Only a mad govt. provokes Muslims :

THUS SPAKE AMBEDKAR

Thus Spake Ambedkar

Only a mad govt. can provoke Muslims

The Honourable Dr. B.R. Ambedkar: Coming to the question of saving personal law. I think this matter was very completely and very sufficiently discussed and debated at the time when we discussed one of the Directive Principles of this Constitution which enjoins the State to seek or to strive to bring about a uniform civil code and I do not think it is necessary to make any further reference to it, but I should like to say this that if such a saving clause was introduced into the Constitution, it would disable the legislatures in India from enacting any social measure whatsoever. The religious conceptions in this country are so vast that they cover every aspect of life, from birth to death. There is nothing which is not religion and if personal law is to be saved, I am sure about it that in social matters we will come to a standstill. I do not think it is possible to accept a position of that sort. There is nothing extraordinary in saying that we ought to strive hereafter to limit the definition of religion in such a manner that we shall not extend beyond beliefs and such rituals as many be connected with ceremonials which are essentially religious. It is not necessary that the sort of laws, for instance, laws relating to tenancy or laws relating to succession, should be governed by religion. In Europe there is Christianity, but Christianity does not mean that the Christians all over the world or in any part of Europe where they live, shall have a uniform system of law of inheritance. No such things exists. I personally do not understand why religion should be given this vast, expansive jurisdiction so as to cover the whole of life and to prevent the legislature from encroaching upon that field. After all, what are we having this liberty for? We are having this liberty in order to reform our social system, which is so full of inequities, so full of inequalities, discriminations and other things, which conflict with our fundamental rights. It is, therefore, quite impossible for anybody to conceive that the personal law shall be excluded from the jurisdiction of the State. Having said that I should also like to point out that all that the State is claiming in this matter is a power to legislate. There is no obligation upon the State to do away with personal laws. It is only giving a power. Therefore, no one need be apprehensive of the fact that if the State has the power, the State will immediately proceed to execute or enforce that power in a manner that may be found to be objectionable by the Muslims or by the Christians or by any other Community in India.

We must all remember — including Members of the Muslim community who have spoken on this subject, though one can appreciate their feelings very well — that sovereignty is always limited, no matter even if you assert that it is unlimited, because sovereignty in the exercise of the power must reconcile itself to the sentiments of different communities. No Government can exercise its power in such a manner as to provoke the Muslim community to rise in rebellion. I think it would be a mad government if it did so. But that is a matter which relates to the exercise of the power and not to the power itself.

Now, Sir, my friend, Mr. Jaipal Singh asked me certain questions about the Adivasis. I thought that was a question which could have been very properly raised when we were discussing the Fifth and the Sixth Schedules, but as he has raised them and as he has asked me particularly to give him some explanation of the difficulties that he had found, I am dealing with the matter at this stage. The House will realize what is the position we have laid down in the Draft Constitution with regard to the Adivasis. We have two categories of areas, — scheduled areas and tribal areas. The tribal areas are areas which relate only to the province of Assam, while the scheduled areas are areas which are scattered in provinces other than Assam. They are really a different name for what we used in the Government of India Act as "partially excluded areas". There is nothing beyond that. Now the scheduled tribes live in both, that is, in the scheduled areas as well as in the tribal areas and the difference between the position of the scheduled tribes in scheduled areas and scheduled tribes in tribal areas is this: In the case of the scheduled tribes in the scheduled areas, they are governed by the provisions contained in paragraph V of the Fifth Schedule. According to that Schedule, the ordinary law passed by Parliament or by the local legislature applies automatically unless the Governor declares that law or part of that law shall not apply. In the case of the scheduled tribes in tribal areas, the position is a little different. There the law made by Parliament or the law made by the local legislature of Assam shall not apply unless the Governor extends that law to the tribal area. In the one case it applies unless excluded and in the other case, it does not apply unless extended. That is the position.

We were the first and till now the only paper in the whole of India to disclose the top secret that the tiny 3% zionist people in the US are forcing the American Christian ruling class to launch a war on Muslims and Islam. (DV Edit June 1, 2003: "Zionists destroy Christianity, then make US Christians fight Muslims to promote Israeli interests").

Though this zionist conspiracy intensified with the first Gulf War against Iraq (1991), described as "Clash of civilisations" (read Huntington's book of the same title), the full-scale attack on Muslims began with the felling of the World Trade Centre, called 9/11.

Since then we have in almost every issue of DV published many Editorials, reports and articles on this subject from many authoritative sources. All that we have published so far on this zionist conspiracy have been confirmed by the White Western Christian sources themselves.

DV has thus proved right on the total zionist stranglehold on the US rulers. Their blind love for Israel is weakening the US. The dollar is sinking, economy is weakening. America has become the most hated country in the world. The US Christian rulers had to pay such a heavy price to please their zionist bosses. Soon President Bush will have to repent for embracing the zionists.

Hitler inspired by Brahminism: But the Indian media refused to disclose this zionist conspiracy because India's Brahminical ruling class, which controls the Indian media, is in silent sympathy with the zionist cause. The Indian media is refusing to publish truth. Because truth will expose the crimes of Indian rulers. The Indian Brahminical rulers, who like the US zionists are just 3% in India, were the pioneers in the anti-Muslim war and violence.

The Jewish hatred of Muslims is a recent development but the Brahminical anti-Muslim enmity, is centuries old. We were also the first paper in the world to disclose that Hitler's nazi killing of Jews, though very much exaggerated, was inspired by the Brahminical "sacred scriptures". (Who is the Mother of Hitler? DSA-1984).

Israeli warning to Editor: We were also the first to disclose the India's Aryan Brahminical people — "Jews of India" — have many things in common with the Jews. We were also the first in the world to reveal the secret friendship between the Jews and "Jews of India" to fight their common enemy — Muslims.

It is these highly irksome and also sensitive disclosures that made the Israeli Embassy in Delhi to warn our Editor. (DV Feb. 1, 2003 p.13). We know the power of these 3% Brahminical forces inside India. Nobody has the courage to utter a word against their inhuman atrocities. Right from Budha, Guru Nanak, Mahatma Phule, Sri Narayana Guru, Periyar, Dr. Ambedkar — all the greatest sons of India — fell victims to these evil vaiddik forces. Gandhi, who life-long served the vaiddiks, was killed like a dog by a Pune Brahmin. (Why Godse Killed Gandhi?, V.T. Rajshekar, DSA-1997).

These Brahminical forces have captured every wing of the society and particularly the media which is capable of reducing to mud anybody trying to speak against them. The crimes of the Brahminical forces are a public knowledge but nobody in India has the guts to speak a word except the Dalit Voice.

We undertook this extreme risky job because if we wanted to be honest intellectuals we had a duty to perform as children of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, "Independent" India's bitterest critic of Brahminism, and also to save Indians from Aryan aggression.

Fear of Jew in USA: In America today, the situation is the same, though the fear of the Jew is a recent development.

You can criticise anybody in America. You have that right. America is much more liberal and democratic compared to India. You can attack even the god. But you can't criticise the Jew by name. Such is the fear of the Jew. Your name will become mud. Character assassination of the critic of Jews will simply finish the person. You may be even killed.

Though in America this is a recent development, in India anti-Brahminical forces are hunted down like mad dogs from centuries. The Charvakas were literally killed. Buddhists were burnt alive.

You can be anti-god, anti-human, and anti anything but you can't afford to be anti-Brahmin in India. If you are dubbed anti-Brahmin, you are dead the next moment.

Today, it is the same position not only in America but also in England. Anybody speaking or writing against Jews will be called anti-Semitic which carries the meaning that he is a mad fellow.

Cancerous culture: The London Economist (May 10, 2003), which itself is a pro-zionist weekly, describes how the public life of a famous British leader has been ruined just because of his criticism of a handful of Jews who control Britain.

Tom Dalzell, it says, will be "leaving his public life in disgrace" because he had the courage to criticise British Prime Minister Tony Blair for being a prisoner in the hands of a "Jewish cabal". George Galloway, another anti-Israeli Labour MP, was suspended from the party for the very same reason.

That means the Jewish forces not only control America but also Britain. Dalzell rightly criticised the "cancerous culture of Jews in society". According to Dalzell, Peter Mendelson and Jack Straw, Foreign Secretary, are Jewish.

For disclosing these facts, the entire British media, also controlled by the Jews, raised such a huge cry that the critics were simply thrown to dust bin. Tony Blair's courage to support the American aggression on Iraq, flouting his party's decision, comes out of the Jewish support to the British Prime Minister even when the whole world hated the US and British role in Iraq. Such is the power of the Jews.

DV is the only paper in India to all say this without any fear and unmindful of the consequences because DV stands by Justice and Truth.

Naom Chomsky, the only American Jew who had the courage to criticise the American rulers, is simply blacked out by the US and British media. Lately, he too appears to have succumbed to Jewish pressure. ■

How India's Aryan Brahminical people misguided Germany's nazi Hitler and made him kill the non-Aryan Jews in hundreds

ARYAN MYTH

(A History of Aryan Racist Ideas)
Leon Poliakov

Eminent Jewish historian of France says the Aryan myth was created by the German Christians to fight the church which became oppressive and they found the non-Aryan Jews a fit object for persecution. Aryan Brahmins poisoned the German Nazi mind to kill Jews. Shows how the Brahmins of India fooled even Germans and became authors of fascism. Hence the enemies of Jews are India's Brahminical races.

Zionist-inspired war against Muslims will divide Christian world

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: According to pro-American Western press reports itself, the US has failed in Afghanistan. It failed in Iraq. And it also failed to finish al-Qaeda.

Neither Osama bin Laden was caught "dead or alive" nor Saddam Hussein. Nor could America find the "weapons of mass destruction" in Iraq.

We had said this in DV several times. DV had predicted it and what we predicted has come true.

The latest developments in Saudi Arabia prove that al-Qaeda is back with a vengeance. The May 12, 2003 Riyadh bombing and the May 16 Casablanca (Morocco) attack prove the power of Osama bin Laden. The American rulers themselves have admitted that both the Riyadh and Casabbanca bombings were done by the al-Qaeda. Saudi rulers have also said this.

