evolved different duties and responsibilities for each section separately. (Chap.1.S.87).

Because a Brahmin is born in the face of Brahma, because he is born of the highest caste, he alone has the right to receive and enjoy the wealth and property of all other castes and communities. (Chap.1.S.100).

Pride in begging: Even if a Brahmin begs for alms and receives help he eats his own. He wears his own clothes. He donates his own property. Others enjoy such things only at the mercy of Brahmins. (Chap 1.S.101).

Even if a Sudra were to do the work of a Brahmin, he will not become a Brahmin, because he has no right to do the work of a Brahmin.

Even if a Brahmin were to do the work of a Sudra, a

Brahmins were meat eaters

Brahmin will not become a Sudra, because even if he does a low work, he belongs to the highest caste. (Chap.10.S.73).

Brahmins once non-vegetarians: All sorts of dishes as Vadai, Payasam and tasty flesh and sweet smelling waters are for the Brahmins. (Chap.5.S.227).

A Brahmin could eat any living being every day for the sake of his health. There is no sin attached to Brahmins eating the flesh of living beings. (Chap.5.S.30).

Particulars are given in the Manu Sastra, to please the dead forefathers by offering meat. Felsh of different birds and animals were also offered by Brahma to please god for different periods. Here are the details:

(1) Paddy, rice, water, black gram, roots and fruits satisfy the dead for one month. (2) Fishes please the dead of two months. (3) Stag's flesh pleases the dead for 3 months. (4) Goat's flesh pleases the dead for 4 months. (5) Bird's flesh pleases the dead for 5 months. (6) Whitegoat's flesh pleases the dead for 6 months. (7) Reindeer's flesh pleases the dead for 7 months. (8) Black stag's flesh pleases the dead for 8 months. (9) Kalaiman flesh pleases the dead for 9 months. (10) Flesh of porcupine, pig, bison, pleases the dead for 10 months. (11) Flesh of rabbit, tortoise pleases the dead for 11 months. (12) Cow's milk, curd, ghee, pleases the dead for 1 year. (13) A male goat's flesh pleases the dead for 12 years. (14) With vegetables grown in the season, a fish variety valai, flesh of a red coloured lamb, rice grown in forest lands, please the dead eternally.

In the month of Purattasi after the full moon on the 13th day, if honey, and Payasam are offered to the dead, that offering gives them full satisfaction. (Chap3.S.267 to 273).

If the Brahmin refuses to eat the flesh offered at the ceremonies he will be born as a cow 21 times. (Chap5.S.35).

A Sudra should be away from the house on the day of the performance of the ceremonies. (Chap.3.S.242).

Brahminist self-destruction fast approaching

MLECCHA, SAN FRANCISCO, USA (VIA EMAIL)

I was fascinated by the recent Letters from a Brahmin in DV, in which he boldly admitted you discovered the secret connection between Brahmins and Jews. Brahmins and Israeli Jewish scientists have been working hand in hand to enhance war technology. These cousins are masters of the disgusting science of war, in which they pit two opposing non-Judaeo-Brahmins against each other.

However, there is a revelation in his (K.T. Kishan) bold statement. Brahmin and Jewish leaders know it well. When you are powerful, be silent. When you are weakening, pretend to be powerful. This Brahmin bragged anonymously about the Brahmin relationship with the Jews. Why? Because he knows Brahmins are losing their grip on India and he must pretend they are strong.

Vanishing tribe: In Israel, the Jews are divided into castes with the dark Jews serving as shudras and the non-Jews serving as Israel's Dalits. However, unlike the Brahmins, the Jews are extremely divided with several political parties. Jews are conspiring against their lower castes, but they also conspire against each other. A Jew would probably kill his own brother or father to be king, and plots of this kind did happen in the Jewish Bible. Even though the Jews and Brahmins are cousins, make no mistake. They are not brothers! Jews and Brahmins will only help each other when it serves the interest of their own. Their evil leaders may think alike, but they think treacherously.

The Brahmins are worse than any wicked Jew. There are many good Jews but no decent Brahmin will inbreed with a Brahmin. The Brahmins are very inbred and far closer to self-destruction than the Jews. Long ago, there were some good Brahmins, which enabled the Brahmins to continue with tremendous power. There are some good Jews, but if they follow in the footsteps of the Brahmin, they will disappear.

