ZIONISTS CAN'T DEFEAT HAMAS

HOW ISRAEL CAN WIN IN 20 DAYS WHAT
IT COULD NOT FOR 100 YEARS ?*Who murdered
Guru Ravidas
& Why?*Kadgadhari
Budha :
Vipassana*Hindu tyranny against Dalits :*THUS SPAKE AMBEDKAR

Thus Spake Ambedkar

If the Hindus refuse to recognise this situation, and does not grant the Untouchables political safeguards they want, I have no doubt that conversion to some other religion by the Untouchables would become an emergent issue.

WHICH RELIGION FOR UNTOUCHABLES?

"Fourthly, although the thinking portion of the Scheduled Castes are agreed to leave Hinduism I cannot say that there is complete agreement as to which religion they should embrace. The matter is still open".

"Finally, with regard to the question whether Christians should accept the 50,000,000 Untouchables into their fold without a period of preparatory training (as suggested by Rev. Livingston), I should like to say that those who make that objection do not seem to realise that the conversion of the Untouchables would be the only instance in history of a real conversion. Today religion among Christian as well as non-Christians, is a mere matter of inheritance. The Christian inherits his father's property and along with its his father's religion. He never stops to contrast Christianity with other religions and make his own judgement as to its spiritual value. And historically conversions of Christianity have always been mass conversions and conversions on grounds which had nothing to do with the realisation of the spiritual value at all of the Untouchables convert they will be converted on a thorough examination of different religions and their spiritual and social value. Let nobody, therefore, have any qualms of conscience that the conversion of the Untouchables is anything like a commercial proposition. It is not. If the conversion of the Untouchables brings them any advantages apart from those of a spiritual and social character, they are incidental advantages and not criminal inducement". "Globe".

Hindu tyranny against Dalits: Complaint to UNO

Castes Federation adopted a resolution today, seeking to submit to the United Nations Assembly the case of "the sufferings of the Scheduled Castes in India against the Hindus for their acts of social, economic and political tyranny". The committee concluded its two-day session held under the chairmanship of Mr. N. Shivraj, President of the Federation.

The Committee approved the memorandum prepared by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, for submission to the UNO and directed the President of the Federation to take early steps to submit the case formally to the Secretary of the UNO and to organise a delegation of the Federation for the purpose.

The memorandum among other complaints added that the "tyranny and the constant and shameless resort to violence by Hindus, makes the position of the Scheduled Castes far worse than the position of the Indians in South Africa". The memorandum also complains of the "failure of the British Government to give protection and do justice to the Scheduled Castes" and requests the intervention of the UNO for "necessary international action".

With regard to the problems arising out of the framing of the future Constitution of India, the working committee declared in another resolution that the Federation stood for "a United India and a strong Central Government". The Federation according to the resolution "would be prepared to accept the proposals of the Cabinet Mission regarding Grouping in order to secure the co-operation of all parties and to arrive at a peaceful solution of India's constitutional problems".

EQUALITY SHOULD BE THE BASIS OF THE CONSTITUTION

The resolution stated that the Federation stood for liberty and equality as the fundamental basis for a future Indian constitution. "While fighting for the cause of the Scheduled Castes and without detriment to that cause" the Federation supported the "just and necessary demands of all minorities irrespective of the communities to which they belong." (To be continued)

Blood thirsty zionists can't defeat Hamas : Justice, Truth & History are with Palestinians

Blood thirsty zionists are ruthlessly carrying on their 100-year-old war against the poor, innocent Palestinians as this is written (Jan.16, 2009) with over 1,055 killed and thousands wounded but the "civilised" Western world and its spineless United Nations are simply blinking without doing anything.

Even Barack Obama, already a prisoner in the jail of zionists and the American Christian right, is silent on this world's gravest problem and despite world-wide protests against aggression. A grave humanitarian crisis.

The brave Hamas, however, is not bending and we can confidently predict that Hamas and the Palestinians cannot be silenced, cannot be defeated.

Israel is a powerful nuclear-armed country with awful military power. And yet when it could not defeat a puny, pauper Palestine even after a 100 year-war, can it do it in just 20 days? What a shame?

D.V. NEVER GOES WRONG

Remember: Dalit Voice has never gone wrong in its 28-year-long history because we always base our findings on Justice, Truth and the facts of history all of which are on the side of the Palestinians to whom Palestine belongs.

Our claim can be verified on the DV references cited at the end. The zionist claim on Palestine is not based on available facts of history. The Jewish scriptures may say that "god created Israel". Which god? There are any number of Truth-seeking, good-hearted Jews who do not agree with this god. Did not the outgoing criminal, George W. Bush, rightly booted at Baghdad (DV Jan.1, 2009 p.5: "DV salutes brave Bush beater"), say that god himself asked him to launch the Iraq war? What happened to this god? Why this god did not save him from being declared America's worst criminal President?

ARABS DID NOT CAUSE "HOLOCAUST"

So, the zionist claim that god created Israel is downright humbug. Their own Jews and all other god-believing humanists have dismissed this claim.

Israel may exist. Yes. By all means. But that does not mean the zionist claim on Palestine is a legitimate one. History does not admit it.

In 1909 the mostly Russian socialist idealists of the zionist movement set up an armed group, Hashomer, to protect their new farms and villages in Palestine from Arab marauders. Since then has come the dismal march of wars — 1948, 1956, 1967,

1973, 1982, 2006 and now 2009 — each seared by blood and fire into the conflicting myths and memories of the two sides. (The Economist, Jan.10, 2009)

Even if we accept the zionist claim that 6 million Jews had been exterminated by German Nazis during the World War-II (what they call "holocaust"), why should the Jews now run after the Muslims? It was not the Arab Muslims who slaughtered the 6 million Jews. It was the European (German) Christians. Why should the Jews now punish the Muslims for the crimes committed by somebody else?

The zionist charge against Hamas is that it does not recognise Israel's right to exist. Hamas is right because Israel is not a legitimate state and hence it does not have the right to exist. Till P.V. Narasimha Rao became PM, even India did not recognise Israel.

FOUNDER OF ZIONISM

Zionism took birth in 1897. Eastern Europe, mainly Russia, was the heart of Jews, one of the most hated people in the world, so effectively portrayed by Shakespeare in his characterisation of Shylock, the blood-sucker Jew.

Theodore Harzel of Hungary was the founding father of zionism. But there are any number of Jews who do not contribute to zionism. Take the case of Karl Marx, Einstein etc.

The so-called "historical connection" of Jews with Palestine has no proof in history. When history has no proof, what gives the Jews the "historic title" to Palestine? This question is the crux of the world's longest lasting dispute which is continuing even to this day.

JEWISH NATION LASTED 75 YEARS

Historians say Jews occupied Palestine only for a very short period. Palestine was occupied by many foreign powers of which Jews were one. David no doubt established the Jewish state in Palestine. But the Jewish kingdom was destroyed by Assirians.

From 587 BC to 1948 AD — for over 25 centuries — there was no Jewish rule in Palestine. Their so-called "historical connections" to Palestine is a historical bluff. Just because they repeat their lie a million times through the media they own and the books they publish they think can change history. No.

That doesn't mean there was no Jewish presence in Palestine. Jesus was a Jew but he established the holy land of Christendom in Jerusalem. Not of Jews.

These historical facts reveal that "the life span of one united Jewish nation of David and Solomon was not more than 75 years" (Zionism, The Real Enemy of Jews, Part I - 2005, Alan Hart, p.29).

Therefore, Palestine is not the original home of Jews. This is what history says.

BRITISH MISCHIEF

On the other hand Arabs were the single largest population of Palestine.

The zionists are experts in manufacturing lies and selling it as sacred truth, because they own the entire Western media and control the political power to convert lies into truth.

It was the British Govt., controlled by the Jews, in 1917 that played the mischief in handing over Palestine, then under the British rule, to the zionists. On the date Palestine was handed over to zionists, it formed part of Turkey. Hence the British action itself was void. But who can question Britain, then the world's sole super power?

U.N. IN ZIONIST POCKET

So it was the British Govt. that played the mischief and caused the second Holocaust under which millions of Muslims were slaughtered. It was the Christian British Govt. under zionist influence, that stabbed the Arabs in the back. This is history. This mischief continued even till Tony Blair, the skunk, the disgraced last British PM, the poodle of the equally hated George W. Bush.

Hence Israel is a rogue state without any legitimacy, surviving solely with the support of the American Govt. which is controlled by the Christian Right and American Jews. It is against this twin enemies within the US the American voters revolted and threw up Barack Obama to challenge these evil forces. Why is Obama sitting silent?

Zionism has awful power. This was demonstrated to the world when it destroyed the League of Nations, the predecessor of the UN, and then bent the United Nations itself. The UN like the USA is in the pocket of the zionists.

ZIONIST SUPPORT TO HITLER ?

We don't want to go into the too much exaggerated accounts of the "holocaust" but historians have cited zionist clandestine support to Hitler, the principal perpetrator of the Nazi "holocaust".

Historians also say that compared to the nazi horror against German Jews (6 millions killed) the unending slaughter of Palestinians by the Jews makes the Holocaust simply pale into oblivion.

"JEWS OF INDIA"

They say the Jews are a "nation". But how can Jews brought in from 102 countries and speak 81 languages become a nation? The Black Jews (Falasha) who came from Ethiopia are working as slaves even today inside Israel. The Indian Jews who migrated to Israel have no voice. It is only the micro-minority Ashkenazi White Jews who control and rule Israel.

Can there be a bigger lie in the history of the world? It is deceiving not only the world but deceiving its own "chosen people".

The zionists say that the Jews are a "chosen people". India's micro-minority (2%) Brahmins — the "Jews of India" also say they are the Bhoodevatas, gods on earth. Both are blood brothers — a theory upheld by a Chitpavan Brahmin scientist in America in his research work Chitpavanism (DV Dec.16, 2004 p.8: "Jewish origin of Brahmins: Expert confirms DV theory") and also endorsed by Alan Hart, a White British Christian and a noted historian and authority on zionism.

MOSSAD MADE 9/11

If the poor, persecuted Palestinians today are surviving, though demoralised and deceived by the oil-rich Arab rulers (not the masses) and the Western world leaders, it is solely because Justice and Truth plus history are behind these tortured souls.

Israel can boast that it can make and also break anybody and anything in the world. Yes. This is true. It has proved it. How many American Presidents it killed, humbled. The current ominous silence of Obama is also because of the fear of zionists. It may go on boasting about its legendary power but while saying so it is having blood in its hands. That is why Obama is shivering in his shoes. How many American Presidents it purchased, gagged, felled and killed. The latest was President Kennedy.

Even the famous 9/11 that shook the world was a Mossad-manufactured cock and bull story to force America to launch a war on Muslims as part of its "clash of civilisations" — that

Do you want to know the Truth?

The Zionist & Apartheid state of Israel, which controls the Western world, is dying because of its own sins and the curse of all humanists of the world.

Currently engaged in a bloody war on a tiny Gaza strip, what is the true story of the Israel-Palestine "dispute"?

Read the book by an Israeli Jewish woman professor

ISRAEL-PALESTINE

Tells the story of the world's longest lasting war and violence which the great world powers headed by US are silent because they have been all purchased by the Zionists. The UN has proved absolutely useless.