Hero of oppressed Muslims: We have said many times in DV that Osama bin Laden and his al-Qaeda represent the oppressed Muslims — victims of both anti-Muslim White Western racists and their Muslim stooges headed by the Saudi rulers. (DV Dec. 1, 1998 p. 6: "Spirit of Islam produces bin Laden: Hero of revolutionary Muslims").

Never before in history the Muslims and Islam have faced such world-wide artificially generated hatred and violence. Naturally the drowning masses of Muslims are hanging on to their only hope, that is Osama, who commands the sympathy and respect of millions and millions of oppressed Muslims.

Osama, therefore, is the creation of the hate-mongers and a product of the revolutionary Islam fighting for survival against the Zionist-driven Christian fundamentalists.

There is nothing like a born leader. A leader is made by the tears of the suffering masses. He rises from the ashes of the burning corpses. The sweat, blood and tears of the oppressed always give birth to an Osama.

What then is the conclusion? This Zionist-sponsored war against Islam is not over. It is not only going to be a long-drawn affair but this anti-Muslim war will further widen the divide between America and Europe.

That means this war against Muslims will divide the Christians themselves — unless the thinking Christians, particularly the American Christians, quickly realise their mistake and free themselves from the Zionist noose round their neck. The Pope and the World Council of Churches must break their silence and speak out. The thinking Christians must act.

Anarchy in Iraq: Meanwhile, American sources have admitted that Iraq has plunged into a total chaos. Nay, anarchy. Baghdad, the city of 5 millions, has become ungovernable. The US withdrew its first governor, a Jew, Gen. Jay Garner, a military man, and appointed a civilian ruler, Paul Bremer. But he too is failing. America claimed that it "defeated" Iraq but now it admits that Iraq has become ungovernable. What for did US launch its war on Iraq? ■

Jews prove efficacy of DV's "caste identity" thesis

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: Our "caste identity" thesis has reached a fairly advanced stage and is now widely accepted at the practical level.

The best example in the whole world is that of Jews. And the Jew's love for his community. The Jews became the most powerful community in the world only by taking the route of blindly loving their community.

Once a hated community, not only dispersed all over the Western world but persecuted by the local population (and also killed in dozens), today they are having a country of their own — Israel. Not only that. Today they are dictating terms to the world's most powerful super power, USA. And also UK and other countries.

The power of Jews is an acknowledged fact. And the secret of this power is their sheer blind love of their community (Jati in the case of India) despite the fact that they are a micro-minority population. No Jew hates another Jew.

The Jews and the "Jews of India", who are also a micro-minority community, prove that a community need not have the population strength to become rulers. What is needed is blind love of one's community. This is "caste identity".

Budding friendship between Hindu nazis & American Jews

SATINATH CHOUDHARY, 115 - WEST 238 STREET, BRONX, NEW YORK 10463, USA

"Anti-Muslim Group unite through internet" by Dean E. Murphy, New York Times, June 2, 2001 website run by militant Hindus in Queens and Long Island was recently shut down by its service provider because of complaints that it advocated hatred and violence towards Muslims. But a few days later, the site was back on the Internet. The unlikely rescuers were some radical Jews in Brooklyn who are under investigation for possible ties to anti-Arab terrorist organizations in Israel.

The unusual alliance brings together two extreme religious philosophies from different parts of the world that, at first glance, have little in common. But living elbow-to-elbow in the ethnic mix of New York, the small groups of Hindus and Jews have discovered that sharing a distant enemy is sufficient basis for friendship. (V.T. Rajshekar: "Brahminial origin of Jewish thoughts", DV Jan. 16, 1993). So tight is their anti-Muslim bond that some of the Hindus marched alongside the Jews in the annual "Salute to Israel Parade" on Fifth Avenue last month.

MUSLIM AS COMMON ENEMY

On May 22, several of the Jews joined a protest outside the United Nations against the treatment of Hindus in Afghanistan by the Taliban regime. "We are fighting the same war", said Rohit Vyasmaan, who helps run the Hindu Web site, HinduUnity.org, from his home in Flushing, Queens.

"Whether you call them Palestinians, Afghans or Pakistanis, the root of the problem for Hindus and Jews is Islam".

The budding Hindu-Jewish Relationship presents a view that counters a popular perception of

New York city not as an open door to immigrants seeking a better life, but as a political way station where some people come or stay not to make money but to engage in politics from afar. For some of the Jews in Brooklyn and the Hindus in Queens and Long Island, their time in the US is temporary, made necessary only because of the threat of Islam in South Asia and the Middle East. Ultimately, members of both groups said, they must leave New York to confront the enemy face-to-face. "I would love to move back to India provided the situation improves there", Wasmaan (30) said.

BABRI MASJID INCIDENT

He came to New York from New Delhi when he was 13. He and many others expect to die in the battle for "Hindu supremacy". Nonetheless, he is protective of the identities of some of HinduUnity.org's biggest financial backers. Some of them have been implicated in Hindu nazi acts in India and are only in the US biding their time, he said.

One of the site's major supporters on Long Island was involved in destroying Babri at Ayodhya he said. HinduUnity.org advertises itself as the official site of Baijrang Dal, a Hindu nazi movement in India that has chapters throughout India and has frequently clashed with Muslims and was among the groups blamed for the 1992 attack.

The Website also goes by the name "Soldiers of Hindutva", a term that refers to the primacy of Hindu religion and culture. The Website has 500 people affiliated with it.

The Jews in Brooklyn, meanwhile, are followers of Rabbi Meir David Kahane, the assassinated Israeli politician, whose teachings advocated the expulsion from Israel of all Arabs, most of whom are Muslim. Their headquarters in Brooklyn was raided in January by the FBI as part of a federal investigation into their association with two Kahane political parties that were banned in Israel and designated as terrorist organizations by the State Department.

The group's biggest supporters shuttle back and forth between Israel and New York, keeping one foot in each country. Rabbi Kahane was Brooklyn-born, as were many of his supporters, and was shot to death at a Manhattan hotel in 1990. His son, Binyamin, who took up his father's teachings, also carried an American passport but spent most of his time in Israel. He was killed with his wife when their car was ambushed in the West Bank in December.

TERRORIST DESIGNATION

During his last visit to New York, two weeks before his death, Binyamin Kahane reminded a gathering of several hundred supporters in Brooklyn of their obligation to settle in Israel. The Brooklyn group runs a Website, Kahane.org, that aims to keep the Kahane movement alive despite the political crackdown in Israel and the terrorist designations in the US.

The site's manager, Michael Guzotsky, said the Jewish-Hindu relationship in New York is a practical one that reflects a common suffering at the hands of Muslims. The alliance is born from adversity, he said, and transcends the differences in their religious traditions, which, he acknowledged, the two groups have never addressed in detail.

Power of Jewish lobby in America

MARK WEBER, INSTITUTE FOR HISTORICAL REVIEW, PO BOX -2739, NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92659, USA

"We are receiving Dalit Voice which I read with interest and appreciation.

In recent months we've put a lot of time and effort into publicizing the outrageous arrest and imprisonment of Ernst Zundel, and to exposing the lies behind President Bush's reckless war against Iraq. Ernst was arrested on Feb.5 at his home in Tennessee, and a short time later deported to Canada — even though he is married to an American citizen, Ingrid Rimland — in the pretext that he missed an interview date with immigration authorities.

For weeks now Canadian authorities have been holding him in prison, without bail. Citing supposed ties, years ago, to "White supremacist" the Canada says that Zundel is a national security risk.

Crime of denying Holocaust: Jewish-zionist groups have been demanding that Canada deport him to Germany where he faces years of imprisonment for the "thought crime" of "denying the Holocaust". As you know, "Holocaust denial" is against the law in Germany, France, Switzerland and some other European countries. Such laws are inherently unjust because they criminalize nonconformist views of only one chapter of history — the wartime fate of Europe's Jews. Dissident views of other chapters of history are not similarly prohibited.

Ernst Zundel is in prison not because his views are unpopular, or because he's a "security risk". He is in prison because Jewish-zionist groups want him there. He is a prisoner because he holds and promotes views that the Jewish-zionist lobby considers dangerous to its interests.

Bishop Desmond Tutu, the 1984 Nobel Peace Prize laureate, recently told an American audience:

"People are scared in this country to say (that) wrong is wrong, because the Jewish lobby is powerful — very powerful —"

Canada-Israel axis: He is right. In Canada, as in the United States, politicians and journalists are in fearful awe of Jewish-zionist power.

Canada's Jewish-zionist groups immeasurably more powerful and influential than he, openly support and collaborate with the "Jewish supremacist" state of Israel. And Israel's "Jewish supremacy" is not merely rhetorical, the zionist regime brutally oppresses an entire population in brazen defiance of international law and world opinion.

Ernst is probably best known for his central role in the two great "Holocaust trials" in Toronto, 1985 and 1988.

He was brought to court on a charge of publishing false news by reprinting a booklet, Did Six Million Really Die?

After 42 years in Canada, Ernst moved to USA where he married Ingrid in January 2000. Since the summer of 2,000, they lived quietly in a mountainous region of eastern Tennessee. (weber@ihar.org).

While trying to cover up the murder in Pakistan of the Wall Street Journal reporter in Karachi in January 2002, the author throws enough hints on the crimes of zionist Daniel Pearl.

He was allegedly killed for spying for American CIA and also Israel's Mossad in the guise of a journalist.

Four Pakistanis were held guilty by a court.

Neo-Con zionists hijack America guided by Jews & Brahmins

BRIG. (RETD.) USMAN KHALID, 15 - THE HAMLET, CHAMPION HILL, LONDON SE5 8AW

There is a considerable anxiety among Muslims all over the world that their governments are not responding effectively to the new threats. The nature of the threat is clear enough; it is primarily military. Palestine, Afghanistan and now Iraq have been invaded and occupied by military force, Syria and Iran are under threat. The list of future targets, brandished with glee by Neo-Conservatives (Neo-Cons) on TV screen is long and ever changing.