DV praise of China: The big secret of conspiracies is this: most conspiracies are not that organized nor even intentional. However, the Powerful know this trick; take credit for something you didn't really accomplish; allow the weak to blame you for orchestrating their downfall.

When Dalits give Brahmins credit for manipulating them, they fall into the Brahmin trap. Brahmins want you to feel powerless. To believe the lie that you are powerless to defeat the Brahmins. The Brahmin who laughed in the recent DV voice at DV's wisdom in praising China and exposing the Judaeo-Brahmin connection is nervous! He is trying to downplay DV and pretend he has won.

Stupid little Brahmins, guess what? I know your tricks. DV has exposed you and I will gladly die exposing you. We will be your end. As a people, you're weak, you're old, and I'm not pretending to be tough or smart. I am tough and smart. I'm like the fighter who will tell you exactly how I will defeat you before a fight. I embrace my own death with excited ferocity, if it is in the cause of justice. Why does DV repeat itself? Simple, you dumb inbred Brahmin. It's about all the issues associated with the plight of the Dalit. They haven't changed much. There's also been plenty of new material. Go ahead, stupid Brahmin, respond to me. I dare you. I'll make you feel like the inbred broken-brained idiot you are. My IQ is well above genius and I'm about to make you feel like the a son of the inbred god you descend from. ■

China will spit on Brahminist face

Brother Mleccha is right that Jews and Brahmins are not brothers. We had said this in our book, Brahminism (DSA-2002). While the Jews hated Hitler and his nazis, the Brahmins supported and admired Hitler. They even invited him to India.

The Brahmin symbol, swastika, was given to Hitler. A German scholar at Oxford University, Max

Mueller, got the whole Brahmin "Sacred Scriptures" translated to English and published them. Germans took great interest in Sanskrit.

JEW AS VICTIMS OF BRAHMINS

Hitlerism and the Brahmin terrorist party, RSS, aims and objectives are the same (Ibid DSA p.54).

Germany's outstanding philosopher, Nietzsche, praised Brahmins.

Leon Poliakov, a distinguished French (Jew) historian, in his book, The Aryan Myth (1977, New American Library, New York) says Jews were the victims of Brahminism. The Jews engineered both the 1st and 2nd World Wars to fight Hitler and finally defeated him but Brahmins fully supported Hitler and the nazis. All this is history. All the thinking Jews know this historical truth during our meetings in US, London and Paris.

It is only after the collapse of Soviet Russia, the Brahmins started courting the Jews. And making a beeline to USA. But all the brilliant Jews are fully aware of the Brahminist treachery.

Brahmins are carefully watching the world situation. They know, the US led by Jews is collapsing. They also know China which hates Jews is rising. As the saying goes the Brahmin is a good servant but a bad master.

Their fear is once the US loses and Jews are finished there is no use hugging on to Jews.

They are carefully watching the rising China and our information is they have already started licking the Chinese bum.

Informed sources say they have already sent emissaries to Beijing to touch the feet of Chinese leaders and seek their forgiveness for the 1962 war against China. But we have already made sure that China would spit on the face of the crooks — EDITOR. ■

DV not fully backing Arzal Muslims

COM. AYYANKALI

I read the latest issue of DV. You have acknowledged your error on Obama. But you have not said anything about the Ashraf Muslims. Unless the secret nexus between Ashraf Muslims and Brahmins is exposed nothing can improve.

However, you seem to be gradually realising this dangerous error. It is still not too late to join hands with the Dalit Arzal Muslims to finish off the Saudi-Israeli-financed Ashraf Muslims who have deserted the Mustadafeen. We must become truthful to our caste, and also the "caste struggle" and "caste identity. It is your own theory which you have taught me. I am your student and now I am forced to remind you of your own line.