It is very difficult to know the truth in this war blessed by the US and the whole West and even the corrupt Muslim countries.

If you want to know the Truth on the current zionist war on Gaza, please read the book by Tanya Reinhart (Professor of Linguistics at Tel Aviv University and University of Utrecht) facilitated the invasion of Afghanistan and then Iraq.

2003 pp.275 Rs. 150

Photocopy available with DV. Rs. 200.

Not only that. The current financial crisis in which the world is reeling is also a zionist creation. We had said this also.

We do admit there are very many honest Jews — even inside Israel. But they have no voice. Gut Jews only are controlling Israel and the Western world.

But what is the "greatness" of the gut Jews? They are great not for establishing Justice, Truth and Peace but for killing, murder, intrigues, destruction. Destruction is the easiest thing to do. Sitting on a mountain of lies — converted into "facts" through its vast, powerful, monopoly media — it is fooling everybody in the world.

But it is a tragedy that India's ruling Brahminical people (2%) have also joined this gang of thieves — delinking India from our traditional, honest friends in Asia.

ZIONISTS CREATED TERRORISM

According to Alan Hart, zionism is the godfather of Islamic fundamentalism which graduated into Islamic terrorism. Hamas was founded in Gaza (1988) by Sheikh Ahmed Yasin, a paralysed, wheel-chair-bound religious leader, who was killed by Israel.

A zionist fanatic killed its own Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin to frustrate the Oslo peace process between Israel and Palestine. Nathuram Godse, a Brahmin fundamentalist, killed M.K. Gandhi, "Father of the nation" in India.

"Islamic terrorism" is created by the much bigger and more dangerous zionist terrorism.

HOW ISRAEL CAN GET SECURITY ?

Historians agree that the Palestinians are the victims of a massive injustice which the Western world leaders, the United Nations and the media refused to recognise — not to speak of ending it.

The only alternative for a suffocated community is to draw the attention of the world and also retaliate through self-sacrifice. Such a self-sacrifice is called suicide bombing — which the world describes as terrorism without going into its root cause.

This applies to India also. "Islamic terrorism" and the Maoist violence are violent reactions of the oppressed Bahujan havenots crushed by the Brahminical ruling upper castes.

Israel today says it has no security and blames the "terrorists" of Hamas. If the zionists want peace they have to first make peace with Palestinians whose land they have stolen through fraud and force. Then only they can get security.

Israel can never, ever get security before ending its illegal occupation of Palestinian land.

Will Barack Obama, the Black American with a Muslim father — whose ancestors were victims of both White racism and zionist terrorism — learn at least this Supreme Truth?

How long the Jews in the West and "Jews of India" in the East will take to understand this Supreme Truth? Might is on the side of zionists. Yes. We know it. But the Right is with the Palestinians. Not only Right but History too. Zionism has disturbed and brought misery to not only the Middle East but the whole world.

Our fear is the whole world will one day turn against the zionists.

The zionists have made a big capital out of advertising "holocaust". But the verdict of history will be that the zionist Holocaust in Palestine, unparalleled for its ferocity, is nothing before Hitler's much exaggerated Holocaust. (Jan.16, 2009) ■

How people become millionaires in poverty-stricken India ?

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: "Hindu India" is nose-led by its micro-minority Brahminical people who are great admirers of millionaires. Any donkey which has made money in India is held in high esteem. Nobody asks how that donkey made that huge money. How this country of poverty-stricken, wretched, rotten people could create millionaires at the fastest pace?

According to the Times of India (June 26, 2008) millionaires are growing at the pace of 22.7% and adding "23,000 more millionaires in 2007 to its 2006 tally of 100,000 millionaires".

HARSHAD MEHTA AS ROLE MODEL

Ramalinga Raju's arrest in Hyderabad on Jan.9, 2009 for a Rs. 7,100-crore fraud as boss of the Satyam Computers, the fourth biggest in India, answers the question how India creates millionaires at such a break-neck speed.

How to become a millionaire? Easy. The short answer is by defrauding the people. India's upper castes have created hundreds of fraudsters. Here is a list of top-most crooks:

(1) Global Trust Bank (GTB): which lent money to the "Big Bull" Ketan Parekh who manipulated shares by borrowing from the GTB. After the initial arrest Ketan is out on bail. To the Gujarati upper caste society he is a role model which its youth is asked to emulate.

(2) Then you have the much admired the Bigger Bull Harshad Mehta who caused the death of many banks. This Gujarati Bania became such a big hero among the Brahminical rulers that they hailed him as the "smartest stock broker" of the country and the Times of India gave him a regular column to advice shareholders on how to manipulate and make money.

WHO CAN BELIEVE CORPORATE WORLD ?

(3) Unit Trust of India scam in which its top executives (upper castes) are involved.

(4) Pavan Sachdeva of the MS Shoes cheating several companies.

(5) Dinesh Dalmia's fraud in DSQ Software.

(6) C.R. Bansali duping the State Bank of India and the public to hundreds of crores. He is out on bail.

The Times of India published a list of all these fraudsters (Jan.9, 2009).

This is how the upper castes become millionaires by cheating people. The youth is asked to follow them.

Ramalinga Raju from Andhra Pradesh has shocked the whole world. Who will now believe India's corporate honchos? A bundle of thieves?

CASTE FACTOR

Our Bombay correspondent adds: There is a caste angle to the Satyam swindle. This is so loudly pronounced when the Brahminical media cried for Raju's blood. Why the media is so merciless with Raju? Is it because he is a Backward Caste Raju jati? Why the media was soft on the rest of the bigger scoundrels? Why the murderer, Kanchi Shankarachari, a rapist, swindler, was praised and paraded? In Hindu India judgement is based on jati.

NEXT TARGET WIPRO

Yet another caste dimension is the huge number of cross-thread CAs and economic lizards who are experts as financial abortionists, statistical jugglers — their ancestors being astrologers, village accountants and mantra magicians. That is how they captured all banks, financial institutions. And finally created the IT hype.

Today they are a powerful comprador fifth column that made us slaves of American zionists.

After finishing Ramalinga Raju, their next target is the Ashraf Muslim-owned WIPRO which has come under cloud after the World Bank blacklist.

Look at this IT bosses. When the govt. asked them to give reservations to SC/ST, they slighted the govt. and their Brahminical media spit fire. Their argument was in a "knowledge industry" no quota can be given to "brainless idiots". Why the same brainy people are begging for govt. bail-out for the Satyam staff? The bail-out must be rejected.

Advani used & thrown out ?

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: Poor L.K. Advani, a Sindhi Khatri from Pakistan, is the one single fellow who brought the Brahmana Jati Party (BJP) to this stage. But when at last he is getting the final chance to be the PM and the party itself declared so, he gets a kick.

Nobody in the party did so much to demolish Babri Masjid, groom the killer Modi in Gujarat and caused so much of unrest and bloodshed in the country. It is he alone who exhibited the real face of Brahminism. But the poor Khatri doesn't know he is not a Brahmin. Even if he knows, he doesn't realise that a powerful (iron) man like him will not be tolerated by the Bhoodevatas.

DV Edit May 16, 2005: "RSS-BJP ugly war reveals vaidik frustrations over failure to enslave Bahujans".

DV Dec. 16, 2004 p. 12: "Advani — last general of dying BJP".

A spineless Sikh Khatri is alright because he is their obedient servant. But that is not the case with the "iron man" who is building up all non-Brahmins (if not anti-Brahmins) inside the party.

Bhairon Singh Shekhawat on behalf of the Bhoodevatas has thrown the challenge. Poor Advani is silently weeping.

He has forgotten the past. Hindu Sindhis who came from Pakistan were dispersed all over the country to punish them for not giving the top position to Brahmins in Sind. They only used the Sindhi Khatri who allowed himself to be used. After using him they now want to throw him out.

Tamil Tigers losing

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: The Tamil Tigers lost their political headquarters, Kilinochchi, on Jan.2, 2009. Capturing the rest of the areas is a matter of time. Velupillai Prabhakaran is hiding in a fortified bunker in Mullaitivu. Lankan army says within months they will complete the job.

We made a suggestion to Tamil Tigers to shift to the neighbouring Tamil Nadu, just few miles away, but there was no response.

The Tamil Papans are rejoicing over the Tigers' travails. But we are regretting that such a ferocious force has simply wasted its time and energy. Even now it is not late to jump into TN where the real enemy lies.

Why Guru Ravidas was murdered ?

KULDIP KUMAR, 1269, UE-II, HISAR - 125 005

The truth about the murder of Guru Ravidas is gaining ground. The people who made business out of Guru Ravidas' charismatic character are opposing revelation of this heinous crime. They include equally Chamar and Brahman purohits. Such people have constructed gurudwaras and mandirs in the name of Guru Ravidas. They preach all sorts of nonsense, supernatural stories about him. They know if people start thinking of Guru Ravidas as a common man, their business will vanish. To get donations from lay-Dalits, they project him as Akalpurush who conquered all Brahmins. Some go even to the extent of calling him an avtar of Vishnu.

It is a historical fact that Guru Ravidas was an extraordinary man. He was truly a saint-soldier. I was often wondering: Guru Kabir who denounced Brahmins, their gods and their scriptures in the harshest terms, was never touched by the Brahmins. But what crime Guru Ravidas committed that his murder only could satiate their anger?

Here lies the truth (i) about the 'bravery' of the upper castes and (ii) murder of Saint-Soldier Ravidas. Guru Kabir, was a Muslim by birth. At that time India was ruled by Muslims. The Brahmins dared not touch him. On the other hand Guru Ravidas was born of poor, defenseless Buddhist parents. Hence he became a soft target. Nobody was behind his back to protect him. The reason for his murder was that he educated Dalits that they were the descendants of a great people but now reduced to slavery. He asked them to get rid of their ignorance and agitate to regain their lost regime. He organised all sects of Dalits to regain their lost prestige and, of course, their regime.

Babasaheb Ambedkar borrowed that Dalits are descendants of great kings and hence political power is must for their emancipation. In the later stages of their lives both embraced Budha Dhamma.

Guru Ravidas was brutally murdered and doubts have been raised from day one on the sudden death of Babasaheb.

What Guru Ravidas dared to do is startling :

Murder of Mira Bai

KULDIP KUMAR

Dr. (Mrs.) K.K. Sidhu did mention that Mira Bai was killed but I say she was murdered. (Chitpavan Brahmin Godse killed Gandhi, Hindu god Ram murdered Wali and Vamana killed Bali Chakravarti).

Mira was murdered by the toxic Brahman emissaries of the Rajput King Rana. She ran away from her home to escape the tyrannies of Rana and his Brahman goons. They chased her and ultimately tracked her down at Dwarka. She was taken inside the mandir in the evening. Next morning they showed her clothes to the devotees and declared that she penetrated into the idol of Krishna. The whole night what they did to Meera is anybody's guess. Why she was murdered? In one word, it was because the famed Rajput princess was a great devotee of the Untouchable Guru Ravidas.

A more elaborated story will follow.

his Three Commandments: Educate, Agitate, Organise. from the Ravidas Bani. It is not a mere coincidence that both of them started their movement against Brahmanic oppression, making the 'right to worship' as their first step.