PERLE AS GURU

It is being taken seriously because the Neo-Cons had advocated the invasion of Iraq long before 9/11 during Clinton Presidency. They had argued that the US could stay the sole super power only by pre-emptive action against states that promote ideas or form groups that defy or disagree with America. They selected Iraq as the first target.

The Neo-Cons (a Jewish-dominated cabal often referred to in DV - Editor) urge America to pursue imperial domination of the world as its national objective.

It prescribes a strategy based on (1) betrayal, (2) subversion, (3) economic sanctions, (4) globalisation and (5) pre-emptive war.

Their ideas are not a secret, they went public in a report they compiled to prepare for transition from Clinton to Bush Presidency. All the authors of the report hold high office in the Bush Administration and they include Vice-President Dick Cheney, Secretary of State for Defence Donald Rumsfeld, and his deputy Paul Wolfowitz.

But it is their ubiquitous spokesman and guru, Richard Perle, who scares the daylight out of Europeans. He says often and openly that America does not need friends and allies, they are liabilities that restrict American freedom of action by opposing invasion of sovereign states and invoking international law. The Neo-Cons reject the constraint of law and do not distinguish between friends and foes in selecting target for subversion or invasion. In their eyes, betrayal is a cost effective strategy. They argue that friendship of the US often makes a leader unpopular. So, friendship is a useful weapon for destabilising a country. No wonder the erstwhile friends of the US are running scared. They worry that like Saddam Hussein they would get no sympathy or support in their own country or outside when, inevitably, America turned on them.

EUROPE DRIFTING AWAY

At this time, the countries at the top of the list of Neo-Con targets are the main allies of the US in the Middle East — Saudi Arabia and Egypt. Turkey and Pakistan are understood to be next on their list. In the past, the rulers of countries friendly to the US hoped to escape the wrath of his people with the palliative of billions of dollars aid. Now they get little aid and frequent threats and ultimatums. Neo-Cons have a clear strategy. They want control over the world's oil and appoint rulers in all the important countries of the Third World. Their strategy is to conquer and occupy the resource rich countries of the Middle East and use "democracy" to get their appointees confirmed in power by rigged elections. Most Europeans and Many Americans are alarmed by the extent of Neo-Con hold over the Bush Administration. They fear that "solidarity of the West" that has underpinned peace and stability in the world since the end of the Second World War is now under threat. Democracy and secularism — values that America shared with Europe — have become so compromised in the US that Europe is drifting away. These shared values brought America into Europe first to fight the nazis and then to fight another totalitarian cult — communism.

JEW'S CONTROL CITIES

But the foundation of the triumph of the West is fast eroding. Europe could live with America that was brasher and up front because it was also more liberal. Their European cousins understood that early immigrants from Europe to US had fled from war, starvation and religious persecution. They appreciated that the Americans had built a new society on religious tolerance and fusion of ethnic identities. America was founded on tolerance, hope and abundance. Its polity was so forward looking that it received adulation and respect from the entire world - even from Europeans who had expelled them. But the Jewish immigrants to the US saw it differently. They saw in it an opportunity to gain wealth and decisive political influence that had been denied to them in Europe. While the majority of Americans, who were WASPs (White,Anglo-Saxon Protestant), pursued fighting and farming, the Jews excelled elsewhere. They used their skills and scholarship, and access to capital from Europe, to get a firm foothold in the banking and the judicial systems, in education and in the media. The Jews, who were a tiny minority in the country, acquired powerful presence in academia, among intellectuals and in the professions.

But the WASPs are no push over, they had excelled in fighting. The Jews realised that America needed a social transformation if they were to avoid the fate they met in Europe. They devised a two-pronged plan of action. While the Jews maintained and even strengthened their tribal loyalty, they sought to expand the scope of "tolerance" in WASP America. It was transformed from merely eschewing racial, religious and ethnic prejudice to tolerating, then accepting and eventually converting en mass to Hedonism almost with religious fervour.

TOTAL JEWISH CONTROL

In "everything goes" America, secularism has become synonymous to Hedonism, tolerance has acquired a whole new meaning and exciting new scope. But American democracy took much longer to be transformed that it would accommodate Jews in high political office and Zionist agenda be accepted as American. Although racial and religious discrimination was outlawed in America from very early days, discrimination does not disappear by legislation. However, in the last few decades the institution of political correctness had made overt prejudice and discrimination unacceptable. In America, one cannot call a Black person Black or a Jewish person a Jew. That has not helped Black Americans because a Black person is so easily identified by the colour of his skin that it is still possible to discriminate. But European Jews are White and political correctness did not only help them come into mainstream America, they were able to avoid finger being pointed at them when they themselves discriminated against others in order to be dominant in their chosen field of endeavour. The Jews have come to have control over politics in America by exploiting the two-party system.

THOUGHT CONTROL

The Democratic Party is avowedly Left Wing and Liberal while the Republican Party is home to right-wing conservatives. As long as the Jews' were engaged in transforming American secularism to Hedonism, most of them joined the Democratic Party that was sympathetic to their objective. When they wanted American democracy to adopt their political agenda, the Jews — many of them erstwhile leftwing Trotskyites — came into the fold of the Republican Party in large number. Since both parties are broad churches, neither could exclude the Jews nor confine them to the periphery of power. The Jewish groups, being political, were able to stay exclusive and yet able to infiltrate both parties. They were able to exercise influence from within and without providing funds and workers to the party that accommodated Jews on their ticket, and to candidates who made the Jewish agenda their own. Those who did not accept their terms were accused of anti-Semitism, and vilified in the press.

It has been impossible to get elected to any office in the USA without the endorsement of Jewish lobbies and groups. After 9/11, those lobbies have established thought control. It is impossible now for even ordinary citizens to raise their voice in dissent.

Democracy of America is fully muzzled and muted. In American democracy, minorities with money and a clear mission can secure the submission of the majority. The American media is under the spell of Neo-Cons and does their bidding with enthusiasm. That they invite only those for expert or political opinion on their networks who would say what the network wants. Politicians have been reduced to the position of actors and props for endless propaganda that is so jarring that one wonders if its purpose was to put people off politics.

U.S. EMBRACING JEWS & BRAHMINS

The Muslims do not want a war with the West. The "Clash of civilisations" is a Zionist idea that provide a rationale for the entire West to fight for an Israeli Empire in the Middle East. It allows Israel and American Jews punch well above their weight.

The truth is that the Jews are similar in this whole wide world only to Brahmins, who also claim to be superior by birth and claim a right to rule lesser peoples. The Zionists are celebrating that America has embraced the Jews and Brahmins not only as allies and strategic partners, America has also accepted their role in giving it new direction — of hate and fear of Islam and Muslims. Transformation of America is complete but it is quite recent. America shared the suspicion of Jews with Europe until the Holocaust. Since Germany was the enemy in World War -II, the Jews were viewed with sympathy and came to be accepted into mainstream America. But suspicion lingered. With the creation of Israel, American Jews were able to sell the idea that Israel is strategic asset as unsinkable aircraft carrier in the midst of oil rich Middle East. Israel has also held America spellbound by its success in terrorising its much bigger neighbours. But the first Gulf War proved that Israel was a strategic liability.

The American Jews ensured the defeat of President Bush Sr. to win a second term because they feared he might act on his conclusions during his second term. The second Gulf War also gave no role to Israel and confirmed its being a strategic liability. The role of American Jews is to help Israel avoid the scrutiny of mainstream America. If Palestinian suicide bombers or the resistance in Iraq brings home to Americans that the course they pursue under Zionist spell is suicidal, America may yet wake up.

The American Jews have been quite certain that the WASPs would flounder without their leadership. They point out that the other system designed by the Jews for the Goyim —communism — was equally hedonist but it lost its way when the Jews ceased to provide its leadership. When the foot soldiers of communism came to know that they could get liquor and sex more freely in the American system, they were ready to dump communism. The Jews are aware that the American system is also under threat of collapse if it stops satisfying the Goyim lusts. Behind the mask of bravado of Richard Perle and his fellow Neo-Cons one detects a measure of desperation. Iraq may well become the watershed that brings the role of Zionists in America under close scrutiny. The world would have to hold its breath until mainstream America woke up and took notice that Neo-Con Zionists have hijacked their country. I am of the view that concerted response by Muslims is neither feasible nor even desirable. The dynamics of the current policy of Bush Administration has seeds of its failure within. America would continue to select its targets under the guidance of its gurus — Jews and Brahmins. Not a great deal is enquired to frustrate their plans. Whatever spanner is at hand should be hurled at the works. ■

Palestinian "road map" is defective & hence bound to fail

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: DV has proved right on the much-publicised "road map", the American-sponsored mischievous plan to solve the decades-old Palestinian-Israeli conflict. (DV June 1, 2003 p.8: "Palestine: Suicide of a nation?")

Why will the "road map" fail? Because its very intentions are evil. President Bush who is the chief salesman of the "road map" is himself not honest. American rulers obeying the dictates of their Zionist masters want to keep Palestinian leader, Yasser Arafat, out of the picture. This is their biggest blunder. Insult to history: They are propping up a pro-Israeli stooge, Mahmoud Abbas, named Palestinian Prime Minister. Arafat may not be liked by the revolutionary forces in Palestine. We had asked the old man to gracefully retire. (DV Edit Jan. 1, 2002: "It is time for Arafat to go: Palestine plunges into bloody war as anti-Muslim hysteria grips world").

But he did not. Israel imprisoned him in his office, humiliated him and showered all sorts of abuses on this old war horse. This is insult to history itself. And thereby they gave the old man a new life.

Hate-mongering has a limit. The sinking old man has now come back to life. On one side the revolutionary Hamas, without which there can be no peace in Palestine, is opposed to this "road-map" heavily loaded in favour of the Israeli aggressors. On the other side, Arafat is offended. The Israeli cabinet is divided. How can the "road map" succeed?

Orphans of Muslim world: Despite all these, it is the victimised Palestine which accepted the "road map" unconditionally. But the war-monger Ariel Sharon and his Zionists had many objections.