Arzals confined to small parts of India & also lack consciousness

We have been in touch with the Arzal Muslims for over 20 years. And even addressed a meeting under the leadership of Ghulam Sarwar, a Bihar Minister and later Speaker. His son-in-law Dr. Ejaz Ali, a doctor at Patna, has been our life-member since 25 years. But later he joined Nitish party and left the company of his Arzal Muslims. We also had long discussions with Lalu Prasad Yadav when he was Bihar CM on the Arzals.

Though we have been supporting the Arzals, we did not criticise the Ashrafs because the ground reality is not as you describe. Arzals are found mainly in Bihar, Bengal, Jharkhand, parts of Assam and UP. There may be some Arzals elsewhere too but they are a small minority and do not identify themselves as Arzals.

The Brahmin rulers are oppressing the Muslims as a whole — not only the Arzals. The Muslim religious leadership will not acknowledge the exploitation of Arzals by the Ashrafs. Brahmins are playing their role carefully.

But if you start attacking the Muslims as a whole, even the few Muslims with us will turn against RSS supremo Mohan Bhagwat and Ashraf Muslims are close. Both hate Arzaal Muslims as well as the "Hindu" Dalits. Once we expose this evil nexus, Dalit Mazhabhi Sikhs, "Hindu" Dalits, Dalit Arzaal Muslims and Dalit Christians will come on a single platform to sharpen your "caste identity" theory.

Arzaal Dalit Muslims must revolt against Ashrafs who are interested only in burkha, illiteracy, kabab, shabad, qawwali, and sher-shaayeri.

Only Dalit Voice can boldly give such a call for revolt against Ashraf Muslims. One single editorial in DV will threaten the enemy. You have the credibility and track record to do it and ordinary Muslims trust you very much. ■ us. Arzals out of deprivation and illiteracy are not in a position to join us. So we will lose both.

See how Brahmins have turned Jat Sikhs against us in Punjab. India is a land of many contradictions and Brahmins are experts in the law of contradiction and use one contradiction against the other to defeat us.

That is why we have been very cautious.

We are trying to build up the Arzal leadership first. But they are very poor and very slow — EDITOR. ■

India's casteism is worse than racism

DR. K. JAMANADAS, SHALIMAR, MAIN ROAD, CHANDRAPUR - 442 402

The book is an anthology of prominent authors, who presented papers at the seminar held at Iowa City in Oct. 2002 in "Beyond Durban", following WCAR in Durban in Aug.-Sept.2001. Captains of Industry and finance always present rosy pictures that hunger, injustice, disease and unemployment would be wiped out.

SANSKRIT POISONED DALITS

But this must be done without violence and the efforts must be global. This was countered by the argument that globalization itself has the hidden agenda of spreading imperialism of new kind.

Globalization is another name for imperialism and that is spread by Jewish-controlled IMF and World Bank was one of the thoughts spread by the scholars. There was another kind of border among people and that was color. That was the problem of the Race. There was the problem of Caste, that was discussed and it was conceptualized in different theorizing arguments by different scholars.

The discriminated minorities and the global civil societies had different views and the American and Indian governments put forwards views, which the scholars felt was "anachronistic and out of step with globalization itself".

At Durban, human rights issues were considered traditionally, but now new percepts had to be discussed. Natrajan had attended a conference at Columbia University, where Dr. Ambedkar had left his impressions. It was on caste and its discontents. Some subaltern scholars portrayed the profile of Macaulay in bright colors and others questioned the idea. This was seen as a complex relationship of caste versus colonialism.

Macaulay was seen as the liberatory figure for Dalits as his policies opened the fields of modern education for the Dalits and at the same time put a lid on the greatness of Sanskrit shastras, which the Dalits always considered the main cause of their degradation.

The scholars contributing to this volume are from various fields of anthropology, history, literature, sociology, economics, political science and public administration. They are well placed in universities, colleges and research centers.

BSP & BRAHMINS

The volume has 15 essays by prominent scholars and are divided into four groups. Seven essays deal with comparative aspects of caste and race. [Berreman, Visweswaran, Reddy, Omvedt, Tartakov, Darity, and Natrajan]. Two essays by Mevorach and Dominguez deal with race and racism. The five essays by Thorat, Gopal Guru, V. Geetha, Balu and Kancha Ilaiah focus on caste and casteism, and they plead for inclusion of caste in global discourse of race. One essay of Sanders deals with race problem of American Africans and white population.