Both declared the Brahman Dharma and its scriptures as worthless, both of them claimed

1. After Budha, it was only Guru Ravidas who initiated people into his mission or Dhamma. Like his master, the Budha, whom he addressed as Niranjan in his Bani, he initiated women into his mission. Meera Bai and Queen Jhali are two such names. Guru Ravidas imparted education to women and that too Rajputs. It was a direct attack not only on their superiority but also roji roti of Brahmins.

Unlike Dalits, Brahmins know woman is the real head of the family for all social and religious matters. That is why they call only women to attend their kathas. When Guru Ravidas snatched their real 'customers' they got furious.

2. He openly denounced all Brahmanic scriptures including their Vedas, Purans, Smritis, Upnishads etc. He said: Charon ved kiye khandoti, jan Ravidas kare dandoti (I Ravidas proclaim Vedas are worthless. His companion Guru Kabir did not hesitate to call Brahman purohits as wretched criminals of all four yugas. (Charon yug brahman khote). It was direct attack on the hegemony of Brahmins who did not allow even other upper caste Hindus to read their scriptures).

GURUMUKHI INVENTION

3. Like his Master, the Budha, Guru Ravidas discarded Sanskrit and its Devnagari script. He invented his own Gurumukhi script of 34 alphabets. He composed his Bani in this script. He said: Avidya ahit keen, taate vivek deep bhaya malin i.e. illiteracy and ignorance has done great harm to Dalits, it has caused opaqueness in their thinking. Just imagine, at a time when a Dalit stepping near a school attracted capital punishment, Guru Ravidas coined his own script to impart education to the Dalits. How could Brahmins tolerate it? The Brahmins knew awakened Dalits could never be kept slaves. So before Guru Ravidas could cause much harm to their agenda, they finished him.

BEGAMPURA

4. The ultimate cause for his murder was his exhortation to the Dalits for regaining their lost Achhoot raj. He composed a superb political thought in the shape of Begampura. It is the Constitution of Dalit Raj. Babasaheb incorporated all ideals of Begampura in the Preamble to the Constitution of India which is nothing but a replica of Begampura.

But how sad that none of the thousands of our Dalit teachers ever thought over it. They simply repeat what Shuklas, Sharmas, Chaturvedis taught them about our Guru.

To me mere literacy is no education. It takes us nowhere.

I discussed this topic with many university professors including Dr. Ronki Ram, Head of the Dept. of Political Science, Panjab University, Chandigarh. They all fully agreed with me that Begampura has nothing to do with religion and that it is a pure political theory.

RAVIDAS AS POLITICAL PHILOSOPHER

I requested them that they should ask their universities that Guru Ravidas be taught as a political thinker and his Begampura be included in the textbooks of political science but till date all our Dalit professors are silent.

If high court and Supreme Court judges can quote from the Gita in their judgments, why not from the Begampura which is the basis of our Constitution? This is because the Dalit leaders have buried their 'Soldier' Ravidas deep under his sainthood.

Why? Because 'Soldier' always asks for sacrifices but a hinduised saint is a source of income.

What is Guru Ravidas' viewpoint on Dalit Raj?

(1) That the Indus Valley Kingdom has been our Watan. He writes ab mohe khoob watan gah payi i.e. I have fully known my native land. He writes in his Bani that when he preached this message among millions of his brethren, they lamented that so far nobody had told them of this truth.

(2) That our forefathers have been great kings, poets, soldiers, donors and scientists. Our forefathers never used their budhi (knowledge) for destructive purposes. We the Dalits are descendants of such great people that we can be surely proud of them.

(3) That Dalits who were rulers of this land, have been dethroned and made slaves. And know it: everybody hates a slave. Even slaves do not have the right to profess their own Dhamma.

(4) That our condition is like that of a king who had a nap while sitting in his throne and during his slumber he saw himself as beggar. The moment, we come out of that slumber i.e. ignorance, we shall again be rulers of our native land.

(5) That for regaining our lost regime, the first step is Educate yourself i.e. know your history and shape your future. Then break the barriers of Casteism and struggle against the oppressors. Educate, Agitate and Organise is a continuous circle.

We the "educated Dalits" must resolve to educate our masses about our true history for which Guru Ravidas sacrificed his life.

Haryana says the enraged Brahmins murdered the Saint because he empowered the Dalits with his theory of Begampura. The Indian history written by the ruling upper castes has many wide gaps. But our Dalit writers and academics are not doing anything fearing the Big Cat — EDITOR.

"Caste identity" graduates into caste armies: DV theory takes big leap

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: As victims of Brahminism are finding it almost impossible to recover their lost human rights fight and demolish the country's principal contradiction (enemy), they are resorting more and more to the time-tested weapon of caste (identity).

The most important development of the just concluded year 2008 is emergence of caste as a powerful weapon in the hands of the oppressed castes having big population strength.

After good deal of study we have come to the conclusion that the caste is the best and the deadliest weapon to fight casteism or caste system which is the other word for Brahminism, parading itself in its new deceptive name of Hinduism.

The Editor has written a book itself on this subject, Caste — A Nation Within the Nation (Books for Change, 2004) after a 6-year-long debate in Dalit Voice. The book has gone into three reprints, translated to Hindi and Kannada and won the international award in London to its author V.T. Rajshekar

Propaganda against Editor: The ruling Brahminical forces have tried their best to suppress the book with the help of their malignant manuwadi media, yet they failed because caste being one's identity it is part of his daily life.

Some Dalits at the behest of their Brahminical bosses have been criticising the Editor saying that the Editor of Dalit Voice is trying to defend and promote casteism and thereby going against the Annihilation of Caste propounded by Dr. Ambedkar. This point has been effectively tackled in the book itself and also during the long Debate in DV. And also numerous seminars held in different parts of India.

Caste to kill casteism: The propaganda failed to work. But these critics of the Editor go on repeating their charges to please their masters without knowing that the thesis propounded in the book has already been accepted by the masses of SC/ST/BCs and even shudra castes.

Strengthening different castes (identity) does not mean strengthening the caste system which is the other word for Brahminism which has to be killed in order to save India. The argument of the Editor is that caste will kill casteism (Hinduism) and the masses of people have unanimously accepted the thesis.

Bahujan Samaj Party, the most famous and the powerful party of the oppressed, is itself based on the principles of caste identity. It comprises three important caste segments (Dalits, Backward Castes, Brahmins) plus Muslims. Such a caste combination has already clicked in UP where it is in power. BSP poses a challenge to the Congress and BJP and even to the communists. All the three are Brahminical parties. And must be killed to cleanse India.

Caste-based parties are also in power in many states: Marathas (Maharashtra), Lingayats (Karnataka), Reddis (AP), Ezhavas (Kerala), Jat Sikhs (Punjab). There are also many political parties: RJD for Yadavas, Kurmis of Nitish Kumar, Khammas of Chandrababu Naidu, Vanniyars of PMK (Dr. Ramdass), Janata Dal (S) of Vokkaligas in Karnataka. Of course BJP is a Brahmin party.

Caste identity takes a long jump: Even after forming such jati-based political parties, the oppressed SC/ST/BCs are finding it difficult to counter the Brahminical aggression. DV's "caste identity" thesis has now taken a long jump by forming caste-based armies. A fantastic development.

The backward state of Rajasthan has taken the lead in this respect when the Gujjars gave it a big push. "Caste armies" are fast coming up and almost every oppressed caste has set up its own army in Rajasthan. Wonderful.

The powerful Gujjars, shocked the whole country by forming their own army, Devnarayan Sena. The 68-lakh Gujjars defeated the BJP in the recent Rajasthan Assembly election.

Rajasthan's upper castes have already launched a Karni Sena of the Rajputs and the Parashurama Sena of Brahmins. When the propertied ruling castes can have their own army, why not the oppressed castes?

Brahmin army: Mahendra Upadhyaya who planted the RSS flag on the Babri Masjid, heads the 1,100 strong Sawai Madhipur unit of the Parashurama Sena. Brahmins have their RSS and its many branches. With billions and billons of dollars in their coffers, they are effectively fighting the oppressed nationalities of India.

Even then a section of the Brahmins are not satisfied with the way the RSS is fighting the Dalits and Muslims. Such of the more radical Brahmins have set up their

A long suppressed truth comes out

The long suppressed historical truth about the brutal murder of the celebrated Dalit saint and fighter Guru Ravidas by the Brahmins of Rajasthan at the Chittorgarh court of the Rajputs was published in Dalit Voice of Dec. 16, 2008 (p.23) "Murder of Saint Ravidas at Chittorgarh" by Kartar Singh of Bombay. Kuldip Kumar of Abhinav Bharat, a new armed group that caused Malegaon anti-Muslim terrorist attack and many others. A serving army officer, Lt. Col. Purohit, is now in police custody along with his other Brahmin friends.

Abhinav Bharat Brahminical army has already impressed a majority of Brahmins — much better than the RSS.

The killing of the Bombay police officer Karkare is said to be an attempt by the Brahminical forces to suppress the ongoing anti-Abhinav Bharat investigations by the Bombay police. Forward caste Rajputs of Rajasthan have set up their Karni Sena.

Sena for each caste: The Meenas, who have captured the bureaucracy in Rajasthan because of their ST reservation status, are also getting mobilised by procuring arms.

The Rajasthan example of a senā (army) for each caste to fight for its rights has impressed the whole of North. The youth of the oppressed castes are trying to follow the example. The coming Lok Sabha election will see a big spurt in caste-based armies which is the direct outcome of DV's caste identity thesis.

Did we not say India's road to socialism lies through caste struggle? ■

Centre upholds subcaste-wise quota

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: Dalits are not a homogenous community. Dr. Ambedkar has said it. In fact Babasaheb started his movement by organising a conference of the Mahars, a subcaste to which he belonged. (Eleanor Zelliott, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar & The Untouchable Movement, 2004, Blumoon Books, S-201, Essel Mansion, 2286-87, Arya Samaj Road, Karol Bagh, New Delhi - 110 005, Rs. 250). But at the same time he upheld the human rights of every subcaste.

When Dalit Voice came out with our "Caste identity" thesis, the first people to criticise it were a section of Malas from Andhra Pradesh. A Mala leader's charge was that DV was trying to divide the Dalit movement.

History supports DV: But the history was not on the side of the critics. The AP State Assembly itself upheld our contention demanding subcaste-wise reservation to all Dalits.

The powerful Madiga Dalit subcaste (counterparts of Chamars) said those opposing the DV demand were that monopolising the reservation benefits.

DV finally won the battle because both Justice and Truth were behind our argument.

Caste favours subcaste quota

New Delhi: The Centre may constitutionally empower states to create sub-categories among Dalits with a separate quota for each of them.

It is learnt that social justice ministry is mulling a proposal to amend the Constitution to permit the states on what is technically known as "sub-categorisation". Hemmed in by its political compulsion to allow the demand made by Andhra Pradesh and the sensitivity of doing what is also seen as anti-Dalit, Centre may be looking at a new way to achieve its objective. (Times of India, Jan.10, 2009).

A dominant subcaste among Dalits cannot eat all the fruits of reservation. It has to be shared equally in proportion to the population of each subcaste. Then only the Dalit unity will get strength. ■

In "Hindu India" Hinduism is dying?