With such serious differences between the two parties and hate-filled hearts drawing the "road map", how can there be any success? That is how we have confidently predicted its failure.

Palestinians have become the orphans of the Muslim world. Their own Arabs have ditched them. They have no other alternative but to commit "suicide of a nation".

Jews & Brahmins: common features

NAVAL VIYOGLI, 518 - SITTA NAGAR, LUDHIANA - 141 001.

This refers to the book, Brahminism (DSA-2002), by our Editor V.T. Rajshekar, in which he has a chapter on "Brahminical origin of zionist thoughts" (p.139) and also the article of Venu Paswan, "Jewish origin of Brahmin race" (DV April 16, 2003 p.8).

I agree with Brother Paswan only on certain points but his view that the Brahmin race originated from the Jewish race is not acceptable to some scholars.

The original Brahmins are Aryans who had six gotras, but eight according to the Shanti Parva of the Mahabharata. They are also known as sweta (white). The Rigveda and the Vedic varna system are the creations of these Brahmins.

In the Rigveda, the Vasistas are described as Swetyam or White, Kannas as svovo or Krishna (dark). (RV VII-33-1 and X-31-11).

This view gets the support of R.P. Chanda, who asserts:

"There were two sections of sacerdotal class, Brahmana by descent, Brahmana by adoption and they were of different physical type. Black Rishis were related to the native tribe like Yadus, Purus, Druhvus and Turvasas etc., who may have come from Western Asia."

Raj-Rishis: There were city-states in the Indus Valley like the Sumerian. The king of the city-state was also the chief priest of the city temple. It means he was a king as well as a priest, known as Raj -Rishi in later Hindu tradition. In Buddhist period, these people were Buddhist or Jain in general. When in the early centuries of Christian era, they were Aryanised, they being Raj Rishi became Brahmins in pre-Gupta period and Rajputs in later period.

Satavahanas and Vakatakas who were Nagas in origin later became Brahmin. In fact, these Black Brahmins were priests of every artisan guild or sangha and as such after the Aryanization they became priests of their castes to which they were ethnically related.

Dr. Ambedkar's view: According to Dr. Ambedkar, in the early period these Black native priests despite all their efforts were not recognised as Brahmin. Only in the later Upanishad period they were given such a recognition. But this did not much effect their social status because the White Aryan Brahmin refused to establish relation of roti and beti (inter-dining and inter-marrying) with them. This tradition is continuing still in modern age. It means they were treated like other sudras by the White Aryan Brahmins.

So, it is proved that these Black Brahmins were promoted from the native non-Aryan priests and were of different racial origin. But they were numerically larger than the White Brahmins. Kautilya, Manu, Sunga and Kanva were native Brahmins.

Aryans as fire worshippers: However, to support my view I have some more evidences:

(1) The natives belonged to matriarchal tradition but the Aryans were patriarchal which is still continuing,
(2) There was a casteless society in Western Asia, as well as in the native Sangha society of India.

(3) Fire-worship was not prevalent among the natives. This was the foundation of Vedic religion and it is continuing as part of their Hindu religion today also.

(4) Western Asia and the native Sangha did not believe in immortality of soul or rebirth. The former buried their dead. Cremation was a recent change over because of imitating the Aryans.

(5) D.N. Majumdar says a remarkable feature of the Brahmin society is the high frequency of A-blood group, which is 29.6 in them. High frequency of A-blood group developed in Euroasia among fair-skinned Aryan race millions of years ago. But the Kshatriyas have such frequency only of 21.75. This shows the Brahmins have much closer ethnical relation with the fair-skinned Aryans of Eurasia. This is a scientific evidence that cannot be challenged.

So, it is proved that original Brahmins were Aryan who are responsible for creation of varna and caste system. In my book, Nagas, The Ancient Rulers of India, I have discussed this subject. The subject needs a Debate in Dalit Voice. ■

Enemy of Dalits is also enemy of Jews: Brahminical brain caused Holocaust

RAJU THOMAS, PO BOX - 2296, MADRAS - 600 023

I had written a letter to the Israeli Embassy, New Delhi, on Nov.8, 1999 but no reply so far. I had also sent them my article on Jews and the Dalits of India published in the Dalit Voice.

Arthur Lenk of the Israeli Embassy had written a Letter in the Dalit Voice saying:

"I read the Jan.16, 1998 issue of Dalit Voice and the obituary of Leon Pollakov, and your book, Brahminism: Father of Fascism, Racism, Nazism (DSA-1994). While not claiming to be an expert in Indian history, there are a number of factual mistakes in your article and leaves the reader with unreasonable impressions regarding Israel and India established diplomatic relations in 1991. The position of the Israeli Government is to develop friendship and mutual regard with all of the peoples of India and not only one group or another. Israel has no position or standing regarding India's internal debates but certainly wishes well to the various communities of India. Israel looks to build its relations with all Indian communities. Israel, like India, has a significant Muslim minority. Israel, like India, offers full civil rights to all its citizens regardless of religion, sex or community. Israel is in the midst of a peace process with its neighbours and has peace treaties with Jordan and Egypt and agreements with the Palestinians. Thus, Israel has no ideological quarrel with Islam or Muslims. In fact, there is a deep respect in Israel for a common heritage and similar belief system between Judaism and Islam. Zionism is a longing for Jews to live in their homeland, Israel. It is not a financial or media movement but merely a spiritual aspiration not so different from India's independence movement before 1947. Use of the term "Jews of India" as persecutor of minorities is an insult to Jews who suffered persecution throughout history and the esteemed Jewish community of India which has lived (and continues) here for centuries in peace and harmony with its neighbours. Your article concludes with a desire to cure the cultural divide in India. We certainly wish the peoples of India well in this effort but believes that insulting of another group is not the path to this cure". (DV Feb.16, 1998 p.12).

This was the text of Arthur Lenk Letter.

D.V. EDITOR'S REPLY

The following was the reply of our Editor.

"Lenk has completely sidetracked the point made in our Jan.16 signed article: 'Jewish scholar who diagnosed disease of Brahminism but failed to cure it,' which paid tributes to a great French scholar on Brahminism, Leon Poliakov, who had spoken the truth by holding India's Aryan Brahminical forces responsible for inspiring German nazis to kill the Jews. Our point is if Poliakov is right in blaming Brahminism for the persecution of Jews, then the Jewish state of Israel should have joined hands with India's Dalits, victims of Brahminism, who are today engaged in a life and death battle against these very forces. Instead of doing that Israel and its people are collaborating with their very oppressors — Hindu nazis — in India forgetting history. This is our point. By this silence on the crimes of Aryans, the Government of Israel is committing unpardonable crime against its people but more so hurting India's original inhabitants who form 85% India's population".

ZIONIST ARTHASHASTRA

There was no communication after this between our Editor and the Embassy of Israel. However, Yaron Mayer, First Secretary, Embassy of Israel, 3- Aurangzeb Road, New Delhi - 110 011, in his warning letter to our Editor writes:

"This refers to an advertisement in Dalit Voice (Jan.1, 2003). As an official at the Embassy of Israel and a friend of India, I was extremely shocked to learn that the Zionist Arthashastra is being published and praised in your publication. I believe that Dalit Voice, which claims to be The Voice of the Persecuted Nationalities Denied Human Rights should be aware of the fact that Zionist Arthashastra (The Protocols of Elders of Zion) is one of the most dreadful anti-Semitic books in history and is based on concepts of lies and incitement of hate towards Jewish people. Representatives of Israel and the persecutors, rather join hands with the persecuted and the oppressed.

How to cure the "cultural divide" of India unless we identity the culprit and name it? Should we not identity our enemy oppressors and name it? Should we not call a spade a spade? Does not the Jewish Bible ask the Jews to hate the evil and the evil-doers against them? When the great scholar, Leon Poliakov, identified and diagnosed Brahminism as the disease of India which made the cultural divide between the Indigenous/native India and the alien Aryans (who later became Hindu), what then is the problem with the Jewish Embassy to accept the truth about Brahminism?

MOST VIOLENT LITERATURE

Why Israel is unwilling to accept the truth when it knows the truth? Does not the Bible say that one should know the Truth and the Truth alone shall liberate people from untruth?

The wearer alone knows the pinch of the shoe. We are the victims/sufferers of Brahminism/Hinduism and we only know the pain. Of course, Lenk had accepted in his letter that he was not an expert in Indian history. Does it mean that he being a responsible diplomat of Israel should not try to know the true history of India? Does it mean that he and other Jewish scholars are not aware of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the greatest son India, who has identified Brahminical Hinduism as the root cause of all problems of India?

When Brahminism made the Indigenous Indian Dalits eternal slaves of Hinduism, should not the victims have a right, at least, to cry loud? Our cry should not be taken as an insult. Had Lenk taken some time to read the Hindu religious scriptures and open his eyes to see the cruel and derogatory language it used against the Dalits by insulting, abusing, cursing etc. he would have never been able to say that we insulted the Hindus, whom Lenk called another group. The Hindu religious scriptures do not consider we Indians as human being. These scriptures say that the indigenous Indians deserve to be subjected to annihilation.

Dr. Babasahab Ambedkar wrote that Hindu religious scriptures are the most violent and anti-human literature in the human history. Will Lenk at least read the Writings and Speeches of Babasahab, published by the Maharashtra Government, so that he and his countrymen will one day come to know the truth about India's cultural divide? It is not merely a cultural divide between the Hindus and the Dalits but it is a total separation of two distinct nationalities within the Indian subcontinent.

It is the Aryan Hindus who oppressed us in our own homeland but the Jews were never oppressed in their adopted land by the natives. They were oppressed in foreign lands like the Egypt and Babylon (W&S Vol.XII, 1993 p.733).

WHAT JEWISH BIBLE SAYS

We are different from the Aryan Hindus who are alien to India, in the same way how the Jews were alien to the land of Palestine when they conquered that land after killing millions of its indigenous inhabitants. The Jewish Bible is a proof for it and no Jew including the zionist Jews can deny this.

We are not asking the Jews to join our struggle against our oppressors who are aliens here in India. What we are asking the Jews is to know the facts. Know the Truth and Truth shall make you free. Did not Bible says this?