BATEILLE'S BRAHMINICAL VIEWS

It is not possible to analyze all papers, so some samples. Some salient points from essays of Ms. Deepa S. Reddy, who presented paper on "Ethnicity of Caste". She believed that Dalit Panthers origin in Maharashtra was mostly against the bourgeois class rather than against Brahmins.

BSP, coming about a decade later focused on caste and Kanshi Ram argued the ruling ideologies were Brahminic and this hegemony needed to be dismantled. She argues that Kanshi Ram was not against the system of castes, which is perhaps a purposeful misleading statement. Further she describes how Mandal Commission report was published and picturesquely describes upper caste self-immolation against it. But she omits to mention that it was Kanshi Ram who forced V. P. Singh to implement Mandal commission report by organizing literally thousands of marches, meetings and seminars throughout the length and breadth of the country. She also omits to mention the self-immolations in most cases were fake.

She then describes the rath yatra by L. K. Advani, which went through not the Hindu temples but through the temples believed to have been destroyed by the Muslims. The purpose was to divert the attention of OBCs from the real issue of Mandal to the emotive and sentimental issue of temple. She omits to mention that Vajpayee had mentioned they started kamandal to stop Mandal.

She describes Durban and believes caste was commercialized there. She quotes Andre Beteille, who presents Brahminical view and who avers that, to equate caste and race is 'scientifically nonsensical', but however she laments that the both race and caste were used as weapons of discrimination.

She quotes DV Editor V.T. Rajshekar, who described apartheid and observed that Black-White difference can be noticed visibly but not caste discrimination.

Views of S. K. Throat also deserve mention. He describes the United Nations Human Rights declaration and how Dr. Ambedkar had brought issue under 'slavery' in 1948, how all efforts failed and how in Durban the Govt. of India opposed Dalit issues saying it is outside the purview of this conference and how it is internal matter of India. He describes in detail the discrimination in various other countries.

PERIYAR'S ACHIEVEMENTS

Kancha Ilaiah describes historical basis of caste in Rigveda. He avers the caste problem, for the first time, was addressed by Jotiba Phule and compares his great work with the revivalist work of Brahmo Samaj and Arya Samaj. He describes how Periyar E.V. Ramasami saw the trickery of Dayanand Saraswati and developed the Dravida nationalism as he equated Brahminism with Aryan. He saw the Aryans denigrating Dravidian heroes like Ravana, Bali and Shambuka and put forward his own Dravidian self-respect movement. He describes how the views of Gandhi and Dr. Ambedkar deferred about shudras, Chandals and Adivasis and how sensing the danger of idea of Ram Rajya of Gandhi, Dr. Ambedkar embraced Budhism in 1956.

He describes how in post-independent India the Brahminical forces are keeping the Dalit-Bahujans away from English education though their children are being educated in English schools. He also describes how they divided Hinduism into two as orthodox and secular and how the main contradiction depicted as colonialism against nationalism. Lastly he advises Dalit Bahujans to come back to understand the main contradiction is Brahminism versus nationalism.

The book is a valuable archive to treasure.

Untouchability & racism

M.K.DAS, ARCS, BHADRAK, ORISSA

On June 24, 2010, a local daily, Dharitri, had an article on "Globalization of untouchability" by a Brahmin Abhaya Dwivedi, claiming that Yemen, France, Japan, Nigeria also had the untouchability as in manuwadi India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bangladesh. He says he read it in a book published by the International Humanists Ethical union. As the Editor of Dalit Voice and the path-finder of the Dalits, has travelled round the world will you agree with this?

Untouchability is a mental problem

There is a world of difference between "racism" and "Untouchability". The latter is confined only to the Indian subcontinent which has been the playing field of the Brahmin. We had visited Japan on the invitation of the Burakumin, who form not even 2% of the population, to study their complaint of racism. The difference between "racism" and "untouchability" is: Racism is discrimination on the basis of skin colour. The Japanese Burakumin were originally in skin business like taming and hence suffered discrimination.