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: According to the RSS, India's biggest Hindu terrorist party, and the widespread belief in the "educated class", Hinduism is India's biggest religion and over 85% of its population are Hindu. Fine.

But according a seminar conducted in Bangalore on Jan.4, 2009 by the RSS followers the ruling religion of over 85% is in danger — facing a threat of extinction.

The speakers were crying and saying conversions were weakening their Hinduism and the SC/ST/BCs were simply slipping away into Islam and Christianity. They asked Karnataka's BJP Govt. to bring a law to ban conversion.

But conversions have been banned in many North Indian states. Yet the conversions have not stopped.

If the oppressed SC/ST/BCs are well-looked after by the custodians of Hinduism why will they go out? The Bangalore seminar had no answer. (See also p.26) ■

Dalit-Muslim Friendship Society of W. Bengal

M. CHISTY, SECRETARY, INDIAN UNITY CENTRE,
43-36 - C.N. ROY ROAD, CALCUTTA - 700 039

A new political party called the Indian Unity Centre will be inaugurated by V.T. Rajshekar and the founder of India's Dalit-Muslim unity movement.

Editor of Dalit Voice

Remember, Dalits and Muslims form Bengal's single largest population and when we unite no force can stand before us.

Place: Somruk Hat under Uluberia P.S. Howrah, dt. (WB).

All lovers of Dalit-Muslim Unity movement are requested to attend.

Date: Feb.22, 2009 (Sunday).

Time: 9 a.m.

Please contact Dr. M. Chisty, Calcutta, (M: 098833-31184) and M. Kazi Kanirujjaman, Somruk, Howrah (M: 92319-78592).

The new party, first of its kind for W. Bengal, will unite the original inhabitants of India and free them from Aryan domination. Aryan imperialism led by the upper castes (less than 10%) is the real cause of disintegration among Indians.

Indigenous people are deprived spiritually, socially, culturally, educationally, economically and politically. They need emancipation as they are the Mustazaefin. All our Prophets including Budha, Jesus and Muhamad fought for our liberation. India has become morally bankrupt — totally corrupted.

Spiritual power is the real power. It makes us young and energetic. It makes us fighters for a just cause.

Reservation is the peaceful process towards social justice. This is also the constitutional and democratic process.

Indian Unity Centre will have alliance with all like-minded parties.

Engineering colleges producing duds

The quality of teaching at India's 348 universities and some 18,000 colleges is generally poor. NASSCOM, the IT industry's lobby group, reckons that of the 350,000 engineering graduates who emerge each year, mostly from private colleges, 25% are unemployable without extensive further training, and half are just unemployable. In response to an urgent need, the central government has announced plans for 30 new centrally run institutions. These will not be first-rate. In a recent ranking of the world's 500 best universities by Shanghai Jiao Tong University, only two were from India.

Indian armed forces behind China

India's armed forces are like its economic progress, at least a decade behind China's. India's defence spending is also less than half China's. But India does have an advantage over its giant neighbour in the way much of the world perceives it: as well-intentioned and democratic, may be chaotic — but not inscrutable and possibly malign.

Gandhi as British stooge

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: That the Father of the upper caste Nation, M.K. Gandhi, was a stooge of the British and that in fact he was a member of the British army when he was in South Africa was disclosed by a Dalit Sahitya Akademy book as early as 1995. Dr. Velu Annamalai, a member of the Dalit Voice family, in his book Sergeant-Major M.K. Gandhi, (1995, pp.60, Rs.20) says all this in the book which portrays Gandhi as a racist. The Times of India (Jan.4, 2009), the principal Brahminical English daily, publishes this report 14 years after we disclosed the truth. The cover-page picture of Gandhi in British army uniform as Sergeant-Major in 1899 in South Africa (published in our DSA book) is also published by the Times.

But the Brahminical propaganda has been that Gandhi fought the British. But here the Times, their own paper, admits Gandhi was a British stooge.

The beauty is they only killed Gandhi and after killing him they only wept and took over Gandhism. Today they only are the monopoly-holders of Gandhism. ■

Letters to Editor

Rahul Gade, Advocate, 6439 - Market St., 2nd Flr., Apt #2, Philadelphia, PA - 19082, USA: Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar said that "an idea needs propagation as much as a plant needs watering. Otherwise both will wither and die." I see DV successfully fulfilling this objective of propagation. I believe that we all have failed to some lesser or greater extent in contributing towards building a strong community. To blame some people will only be an excuse for our own failure to mobilize the support for our social, economic or political cause. History shows that to bring change one person is enough, few are helpful and many are appreciated. I am a law professional from India; in 2004 after my law graduation I was practicing law in Bombay High Court. My parents imbibed in me at very young age that I should be a good lawyer fighting for Dalit rights like Dr. Ambedkar and sent me aboard to New Zealand for higher studies. In 2006, I completed PG in New Zealand Legal Studies and later came to USA for Masters of Law (LL.M) which I completed from Temple University, Philadelphia. Some wonder why I did not opt human right law. I had a choice to pursue Masters of Law in Human Rights but I opted in International Law dealing exclusively with Business law, and Immigration with a purpose to build strong Buddhist corporate empire, and to assist our community to fulfill their dream to be next Mittals, Ambanis, Brilas and Tatas. I firmly believe that we need Buddhist corporate moguls to make our presence felt at National and International market. Correct me if I am wrong but we can hardly find any successful Buddhist industrialist, we have organizations and people who write about and fight for social and political justice both at national and international level. In my opinion, if we are financially powerful we can turn lot of things in our favor for e.g., having stake in media, the attention that we beg for. This may sound like dream but one should dare to dream, if we succeed we will be able to financially support other activities to help coming generation race competitively through quality education in social, economic and political arenas. I am two years older to DV. I have started taking greater interest in our community rebuilding so I am following the online activities of our community I came across Dalit Voice and none impressed me more than DV since its being working for almost 30 years and looks updated. I personally do not know anyone from Dalit Voice but I would be glad and honored to be part of it.

Pradip Kumar Behera, OAS (I), Additional Sub-Collector, Angul, PO/dt. Angul - 759 122: Dalit Voice has given the moral strength and determination to each Dalit reader to boost their courage, personality and dignity. It is said "literature is the mirror of the society", but Dalit Voice is not a mere mirror but a hammer which hits the drowsy Dalits and forces them to wake up from their deep slumber. This slumber has been continued for the last 3,000 years often they have been injected with religious poison manufactured by a cunning people. This 3,000 year-old drowsiness is not so easy to be cured. It requires a lot of patience. I am sure all Dalits will wake up from their deep slumber and see the brightest dawn. I adore your mission which is heroic and praiseworthy. Though I did not see you physically I see your image and hear your loud voice in all my silence in divine DV.

Farooq Abdul Gaffar Bawani, Rajkot, Gujarat: Abdur Rehman Antulay, Minority Affairs Minister's remarks that the terrorists had no reason to kill Hemant Karkare and that he could have been a victim of "terrorism plus something else" are well founded and worth investigating. His suspicion is not baseless. His brief remarks speak volumes about the infiltration of khaki network in armed forces, bureaucracy, judiciary and media. The case of fake encounter of Shohrabuddin Shaikh in Gujarat is a pointer to the fact that police theories can go wrong. Then why put aside the doubts of a senior and experienced Union Minister?

Media Cell, (mediacell.jih@gmail.com): Looks like development schemes in the state took a back seat in the last eight months. In the current financial year, the Maharashtra Democratic Front Government spent just 34% of the Rs. 29,000 crore annual plan funds, leaving Chief Minister Ashok Chavan with the rather difficult job of utilising the remaining 66% in less than four months. Else, the funds will lapse. Department-wise figures of government spending in the financial year 2008-09, reveal some shocking facts. The Minorities Development Dept., the brainchild of former CM Vilasrao Deshmukh, failed to utilise a single rupee of the allocated Rs 167 crore until Dec. 15. Out of the 26 govt. departments, only the Food & Civil Supplies department utilised 100% of the allocated funds.

Veera Mani, Ph.D. Student, JNU, New Delhi: Dr. Ambedkar Law College Hostel in Madras is closed and the police patrol is heavy in the surroundings. Dalits have no community hall to stay, study and write exams as other upper caste people have their own lobby. It is a fact that the Thevars are close to Hindu terrorist party RSS. I have great respect for you and salute you as I read

Dalit Voice regularly. Tamil Nadu Dalit leaders forgot Dalits. They talk about "Tamil nationalism" and Karunanidhi is worse than manuwadis. Thirumavalavan failed to address the issue. This is a wake up call for Dalit students to organise themselves into an army to protect themselves from the casteist elements. It is shocking that such inhuman atrocities happened in the land of Tamil Nadu where proclaimed leaders like Periyar EVR came. It is time we organise a Dalit student army.

Sukanta Mondal, L-4/2 - Sarat Pally, Medinipur PO - 721 101: I must congratulate you on the logical fulfillment of your rational prediction on Obama's win. DV is certainly the first and the only magazine in India to predict such finale 10-11 months ahead. I must also acknowledge the fact that on several occasions e.g. "Crash of US economy", "virtual defeat of the US in Iraq", "Win of Mayawati following success of caste identity theory", your logical conclusions have proved right. Basic thing behind this that you have in most of the cases analysed the facts on deductive process and taking into account the "forces of history". Yes, the "forces of history" and "cause and effect" theories are the most vital and important instruments in analysing any event in human life. My observations on Barack Obama's victory and its possible impacts on Indian social and political movement are: It had been gradually becoming inevitable that the next US President would be a Democrat. Who - Hillary or Obama - was the question. That was decisively and not without tough contests, decided in favour of Obama in the primaries. Whites (including Jews) are about 80% in the US, Blacks 15%, Hispanics, Indians

Dalit Voice provides a very honest and important perspective in the chaotic bombardment of information one receives from many sources, papers, magazines, TV, Internet, etc.. It is the only source of information that I feel is honest with regards to what is actually happening in India. I especially value it because I know you (Editor) and respect you. I have known you since I have been a teenager and in many ways you (via DV) have provided a guide to my conscience. I cannot thank you enough for being there for me. DV is definitely not an easy read. I always have to plan ahead to read it. As always, after reading the DV my heart is heavy with sadness. I don't mind it, as it truly generates honest feelings. DV is doing what it has set out to do, to make the reader think. Its purpose is not to entertain but to educate and awaken. I am also very glad to know that you continue to be a positive influence on the next generation.