The Jews must know that our enemy is also the enemy of the Jews. This Aryan Brahminical enemy killed their forefathers by putting them into gas chamber. When Leon Poliakov had identified and named Brahminism for the persecution of the Jews, then the Jewish state of Israel should have, at least, the intellectual honesty to admit it publicly.

ZIONIST-BRAHMIN NEW AXIS

The Jews have produced hundreds of greatmen and women, world famous scientists, intellectuals, thinkers, prophets, scholars and academicians and they should not stoop to such mean level of the Aryans and join them who are the most dishonest people in the known human history and experts in all kinds of evil designs. All their religious books are fabrications which are political in their motive, partisan in their composition and fraudulent in their purpose because the religion of Hinduism is asking them to be so. (W&S Vol.VII, p.14, 1990). Nay, their gods themselves are dishonest and none of them is an acceptable model for mankind. We feel pity for the Aryan Hindus in India who have not produced one single honest intellectual in the whole history, said Dr. Ambedkar (W&S, Vol.- VII, 1990, p.240). The Jews have joined such a fallen people. What a great fall?

We are not surprised at the new axis between the Jews, the Aryan/ Brahmin Hindus in India and the USA. We know the secret designs of these three but we assure them that they will never succeed in this conspiracy.

The US Ambassador to India,

Robert Blackwill, has given a very good certificate to the Brahmins in India (Hindu, April 22, 2003). But he is exposing his ignorance about the Brahminical Hindus in India. He must, at least for his intellectual pursuits, read the glorious Writings and Speeches of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and get enlightened. We ask all those diplomats in Delhi to read Babasaheb and know the truth about India and the Hindus in India. Let them study what Brahminism/Hinduism is. If they fail in this, they will remain as stainless fools about India in their life.

With regard to the Israeli warning to our Editor we have to warn the Embassy that none of our Editor's predictions have ever gone wrong. We also know that anybody who criticizes the zionists, the Aryan Brahmins will never be spared. But we are determined to stand by the truth, write the truth, speak the truth and even die for the truth. The Bible is on our side (John 8:32).

JEWIS ARE NOT ANTI-MUSLIM

The Jews must not forget that it was the Dalit Kings (Cherman Perumal) who welcomed the Jews and provided them with all facilities and privileges to the Jews in Kerala. They lived in India until 1947 and were never subjected to any persecution. Rather they lived with full dignity. But at present we have more than half a million Jews living in Kerala, the ancient Cheranad, and they are divided into two Christian denominations namely, the Jacobites and the Roman Catholics but they are known as Cananite Christians (Richard M. Swiderski: The Blood Weddings: The Knanaya Christians of Kerala, 1988). The history-conscious Jews must be grateful to the Dalits (whose forefathers were the rulers) welcomed them, gave them land and constructed synagogues for them and treated them as equals. Islam is an offshoot of Judaism and the Jews consider that Judaism, Christianity and Islam have a common heritage. That means Judaism has nothing against Islam. If so the Jews must answer why the Aryan Hindu nazis in India hate Islam and the Muslims the most. What is the secret behind this hatred? Why the Jews joined the Hindus who hate Islam and Muslims?

If the Jews have nothing against Islam and Muslims, will the Israel Embassy and the Jewish country openly condemn the Hindu hatred against the Muslims and Islam?

Why the Jews did not condemn the Gujarat annihilation of Muslims? Do the Jews know that Brahminism preaches only hatred? Is not this hatred an insult against we the Dalits of India? Do the Jews know that Hindus will never tolerate the Jewish, Christian, Islamic concept of monotheism? But why do the Brahmins in India love the Jews is a fundamental question.

Yaron Mayer should not have any ill-feeling against the indigenous Dalits of India and should not consider native Indians different from the alien Hindu Indians. The two are like that warring enemy nations. And the war will continue unending.

ARYANS ARE RACISTS

The Western world has started knowing the truth that Aryan India is the home of racism and Brahminism/Hinduism is the father of racism, nazism, zionism and fascism.

How can the Jewish intellectuals ignore these historical facts? We have every reason to suspect that there is something serious in this "love affair" between the Jews and the Aryan Brahmins.

Finally, the Jews and the zionists in particular must read the following books and then they will come to know if the Hindus are anti-Semitic or not.

1. Bunch of Thoughts: M.S. Golwalker.
 2. RSS, A Vision in Action: H.V. Sheshadri
 3. May It Please Your Honour: Nathuram Godse, Killer of Gandhi.
 4. RSS, Myth and Reality: Dina Nath Mishra.
 5. Hindu Rashtra Darshan: V.D. Savarkar
 6. The Hindu Nationalist Movement and Indian Politics: Christophe Jaffrelot.
 7. The Brotherhood in Saffron: Walter K. Anderson & Shridhar D. Damle.
 8. Rashtriya Swayam Sevak Sangh: Des Raj Goel.
 9. The Saffron Wave: Thomas Blom Hansen
 10. The Saffron Mission: C.V. Mathew
 11. RSS, Tryst With Politics: From Hegdewar to Sudarshan: Kanungo, Pralay.
- Only after studying these books, the Israeli Embassy will know whether we are using the insulting language against the Aryan Hindus in India. We expect intellectual honesty and scholarly integrity like the late Leon Poliakov from the Jews whom we consider as a great people who had suffered enough oppression, persecution and humiliation by their enemies. But they must identify their enemy Ideology but not the one who executed it. Finally, let the Jews and especially the zionists, read all the published volumes of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar so that they will not only know the truth about the Aryans/Brahmins/Hindus, the indigenous Indian Dalits but also gain abundant enlightenment in their life.

This year it was El Hajj Malik El Shabazz's (Malcolm X) 78th birth anniversary and the 38th year of the pilgrimage since our fallen leader's assassination. The pilgrimage was led by Rodnell Collins, the nephew of Malcolm X and president of the OAAU. The OAAU initiated the pilgrimage in 1965 after the burial of Malcolm X to honor and show respect for our people's fallen leader as well as to educate future generations about the legacy of Malcolm X and his effort to liberate African people's minds and bodies.

Abid Ullah Jan, 5-8050 - Champaignur, Montreal, Quebec, H3N 2K5, Canada: According to Dr. Israr Ahmad's analysis, beginning of the 20th century was the starting point for the second phase of the decline in the heart of Muslim world. In that perspective, at the beginning of the 21st century we are fast moving towards the lowest ever ebb of Muslim decline, without knowing how to deal with the never ending American zeal to directly or indirectly occupy country after country in the Muslim world. Before discussing the available options, one needs to keep in mind that we are definitely witnessing a defeat for Muslims in Afghanistan, Iraq and elsewhere, but it is not the fall of Islam at all. It is an ephemeral victory of technological superiority over the defeatist mentality of a divided people called Muslims. Most importantly, it is a clear demise of the much vaunted ideals of Western democracy and liberalism. The street slogans in Baghdad for establishing Islamic state are signs of the human desire to be truly liberated as well as governed by divine laws. It is, in fact, the victory of Islam. Materialistic atheism reached its logical culmination in the form of socialism and communism. Now leaders of the "civilised world" are overseeing the demise of their much vaunted "liberal democracy". The 21st century wars have not defeated Islam. The neo-colonialism has simply brought out the hollowness of Western civilisation and American ideals. In such a situation, the Muslim objective should not be to militarily defeat the US and its allies because military victory alone would be as hollow as the US victory over Iraq. It is the message of Islam that has to triumph. The Western technological superiority has at best contributed to infusing defeatism in Muslim mind. As a result, a minority of opportunist Muslims began to appropriate Western ideas and values uncritically. The defence against onslaught of secular philosophy has been limited to mere protection in the form of fleeing from mainstream life in order to hold fast to faith, and apologetic compromise. Such constrained and ill planned approaches left us with losing the very "Spirit of Islam". For instance, if we were good Muslims in Iraq, the US would not have attacked us because we would not have let our government to attack Kuwait irrespective of any US approval, we would not have let our government fight Iran for the US interests, we would not have silently accepted the anti-Islam ideology of the Baath regime. In every violence in recent years, it is the Hindu nazis who act but the non-Hindu victims of Hindu violence only react. The Hindu nazis know that offence is the best part of defence. But Dalits, Muslims, Christians etc. are put on the defensive. By this the nazis always win and we always lose. In Gujarat, over 2,000 Muslims simply died without a murmur. Such cases go on repeating and the Aurangabad Medical College violence is one such. The nazis will commit bigger violence. And our people will go on holding public meetings, press conferences, sending appeals to all sorts of people, but will not do what they are expected to do. The Hindu nazis have come to know our weakness. We may be a big majority and the nazis may be a tiny micro-minority. Yet they win and we are

I was in Geneva to attend the United Nations Working Group on Minorities and made an intervention about the minority situation in India on May 12, 2003 in the working group's 9th session. My intervention is about the great threat to the life, honour, dignity and religious freedom of the Muslims and other minorities in India. In 1992 the Babri Masjid was demolished and a makeshift Ram temple was allowed to be constructed on its debris. The govt. was a mere spectator to this barbaric crime. A Hindu nazi organization is threatening day in and day out that it will not rest in peace until it transforms over 35,000 mosques spread all over the country into temples. On the Gujarat Genocide (2002), I regret to state that the Govt. of India has not initiated any positive steps to instill confidence in the minds of the minorities about their security to life and honour. SURESH KUMAR THORAT, 2 - SHRADDHANANDA

In his book, Who Were the Shudras? (1946), Dr. Babasahab Ambedkar asserted that the Aryans were Indians but later in 1951 he changed his view and called the Aryans foreign invaders. (Advocate Bhagwan Das, Thus Spake Ambedkar, Vol.II, p.45). Will you please clarify.