But the Indian untouchability has nothing to do with skin colour. It is prejudice which is the product of mental disease. Marxist leader E.M.S. Namboodiripad belonged "to the highest and the purest" Brahmin caste but had almost "jet" black complexion. Kanshi ram had a fair complexion and yet suffering untouchability.

African and American Blacks are employed in White households as servants but in India an Untouchable is not even allowed to enter the house in rural areas.

The Brahmins may be "educated" but not enlightened. They are like that frog in the well. Because they suffer from an acute mental disease, they are prove to think that the whole country of which they are the leader, is a mental asylum — EDITOR.

Why Dalits suspect Maoist leadership

THOMAS C. MOUNTAIN

India's Dalits really distrust the Maoist movement of India and Nepal. As the Maoist movement begins to challenge state power in Nepal, and has struck a serious level of alarm in the ruling elite in India, this question has important ramifications for the future of south Asia. The Dalit movement is the largest and fastest growing threat to the status quo, followed at some distance by the Maoists. Interestingly, almost all the Dalit leadership I know, mostly mid level cadre in the BSP, India's third largest national party and main force in the Dalit liberation movement, are ex-Maoists.

Neo Brahmins: When asked why they distrust the Naxalites, the common term for the Maoist movement, they point out, to start, the fact that almost all the rank and file fighters in the Maoist movement are Dalits or tribals and that almost all the leadership are "high caste". The Dalits I know have had first hand experience with just how casteist the "Naxalite"/Maoist leadership is.

The Dalit movement exemplified by the BSP cadre I know is firmly rooted in organizing Dalits into community collectives and focused on mobilizing Dalits in exercising their voting rights.

Dalits feel that if the Maoist movement continues to ignore varnalcaste while still dependent on Dalits to win power, Dalits are doomed to see their struggle for equal rights and justice betrayed by the new Brahmins, the leaders of today's Maoist movement.

One fact remains utterly non debatable and that is that India and Nepal remain overwhelmingly a society of villages. Equally non-debatable is that in India and Nepal's villages, caste rules. How the Maoist movement can hope to succeed without even addressing this issue in any real way bodes ill for any hopes the Maoist movement offers any real solutions to the most barbaric, inhumane system of human oppression in the world, Apartheid in India and Nepal.

India at war with itself

V.T. RAJSHEKAR

This is the sixth year of the LISA annual function, but as we could not get a befitting book, the annual book award is postponed.

Meanwhile, our LISA chief Brigadier Usman Khalid fell ill, stricken by a deadly disease but I was confident that he would recover and bounce back. And he did.

He is sitting here. Had I not mentioned it most of you would not have noticed that he was actually having a second life.

WORLD'S LARGEST MUSLIM COUNTRY

Brother Khalid is the centre of gravity for LISA. Last year, when I was invited to Pakistan to lead a Dalit Writers delegation, I was surprised to find him at the Lahore airport along with the welcoming team. This year I was again invited to Pakistan but he sent an email saying that he wanted to join the team but could not because of his illness.

Glad to hear that he has handed over the LISA responsibilities to Saeed Ismat and we are sure the new chief would beef up the LISA work so that it could become a powerful think-tank and also a watch-dog over India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Lanka, Nepal, Afghanistan- all suffering under the big bully tyranny of a micro-minority of Brahminical imperialists. And, equip LISA intellectually to rein in this big Brahminical bully that is India.

I have been asked to speak on the Maoist movement, so much glamorised in India's Brahminical media.

As the editor of India's largest circulated journal for the oppressed

Indians, namely Dalit Voice, 30 years old, with intimate knowledge of every corner of the country with a formidable population of 1,300 millions, we have several friends within the Maoist movement and hence I am in a position to give you the authentic picture of this movement which has become the second biggest problem to India's micro-minority 3% Brahmins who are ruling India since centuries.

The Brahmins consider "Islamic terrorism" as their No. 1 problem and the Maoist movement as the No.2.

You will be better able to appreciate my statement if I read out to you a report from today's (14/07/2010) Guardian (London), page number 20. Headlined "More poverty in Speech delivered in London on India's raging Maoist Movement and its glamorisation in the Indian media at LISA's (London Institute of South Asia) annual function at the Portcullis House, Westminster, on July 14, 2010.