Shilpun, a Patidar Patel, belongs to Gujarat's famous oppressive ruling caste to which almost all chief Ministers belonged. It is the Patels who launched the country's first caste war against Dalits in the Ahmedabad Medical College (1981). How did such a wolf turn into a lamb? This is because he was born and brought up in Bangalore - not in the midst of the wolves of Gujarat but in remote Bangalore where there were hardly any Patels. Heard of the "wolf boy" real life story? A young child was taken away by a wolf to the forest and was brought up there. Within years the child developed all traits of a wolf - including walking on "four legs". It is the environment that makes a person - EDITOR.

and others 5%. In general, the majority in the country were gasping for change and that was heightened after the Wall Street collapse. The Neocons have brought the country to the brink of bankruptcy by putting it engaged in unending anti-Muslim wars and thereby spending billions of dollars from state exchequer. Bush's feet have plunged deep into Iraqi soil and this war has brought not only Bush to his knees but also the country. The Zionist nose was getting tightened around the White Christians, Blacks and Hispanics. It is not only the Blacks who have been asking for change but others also were crying for change. And riding on a crescendo of a huge win Obama has been at last able to announce "Change has come to America". What are and would be the effects of this election on India?: As expected the Indian Brahminical upper castes are not at ease with this result. Manmohan Singh has uttered some big words. But Pranab Mukherjees and their likes in diplomatic circles are speaking in hushed tones and have already made comments that it might be better with McCain. They are feeling uneasy on political, economic and military fronts. But for the down-trodden peoples of India, over 75% majority of the country, Barack Obama is a ray of hope. And here I must speak about the confusions and contradictions prevailing in the minds of the Aryanised brown and dark-brown Hindu havenots. Barack Obama, born of a Black Kenyan father and White American mother, identifies himself with African-American and by his qualities he has risen above race, colour and communities. In America, contrast in skin colour is distinct and one is identified easily. But in India barring the tribals and a microscopic few in the 2-3 states in the north-west and two in the south — 85% people are of mixed skin colours. In most provinces there is no difference between upper caste Brahmins, Rajputs, Bhumihar, Nayar, Kayasth and low caste Yadav, Jat, Kurmis, Chamar or Namasudras. And all of them are called Hindu. Brahmins being common partner along with some 2-3 caste groups with some regional variations in all the states have been for centuries exploiting and torturing the vast majority. But these exploiters and exploited do follow the same social rituals, religious practices and feel one under the identity of Hindu. Having very little skin colour and physical differences all of them feel embellished with the identity of Aryan or semi-Aryan and at the same time love hating tribals, Black Negroes. Though kicked out and abhorred they (the low castes) try to stay closer to Brahmins and Brahminical culture. Their identified common enemies are the Muslims

(90% of whom are converted low castes) and for some the SC/ST and vice-versa. These so-called Backward and Scheduled Castes have been suffering from identity crisis and this crisis is deeper among the OBCs. In the recent past in some states due to some political alignment on caste line, the low castes have been identifying their original social position in Indian context. That if not diluted is probably a positive sign for social change. It is to be said that the Indian down-trodden vast majority have to search for some identity outside the Brahminical Hindu ethos or concept. The dark semi-dark or brown and semi-dark or brown and the gradually getting hinduised tribals, dwindling under the Hindu inferiority caste complex — for their liberation (in all respect) have to come out of Hindu mentality. As true human beings dark or semi-dark, they have to make their identity known — not as low caste, middle caste or outcaste etc. The triumph of Barack Obama can only then be grasped by them — by the vast Indian down cast people and rays of hope of social change can then be a reality in this ancient country.

Sathyam, Hyderabad, (voiceofsathyam@rediffmail.com): As a Dalit, I really appreciate your efforts. I faced several hurdles in my life. But I am always proud to be Indian. You should realise one thing that many anti-social, anti-Indian elements are using your website to mention disputes within us. They are also planting hatred among many. You should remember that these elements are trying to divide our India. What is your explanation?

We don't understand your "advice" to us. Dalit Voice represents the Bahujan Samaj comprising SC/ST/BCs plus Muslim/Christian/Sikhs — 85%. How can over 85% of the Indians be anti-Indian and a micro-minority be called Indian? Indians are "divided" because the minority 15% Aryan ruling class does not want unity. You are speaking on behalf of whom? — EDITOR.

Kuldip Kumar (jaikuldip@rediffmail.com): I know our Editor since 1984. Twice I met him. This is what I noticed in him:

1. He is outspoken. He makes no ifs and buts in his opinion. If he does not like my action, he states the fact in explicit terms.
2. He does not go after a 'person'. If he finds one act of a person to be good, he appreciates it and when another act of the same person goes against his norms, he does not hesitate to rebuke.
3. He wears no mask. He does not smile on your face. He smiles through his magazine only.
4. He does not wish to make friends. He wants to make soldiers. Soldiers who can sacrifice their lives for true Ambedkarism.

6. Regarding the Budha Dhamma, he says that hardly anyone in India follows the path of Budha as taught by Babasaheb. I visited a few vihars, there the monks chant mantras in Pali which is same as Sanskrit of Brahmins. No common man can understand either. Publishers of Dhamma books told me that in Mahabodhi temple of Gaya, the monks do not allow exhibition of The Biddha and His Dhamma in their bookstalls.

7. He has a perfect theory that "caste can never be abolished". How many of us (Dhamma, Sakya etc group) people have dared to come out of casteism i.e. how many of us have married their kith and kin out of their sub-caste? Even among SC/BC the percentage is below 001%. In my last 35 years, I have met hundreds of so-called Dalit leaders, I do not hesitate to say none is like VTR.

Tarang Arhat, President-Public Relationship, The Buddhist Community Of India, Buddh Vihar, Deena Garhi, Hapur Road, Ghaziabad - 201 001: I am so happy to see our people taking interest in Babasaheb Ambedkar's caravan. I was searching for a right name since long to celebrate this great day (25-Dec.). Kavita Nirmal Waman, Advocate of Pune, suggested Stri Mukti Divas. We are working here as a youth team, the Buddhist Community Of India. We follow a commitment for our mission "BCI ki ek aawaj-Shiksha, Rozgaar, Parivar, Samaj" means we want to create awareness for education, employment, family and society. We need these all for spreading Buddhism and taking Babasaheb's Caravan ahead. BCI welcome you all, whenever you visit NCR.

Ms. Kavita Nirmala Waman, Advocate, 52/3 - Maruti Nagar, Lane no.2, R.No. 743, Vadgaonsheri, Pune-411 014: Manusmriti as the code of discrimination and thereby denying the human rights to most people. Specially, women are facing double slavery in this era. While burning the Manusmriti, the Modern Budha, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, has given an alternate or option to this on the same day at Dehu Road and i.e. Revolutionary Mahakarunik Budha where women get the right to become Bhikkuni which is denied by all other religions. Thus the principle of equality and considering woman as a human being was actually implemented in the era of Budha. Hence we celebrated Dec.25 as stri mukti din. This is because all over India woman from even upper as well as lower caste is treated as per the rules laid down by the Manusmriti. Hence any woman (either lower or upper caste) will never, ever oppose this day for celebrating as stri mukti din. In Maharashtra, almost all NGOs celebrated this day. It also helps to spread Buddhism.

S. Faizi, Trivandrum, (biodiversity@rediffmail.com): An Australian cricketer called India a Third World country. The term is used to denote countries of Africa, Asia and Latin America, having a lower level of economic development. The international discourse on development issues regards India as part of the Third World, in fact as a leader. The media, academic institutions and the civil society organizations across the world, India included, unhesitatingly use this phrase. If a country that hosts the largest number of poor and illiterates in the world and unfailingly finds its place in the tail part of the international human development index is not part of the Third World, then which country is?

Prem Kumar, 11-5-521, Red Hills, Nampally, Hyderabad - 500 004: As expressed by Comrade Ayyankali, the slogan creators of Sathyameva Jayathe are not prepared to know the truth about the killers of Hemant Karkare. I salute A.R. Antulay who is standing by his words without bowing to the BJP.

Afsar Ali, (afsarali_nbu@yahoo.co.in): Your writings have changed my philosophy of thinking about India and its people. I am rather unlucky to be informed about DV so late. Better late than never. I am 40 years old. My place of birth is West Bengal (Malda dt.). Presently working as a lecturer at AJC Bose College, Calcutta. I am shocked by the condition of Dalits and Muslims in India. I prefer to make friends among the Dalits and have a number of Dalit friends with good relation. Hope that Dalits and Muslims will unite one day under your leadership and that day the fate of the country will change.

R.K. Satyanweshyarjak c/o RRP Singh, DSW Office, ISM, Dhanbad - 826 004: I came to know you through Brother R.K. Yadav, a Ph.D. scholar at ISM, Dhanbad. I have gone through your books and DV issues. I belong to the same caste of Brother Yadav. Here Dalits are enjoying positions but hate the literature of Dr. Ambedkar. ISM University is a premier institution and students get admission through JEE (IITs). Consequently preparatory students also find admission in addition to usual reservation of SC/STs. Dalits have greater love for M.K. Gandhi, our Enemy no.1.

Indian Dalit (dalitindian@yahoo.in): When will Brahminical rulers apologize for racism? Recently the Thevars and Dalits fought each other at the Dr. Ambedkar Law College in Madras. All due to caste-based hatred. But none bothered to understand who created this hatred. Only in India, this permanent division has been created by the ruling Brahminical races as a result of the 5% of Brahmins enjoying the 90% of India's prosperity. You can't find such a division anywhere in the world. Brahminism is surviving because it has created the caste system and all our blood is contaminated with "caste virus" only. Hence India has become the No.1 racist country in the world and the most deprived people are the innocent original inhabitants of India. The Brahmin is worried about the "creamy layer" among Dalits but who is worried about the creamy layer among Brahmins who rule us. This is what the Dalit Voice says:

No crime in history is so long lasting, more serious and diabolically inhuman than the Hindu racism inflicted on a third of India's indigenous Black Untouchables — sanctioned by the very religion and gods of Hindus, the micro-minority (15%) rulers of India. In South Africa, the White British Christians said sorry and packed off. In Australia, its new Labour Prime Minister recently offered an apology to its 55,000 aboriginals. Canada followed with an unqualified apology to its 1 million indigenous Inuit and Metis on June 11, 2008 — together constituting a mere 3.8% of its population. South Africa, Australia and Canada—all ruled by White Western Christian settlers—understand the value of saying sorry when the state has harmed its citizens. How did these three rulers admit their crime and apologize? Because all of them are Christians and their scriptures and god shaped their value system to admit the guilt and say sorry.

But India's Hindu scriptures and gods never inculcated in their followers any such values. Because their scriptures and gods themselves preached and practiced racist violence.

And that is how the world's largest indigenous population of India, the Black Untouchables, are still suffering the worst apartheid unheard of in any part of the world. Most of India's media owned by Brahminical and Govt. agencies daily report racist violence. (Dalit Voice, July 16, 2008).