Please recall the Dalit Voice (April 16, 2000 p. 23) Debate on the very same subject: "Aryans — Invaders or Indigenous?". All the Aryan leaders were claiming that they were "pure" Aryans and hence foreigners. Such an anti-national argument, coupled with their secluded living and thinking, further alienated this minuscule minority (3%) from the rest of the indigenous population. It is true that Dr. Ambedkar had said that Aryans were indigenous but it was just one single, solitary reference in his book Who Were the Shudras (W&S, Vol.7) but in the same book and in all other books he has repeatedly said that Aryans are foreigners. The Aryans have taken up this one single sentence of Dr. Ambedkar and are trying to mislead our people. Brahmin writers had also given the same opinion that Aryans were foreigners. All the Brahmin leaders have been proud of their foreign origin — EDITOR.

Gujarat govt. arrested all the 56 Muslims accused in Godhra train tragedy. One of them, Yusuf Fakhruddin Sheikh, who had been interned for more than a year, has died, under custody in mysterious circumstances in April 2003. Some of the Muslims accused in the Godhra incident have been injected with a serum that dulled their sense which is violative of Article 7 of ICCPR. Muslims are also facing a blanket social and economic boycott enforced by the Hindu nazis. A Hindu nazi leader Togadia travels all over India distributing trishuls (tridents) to attack the minorities and also making inflammatory speeches against them. The chief of the nazi party (RSS), organisation, of which the Prime Minister Vajpayee is a member, had openly declared that Muslims and Christians should sever their links with Mecca and the Pope and instead become swadeshi. The govt. has not taken any steps to stall such hate campaigns which it is duty bound to do. The Tamil Nadu and Gujarat Govts. have passed acts to ban religious conversions. These acts violate the freedom of minorities like Muslims and Christians to propagate their religion but also that of Indian citizens who want to adopt the Religion of their choice. Therefore, I recommend that the Commission of Human Rights should establish a special rapporteur on India and that rapporteur should visit India.

Brother Jawahirullah has to be congratulated for internationalising the Hindu nazi persecutions of Muslims and Christians in India. However he has failed to identify the real culprit who is behind this persecution. He knows that it is mainly the tiny upper caste Brahminical forces who are indulging in this violence but he did not say this. What is the use of highlighting a problem without identifying the Enemy that is creating this problem? It is necessary that international organisations like the UN should know who is causing all the war and violence in India — EDITOR.

Dr. Ashok Adhav, MHB Colony, M36/2521 - Yerawada, Pune - 411 006; Bangaru Laxman, the stooge of the Brahmana Jati Party (BJP), has said that conversion may not solve the problem of Dalits. Bangaru is not only a dullard but a moron. He has advised Mayawati not to think about conversion (Indian Express 5/5/2003). He does not know that Brahmmins are like earthworms. Touch it one side and it will start moving from opposite side. In 1956, Mahars embraced Buddhism and left the jobs enforced on them. Brahmins started criticising about it. They induced Hindus to enforce Matang (Maang) caste to do the jobs which Mahars (Buddhists) refused to do. Mahars were firm and did not bother about the threat of economic blockade. They became soft on "Hindu Dalits" (Harijans) because they were scared of unity of Depressed Classes. In Maharashtra, Hindus are imitating Buddhists. Hindu marriages have been shortened. Conversion to Buddhism is not like conversion into Christianity. Bangaru says there are separate churches for Malas and Madigas. This is not the case with Buddhism.

G. Sundaram, 66 - Soosai Nagar, Opp. Fatima College, Madurai - 625 018. DV has been crying for Muslims and the Muslim countries. This should be stopped. Each and every issue of DV is raising its voice for Muslims and Muslim countries. What is the use and effect of such a crying? The Muslims are not at all aware of their own interests and welfare. The recent US war on Iraq has brought out some facts. The Gulf rulers are selfish and protecting their regimes at the cost of their Muslim citizens. News reports say Saddam Hussein was a dictator and a ruthless ruler. No Muslim country protested the brutal attack of America. Even Pakistan kept mum. In DV (May 16, 2003) Iqbal Ahmed Shariff has narrated the glorious regime of Saddam and fall of Baghdad. He did not however refer to the crimes committed by Saddam. Why Turkey and Kuwait offered bases for attack on Iraq? While condemning the nazi action of America and Britain, we should not stand by the side of terrorism.

Brother Sundaram has been a member of the DV family since 1982. For about 21 years, he has been reading DV but he is influenced more by the toilet papers but not DV. In India, the entire print and electronic media is controlled by the Brahminical people, the Western media is under the Zionist influence. Hundred and one times we have said it, at the same time stressing the need for our own media. But, alas, none understood and hence none appreciated our cry for media. We have stopped talking about this subject now. We had also said that the Justice and Truth on our side is lost because we have no media of our. Brother Sundaram knows all this and yet he finds fault with us. To such extent our people have been brainwashed by this Enemy media which is making our own people to find fault with ourselves. When the Brahminical people have succeeded in creating such a self-hatred among Dalits and a deep prejudice and hatred against our own brothers (Muslims), the Enemy job becomes very easy. The Enemy has won the war without firing a shot. Our Editorial (DV/March 16, 2000), "Sunset on Dalit world", stands fully justified after reading the Letter of Brother Sundaram. If 21 years of reading DV produces no effect and the poisonous Brahminical ideas continue to reign supreme, what is the use of running DV? Better we close down. Did we not say it in "Sunset?" — EDITOR.

grimgargantua (grimgargantua@email.com): Communication expert Dr. Srampickal Jacob of the Assisi Institute of Communications Technology (AICT), a Christian media training institute, (open to all) based in Delhi says that they are starting an MA in Mass Communications under Hisar University. The institute is open primarily to rural, Dalits, triblas, OBCs, women, Hindi belt, religious minorities etc. AICT has three basic concerns:

1. In India today we have very few media persons from the marginalized sector. They have no access to media schools for training although they are very talented and a number of media schools have sprung up in the country lately.
2. In these days when the secularist fabric of the country is being threatened, it is very essential that there are more and more secular presence in the media, that gives importance to human rights and other major issues of development.
3. We live in times when journalism is being identified with PR and advertising is news casting. The power of the market economy is so much on the media that commercial interests call the shots at the end of the day. The science, art and craft of mass communication in general, mass media in particular is a matter of sensitive training, it is more to do with training students who have the necessary aptitude and commitment. Such training need to be designed to produce persons of great integrity who will remain true to their calling in the face of the most adverse of circumstances, the adversity created by socio-economic and political shortcomings, government and societal controls, as also difficult moments of choice between ideologies, social processes and human loyalties. Compassion cannot be taught, but differentiation between truth and untruth, values and commerce can be - as the collective experience of the founders shows.

AICT will provide the students with regular coaching and practical at its computer centre, DTP unit and the press; they will also gain exposure to some of the best media personnel and institutions in the capital, and they would in turn work by writing, editing and by exercising their newly acquired skills in camera, editing, lay-out etc. At the end of two years these youngsters would have got their Masters and would be ready to be absorbed into the mainstream media. The AICT does one better than the university, in that it provides ample opportunities for hands-on training in the media, which is much limited at regular classes at the university. It provides modest hostel facilities for those who require. We are also in touch with several humanitarian groups whom we are persuading to support us in this venture, and so there is a possibility of attractive scholarships for selected candidates. Several like-minded professors from various media training institutes and professionals from media institutions in Delhi have accepted to be on the staff of the institute. A few of us like Dr. Xavier Vadakkekara, Dr. John Dayal and others have come together to form this training programme. If you truly believe in our convictions do contribute to us in any way possible, even financially. You can surely help us by identifying students who could make best use of this opportunity. Get in touch with me.

Mrs. Indira Koithara, P. Box 4, Wellington, Nilgiris, TN - 643 231: I have not met you but heard so much about you from Dr and Mrs. Chawla (K.K. Sidhu). I have been reading your Dalit Voice magazine and am impressed with the great work you are doing. This is just an appreciation of the great work. I would love to meet you someday.

Deepak Parmar & four other Dalit classmates, K.S. School of Business Management, Gujarat University, Navarangpura, Ahmedabad - 380 009: We are the students in this school studying in the 3rd year MSC (IT) course. We are facing some difficulties because of our caste. When every student of our batch got project in relevant companies, we cannot see any hope of getting any project. We have faced strong casteism (racism). We visited the Nirma Industries with the reference of two responsible persons, one an IAS officer. But this reference helped us only to reach up to the cabin of Ambubhai Patel, director, Nirma, who simply ignored us. At Arvind Mills, Naroda, also our caste was asked and then dismissed. We visited a noted computer firm of Ahmedabad. Its general manager asked us "Patel chho?" (Are you Patel?). We informed our Director, Narharibhai Parikh, who being a savarna (upper caste), he did not even care to read our petition. In Gujarat, the situation of Dalits is worsening. The upper castes are literally trying to kill our people.

Brahminical forces say they don't believe in caste and that caste is dead. But they secretly implement their caste rule. But Brother Deepak Parmar and his other Dalit classmates will not be able to fight such racist criminals in the Hindu society by sending petitions. Beggars cannot be choosers. Hindu heart, if there is a heart like that, will not melt by sending petitions. In yagnas and yagnas only timid animals like sheep, goat are slaughtered. Tigers and lions are never slaughtered because they will eat those who go near them. Be tigers, none will come near you — EDITOR.

S. Somkuwar, Dr. Babasahab Ambedkar Vichar Manthan Samiti, C/o S.K. Enterprises, Kamal Chowk, Nagpur - 440 017. We have decided to conduct the all-India awareness test-2003 on "Buddha and His Dhamma" on Sept. 7, 2003 at various places in India. Those interested may send their consent to us. Our aim is that maximum persons should know about the Dhamma through the test. (Phone: 2644 758).