India, than all of Sub-Saharan Africa: UN index builds up future picture of poor lives. Madhya Pradesh state comparable to Congo"

India is on a steep decline politically, economically, socially and also intellectually.

India became independent in 1947. It is now 63 years since a micro-minority of 3% Brahmins took over as our new rulers, who are worse than the British, and reduced over 85% of India's Dalits, Tribals, Muslims and Backward Castes into mere skin and bones.

The United Nations has given the rank of 134 to India and next year it will go down to 135 while China, which became independent two years later has become the number 2 power in the world.

Such a serious socio-economic situation has created two problems before the Indian rulers: the no.1 problem is Islamic terrorism. India has the world's largest Muslim population - reduced to permanent poverty and illiteracy. On the top of that the Muslims are pushed to urban slums, and regularly killed, arrested and dubbed terrorists.

MAOIST PARTY HEADED BY BRAHMINS

A war is now raging in Kashmir which is totally Muslim.

The second problem is the "Maoist movement" which has spread to almost one-third of India. So far the movement is confined to villages. As the ruling upper caste are urban-dwellers, they are not so much bothered about the Maoists till now. These so called Maoists are not part of any organised Communist Party. China's communist party, which is a product of Maoism, not only has no connection with India's highly glamorised Maoists, but has stated that it is opposed to the Indian Maoist movement.

Why Chinese communists, who are the only authentic Maoists, are against the Indian Maoists? Because, China knows that the leadership of the Indian Maoists is Brahminical who are our enemy oppressors.

As the President of the India-China friendship association, I led two delegations to China and we are in close contact with the revolutionary country and that's how China knows the facts about the Indian Maoists.

Brahminical rulers, who have sucked the blood of the country's poor, are the very people who exploited their poverty and deprivation to build up a movement of Dalits and Tribals who are the foot-soldiers of the Brahmin leaders. And still called it a "Maoist movement."

That means that our very enemy is leading our starving people calling them Maoists. It may be shocking but unfortunately true.

We are in close touch with the rank and file of the Maoist movement. Quite a lot of caste-clashes have taken place inside the Maoists. Many upper caste Brahminical leaders have been shot dead by the angry Dalits who are the back-bone of the movement.

But, India's Brahminical media is hiding this truth and glamorising this Maoist movement.

And it is this Brahmin monopoly media that is giving you a false picture of the Maoists.

For your information, India's Communist Party is also led by the same Brahmins. These Brahminists divide themselves into all parties so that any party that wins will remain under their leadership. This is their strategy. We know the game of our oppressors and we request you to see through their centuries-old divide and rule game. Please don't fall into the enemy trap. The communist party deceived our people for over 60/70 years and there is no reason why the Maoist leadership will not deceive us again. Because, both are led by the same Brahminist enemy no.1 of India.

But unfortunately the poor and illiterate Dalits and Tribals are unaware of this Brahminical game. And that is how they get deceived and die in the cross-fire between the Maoists and the Indian government para-military forces.

We have no mass media of our own, this media is again in the hands of our enemy. Only Dalit Voice comes out with truth and supports justice. But, after struggling for 30 long years and fighting for human rights of Dalits, Muslims, Sikhs, Christians we have announced that Dalit Voice is closing down.

Darkness is descending on India. Yes, India is at war with itself.

Alas, the West is misguided by the Zionist Jews and the East is led by the "Jews of India", the Brahmins.

These twin enemies of humanity – the "Jews and the Jews of India" have to be fought and eliminated.

However, the rise of China, on one side and the spread of revolutionary Islam on the other is the only hope for India and the humankind.

The meeting was held in the historic Pastcullis House which is part of the British Parliament called Westminster on the bank of the River Thames. It was inaugurated by a member of the British House of Commons and presided by a Muslim House of Lord member, Nazir Ahmed, and attended by UK-based Sikhs, Dalits, Muslims, and a UK-based Muslim young woman Saleena Karim, author of the latest book on Jinnah, Awatar Singh Sekhon from Canada, Gurtej Singh from Chandigarh, Punjab. Those present including the outgoing president of the LISA, Brig. Usman Khalid, and the new president Saeed Ismat, a retired Pakistani Brigadier and diplomat. ■

Cities dying one by one

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: Anything the Brahminists touch turns into charcoal. Did we not say it? May be a 100 times.