In the name of religion Brahminical people have poisoned the innocent peace-loving Indians. The Bhagavad Gita claims that Brahmins are superior to all other three varnas because of the powers of Brahmin born nature (gto://www.friesian.com/caste/htm). Brahmins always praise Bhagwad Gita as a guidelines to the world. Quoting versus from the Gita became a fashion. This is what the Gita says: "I have created the four castes in which Brahmin holds the highest rank" (chapter 4, sloka 13) claiming Brahmins superiority is the main themes of Brahminism. This itself shows how Brahmins are racist. The Brahmins never built a temple. But once the Dalits completed the construction, they occupy it and will never allow those Dalits to enter the temple. Who are these Brahmins? They came from Central Asia via the Khyber Pass and enslaved the innocent Indians and brainwashed them to follow their divide and rule policy of Manu Dharma dividing the communities into four categories and they become the master of the other communities. Don't you realize that the Gita is responsible for dividing and dehumanising Indian society? Patriotic Indians must expose the Gita. As a result today 90% of the senior positions in the govt. are captured by the Brahmins (humanists.net/avijit/article/oh_hindu_aware .htm). What then the solution for India? The Govt. has innumerable laws but never implemented to remove Brahminical racism even today. Only Muslims and Christians have come out (100% untouchability free) of this racism. But most Dalits are still suffering from the Brahminical racism. According to Islam and Christianity, racism is a big sin. But according to Manu, racism is divine and should be implemented as a duty. To know more please visit: <http://www.geocities.com/indiafas/Hindu/part1.htm>. To cover their fraudulent activities, Brahmins play "conversion" as well as "terrorism" issues to hide their supremacy over other castes. In these issues, they never involve publicly but cunningly motivate the innocent Backwards to fight against their own brothers. Those who realized the Brahmin sinister plans like Periyar EVR, Dr. Ambedkar, Dalit Voice Editor V.T. Rajshekar are not able to break the Brahmin supremacy even today. The only solution is to get out of Hinduism and join other religion which has no racism in it. Tell us how you will make a breakthrough to fight Brahminism. Please type the google search: "Brahmin atrocities". Tears will come to you. We have no hatred against anyone but to get rid of the curse somehow or other during our life time, so that our untouchability curse will be removed forever.

Syed Shahabuddin, D-250, Abul Fazal Enclave, Jamia Nagar, New Delhi - 110 025: This refers to your comment on my Letter regarding the shudras, Dalits and the OBCs. Shudras and Achhuts are sociological terms, OBC and SC are constitutional terms. The group now called Dalit include SC/STs. Shudras are within the chaturvarna but the Achhuts are outside. But the OBCs who enjoy 27% Mandal reservation are all shudras, though some OBCs call themselves

Kshatriyas. Now even some Brahmins claim to be OBCs. But no one calls Dalits as part of Chaturvarna but most sociologists put the OBCs under the chaturvarna. I advise you to obtain the opinion of a top sociologists whether the OBCs are basically shudras. OBC means Backward Classes, other than SC/ST.

The problem of India is our so-called intellectuals including our sociologists are from the Brahminical upper castes, who are also our traditional oppressors. We go by the opinion of the "Father of India", Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, who is the country's topmost social scientist and has given his verdict on every subject pertaining to caste. The chaturvarna consists of only four categories: Brahmin, Kshatriya, Vaishya and shudra. Many OBC castes like the fishermen etc. are OBC in one state and SC in some other state. In some states a particular ethnic identity is a ST and in some other it is SC. The SC/ST/OBCs are all original inhabitants of India. If so how can you put the OBCs under the shudra which is part of the chaturvarna? — EDITOR.

B.G. Bhaware, Jaibhim Nivas, Kolhe Layout, Near Sri Krishna Nagar, Daruha Road, Yavatmal - 445 001: I am surprised to read your article in DV of Nov.1, 08 that you are supporter and admirer of Mayawati. You say you also agree with Kanshi Ram. You tried to show him greater than Dr. Ambedkar. I would request you to read Ahwal-A Mission published by Tej Singh from Delhi.

A.L. Rawal, New Delhi: This refers to the india4dalits@gmail.com (DV Dec.16, 2008). I want to add that Islamic Brotherhood was established in 1920. Their representatives also called on Hitler and praised him for killing Jews. "Hitler: The rise of Evil", a film shown on the History Channel says it.

Prof. K.S. Fiyaz Pasha, 10 - Cherangal Abdul Ghani Saheb Street, Ambur, Vellore dt. - 635 802: I am worried over the relegation of Muslim contribution to science into the background by the Christian West. DV is head and shoulders above other journals because it speaks out the truth and is also known for its free, frank and fearless expression. There is no conflict between the Quran and science. In fact science follows the Quran as shadow follows lamp. Dr. Maurice Bucaille in The Bible, The Quran and Science says: "Whereas monumental errors are to be found in the Bible, I could not find a single error in the Quran. I had to stop and ask myself. If a man (i.e. Prophet Muhammed) was the author of the Quran, how could he have written facts (he could neither read nor write - see the Quran 7:157 and 29:48) in the 7th century

AD that today are shown to be in keeping with modern scientific knowledge? There is not a single verse in the Quran which is assailable from the scientific point of view. The Islamic culture, very much associated with Arabic culture, as derived from the Quran, is full of descriptions of numerous scientific phenomena which are to a very great extent marching with the present-day scientific ideas in spite of the fact that the Quran was revealed 14 centuries ago. Examples of scientific ideas appear in the Quran in such subjects on the creation, astronomy, aspects concerning the earth, animal kingdom, vegetables and human reproduction. But the works of Muslim scientists and technologists are virtually unknown either due to the fact that the Christian West has deliberately neglected them or in many cases Islamic scientific ideas were adopted by the Western Christian scholars who attributed the work to themselves. For example while no one can doubt the genius of Copernicus and his heliocentric model of the solar system in heralding the age of modern astronomy, it is not commonly known that he relied on the work carried out by Arab astronomous many centuries earlier. Many of his diagrams and calculations were taken from the manuscripts of the 14th century Syrian astronomer, Ibn al-Shatir. Why is he never mentioned in our textbooks? We are reliably informed at school that Issac Newton is the undisputed father of modern optics. School science books abound with his famous experiments with lenses and prisms, his study of the nature of light and its reflection and the refraction and decomposition of light into the colours of the rainbow. But Newton stood on the shoulders of a giant who lived 700 years earlier. For without doubt one of the greatest of the Abbasid scientists was the Iraqi Ibn al Haytham (born in 965 AD) who is regarded as the world's first physicist and as the father of the modern scientific method long before the renaissance scholars such as Bacon and Descartes. We are taught that English physician William Harvey was the first to correctly describe blood circulation in 1616. He was not. The first to give the correct description was the 13th century Andalusian physician, Ibn al-Nafees. A 9th century Iraqi zoologist, Al-Jahith, developed a rudimentary theory of natural selection a thousands year before Charles Darwin. In his book of animals, he speculates on how environmental factors can affect the characteristics of species, forcing them to adapt and then pass on those new traits to future generations. This is how the Western Christian scholars copied Islamic scientific ideas in their works and proclaimed to the world that they were the pioneers in scientific discoveries. Islamic science is today receiving increasing attention both in its historic and contemporary aspects. This appears in the influence of Islamic science on the Christian West in astronomy, physics, biology, medicine, chemistry and mathematics. Western Christian scientists themselves recognize Muslim achievements and contribution to civilization. In other words, European Christians themselves owe their debt of gratitude to the Arabs for the transmission of knowledge to Christian Europe. For example Gustav Lisban pithily remarks:

It was the Arabs who unveiled to Christian Europe the world of scientific, literate and philosophical knowledge that it had not known before. They civilized us and taught us for six centuries. Translations of Arabic books especially the scientific books remained almost the sole source for teaching in the universities of Christian Europe for five or six centuries. And if there is a nation that we admit that we owe for having the knowledge about the ancient world that nation would be the Arab nation. Thus the world should be eternally grateful to the Arabs for saving those precious treasures.

Unfortunately Muslims of the present do not even know about the outstanding scientists of their community thanks to Americans and Europeans who have taken up all their name and fame. But historically interested people are well aware of the large contributions of medieval Islamic scholars on European thought. Even the teachings of Aristotle and Ptolemy would not have reached Christian Europe in the Middle Ages had it not been for Islamic scholars who preserved their writings. Indeed the Islamic world can rightfully take pride in this time of flourishing scientific thought that dates back about a thousand years. When the Western Christian scholars themselves have adopted Islamic scientific ideas in their works which paved the way for Christian Europe to become the leader of modern civilization and it goes without saying that the modern Western Christian civilisation and culture are raised on Islamic foundations there is no reason why there should not be a peaceful coexistence between Islamic culture and culture of West. For example Haji Abdul Kareem Germanus remarks in Contribution of Islam to World Civilisation and Culture, there never was a fundamental difference between Islamic culture and the culture of West as both have profited by the self-same sources of Hellenism. In the light of what I have said there is no need for a clash between Islam and the West as Samuel P. Huntington has unreasonably argued in his The Clash of Civilisations. We do not believe in a clash of civilizations. What we believe is in enrichment of the human condition through cultural inclusiveness and a confluence of civilizations.

There fore it is high time the Christian laity set aside its religious leadership and assert itself and declare that they have nothing against Muslims and Islam (V.T. Rajshekar)

For centuries Muslims were world leaders in the field of scientific learning. Then slowly the leadership began to slip away. Muslims had failed in their leadership role and the Christian Europe came to fill the vacuum created by the Muslims. As there is intimate relationship between the Quran and science it is only by putting science to perfect use according to the ethics of the Quran, will the Muslims once again provide inspiring leadership to the world and make the world safe for humanity. The British and the Americans have scant respect for Asians and their lives. This has been demonstrated in Jallianwala Bagh, Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Vietnam, Iraq, Afghanistan and Palestine. It is time the lessons of history are learnt by the leaders of the coloured nations that racial prejudice and gender bias have come into the 21st century and the Blacks, Browns and Yellows must hang together or be prepared to suffer the fate of Afghanistan, Iraq and Palestine.

S. Thangasamy, Advocate, Marx Illam, 114 - Paul Nagar, Sankar Nagar, Tirunelveli - 627 357: This refers to your version in your new book, Know the Hindu Mind (DSA-2008, Rs. 100) that India's micro-minority upper castes (Aryans) about 15% of the country's population (page 8) and that we have two types of education, "dual education system" (page 35). Dr. Whitley Stokes, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Judicature, Calcutta, in 1907 made an observation that the term Hindu is used in Sec.331 of the Indian Succession Act 1865 as a theological term and denotes only person who profess faith in the Brahminical religion or the religion of the Puranas (Puranas are literary works of Aryan Brahmins) (Calcutta Weekly Notes, page 158). The 1911 census report defines a Hindu and a non-Hindu as follows:

Hindu:- (1). One who accepts the supremacy of Brahmins. (2). One who accepts and follows the Vedas. (3). One who worships the Aryan gods and goddesses. (4) One who receives and recites mantras. (5) One who does not become Untouchable by being touched by others. (6) One who does not eat beef. (7) One who observes cow worship.

Non-Hindu:- (1) One who does not accept the supremacy of Brahmins. (2) One who does not accept the initiation of a recognized Hindu religious guru or an Aryan Brahmin. (3) One who refutes the Vedas and sastras of the Hindus. (4) One who does not worship the Hindu gods and goddesses. (5) One who does not have Arya Brahmin as his guru under any circumstances. (6) One who is not allowed to enter into Hindu temples. (7) One who commits defilement either by keeping a particular distance from the Brahmins or by touching them. (8) One who buries the dead. (9) One who doesn't observe cow worship. (10) One who takes beef as food.