Shamsul Arifin, M-91, Abul Fazl Enclave, Jamianagar, New Delhi - 110 025: The jocular and stupid kings and the Arab rulers of the Islamic nations are now between the devil and the deep sea. The reasonably growing discontents and anger among the Arab masses to their pro-American paralyzed rulers and the US can hardly be contained now. If the hated US forces remain there any longer in the Gulf, there will consequently be a widespread social unrest everywhere in the region. And on the other hand if the US forces are withdrawn from there then there will be big political changes in the entire Gulf region. The jokers and the clowns (the Arab rulers) will no more be tolerated by the Arab masses. And so both, the safety of these rulers and the American interests, will be in jeopardy. (DV June 16, 2003 p.6: "Final warning to Saudi rulers"). It really makes me laugh and scuff when I think about the Arab League. I think if some whores had formed any organization for the same purpose, it would certainly have been more effective and more functioning than this Arab League formed by the defunct, deranged and the impotent Arab rulers. The Arab people, what I have experienced being with them, are much different to the other Muslims of the world. They understand Islam. They know the importance of sacrifice, impact of jihad and the purpose of zakat (charity). And they put all this into their practice too whenever it is needed. They are not only engrossed in salah, fast and hajj like the other Muslims of the world, especially Indian Muslims. In India I see all my friends, neighbours and others always teaching and telling their youngsters only about salah, fast and hajj. I never see anyone making his/her fellows know about the real meaning of sacrifice, purpose of zakat (charity) and the importance of jihad. I am sorry to see that the meaning of sacrifice among the Muslims has been grossly misconceived. So, first of all we will have to understand the real meaning and the purpose of sacrifice. This is one of the most important teachings of our religion for the survival of Muslims and perpetuation of Islam. Otherwise if we kill all the animals on the earth in the name of sacrifice, it will not bring any changes in the situation, not even a bit. Anyway, I am not telling the Muslims to forget about all these rituals (salah, hajj and fast). But my concern is only about your giving undue importance to these rituals and undervaluing the importance and impact of jihad, sacrifice and zakat. One thing here I would like to ask all the Muslims is that if hajj, salah and fast had so effective and decisive impact on the Muslim society then why this BJP government has made a separate terminal at the international airport only for hajjis to facilitate them? Why sometime back in 1997-98 when hundreds of thousands of Tablighi Jamatis gathered there at Bandra in Bombay to spread the message of their brand of Islam (salah, fast and hajj), all the arrangements were made by the then Shiv Sena Govt. there? Believe it or not, the fact is that after reading almost all national and international electronic and print media I can say that we can depend upon Dalit Voice to know the current situation as it is, especially the hidden agenda and the ill-motives of the ruling class, the oppressors. No other sources of information I find today as unbiased, uncorrupt, free and unscared as the DV. It is, therefore, my suggestion for all the readers of DV is we must promote it for a better future for us and for the generation coming after us. As a matter of fact, I find Dalit Voice one of the best weapons to encounter the enemies. (shamsr@rediffmail.com).

Sanjay Ranjan <sanjayranjan@hotmail.com>: After reading the article by Dr. Jamanadas on "Religion of slaves and those who made them slaves cannot be same", I am writing this piece. I am a non-Brahmin. After reading the article, I for the first time came to realise that the religious history of ancient India has been doctored to suit Brahmins at the cost of non-Brahmins. I also realised that non-Brahmins are just crying and beating their chest. We don't realise that the 75-crore Hindus need not run away from our religion but make the 5-crore Brahmins as non-Hindus by excommunicating them. The following simple steps can make the difference in 10 years:

- (1) Rename Hinduism as Bahujan Hinduism, (2) create a body, Bahujan Hindu Parishad and make a reform body consisting of scholars like Dr. Jamanadas and Dr. A.H. Salunkhe and others from all non-Brahmins (Dalits/BC/Forward non-Brahmins). (3) This body will review all religious books and create new books with all caste remarks and denigrating Brahmin-doctored episodes removed eg.. Rama will not be called Kshatriya, Rama and Krishna will not be called Yadav Krishna. Dronacharya a just a priest not a Brahmin and need not kill Eklavya at all. New books be called Bahujan Ramayan and Bahujan Mahabharat. Manusmriti be replaced with Bahujan Smriti and only good points be retained from Manusmriti and new rules be added. Remove Purusha Sukta in the Vedas as a later-day Brahmin addition and all such slokas. This way we can break the psychological grip of Brahmins.
- (4) New temples called Bahujan temples be created across the country where priests be made from Bahujans. All these temples should be clean and remain devoid of unnecessary rituals. All temples be managed by something like Shriromani Bahujan temple committee. Such temples should not be allowed to spring up under a banyan tree or in the middle of the road. (5) The temples to take up Bahujan students to be trained in this modern and equitable Bahujan Hinduism. (6) Brahmins should not be allowed to infiltrate this body.

Brother Sanjay's suggestion to "ex-communicate" Brahmins from Hinduism is too silly. He doesn't know what is Hinduism. Non-Brahmin movement is dead. The upper crust of the non-Brahmins mainly the Kshatriyas, Vaishyas and Shudras, have joined hands with Brahmins and have become better oppressors of Bahujans, particularly Dalits — EDITOR.

Prof. T.B. Vijaykumar, Perincheray, Thrissur - 680 306: This is in continuation of my article, "Vellappilly betrayal shocks Ezhavas" (DV May 16, 2003 p.23). The recently held "Sri Narayana Global meet" at Cochin was a total surrender to anti-Ezhava Hindu nazis. The chief priest of the ceremony was Vellappilly Natesan. Ezhavas form 30% of Kerala population, the single largest community. The "meet" was rightly inaugurated by M.M. Joshi, the notorious Hindu nazi Union HRD Minister. India lost in science and technology when M.M. Joshi and the like started teaching physics. Brahminism is the Enemy No.1 of science and technology, according to Acharya P.C. Ray (Bengali Brahmin) who had said this in his book, History of Hindu Chemistry. A large sum of money was spent on this "meet". Soon Vellappilly will be presented with a "sacred thread". Most of the participants suffered in silence. Papers were read by P. Parameswaran, O.

Patna seminar call to destroy Brahminism

DR. KAWALJEET, BIHAR RATIONALIST SOCIETY,
216/A - S.K. PURI, PATNA - 800 001

We organised a seminar on "Why and how to oppose Brahminism" on May 25 here. Dr. Ramendra, head, Philosophy Dept., Patna College and founder of the BRS, introduced the subject. He emphasized that Brahminism needed to be opposed because it is an anti-rational, unjust and undemocratic system, which treats someone as "superior" and someone as inferior merely on the basis of birth in a particular caste or sex. Describing Brahminism as a major source of superstitions in Indian society, he stressed the need to evolve and adopt an alternative humanist culture based on logical-scientific thinking and democratic values of liberty, equality and fraternity.

Dr. Kawaljeet, President of the BRS, said that traditionally Brahminism has allowed only Brahmin males to become priests. Brahminism denied education to women as well as to Backward and Dalit castes. She clarified that opposing Brahminism meant opposing the Brahminical ideology and social system. Brahminism could not have survived for so long without the support of the non-Brahmin castes.

Dr. Ramashankar Arya, Professor of Philosophy, Patna University, Awadh Bihar Singh of Kabir Lohia Vichar Manch, Jagat Bhushan of Vivekshel Samaj, Buddha Sharan Hans of Ambedkar Mission, Raghunath Singh Yadav of Arjak Sangh, Jitendra Verma of the BRS, Kamal Kumar, Narayan Sharma, Jagdish Prasad, Prabhat Kumar and Rajniti Prasad spoke. They were unanimous regarding the need to oppose Brahminism.

Dr. Kiran Nath, former President of the BRS, thanked the participants and expressed the hope that the deliberations in the seminar will lead to concrete actions against Brahminism.

Rajagopal, P.P. Mukundan, T.R. Somasekharan, V.N. Rajasekharan Pillai, G. Gangadharan Nair who insulted Sri Narayana Guru and was portrayed as a disciple of a notorious Nair monk, Chattampi Swamikal, who fought against European missionaries (LMS and CMS), who helped Ezhavas and other Dalit-Bahujans. The whole "meet" was an anti-Ezhava affair. A notable exception was the paper of Prof. M.S. Jayaprakash, the topmost Ezhava intellectual. He blasted the new-found love of Hindu nazis of SNDDP leadership and his speech was received with thunderous applause.

London Inst. of South Asia

U. KHALID, 15 - THE HAMLET, CHAMPION HILL, LONDON SE5 8AW

We are planning to set up London Institute of South Asia (LISA) dedicated to "peace through national self determination". The institute would publish a quarterly and hold seminars. I shall be the director of the institute and editor of LISA quarterly. I am trying to assemble a board of regular contributors. I invite V.T. Rajshekar, Editor of Dalit Voice, to join and nominate at least two more persons resident in India, UK, Europe or Canada. (A payment of 200 pounds would be made for each article accepted for publication). At present, the board of contributors comprises me and my sister from Pakistan, Dr. Mumin Chowdhary and Barrister A.M. Azhar from Bangladesh, Dr. Inayatullah Andrabi and Dr. Awater Singh Sekhon from Indian Kashmir and Punjab. We want at least one contributor from Sri Lanka and Afghanistan each. Any suggestions?

Dalit tips to Shivdharma

DR. K. JAMANADAS, "SHALIMAR", MAIN ROAD,
CHANDRAPUR - 442 402

Vasant Rajas, a noted Ambedkarite thinker and writer from Belgaum, Karnataka, crusading against the Devadas system, has expressed his opinions about the new Shivdharma movement in the Marathamarg on April 2003. He says:

Renouncing of Hinduism is the need of the day. Shrewd and wily Brahmins created for their own protection, a host of false religious books in the name of gods and got the non-Brahmins entangled in the useless rites making them mental slaves and exploiting them on religious, social, economic and cultural fronts. The process is still continuing and Brahmins are enjoying the fruits of labour and services of the Bahujans. They are glorifying the outdated Hinduism in the name of gods and are creating violence in the society. Now the Shivdharma has undertaken the great task of freeing the people from the slavery of Brahmins. There may be hurdles and hence the need for vigilance.