The upper caste rulers (15% - Brahmins, Kshatriyas, Baniyas and upper caste shudras) migrated to big cities in search of pleasure, enjoyment, leisurely living. And once they embraced a city it turned into a charcoal.

This is not our verdict but their own organisation (TOI Aug.8, 2010).

For the first time 423 class-I cities were graded on the basis of their sanitation. Result? Bombay, India's biggest city, is pushed to bottom (No.46) – behind Kanpur.

Narayanamurthys kill Bangalore: Delhi ranked 5, Madras, 13, Calcutta, 25. One by one bit cities are dying.

Cities are the pleasure park of the rich, meaning the upper castes. And such parks have started rotting. Bangalore is not mentioned in the TOI report. But since we live here we know what Bhoodevatas think of Bangalore. They say Bangalore is dying. The Narayanamurthy's have killed Bangalore.

Anything the Brahminists touch will have to die. So don't allow yourself to be touched by the enemy. Never allow even your mind to be contaminated by the gutter water.

India is reviewing the lists of Sikhs abroad who were blacklisted for their anti-Indian activities, Foreign Secretary Nirupama Rao has said. Assuaging the Sikhs in Canada that her government was doing everything possible to heal the wounds of the 1984 riots. Indian Prime Minister Manmohan Singh has urged the community to put the past behind and move forward.

Manmohan Singh on a visit to Canada recently visited the memorial dedicated to the victims of the 1985 Air India plane explosion in Toronto.

Largest mass murder: Air India flight 182 named after Emperor Kanishka and operating on the Montreal-London-Delhi-Bombay route, was blown up on June 23, 1985 by a suitcase bomb at an altitude of 31,000 feet (9,400m) off Ireland's Atlantic coast. In all, 329 people died in the disaster, including 280 Canadian nationals, mostly of Indian birth or descent, and 22 Indians. The incident represents the largest mass murder in modern Canadian history. Investigation and prosecution took almost 20 years and was the most expensive trial in Canadian history, costing nearly 130 million dollars.

Blue Star Operation: The 1984 anti-Sikh riots refers to four days of violence in North India following the assassination of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi by her guards, who were Sikhs. Her assassination was seen as a consequence of "Operation Blue Star" of June 1984 when Central forces attacked the Golden Temple in Amritsar to flush out Sant Bhindranwale and Khalistani forces who had entrenched themselves in some areas of the Akal Takht in the Golden Temple complex. According to unconfirmed figures 3,000 Sikhs were killed during the disturbances and 50,000 were forced to flee their homes (ANI). Canada has the largest number of hard-liners who were blacklisted by New Delhi for their anti-Indian activities. Most of these people had taken asylum in Canada besides other Western countries during the peak of militancy in Punjab in the 1980s.

Prime Minister Manmohan Singh's remarks came in the meeting which also included Indo-Canadian MP Sukh Dhaliwal, who recently introduced a motion in the Canadian parliament to declare the 1984 riots a genocide. (The Birth Pangs of Khalistan, DSA-1985, pp.40, photocopy available. Rs. 35) ■

Expert predicts US fall

WWW.ASPENDAILYNEWS.COM/SECTION/HOME/141349

Harvard Professor, British scholar and prolific author, Niall Ferguson, has warned about the increasing prospect of the American empire suddenly collapsing due to the country's rising debt level. Empires — such as the former Soviet Union and the Roman empire — can collapse quite quickly and the tipping point is often when the cost of servicing an empire's debt is larger than the cost of its defense budget. US is now deeply in the red as a country because of a combination of the Great Recession, the resulting federal stimulus and financial bailout programs, two wars, the Bush tax cuts, and a growth in social entitlement programs. Economic debt can lead to a sudden loss of military power and global respect, Ferguson said. ■

DV has been long predicting the fall of US and even written an Editorial: "Big news: Fall of America from sole super power status is speeded up as China raises" (DV June 16, 2010) — EDITOR. ■