The Hindu Law gives a negative definition, namely persons who do not belong to Christianity, Mohammadan, Jew or Sikhism are deemed to be Hindu. The word religion has not been defined in the Constitution of India. You have stated in your book "a dual education system is in force" (page 35). As a matter of fact, eight types of education have been introduced in Tamil Nadu with different syllabus, viz, state board, oriental education, matriculation system, Navodaya, military school, Kendra Vidyalaya, international residential schools like Arcad International at Salem dt. Syllabus, mode of selection of students, mode of recruitment of teachers, fee structure, method of teaching and coaching are quite different. Briefly speaking haves and havenots are divided well in the field of education in "independent" India. Therefore India has only 3% (latest survey 2.1%) Brahmins in the total population of India. The so-called minorities such as Muslims, Christians may be roughly 22%. The remaining 75% of the total population are non-Hindus and they have been brought to the Hindu fold with an oblique motive to show that Hindus are majority in India. The Brahminical forces have succeeded in making themselves under the yoke of Brahminism. The hegemony of Brahminism is well protected and preserved in the interests Brahmins under the pretext of "Hindu majority" in India. As long as non-Hindu accepts himself as Hindu, knowingly or unknowingly, he is no doubt a Brahmin slave because Hinduism is nothing but Brahminism. The venom of Brahminism is slowly and steadily injected into the minds of non-Hindus in the name of Hinduism. So every non-Brahmin should come forward to think sensibly and remove the stigma "Hindu", a symbol of Brahminical slavery.

Naresh Bhagat, H.No. 83 - Kabir Nagar, Talab Tilloo, Jammu - 180 002: The most notorious concept of "social engineering" at the cost of "social transformation" has resulted in the defeat of the BSP in the just concluded J&K Assembly election. The BSP suffered in all the 87 seats and all the contesting candidates fortified their deposits except three candidates. The experiment being conducted in its UP laboratory cannot be a standard formula for the explicit reason that "lambs and wolves cannot co-exist unless and until grass-eating lambs are converted into meat-eating tigers with sophisticated Ambedkarism". In the J&K state the formation of Bahujan Samaj (Ambedkarisation of SC/ST/BCs and Muslims) is still an unaccomplished task. Though the BAMCEF of Waman Meshram is churning the process of social transformation in a couple of districts of Jammu yet it is confined only to govt. employees. The BSP cadre has suffered a lot due to the infiltration of deadliest virus of Brahminism in the form of "social engineering". Such a counter-productive process has not only resulted in the debacle of BSP. The BSP state leadership is corrupt. There is an urgent need to beef up the party in the state. Sister Mayawati is requested through Dalit Voice to remove the deadwood to prevent the collapse of BSP. The corrupt leadership sold the mandate of BSP to a corrupt officer (a former additional deputy commissioner) against former Speaker of the State Tara Chand. The BSP candidate did not file his nomination and thus paved way for a narrow victory of Tara Chand who was facing sure defeat. If Sister Mayawati fails to kick out the corrupt leadership of state, the party will face disaster.

Ram Janam Ram, SPM (LSG), Sadat, Ghazipur - 275 204: In the recent Assembly elections in Delhi, MP, Chhattisgarh, Rajasthan and Mizoram, BSP was instrumental in defeating the Congress in at least 36 seats in MP. The BSP May not have fulfilled the expectations of forcing hung Assembly in MP and Delhi but there is a little doubt that BSP registered its strong presence significantly in four of the five states barring Mizoram and caused considerable damage to the Congress. BSP opened its account in Delhi by winning two seats and improved its tally in Rajasthan up to six from two last time and MP up to eight from two and maintained its tally of two seats in Chhattisgarh. Apart from these wins the BSP polled over 10% of votes in MP, Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan and 14% in Delhi. Such increments at progress is ominous for Brahmana Jati Party *(BJP) and the Congress (B team of BJP). The BSP grew in exactly the same way in UP and in the process reduced the BJP and Congress to political insignificance. It is clear that with the BSP making its presence clearly felt almost across the Hindi heartland, there is the exciting possibilities of a third alternative arising by the time of the Lok Sabha elections.

Temple wealth must be used for Bahujan education

G.L. NAIK, 921 - SARASWATIBHAVAN, KHURSAWADA, KAJUBAG, KARWAR - 581 301

The Gomantak, a Marathi daily (April 20, 2008) reports that there are 2,06,000 temples in Karnataka as compared to the schools and the health care centres which are hardly 1,16,000 and 38,360 respectively. The Maratha Marg monthly (July 2007) says there are 4.5 lakh temples in Maharashtra with an annual income of Rs. 45,000 crores as compared to the state annual budget of hardly Rs. 34,000 crores.

SUPERSTRUCTURE OF SLAVERY

From the above data it is possible to estimate the total number of temples in the whole of India. It works out to over 42 lakhs. The 2001 census also says that there are 42 lakh temples in the entire country.

The Brahminical religion has 33-crore gods, hundreds of shastras, 42 lakh temples and double the number of parasitic priests to enslave and exploit all the Bahujans by preaching all sorts of fictions in the temple premises. The multitude of priests dupe the gullible Bahujans by instilling fear in their hearts about their god and religion and force them to part with their hard earned money for rites and rituals to attain salvation. Besides, the reactionary priests manage the affairs of the "Hindu religion" all over the country in a secretive way.

VARNASHRAMA DHARMA SLAVERY

The purana teachings have no rationality, no scientific base and their intellectual level is just equal to the nursery fairy tales.

The sanctified Varnashrama Dharma (caste discrimination order) is the most inhuman and extremely cruel. It imposes slavery over the Bahujan. All the shastras sanctify the relationship between Brahmin as a master and the Bahujans as slaves. The masters are authorised to carry out rapacious exploitation of the Bahujan in each and every field of human life. Besides this, all the shastras ordain all privileges and rights only on the Brahmin and deny the same to the Bahujan. That is how they become rich and the proxy rulers of the land since ages ad Bahujans are absolutely poor and deprived. UNDP-2008 report for India states that 80.4% population earns less than two dollars per day, and 34.3% earns less than one dollar per day.

BAN ON EDUCATION

The cunning Brahmins wanted to attain full and complete success for their scheme of enslaving and dodging of the Bahujan by their puranic preachings. So, the Brahmin rulers of the country decided to ban the education to all the Bahujans. In the year BC 185, Brahmins attained the success in the counter-revolution by destroying Buddhism. So they banned the education to Bahujans and nipped in the bud their rational thinking power from the brain.

Such an awful act of ban on education to the masses in the country had not taken place anywhere in the world.

The ban on education continued for ages, and only recently (AD 1882), after 2,067 years it was lifted. The ban was result of the life-long struggle by the first great social revolutionary leader of India, Mahatma Jyotirao Phule (1827-1890). He wrote his great book, Gulamgiri, in Marathi to liberate Bahujans from the socio-religious slavery of the Hindu religion and made an appeal in the same book to the kind English people to lift the ban on Bahujan education in the country. Those days the British used to educate only the Brahmins and upper castes.

TEMPLES & THEIR FABULOUS WEALTH

The total annual income which India's temples as a whole get comes to Rs. 12,01,00 crores and they possess 12,800 metric tons of gold as deposit with them (Maratha Marg, July 2007, p.29). All kings in the country were gifting hundreds of acres of land to the temples. There is no estimate of the land they possess.

AMARNATH LAND ROW

The administration was dodging the autonomy demand by the Kashmiri Muslims for several decades. But the govt. allotted 40 hectares of Kashmiri land to the Amarnath temple in an unfair manner. This created a land row in the Kashmir Valley. The Kashmiri Muslims protested in a peaceful manner against the injustice but 25 people were killed.

What is happening inside these temples nobody knows. Even Gandhi has said that the temples are the houses of prostitutes (Rationalist Voice, June-July 2008, p.5).

Therefore, the administration must put an end to the practice of misuse of temple wealth. All temple wealth belongs to the Bahujans and it should be utilised for their education as 60% Bahujans are still deliberately kept out without education.

Brahminism among Bahujans is more dangerous than the Brahmin

Brahmins form a micro-minority of less than 3% of our population and naturally they will do whatever they want for their survival and also to retain the leadership of the country. Brother Naik, must say what he and his people, who comprise the overwhelming Bahujan (85%), are doing to fight the "temple menace". It is they who flock to these temples and pour their wealth to feed the Brahmins. Even their homes they worship Brahmin gods and are completely Brahminised

(hindulised) in their thinking and action. Did we heed the warnings given by our great guides like Periyar E.V. Ramaswamy, Dr. Ambedkar etc.? They have given us all the lessons, but did we follow it? What is the use of criticising Brahmins? We can't be only against temple wealth being misused but not against the mental corruption it promotes. That is why we say Brahminism among the Bahujans is more difficult to fight than the Brahmins — EDITOR.

Arzals not a separate Muslim sect

SYED SHAHABUDDIN, D-250, ABUL FAZAL ENCLAVE, JAMIA NAGAR, NEW DELHI - 110 025

This refers to your article on "Backward Muslims" in your issue of March 1, 2008 (p.12). The article has confused two distinct questions. The so-called Arzals are not subject to the same pattern of discrimination as the SCs but they are treated by the rest of the Muslim Indian society as socially inferior and hence inter-marriage with them is avoided. On the first question, I am not aware of any section of Muslim Indian society which does not support as a matter of principle the inclusion of Muslim Dalits, indeed all such groups irrespective of religion, on the basis of ethnic, vocational parity with Hindu SC, in the SC list.

Muslim OBC not ready to join SC: In the meantime, in some states Muslim Dalits have been included, as in Bihar, in the list of OBCs because they were not included in the SC list and within OBCs along with some others they have been grouped as Most Backward Class (MBC).

But whether as OBC or MBC, all Muslim groups in the OBC list face unequal and stiff competition with more advanced non-Muslim OBCs. Therefore, the real question is whether the Muslim community (which constitutes a Backward Class, according to Sachar Report) should have a separate sub-quota within the OBC quota, subject to preference for the notified groups, which are now in the OBC list. Contrary to what is being said, no Muslim OBC wishes to join the SC list. The population of Muslim Dalits is so small and so scattered that they cannot make any impact on electoral benefits enjoyed by the SCs.

The second question is whether the Arzals form a separate sect. No, they do not. Sect is not co-terminus with social, economic or educational status. Sect is a purely theological concept, equivalent to denomination. In Indian Islam, the Hanafi sect predominates apart from some Hanbalis and Shafeis and Jaafris. The Hanafis are now divided in the popular mind between Deobandis and Barelvīs.

US planning another 9/11?

Moscow (Pravda): Is the US going to put dictatorship into effect under the guise of the anti-terrorist struggle? What may trigger another major transformation in 2009? The answer is obvious: another 9/11 in the US.

Terrible and bloody events are in store for the world in the beginning of 2009. Most likely the world will witness a reality show with a nuclear blast which will be used as a reason for the US to change the world order again and leave the new Great Depression behind. The political elite in the US is certain that they would soon suffer another mammoth terrorist act. This assumption became the subject of Michael Chossudovsky's article "A second 9/11: An Integral Party of US military doctrine."

DV proves right

The Russian news agency has predicted another 9/11. Does it not confirm the DV report that WTC "terrorist" attack (9/11) was engineered to provoke attack on Islam? — EDITOR.

DV Feb.1, 2007 p.19: "DV report on Israeli hand in 9/11 finally proves right".