Dalit Nava Ratna statues at Hyderabad

B. RAMASWAMY, CHAIRMAN, A.P. BUDDHIST TRUST, 10-4-771/3, FLAT NO. 403 - MAPPHAR
SHEELINGS, SREERAM NAGAR COLONY, HYDERABAD - 500 028

When we accompanied you to Nanded (MS) during your recent visit, we met an old Dalit leader, Arjun Waghoji Birhade (84), who recollected the services rendered by the late Veera Ratna B.S. Venkat Rao, also called the "Hyderabad Ambedkar", the celebrated Dalit liberation movement leader of the Hyderabad Nizam state, and also the late Bhim Sena leader, Shyam Sunder. Both served the Nizam state. B.S. Venkat Rao, he said, was deeply concerned with the welfare of Untouchables. Unfortunately the Hindu nazi leaders of those days managed to malign the two leaders as stooges of the Nizam. Shyam Sunder became a representative of the Nizam in the UNO.

Both the leaders had first and foremost concern for the protection of Dalit self-respect. Whenever the Muslims tried to come in the way of our people's self-respect, both the leaders did not hesitate to hit back at the Muslims.

We brought Arjun Rao to the hotel where you were staying. You too had a long conversation with Arjun Rao who too was an MLA during the heydays of B.S. Venkat Rao and Shyam Sunder. You pointedly asked Arjun Rao about the Hindu propaganda that the two leaders were Muslim agents. He said this was a Brahmin propaganda to malign the Muslims and also to check Dalit conversions to Islam. The two were the tallest Dalit leaders of the Nizam regime and he quoted several incidents in which the two stood by Dalits against Muslims.

B.S. Venkat Rao as Education Minister could secure regular scholarships to the Dalit students and grant of Rs. 16 crores for the construction of Milind Maha Vidyalaya and the Marathwada University at Aurangabad. B.S. Venkat Rao also demanded at least one gun for each village to fight Hindus troubling Dalits.

On realising the greatness of these two leaders we have decided to install the statues of Dalit Nava Ratnas consisting of B.S. Venkat Rao, Bhagya Reddy Verma, Shyam Sunder, Aragey Ramaswamy, J. Eshwari Bai (RPI), Mudigonda Laxmaiah, B.V. Ramanalaiah, V. Rama Rao and P.V. Manohar. The Government of Andhra Pradesh would be asked to carry out our decision and install the statues at the centre of Boat Club, Hyderabad. ■

National Geographic cover story on Dalits

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: The world famous National Geographic Magazine for the first time made a cover story of India's Untouchables, the victims of Hinduism, the religion of its ruling Brahminical Social Order. The article is published in the June 2003 issue of the monthly English journal published from Washington. The article by its staffer, Tom O'Neill, covers 29 pages with fantastic photographs by William Albert Allard.

Closely guarded secret: Journalist O'Neill met the Editor of Dalit Voice, V.T. Rajshekar, last year and had a long interview to get an overall picture of the world's worst form of racism which India's Brahminical media has been suppressing from the eyes of the outside world. Editor-in-chief of the 203-year-old journal William L. Allen in his editorial admits that the story of India's Untouchables is very painful and compares it to the plight of American Blacks. But America has overcome lot of its prejudice. South Africa has dismantled its Apartheid. But not so Hindu India. The Editor admits this also when he says that Untouchability (racism) is still going strong despite the Constitution of India abolishing it. He also admits that the outside world is still ignorant of the fact that racism is reigning supreme in India. Nay, India, founding father of racism, exported racism to the West.

On behalf of Dalit Voice, we thank the Editor and staffer O'Neill for exposing India's closely guarded secret to the world. Thinking sections outside now can no longer say they have been ignorant of India's racism and its victims, the Untouchables, who form 20% India's 110 crore population, almost the size of Europe.

Seminar on Brahminism at Tirunelveli

Aug 15 - 17

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: The big success of the three-day March 14-16, 2003 "Seminar on Brahminism" here has encouraged the organisers, Indian Social Institute, to hold a second 3-day seminar at the southern tip of India, Tirunelveli, on Aug.15 - 17, 2003.

The Editor of Dalit Voice, V.T. Rajshakar, who delivered the valedictory address of the Bangalore seminar, has agreed to attend the Tirunelveli seminar also. (DV April 16, 2003 p.7: "Brahminism can't be cured hence endured?"). DV family members in South Tamil Nadu and South Kerala may contact Kalam: 5/B - Ambai Road, Kulavanigar Nagar, Tirunelveli, TN - 627 005 or Fr. Albert at the Indian Social Institute, 24 - Benson Road, Benson Town, Bangalore - 560 046. The seminar will be followed by a public meeting in the city center. Meanwhile, we have received many requests to publish the valedictory speech delivered by the Editor at the Bangalore seminar. This speech is being developed into a book (about 100 pages) as the subject covered happened to be of great importance. The tentative title of the book is "Weapons to fight Brahminism".

Following the release of the Editor's "Hottest book of the century", Brahminism (DSA-2002, Rs. 50) at Hyderabad and a seminar on it on July 17, 2002, there has been many demands from different parts of India to hold such seminars and also requesting the Editor to be present. The Editor has said it was impossible to attend all such seminars. All the more he has assured his presence at important centres.

OBITUARY: ABANI MOHAN ROY

Death of a distinguished DV family member

We regret to announce the sudden death of Brother Abani Mohan Roy (78), an esteemed member of the DV family world-wide, at Agartala, Tripura, on March 21, 2003.

The letter of his son, Uttam Kumar Roy, village Bardowali, Milton Sangha, A.D. Nagar Post, Agartala - 799 003, giving this information reached us only on May 25.

Brother Abani's association with DV began as far back as 1995 when he became our single biggest bulk purchasers of Dalit Voice copies which at one time stood at 100 copies per fortnight. As "Sunset over the Dalit world" began, he gradually cut down his bulk purchases which at the time of his death slumped to 40 copies. No other bulk buyer has reached this figure. And he used to be so prompt in settling our dues.

In this remote North-Eastern state of Tripura, Brother Abani spread the message of Babasaheb carried through Dalit Voice.

Founder-president of the Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Memorial Society, Brother Abani died at his residence following a heart attack. He was the first person to take up the work of propagating Dr. Ambedkar's message since 1984 in Tripura. But what a tragedy, we had no occasion to meet him. He was planning a conference of Dalit writers of North-East at the time of his death.

We request all our family members including Muslims, Christians and Sikhs to send their condolences to his son and thank him for the services rendered by his father. Uttam Kumar Roy has promised to carry on the missionary work of his father — EDITOR.

Jews in India are always proud and happy to emphasize the fact that anti-Semitism had never existed in India and that Jews could live and practice their religion freely. So, I was extremely disappointed to discover that a publication like Dalit Voice is publishing such an anti-Semitic volume. I trust that Indian people will not follow such an incitement. Hopefully you will make sure that your publication does not become a stage for an anti-Semitic propaganda. In reference to the accusation against zionist, and Jewish media in the mentioned article, I would like to emphasize that Israel and Judaism have nothing against Islam or Muslims.

EDITOR'S REPLY

To this our Editor replied as follows:

"The bok, Zionist Arthashastra, is not our publication but published by the Scientific Research House, Kuwait. The current unending Israeli war against poor Palestinians and the consequent death of hundreds of innocent people plus the recent world-wide attack on Muslims in the name of terrorism have made many important observers to discover the hand of the powerful zionist lobby. India has the world's second largest Muslim population and Indians have been always supporting the Palestinian cause. We are happy that you read our journal carefully though your Embassy did not reply to our previous queries. In DV dated Jan. 16, 1998 (p.9) paying high tributes to a famous Jewish historian, Leon Poliakov, on the occasion of his death, we wrote a signed article, "Jewish scholar who diagnosed disease of Brahminism but failed to cure it".

Our article proves that we praise all great Jews. In this article, we discussed about Poliakov's scholarly book, Aryan Myth, in which he had criticized India's Brahminical (Aryan) religion which, he said, was responsible for the creation of Hitler and nazism that caused the mass murder of Jews.

We wanted to know why today's Jews have joined hands with their No.1 enemy Brahminism. But we got no reply. We will send our book, Brahminism, in which this article is reprinted. DV is the organ of the victims of Brahminism and going by the version of Poliakov. Jews also were the victims of the same poisonous philosophy. As such the Jews will have to be naturally sympathetic to our cause and also allies in our fight against this common Enemy". (DV Feb. 1, 2003 p.13).

NIETZCHE INSPIRED BY BRAHMINIS

Let us have an impartial evaluation of the "warning letter" of Yaron Mayer. He has not refuted the scientific discovery of the late Jewish scholar, Leon Poliakov, that Brahminism was the root cause for the mass killings of the Jews by Hitler. Nietzsche, the philosopher of Hitler, has on several occasions confessed that he was inspired by the "superman" theory which was invented by Mannu and Kautilya (both Brahmins), and Hitler executed this theory against the Jews by putting them into gas chamber. Jews being non-Aryans (they belonged to 12 tribal groups) and also conquerors of the land of Palestine. Germans did not like them for being in their land.

But was there a conspiracy on the part of the Jewish leaders of that period that they willingly allowed Adolf Hitler to kill their own people who were in Germany so that the Jews could claim a homeland for their own settlement which they had once deserted for ever and never thought of return?

I read many books written by Nietzsche in the Oxford University Library and also in the Black Well Bookshop, Oxford, in which he has written a lot praising the Brahmins of India for inventing a theory of "superman". The Brahmins in India claim that they are the "Bhudevatias (gods on earth).

DALITS MADE SLAVES OF HINDUISM

Is not Brahminism, which brainwashed Hitler and killed the Jews, not responsible for the killing of Jews. Are Jews fools who cannot understand this simple logic? In simple legal theory it is the instigator who is more criminal than the actual murderer.

It was Brahminism which killed the Jews. But why the Jews have joined hands with the Aryan Hindus in India? Yaron Mayer does not answer this question deliberately. But why?

Is it because both the Jews and the Aryans are aggressors on the land of Palestine and India and they have common enemy and so they have joined the enemy of the indigenous Indians and indigenous Palestinians.

Arthur Lenk says the Jews suffered persecution throughout history. He also says that the Jews wished well in curing the "cultural divide" in India but at the same time his advice was that insulting another group was not the path to the cure (DV Feb. 16, 1998 p. 12).

The Bible of Jews says that since the Jews were the sufferers of persecution, they should never join