Dr. Kancha Ilaiah discovers Budha as world's first greatest philosopher

DR. V.D. CHANDANSHIVE, SHAHU NAGAR, NANDED - 431 602

An important aspect of Buddhism which has been kept unexplored has been brought to the fore by Dr. Kancha Ilaiah in his monumental research paper published by Dr. Ashok Gaikwad on behalf of Kaushalya Prakashan, Aurangabad, under the title Budhism as Political Philosophy (2008). It will go a long way in understanding Buddhist thought in its various aspects which have been neglected the world over by the Buddhist community. It is indeed a sorry state of affairs that such a universal thought has been reduced to the level of such exercises as meditation and Vipassana.

Dr. Ilaiah says that Buddhism is not a religion in the traditional sense and the Budha is not a god. And this argument appears the most rational and scientific because Buddhism is a philosophical thought having more than one aspect. As every universal thought has multiplicity of aspects Buddhism too is no exception to this. Buddhism carries with it social, economic, political, psychological and spiritual aspects. But we do not come across any serious research being carried on these aspects.

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar has covered all the aspects of the Buddhist thought in his magnum opus, The Buddha & His Dhamma. What the Buddhists have to do is uncover these aspects to comprehend fully and propagate it by enhancing research instead of sitting passively for hours together in Vipassana posture.

World's first philosopher: Dr. Ilaiah in his research paper has very effectively, proved that the Budha was world's first ancient political thinker who had propounded the theory of origin of state called the Theory of Social Contract. In the discipline of political science the origin of this theory has been attributed to the French thinkers: Hobbes, Locke and Rousseau in the 17th and 18th centuries. Dr. Ilaiah regrets that in India the study of ancient Indian political thought was neglected for a long time and it is only recently that such a study has been undertaken by the political scientists.

According to him the Budha had put forth his social contract theory 150 years before Plato and Aristotle. The Budha was more interested in class formation in the Indian society opposing the caste system.

Dr. Ilaiah also analyses the Budha's stand on private property which was in his opinion the cause of human misery. So the Budha had prescribed very strict rules for Bhikkhu Sangha about possessing private property. He had even prescribed punishment in the event of breaking the rules. He says the Budha was striving to save the democracy and the principle of collective ownership of property prevalent in primitive tribal republics of his time which were vanishing as monarchy was catching up very fast. He preserved democracy and collective ownership (state ownership in marxist parlance) in the Sangha.

What is noteworthy is some 3,000 years ago the concept of nationalization was put forth by the Budha in ancient times.

We can conclude today that a unique model of democracy and socialism was invented by him. From Budha's model only Babasaheb developed his theory of state socialism or democratic socialism which can be of immense use in the days of global economic meltdown caused by abusing capitalism.

Women's freedom: Another very significant aspect of Buddhist thought concerned with women's freedom has been discussed by the author. Those were times when women were being considered as private property under the changing conditions. As such religious freedom was totally denied to them. Dr. Ilaiah argues that the Budha also was initially confused over giving religious freedom to women when his foster mother Mahaprajapati insisted upon women's inclusion in the sangha. In the beginning he refused the proposal. But after serious discussion with Ananda he finally concedes the demand and permits formation of separate sangha of Buddhist nuns.

He says that Budha could not go beyond that as no more domestic freedom was given to them. But even then Budha stands as a prominent figure to give religious freedom to women in ancient India when Brahminism had thoroughly enslaved women under the caste system. The system of monogamous marriage had begun in Budha's time and he had to prescribe rules about domestic chores for wives and marriageable girls.

Though we cannot totally agree with some of the points expressed by Dr. Ilaiah, still his research paper will serve as landmark in the annals of Buddhist literature for making Budha stand as the first ancient political thinker of the world. He finally concludes that the Budha threw the greatest challenge to Brahminism through his doctrine.

In short, Dr. Kancha Ilaiah's research is quite enlightening and insightful to Buddhist scholars all over the world. Therefore, I could not resist the temptation of translating the booklet into Marathi language. Those interested in the booklet may get it on the above address.

Vipassana controllers use chamchas to attack Dalit Voice

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: The ongoing DV Debate on Buddhism and Vipassana in particular has provoked a virulent attack on the Editor. Such of those Dalit-Buddhists who have lost the Ambedkarite fire are being instigated by the Brahminical controllers of Vipassana to target the Editor.

DV had a six-year long Debate on Buddhism from March 1, 2001 to Jan. 1, 2006. We also held two meetings on the subject in Delhi and Hyderabad. Even the worst critics of DV were invited to write their opinions which were published.

RESORT TO ABUSE

But what is now happening is one or two internet groups are resorting to personal attacks as they have lost all intellectual ammunitions. Such criticisms are not coming from our DV family members. These "critics" read DV in Internet and as they have no logical arguments they resort to abuse.

Be that as it may, the point to be noted is the DV Debate has created so much of heat that the Vipassana traders are fearing loss of business.

One interesting feature of the criticism is that in their enthusiasm to please their masters, they are actually strengthening Brahminism, India's principal enemy. Some critics are actually speaking the language of our enemy oppressor.

EDITOR'S CASTE

Some of them have gone even into the caste of the Editor although he never made a secret about it. The Editor belonged to a Backward Caste called the Bunts of South Kanara in West Coast Karnataka. But he has left his caste long, long back, even dropping his surname when he plunged into the Dalit movement and later embraced Buddhism (1993). (Eva-Maria Hardtmann, The Dalit Movement in India — Local Practices, Global Connections, 2009, Oxford University Press, New Delhi, Rs. 675).

Another charge is that the Editor is a "strong Periyarist-OBC". This is a fact. Babasaheb has acknowledged three persons as his gurus: Budha, Kabir and Mahatma Phule:

"All the great revolutionaries like Phule, Shahu Maharaj and Namdev were BCs. They created Kabir and Ravidas. All the gurus of Babasaheb attacked only the Brahmins". (DV Nov. 1, 2003 p.16: "All Gurus of Dr. Ambedkar were BCs", Gurnam Singh).

Mahatma Phule, an OBC (Mali caste) was Babasaheb's guru. Even Shahu Maharaj, a Maratha, who was responsible for educating Babasaheb belonged to Backward Caste. Periyar E.V. Ramaswamy of Tamil Nadu was a great admirer of Babasaheb and they met in Lucknow to jointly fight the Brahminism.

WHO IS THE PRINCIPAL ENEMY

Babasaheb in all his writings and speeches has acknowledged Brahminism as India's principal enemy. But the critics of the Editor differ, though calling themselves Ambedkarites.

The Bahujan concept developed by Budha was adopted by Babasaheb. And Kanshi Ram took it as his party's name. The Bahujan includes SC/ST/BCs and Muslim/Christian/Sikhs.

DON'T CRITICISE BRAHMINS

But our critics say that OBCs and Muslims should not be included in Bahujan. They have no objection to include the Brahmins, the principal contradiction.

The critics main argument is that the Dalit movement should not work against Brahminism. But Babasaheb in all his writings and speeches identified India's principal enemy as Brahminism. Our critics say Brahmins should not be criticised. This is the first time we are hearing such an argument in the 28-year-old history of Dalit Voice.

DV held a long Debate in 2003 on the subject: "Who is the real enemy of Dalits?" The overwhelming opinion was Brahminism. Of course there is no Brahminism without the Brahmin.

Yet another critics say the Editor is not using "acceptable language" in DV. What the person means is the Editor is very harsh in his criticism of Brahmins and Brahminism. DV family members who have read Babasaheb's voluminous literature says his language is much more harsh before which ours is nothing.

Since Brahminism is universally accepted as the principal contradiction how is it possible to educate our people on this principal contradiction without naming the enemy?

These critics of the Editor want to bring about social change without harming the principal force against social change. In other words these critics are nothing but chamchas of the principal enemy

One important aspect about these critics of DV is these handful of fellows belong to one or two Internet groups who read DV on our website. But our DV Internet Edition is read by over 50,000 people all over the world. And all of them have great praise for our work.

The problem with these handful of critics is they are speaking on behalf of their masters. They don't write to us directly. They are not serious readers. Their job is mere hate-mongering on behalf of their Brahminical masters. We wish them all success.

Brahminism has flourished in India only because of such bum-lickers. M.K. Gandhi was the most famous heading the list. Finally he was shot dead by the very fellows who made use of his bum-licking which never pays

In defence of Dalit Voice

P.P. LAKSHMAN, NEW YORK

Dalit Voice was started some 25 years ago, and I used to read it at least some 20 years ago when there was none of its kind. DV appeared to me then as the voice of the voiceless. I could also articulate my feelings through its columns, while few other papers were willing to help me with.

The Dalit movement has gone through different phases. There are now many scholars giving directions, more than ever before. It was a great delight for me to read DV in the eighties when it examined every social and political issue from the point of view of the Brahminical Social Order and it went on drumbeating the evil BSO.

VTR had a flair for statistics which left an imprint on the minds of his readers. I hold him in high regard for his articulation, his statistics and his journalistic skills. As regards the recent attacks on VTR, if my memory is reliable, I think he had answered most of the specific questions asked about him in some issue or other of DV.

I recall him saying that he had been known earlier as V.T. Rajashekar Shetty, and that he is shudra by caste, and so on. As for his specific sub-caste, I do not know. I do not always agree with VTR, particularly when he writes about Buddhism or meditation. He is ignorant about both.

As an octogenarian, I take liberty to advise him as an elder brother and request him to try to learn what he does not know. He is much older than when he was 25 years ago, and I am hopeful that he can change as we all do with time. (pplakshman08@gmail.com)

DV's hard-hitting attack on India's principal Brahminical enemy caused the present backlash. That means our attacks are hurting the enemy. And it is bleeding. Good. The problem is the enemy does not directly attack us. It employs some stooges among Dalits. They did with Dr. Ambedkar also. As an expert on Brahminism, we know how it behaves. Brother Lakshman's response was, however, dignified. But as a democrat believing in freedom of press, he can't object to a Debate on Buddhism. For his information all these participants in our DV Debate are also ardent Budhists — EDITOR.

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Bangalore: Many times we have said that if anybody wants to write a truthful history of India it can be written only in the letters of blood. This is also true of Buddhism which the Brahminical forces killed. Its end of his life and always carried a sword. And asked his followers to wage war against the enemy. DV was the first in India to reveal about the Kadgadhari Budha. Our AP representative wrote about a stone idol of Kadgadhari Budha found in eastern Andhra Pradesh over 20 years ago. Prof. Abul Qasem of the Max Muller Bhavan, Calcutta, said he had seen a stone idol of Kadgadhari Budha in the Calcutta National Museum. But six months back when he went again to take its picture the museum authorities said the idol had been moved into the strong room. Brahminical people want to hide the facts of history. Now Sher Singh, IAS (retd), sends a picture of the Kadgadhari Budha found in a German (Berlin) Museum. A stone idol numbered IC-1065. Besides we have many pictures of the Budha with sword from Tibet. But when we publish all these facts, enemies of Buddhism say that DV is distorting history by giving a false picture of Budha who, they say, always preached love and stood for peace and non-violence. All over India they have destroyed or hidden Kadgadhari Budha. So many idols of Budha are found with the right wrist cut. That reveals the enemy mischief.

They also say how did DV discover all these things which even the "Modern Budha", Babasaheb Ambedkar, could not. The answer lies in the power of Brahminism — which killed Buddhism — to convert Truth into lies and vice-versa.
